Attorney for Julie Stephensen

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of: JULIE STEPHENSON, Petitioner, and SCOTT STEPHENSON, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264902222 Judge Todd M. Shaughnessy Commissioner Renee Blocher

This matter having been submitted to the Court upon the Petitioner's Petition for Divorce setting forth jurisdiction and grounds, the parties having signed a Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement resolving all claims between the parties, and the Court having reviewed the files and records herein and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, and the Court having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. The parties are awarded a divorce one from another breaking the bonds of matrimony now existing between them.

Provisions Relating to Jurisdiction

2. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
3. The parties resided in the marital relationship in the State of Utah, or the acts complained of by the Petitioner were committed by the Respondent in the State of Utah and therefore this Court has long-arm jurisdiction over the Respondent pursuant to U.C.A. § 78B-3-205.
4. The Petitioner and the Respondent were married on September 16, 2020, at Salt Lake County, Utah and are presently married. The parties separated on or about April 1, 2026.

Provisions Relating to Grounds

5. During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

Provisions Relating to the Children of the Parties

6. There are no minor children resulting from this marriage and none are expected.

Provisions Relating to Debts and Obligations

7. The Respondent is ordered to assume and pay, and hold the Petitioner harmless from liability on, all debts and obligations incurred by the parties prior to the Decree of Divorce. Thereafter, it is reasonable and proper that all debts and obligations contracted by the parties shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt.

Provisions Relating to Personal Property

8. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The following personal property shall be awarded to the parties:
 - a. To Petitioner: 2016 GMC Sierra.
 - b. To Respondent: 2006 Toyota Highlander.
9. Each party shall be awarded all bank accounts, investment accounts, and any other financial assets in their name.

Provisions Relating to Real Property

10. Prior to the marriage, Petitioner acquired certain real property as her separate property to wit:
 - a. A home located at 5530 S. Nez Perce Dr., Kearns, UT 84118.
 - b. The home is her separate property and is awarded solely to Petitioner, subject to any debt associated therewith, which she shall be responsible for.

Provisions Relating to Alimony

11. Each party is fully capable of providing for themselves, and as such, neither party shall be awarded alimony from the other now or forever hereafter.

Provisions Relating to Pension and Related Assets

12. The parties have retirement accounts or assets, such retirement accounts or assets shall be awarded to the person in whose name they are in.

13. Each party shall be awarded their own separate property from inheritance or other sources.

Miscellaneous Provisions

14. Restoration of Maiden Name: Julie's name shall be restored to Julie McGill, if she so chooses.
15. Attorney's Fees: The parties agree that each shall be responsible to pay their own attorney's fees and costs.
16. Neither party shall use the other party's name, likeness, image, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for service, to post to websites such as Facebook or other social media.
17. Each party has the right to dispose of his or her property by last will and testament in such manner as such party may deem proper in the sole discretion of such party. Each party waives the right to receive any of the other party's inherited property or intellectual property.
18. Delivery of Documents: Each party agrees to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court.
19. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title, including Quit Claim Deeds, or any other documents necessary to implement the terms of the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement to facilitate the entry of their Decree of Divorce.

20. Disclosure: The parties acknowledge that each has fully and completely disclosed to the other all assets of every kind and nature known to him or her in which he or she may have any interest whatsoever, and that this Agreement encompasses and deals with all such assets and that there are no assets or liabilities contingent or otherwise that have not been disclosed in connection with the final settlement of this matter through the financial declarations and as herein set forth and to be distributed between the parties. If it is later discovered that a party failed to disclose an asset, the other party may be awarded the entirety of that asset.
21. Notice to Creditors. Pursuant to §15-4-6.5(3)(b) each party shall be required to provide notice to each creditor of the parties following the entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter, indicating the liability between the parties as to each debt of the parties, and providing each such creditor with the address of the party liable for that debt pursuant to the terms of the Decree of Divorce.
22. MODIFICATION. If either party desires to modify the Decree of Divorce, then they shall first give notice to the other party and participate in mediation in good faith regarding their desired modification.
