Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of:

SARAH KAY ROBINSON,

Petitioner,

ADAM DANIEL ROBINSON,

Respondent.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Civil No.: 264901411

JUDGE: TERESA WELCH

COMMISSIONER: RUSSELL MINAS

The above-captioned matter having come before the above-referenced Court, the Court having reviewed the file and finding the necessary pleadings in the file, the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised states:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

Jurisdiction and Grounds

- 1. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of SALT LAKE County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §30-3-1(2).
- 2. Respondent is a bona fide resident of the State of NORTH CAROLINA.

3. The parties were married on June 10, 2023, in Jacksonville, State of North Carolina, and are presently married. The parties separated on or about March 14, 2024.

4. During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship and shall be granted a divorce on such grounds.

5. There are no minor children born of the marriage, and none are expected.

Assets and Debts

6. Real Property: The parties did not acquire any real property.

7. Personal Property: Each party shall receive and keep as his or her own separate property all personal property brought into the marriage, or separate property received during the marriage by gift, inheritance, or devise.

8. During the course of the marriage, the parties DID NOT acquire personal marital property. Any property shall be amicably and equitably divided between the parties by mutual agreement and each party shall assume all responsibility, liability and/or debt on the property in their divided unto them or in their possession and hold the other party harmless therefrom.

9. Vehicles: Any vehicles acquired by the parties have been divided previously and shall remain the same. The parties shall assume all responsibility, liability, and/or debt on the vehicles in their possession and hold the other party harmless therefrom.

10. The parties shall make available to each other for copying (the expense of which shall be borne by the person the copies are made for) all family pictures, videos, and other family memorabilia in his/her respective possession, the original copies of which shall be promptly returned to the party presently in possession thereof.

11. Debts and Obligations: The parties shall be ordered to assume and pay, and hold each other harmless from liability on, all debts and obligations incurred individually and in their own names by the parties after their date of separation, on or about March 14, 2024. Thereafter, it is reasonable and proper that all debts and obligations contracted by the parties shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt.

12. Marital Debt: All marital debts shall be divided using the party's name who is currently on the debt. If both parties' names are on a debt, that debt will be equally divided between the parties or remain with the party holding the property for which the debt was incurred as referenced above.

Credit Cards: Any jointly-titled credit card or other credit accounts shall be closed and re-opened in either Respondent's or Petitioner's respective individual name.

13. Each party shall be responsible for any debt individually incurred after the date of the parties' separation date.

14. If there exists any other marital debts that are not known at this time, those debts shall be paid by the party who incurred such debt or split equally if incurred jointly.

15. Each party shall be ordered to notify all joint creditors, by service upon each creditor of a copy of the Decree of Divorce hereinafter entered, they are divorced, expressly advising such creditors, in writing, of their separate, current address and of the Court's division of debt, obligations or liabilities regarding those joint debts the Petitioner and Respondent is ordered to assume respectively, pay upon and hold the other party harmless therefrom. By notice to such creditors, shall thereafter be required in accordance with U.C.A. §15-4-6.5 to provide to the parties individually all statements, notices, and other similar correspondence required by law or under their respective contracts with the parties.

16. Should either party fail to pay the debts as herein specified and/or notify their respective creditors or obliges as herein provided, the Court may hold the defaulting party in contempt and/or reopen the property division to compensate the party not otherwise in default, and the court shall find remedy of the default as the Court deems fair and equitable.

17. Asset Accounts: The parties' asset accounts and assets (i.e. bank accounts, investments, etc.) shall be divided equally as of the date of separation. Any joint accounts shall be divided equally between the parties, with all joint accounts being closed and the funds divided equally between the parties as of the date of separation.

18. Retirement: The parties may have acquired certain retirement accounts during the course of the marriage. The parties' retirement shall each retain their respective individual retirement accounts as their own sole personal account with both parties refraining from making claim to the other party's said retirement account(s).

Miscellaneous

19. Cooperation: The Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

20. Prior Name: Petitioner shall be allowed to maintain her marital last name or return to her former last name if she chooses.

21. Attorney's Fees: Each party shall be responsible for their own attorney fees so long as this action is uncontested. If this matter is contested, Respondent shall be responsible for any and all attorney fees for both parties.

22. Alimony: Both parties are educated and/or trained in the career of their choosing and capable of being gainfully employed and able to provide for their individual support and as such, no alimony is needed and none shall be awarded past, present or future.

23. Documents: Each party shall be ordered to sign all necessary documents, deeds, or conveyances as are needed to transfer property, vehicles or other assets as divided by the Decree of Divorce. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays for entry of a Decree of Divorce pursuant to the terms of this Petition.
