Attorney - Mediator

Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of

JACOB AZERA,

Petitioner,

and

JENNA AZERA,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 264902070

Judge: Coral Sanchez

Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

The Petitioner, Jacob Azera, and the Respondent, Jenna Azera, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There was one minor child born or adopted between the parties, to wit: E.K.A. (born September 2023).
2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.
3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Parent-time with the minor child shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule, then beginning June 1, 2026, Petitioner shall exercise parent-time as follows:
 - a. Every Monday overnight. On the weeks that are not Petitioner's weekend, Petitioner shall pick the minor child up from school on Monday, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session, and drop the minor child off at school Tuesday morning, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.
 - b. Every other Saturday from 4:00 PM to Wednesday by dropping the minor child off at school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.
4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by April 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by April 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-303 and as follows:

6. The minor children shall continue to attend their current school and feeder schools unless the parties mutually agree in writing to transfer schools. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves more than 30 miles away from their current residence, the parties will revisit the issue of parent time and custody.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $3,688.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently unemployed however based on her experience and ability to work, it is reasonable and appropriate to impute her to a gross monthly income of $3,466.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $3,688.00 with 145 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $3,466.00 with 220 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 et seq a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $292.00 per month beginning June 1, 2026. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then it shall be determined by the preference of the custodial parent. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Respondent's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Petitioner's shall be considered secondary.

b. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work and education related child care expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur child care expenses shall begin paying his or her share of child care expenses to the parent who does incur child care expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs child care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, & MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

14. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor child:

- a. Cell phones
- b. Car insurance
- c. School fees and costs
- d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the children participate are approved.
- e. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

15. The parties shall share equally in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes with Petitioner claiming E.K.A. in even years and Respondent claiming E.K.A. in odd years.

16. For the Petitioner to claim the minor child, he must be current on all his child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

17. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

18. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. Said personal property shall be divided among the parties in a fair and equitable fashion as agreed upon by the parties.

19. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

Vehicle	Awarded to Petitioner	Awarded to Respondent	Other
2012 Honda CR-V		X	There is no loan against this vehicle.
2010 Subaru Outback	X		There is no loan against this vehicle.

20. The parties shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicles into their own names within 30 days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

REAL PROPERTY

21. There is no real property to divide as a result of this marriage.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

22. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

23. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of June 1, 2026:

Account Description	Petitioner will Receive	Respondent will Receive	Other
Cyprus Credit Union joint bank account ending X188	50%	50%	The parties shall maintain this account in its current status quo through May 31, 2026. The account shall be used only for ordinary and customary household and child-related expenses consistent with prior usage and as agreed by the parties. Neither party shall withdraw funds from the account for personal use or non-approved expenses during this period.
All other bank accounts in Petitioner's name	100%
All other bank accounts in Respondent's name		100%

24. Neither party has a retirement/pension account; however, if it is determined that one exists, the retirement/pension accounts shall be divided giving each party one-half of any account from the date of the parties' marriage until the date of the Decree of Divorce.

If necessary, a Qualified Domestic Relation Order (QDRO) or Domestic Relations Order (DRO) shall be prepared to divide these accounts. Any fees associated with the above orders shall be split evenly between the parties.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

25. During the course of the marriage the parties incurred certain marital debt; the parties shall be responsible for the debts in their own names and shall hold the other party harmless for any liability associated therewith.

26. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e), Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

27. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

28. Both parties have the ability to support themselves and therefore they each waive any claim to spousal support from the other, now or forever.

TAX RETURN

29. The parties filed joint federal and state income tax returns for the 2025 tax year. Respondent has received $2,371.00 from said refund. Upon receipt of any remaining refund, Petitioner shall be awarded the first $2,371.00. Any remaining balance of the refund thereafter shall be divided equally between the parties.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

30. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

31. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

32. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

33. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

34. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached between the parties. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the “drafting party.”

35. Each party shall execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

36. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

37. Respondent may be restored to her maiden name of LeBaron if she so desires.

AZERA and AZERA

JOINT CUSTODY PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the child and shall work together cooperatively with regard to the child’s physical care and financial and emotional support. The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions:

1. Co-Parenting Principles

- a. The Parties shall co-parent cooperatively, focusing on the physical, emotional, and financial well-being of the child.
- b. Each parent shall support and encourage the child's meaningful relationship with the other parent.
- c. Civil communication is required at all times. Name-calling or hostile communication is prohibited.

2. Communication Between Parents

- a. Primary communication shall occur via text or email, except in emergencies or time-sensitive situations.
- b. Parents shall timely share important information regarding the child's schooling, health, social activities, and other relevant matters.
- c. If information is available through public sources (e.g., school portals), each parent shall access it directly.

3. Joint Legal Decision-Making

- a. The Parties shall jointly decide major decisions affecting the child, including:

- i. Education and daycare
- ii. Medical, dental, counseling, and orthodontic care
- iii. Religious upbringing

- 1. The parties agree that the minor child shall be baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Respondent's ward shall be designated as the home ward for the minor child. If the necessary ecclesiastical requirements are satisfied, Petitioner shall have the opportunity to perform the baptism and confirmation of the minor child.

iv. Extracurricular activities

b. Decision-making process:

i. Identify the issue

ii. Develop possible solutions

iii. Select the most reasonable solution in the child's best interests

4. Dispute Resolution for Major Decisions - If the parties cannot reach agreement:

a. They may defer to the recommendations of an expert. If they still do not agree;

b. They shall attend mediation with a mutually agreed mediator (each party pays their own fees).

c. Agreements reached in mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both.

d. Only after a good-faith mediation attempt may a party seek Court involvement.

e. A party who frustrates this process may be ordered to pay the other's attorney's fees, court costs, and mediation costs.

5. Day-to-Day Responsibility

a. The parent exercising parent-time shall make routine daily decisions.

b. Either parent may make necessary emergency decisions regarding the child's health or safety and shall inform the other immediately.

6. Information Access

a. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, dental, and mental health records.

b. Each parent shall notify the other of medical appointments and emergencies.

c. Both parties shall provide written authorization enabling the other to access information from all providers.

7. School Access

a. Both parents may visit the child at school, receive school communications, and check the child out when necessary.

b. Disputes regarding education shall first go to mediation.

8. Medical Treatment Restrictions

a. Non-emergency, uninsured, elective medical/dental/orthodontic or alternative treatments require prior written consent from both parties.

b. Costs must be agreed in writing before scheduling.

c. Violating parent may be denied reimbursement.

9. Travel Notice Requirements

a. Either parent may travel domestically with the minor child during their own parent-time without needing advance permission, provided they give standard notice.

b. Any international travel, or any travel that would interfere with the other parent's scheduled parent-time, must be mutually agreed to in advance and in writing.

c. When traveling with the child, the traveling parent shall provide the following, as required by Utah Code §81-9-202(19):

- i. Itinerary with travel dates
- ii. Destination(s)
- iii. Contact information
- iv. Name/phone of a third party aware of the child's location.

10. Participation in Activities

a. Both parents may attend the child's school events, church functions, activities, recitals, and sports.

b. Parents shall cooperate to facilitate participation and family events (e.g., weddings, funerals, reunions, ceremonies).

11. Exchanges and Transportation

a. The receiving parent shall pick up the child at the designated start of their parent-time.

b. Child shall be ready on time for exchanges.

12. Residence and Living Arrangements

a. The minor child shall have a separate bedroom and her own bed at each party's residence.

b. If either party resides with a non-romantic roommate, that party shall not exercise overnight parent-time with the minor child during the period in which the roommate resides in the home. Overnight parent-time may resume once the party no longer has a non-family-member roommate residing in the residence.

13. Contact Information

a. Each parent shall provide the other with current address, phone number, and email within 24 hours of any change.

14. Parent/Child Communication

a. Each parent shall encourage free and uncensored reasonable phone/virtual communication with the other parent.

b. The child may contact either parent at any time.

c. A parent shall reasonably facilitate calls when requested by the child.

15. Right of First Refusal

a. Parental care is preferred over surrogate care.

b. If work related or overnight child care is needed, the other parent shall be offered the opportunity to provide care before third-party caregivers are used.

c. The parties shall create and maintain a mutually approved list of surrogate caregivers/babysitters who may be used by either parent without additional approval.

d. Any caregiver not on the approved list must be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing before caring for the minor child.

- e. Both parents shall provide names, addresses, and phone numbers of any caregivers used.

16. Conduct Around the Child

- a. Neither party shall speak negatively about the other parent or allow third parties to do so in the child's presence.
- b. Neither party shall discuss court matters with or in front of the child.
- c. Neither party shall disparage the other on social media or in public.
- d. Neither party shall access, view, or display pornographic material during his or her parent-time with the minor children present or in their care.

17. Introducing New Partners

- a. Parents shall not introduce dating partners to the child until the relationship is committed and exclusive.
- b. Notice shall be given to the other parent beforehand.

18. Co-Parenting Communication and Shared Calendar

- a. The parties shall communicate about agreed upon matters involving the minor child through a co-parenting application (like Our Family Wizard).
- b. Parents shall maintain a shared calendar for school events, appointments, practices, exchanges, and other child-related activities.

19. Substance Use Restrictions

- a. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol to excess while caring for the child or prior to transporting them.

b. Alcohol and medications shall be stored securely and out of the child's reach.

20. Enforcement and Non-Waiver

a. A party's failure to comply with any provision does not release the other party from their obligations.

b. All provisions remain enforceable unless modified by written agreement or court order.
