Attorneys for Kristen Cold - Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

KRISTEN COLD,
Petitioner

and,

ADAM COLD,
Respondent

This is a private document – Tier 4

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 254904408
Judge: Robert Faust
Commissioner: Russell Minas

The Petitioner, Kirsten Cold, by and through counsel, Rachel K. Low, and the Respondent, Adam Cold, by and through counsel, Joshua Lucherini, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION & GROUNDS

1. The parties are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
2. Kristen and Adam were married on July 25, 2011, in Lindon, Utah and are currently married.
3. During the marriage, the Parties experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the Parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship; therefore, a divorce shall be granted on the grounds of irreconcilable differences consistent with the terms and provisions contained herein.
4. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 78A-5-102 and 78B-3-205.
5. Venue is proper pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-203.

PROVISIONS REGARDING PARTIES' CHILD

6. The parties share one (1) minor child, to wit: C.R.C., born July 2017.

CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION

7. The parties' minor child currently resides in Salt Lake County. The child has resided at her current address for at least six (6) months prior to the filing of the Verified Petition for Divorce.
8. Pursuant to Utah Code 78B-13-101 et seq., Utah has jurisdiction over custody and parent-time issues in this case.

RULE 100 NOTICE

9. The parties have not participated in any other known and pending proceeding concerning the custody of or visitation with the child.

10. The parties have no knowledge of any person who has physical custody of the child or who claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of or parent time with the child except for the parties in this matter.

11. The parties have no knowledge of any pending proceedings that could affect this matter, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings related to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions.

LEGAL AND PHYSICAL CUSTODY

12. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child, with Kristen having final say pursuant to the Parenting Plan below.

13. The parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor child, with parenting time exercised as the parties agree or pursuant to the Parenting Plan below.

PARENTING PLAN

14. Legal Custody: The parties shall exercise joint legal custody of the minor child. The parent with whom the child is then located should make day-to-day decisions involving the child and should make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child. Significant legal decisions including without limitation health, education, and religious upbringing should be discussed in advance in attempt to reach an agreement. If the parties are unable to reach agreement after discussing the issue, meeting with experts in the area of disagreement, and attending mediation, splitting the costs equally thereof, Kristen shall have final decision-making authority. If Adam disagrees with the decision, he may then submit the dispute to the Court to determine the best interests of the child.

15. Physical Custody: The parties shall exercise joint physical custody of the minor child.

16. Parent-Time: The parties shall exercise parent-time as follows:

a. Adam currently has a BACtrack system with a video monitoring and allows for regular testing. Adam shall solely be responsible for all costs associated therewith.

b. Adam purchased and set up the BACtrack system on March 29, 2026, and is currently exercising parent time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302 and shall continue for a period of three (3) months. On the weekday visit, Adam shall test once immediately prior to beginning his parent time and once at the end of his parent time. If Kristen believes that Adam might be drinking during the visit, she may request Adam test. Kristen shall be limited to one request for testing per visit. On Adam's weekend parent time, he shall test once immediately prior to beginning his parent time and once per day at a time of Kristen's choosing. Adam shall immediately test upon receiving notification from Kristen. Failure to test within one hour of the request shall be deemed to be a positive test. If Adam tests positive, his parent time shall be forfeited until his next regularly scheduled parent time.

c. Once Adam has completed clean tests for a consecutive three (3) months, Adam's parent time shall increase to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 for the next three (3) months. Adam shall continue to test immediately prior to beginning his parent time and at the end of his parent time. In addition, Kristen shall be allowed to request one test at a day and time of her choosing. Failure to test within one hour of the request shall be deemed to be a positive test. If Adam tests positive, his parent time shall be immediately forfeited and his parent time shall be reduced to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302 and he shall begin the step-up parent time plan again.

d. At such point in time that Adam has completed six (6) months of clean tests, parent time shall increase to equal parent time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305, and Adam shall no longer be required to subscribe and pay for the BACtrack system.

e. For a period of six (6) months beginning March 1, 2026, if at any point Adam has reasonable belief that Kristen is drinking, he may request a UA test and Kristen shall immediately comply. If the test comes back negative, Adam shall pay for the test, and if the test comes back positive then Kristen shall pay for the test.

17. Therapy for Minor Child: The minor child is receiving therapy from the school at no cost to the parties. The child shall continue to receive therapy from the school so long as it is available to her. If the school no longer can provide therapy for the child, the parties shall discuss potential therapists and enroll the child in therapy, with preference given to any therapists covered by insurance.

18. Holidays: The parties shall exercise holiday parent time as they may agree, or if they are unable to agree pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, with Kristen designated as the custodial parent and Adam designated as the noncustodial parent for the purposes of determining the holiday parent time.

19. Summer/Extended Parent Time: The parties shall exercise summer extended parent time pursuant to the parent time statute in which they are at in ramp up parent time schedule. Once the parties are exercising equal parent time, the parties shall each have two (2) weeks of uninterrupted summer extended parent time. Kristen shall have priority designation in even years and Adam shall have priority designation in odd years. The party who has priority designation shall inform the other party in writing of the dates he or she will exercise summer extended parent time by May 1st. Failure to designate by May 1st shall result in a waiver of priority designation, and the party who designates first after May 1st shall have priority designation.

20. Transportation: The parties shall be cordial and polite during parent-time exchanges. Unless otherwise specified herein, parent-time exchanges shall occur as agreed upon by the parties, or by pick-up or drop-off at school, and curbside at 9:00 AM when school is not in session. The party beginning his or her parent time shall pick up the child. The parties shall cooperate and remain flexible regarding pick-up and delivery times, keeping in mind the importance of punctuality. If a parent is unavailable to transport the child, they may designate an agreed upon individual for the task.

21. Out-of-State Travel: If either party wishes to take the minor child outside the State of Utah, they shall, if possible, inform the other party 30 days in advance. Additionally, they shall provide the travel itinerary and arrange for maintaining reasonable contact during the trip.

22. Passport: Both parties shall cooperate in obtaining a passport and signing any necessary documentation for the minor child within 14 days of signing this Stipulation. Kristen shall cover any and all costs associated with obtaining a passport for the minor child, and shall hold the child's passport in her possession. Neither party will unreasonably withhold access to the child's passport.

23. Education Plan: Kristen's home shall be designated as the primary residence of the child for the purpose of identifying the appropriate school. The parties shall follow the Legal Custody provision above to make education decisions for the child if the parents cannot agree. Both parents shall have access to the child during school. Both parents shall have authority to check the child out of school.

24. Education Expenses: In addition to any child support obligation, both parties shall be equally responsible for any and all of the child's educational related expenses. Said expenses include, but are not limited to, enrollment fees, school clothing, school supplies, any tutoring related expenses, field trip expenses, school lunches, and any school related activities.

25. Gabb Watch and Cell Phones: The parties shall equally share all costs and expenses associated with the minor child's Gabb Watch and cell phone bill. Adam owes Kristen $37.74, through May 2026, for the child's Gabb Watch. Adam shall reimburse Kristen in full for the child's Gabb Watch within 30 days of signing the Stipulation.

26. Communication/Exchange of Information: The child shall not be requested to carry messages between the parents. Both parents shall discuss all parenting concerns via the Talking Parents application, or any other mutually agreed upon co-parenting application. The parents shall be civil in all communications; name calling shall never be considered civil. The parents shall read each other's communications within a reasonable time after receipt, not to exceed 24 hours after receipt, and shall respond to each other's messages within a reasonable time after receipt, not to exceed 48 hours. Communication between the parties shall be limited to issues relating to the child. Except in emergencies or matters requiring same-day coordination, each parent shall limit non-emergency written communications to no more than three (3) messages per day. Multiple issues shall be consolidated into a single communication whenever possible. The parties shall utilize the calendar function for the child's schedule. The parties shall share all information about the child regarding special events, homework assignments, parent/teacher meetings, report cards, medical events and prescriptions that the other parent may not have access to.

27. Maintaining Contact: Regardless which parent the child is with at any given time, each parent shall make an effort to have the child contact the other parent as frequently as is reasonably requested or as desired by the child.

28. Relocation: If either party intends to relocate, the parties shall follow the process outlined in UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-209, with Kristen being designated the custodial parent.

29. Extracurricular Activities and Sports: The parties shall encourage and support the child's participation in extracurricular activities and sports. The parties shall enroll the child in at least two (2) extracurricular activities and shall not purposefully try to supplant parent time with activities. The parties shall attempt to allow participation in activities in which the child express a desire to participate. The parties shall facilitate participation in scheduled extracurricular activities or else forfeit parent time during the activities if the other parent is able to facilitate participation. The parties shall equally share the cost of any activities or equipment costs that are incurred for an activity in which a child is currently enrolled and any future activity that is agreed to in writing by both parties.

a. The minor child is currently enrolled in girls' scouts by agreement between the parties. Adam owes Kristen $77.50 for the monthly girl's scouts fee and reimbursement for one-half of the child's uniform from the parties' agreement to enroll the child in the activity through May 2026. Within 30 days of signing this Stipulation, Adam shall reimburse Kristen the past due amount in full.

30. Disparaging Remarks: Each of the parties shall refrain from communicating with or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms and should prevent third parties, and the child from doing so as well.

31. Special Considerations:

- a. Both parents shall have access directly to all school reports including school reports and medical records.
- b. Both parents shall be listed as "emergency contacts" for medical emergencies with any school, daycare, or any other such providers.

- c. Both parents shall be allowed to access the child at school and should be able to check the child out of school for any appropriate reason.
- d. Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number within 48 hours of any change.
- e. The parties shall refrain from using any form of corporal punishment. Additionally, they shall consult with each other if they encounter discipline issues and strive to create consistency in house rules and discipline techniques.
- f. The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the child may have. They should also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the child, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental, or mental health professionals.
- g. In the event of a medical emergency, each party shall make every effort to contact and consult with the other party but shall be entitled to make necessary decisions until both parties are available. Such efforts should include every means at the party's disposal, including calls to work, home, and cell phone, as well as leaving messages at all such numbers, and at the homes of relatives in order to make sure the other parent knows about the medical emergency.
- h. Both parties shall refrain from involving the child in "divorce issues." Such issues include, but are not limited to, parent time disagreements; discussions about child support or financial hardships brought about by divorce; differences of opinion on how money is spent; discussions about court and legal matters; contents of legal papers; seeking information regarding what occurs in one another's homes (other than general conversation); and involving the child as "messengers" between the parties.

i. Both parties shall refrain from using illegal drugs, alcohol or prescription drugs in excess, or view sexually explicit material, and from becoming intoxicated while the child is in his or her care.

j. Both parties shall refrain from taking the child around other individuals who are using drugs or excessive alcohol, or around any place where drugs are being used, or are common.

k. The parties shall not smoke in the presence of the child or allow others to do so. The parties should not smoke at all in any vehicle in which the child rides.

32. First Right of Refusal: Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

33. Violation of Parenting Plan: If either parent fails to comply with a provision of this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under the Parenting Plan or final Decree of Divorce should not be affected.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

CHILD SUPPORT

34. The parties agree that Kristen shall be imputed at $2,080.00 gross income per month.

35. The parties agree that Adam shall be imputed at $5,000.00 gross monthly income.

36. Adam's child support obligation is as follows:

a. While Adam exercises parent time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, his child support obligation is $606.00 per month.

b. Once Adam's parent time increases to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303, his child support obligation shall automatically reduce to $452.00 per month.

c. Once Adam's parent time increases to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305, his child support obligation shall automatically reduce to $185.00 per month.

37. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust when the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

38. On or before the fifth (5th) of each calendar month, Adam shall pay one-half of the monthly child support amount directly to Kristen. The second payment of one-half of the monthly child support amount shall be paid on or before the 20th of each month.

39. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-215(5) and § 81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to adjust or modify this child support order under the code's specified conditions and time restraints.

HEALTH CARE COVERAGE AND MEDICAL COSTS

40. The parties shall work together to provide health insurance for the minor child at a reasonable cost, which should include health, hospitalization, major medical, dental, and vision insurance coverage. The parties shall share medical expenses in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

41. The child's portion of the health care coverage shall be calculated by dividing the health care coverage amount by the number of persons covered under the policy.

42. Both parties shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uncovered and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child, and actually paid by the parties.

43. The parent ordered to maintain health care coverage shall provide verification of health care coverage to the other parent or to the Office of Recovery Services, under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of health care coverage, insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or should have known of the change.

44. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

45. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with this section.

46. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical expenses one-half the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

CHILDCARE EXPENSES

47. Both parties shall share equally all agreed upon, reasonable work, career or education related childcare expenses pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209.

TAXES

48. The parties will alternate the dependency exemption for the minor child. Kristen will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for odd-numbered tax years, and Adam will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for even-numbered tax years.

a. Either party shall have the option to do a buy-out option if the requesting party pays for all accounting expenses and uses a third-party accountant to access the buy-out option. The requesting party shall pay the other party the amount which (s)he would have been benefitted from the dependency exemption to leave the party tax neutral and payment shall be made by March 15. The party requesting the buyout shall request tax information by Feb 1st and shall decide if a buyout shall occur within 15 days.

b. Adam is entitled to claim the dependency exemptions indicated herein so long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of any tax year.

REAL PROPERTY

49. During the course of the marriage, the parties did not acquire any real property and a division is not necessary.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

54 During the course of the marriage the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The personal property shall be divided as follows:

a. Adam shall be awarded the 2003 Honda Element, subject to any and all financial obligation associated therewith, and free from any claim of interest by Kristen except as stated in Paragraph 60 herein. The 2003 Honda Element has a value of $4,050.

b. Kristen shall be awarded her “Into the Mist” art piece and the basket her parents got in Germany in 1974 located by the front door. Adam shall give these items to Kristen within thirty (30) days of the signing of this Stipulation.

55. All remaining personal property shall be divided as the parties agree, if there is a disagreement the parties shall attend mediation to divide the personal property, splitting the costs of mediation equally.

56. The parties shall assume any debts and obligations related to any property he or she is awarded and should indemnify and hold the other harmless from the same.

PROVISIONS REGARDING FINANCIAL ASSETS, RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSIONS, AND RELATED ASSETS

57. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired financial assets, including but not limited to, joint and separate checking, savings, investment, retirement, and pension accounts. The parties shall each be awarded the financial accounts in their own names and as the parties have previously divided.

58. Any joint accounts shall be closed within 14 days of the signing of this Stipulation.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

59. Both parties shall assume and pay and hold the other harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by the parties after their date of separation, June 1, 2025.

60. There is an outstanding balance of $859.90 owed to Adam Faler for the parties’ previous apartment lease. Adam shall be solely responsible for the entirety of the amount owed on the lease, and shall indemnify, defend, and hold Kristen harmless therefrom.

61. During the course of the marriage, the parties accrued debt. The parties have one joint debt, the USAA credit card. The debt shall be allocated as follows:

- a. The marital debt on the USAA credit card is $14,000.00;
- b. Adam shall be solely responsible for the current balance that is over the $14,000.00 for his charges incurred solely by Adam and incurred after the parties' separation;
- c. Kristen shall receive a $2,000.00 offset as part of the personal property settlement;
- d. Kristen's total share of the debt is $5,000.00, and Adam shall be responsible for the remaining amount.
- e. The parties agree that Kristen shall pay her portion of the debt in full within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Once Kristen's portion is paid, the parties shall immediately take all necessary steps to remove Kristen's name from the account, and the removal of Kristen from the account shall be completed no later than thirty (30) days after she has paid her portion of the debt in full. If Adam is unable to remove Kristen's name from the account, he shall refinance the debt into a loan in his own name and close the account no later than thirty (30) days after Kristen has paid her portion of the debt in full.

62. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit card.

63. The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligations.

64. The parties shall assume and pay and hold the other party harmless from liability on any other debts and obligations incurred by the parties after their date of separation, June 1, 2025.

65. As authorized by Utah Code Ann., § 81-4-406, the Parties shall notify all respective creditors regarding the division of debts, obligations, liabilities, and regarding separate and current addresses.

66. Each Party shall indemnify and hold other Party harmless from all debts and obligations he or she is awarded under the Decree of Divorce. This “hold harmless” clause shall apply to bankruptcy proceedings.

BUSINESS INTERESTS AND RELATED ASSETS

67. The parties do not have any business interests, and no division is necessary.

ALIMONY

68. Neither party shall be awarded alimony, and shall waive any right to alimony both now and in the future.

RESTRAINING ORDERS

69. Both parties are restrained from threatening, harassing, bothering, or harming the other party at their respective homes, future place of employment, as well as telephonically and electronically.

70. Both parties are restrained from using the other party’s likeness or image on social media and online.

MISCELLANEOUS

71. At her choosing, Kristen may be restored the use of her former name, “Lund.”
72. No dispute arising from or related to the Decree of Divorce should be presented to the Court without a good faith attempt by both parties to resolve the issue through mediation or another mutually agreeable method of dispute resolution.
73. Each party shall pay their own attorney fees related to this action.
