Attorney - Mediator
Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of MELISSA DUNN,

Petitioner,

and
CARTER DUNN,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 264902523
Judge: Todd Hilbig
Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

The Petitioner, Melissa Dunn, and the Respondent, Carter Dunn, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There is one minor child born or adopted between the parties, to wit: J.R.D. (born June 2023).
2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.
3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Parent-time with the minor child shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule then they shall follow a 2-2-3 rotating schedule as follows:
 - a. Respondent shall exercise parent-time every Monday by picking the minor child up from school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session, to Wednesday morning by dropping the minor child off at school or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.
 - b. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time every Wednesday by picking up the minor child from school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session, to Friday morning by dropping the minor child off at school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.
 - c. Parties will alternate weekends Friday through Monday morning by dropping the minor child off at school, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session.

- i. Respondent shall drop the minor child off at school on Friday mornings, or 9:00 AM if school is not in session, and it is Respondent's weekend.

4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by April 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by April 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If unable to agree, then the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-303 and as follows:

6. The minor child shall continue to attend their current school and feeder schools unless the parties mutually agree in writing to transfer schools. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party relocates his or her residence more than twenty (20) miles from the minor child's current school, the parties shall meet and confer in good faith to review and, if necessary, modify parent-time and custody arrangements. The twenty (20) mile measurement shall be based on the minor child's then-current school and shall adjust accordingly as the child transitions to new schools by agreement of the parties.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently employed and has gross monthly income of $13,333.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently unemployed however, based on his experience and ability to work, it is reasonable and appropriate to impute him to a gross monthly income of $4,166.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $13,333.00 with 182 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $4,166.00 with 183 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 et seq. a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $401.00 per month beginning June 1, 2026. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Petitioner's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Respondent's shall be considered secondary.

a. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

c. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

d. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

- a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.
- b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, AND MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

- 14. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor child:
 - a. School fees and costs
 - b. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the child participates are approved.

c. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

15. The parties shall share equally in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes. The parties shall alternate years with Respondent claiming J.R.D. in odd years and Petitioner claiming J.R.D. in even years.

16. For the Petitioner to claim a minor child, she must be current on all her child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

17. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

18. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property.

19. Petitioner shall be awarded and responsible for the cat known as Ray.

20. Respondent shall be awarded and responsible for the cat known as Eevie.

21. All other personal property shall be divided among the parties in a fair and equitable fashion as agreed upon by the parties.

22. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

Vehicle	Awarded to Petitioner	Awarded to Respondent	Other
2005 Nissan Frontier		X	There is no loan against this vehicle.
2014 Subaru Crosstrek	X		There is no loan against this vehicle.

23. The parties shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicles into their own names within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

24. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain parcels of real property.

25. The real property located at 9629 S. 1835 E., Sandy, Utah 84092 shall be listed for sale no later than July 1, 2026. Petitioner shall vacate the residence on or before June 1, 2026, and Respondent shall continue to reside in the home until it is sold.

26. Until the residence is sold, Petitioner shall be responsible for payment of the monthly mortgage and utilities. Such payments shall be credited toward and satisfy Petitioner's child support and alimony obligations as set forth in the alimony section below.

27. The parties shall equally share all costs associated with preparing and selling the residence, including but not limited to repairs, maintenance, staging, and other necessary expenses. If either party pays more than his or her share of such costs, that party shall receive a credit against the other party's share of the net proceeds at closing.

28. Upon sale of the residence, the net proceeds—after payment of customary closing costs, commissions, fees, and satisfaction of any liens or encumbrances—shall be divided equally between the parties.

29. From Petitioner's share of the net proceeds, Petitioner shall pay to Respondent the sum of $8,514.00 as an equalization payment to balance the division of the parties' retirement accounts so that each party receives fifty percent (50%) of the total retirement account balances.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

30. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

31. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce unless specified otherwise:

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

32. During the course of the marriage the parties incurred certain marital debt; this debt shall be divided as set forth below.

Debt Description	Petitioner's Responsibility	Respondent's Responsibility	Other
US Bank Visa Signature credit card ending 8786	100%
US Bank Altitude Go Visa Signature credit card ending 4186			Petitioner shall pay up to $4,000.00 toward the balance of this credit card, which amount shall apply to charges reflected through the billing statement ending June 13, 2026. Respondent shall be solely responsible for any remaining balance and for all charges incurred on the account.
American Express Delta Skymiles Gold Card ending 1007	100%

33. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e), Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

34. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

35. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay alimony to Respondent as follows:

- a. Alimony shall be in the amount of $1,000.00 per month, commencing June 1, 2026.
- b. Until the marital residence is sold, Respondent shall continue to reside in the home, and Petitioner shall be responsible for payment of the monthly mortgage and utilities. Such payments shall be credited toward and satisfy Petitioner's alimony and child support obligations to Respondent during this period.

c. Beginning on the first day of the month following the closing of the sale of the residence, Petitioner shall pay alimony and child support directly to Respondent in the amounts set forth herein. Alimony payments shall be paid by the fifth (5th) day of every month.

d. Alimony payments shall continue for the length of two (2) years or until Respondent cohabitates or remarries, whichever occurs sooner. Respondent has an obligation to notify Petitioner of his cohabitation or remarriage and alimony shall cease upon Respondent's cohabitation or remarriage. Alimony shall end in the event of the death of either party.

TAX RETURN

36. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

37. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

38. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

39. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

40. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

41. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached through mediation. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the “drafting party.”

42. Each party shall execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

43. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

44. Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name of Moffitt if she so desires.
