IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the parentage of children of Enoch Jeffrey Westover and Angela Loretta Westover	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264900110 Judge: SCOTT Commissioner: BLOMQUIST

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER having come before the Court by written stipulation of the parties and an affidavit of grounds and jurisdiction, with the Court having taken all matters herein under advisement and being fully advised in the premises, and having heretofore entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. RESIDENCY: Enoch is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. MARRIAGE STATUS: The parties married on July 25, 2012, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

3. GROUND FOR DIVORCE: During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

4. CHILDREN: There have been three children born as issue of this marriage, to wit:

- a. D.S.W., born April 19, 2013;
- b. J.C.W., born September 28, 2015; and
- c. A.N.W., born, July 8, 2019.

5. HOME STATE AND JURISDICTION: Utah is the home state of the children pursuant to Utah Code Ann §78B-13-201(1), 207, and 208. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code § 78B-13-101 et Seq. And the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code § 78B-14-101 et Seq., the following is provided upon information and belief that:

- a. There are no protective order cases involving these parties in this state or any other state.
- b. Enoch has no information of any custody proceeding concerning the subject minor children pending in a court of this or any other state.
- c. There are no persons not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the subject minor children, and who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said child.

6. PHYSICAL CUSTODY & PARENT-TIME: Angela shall be granted the primary physical custody of the parties' minor children, subject to Enoch's right to parent-time as the parties may agree. However, if the parties are unable to agree, Enoch shall have parent-time as follows:

- a. Enoch shall have parent-time every weekend, with the exception of one weekend per month which shall be reserved to Angela. At the end of each month, Angela shall provide Enoch notice of the weekend that she would like to exercise for the following month . If the parties cannot mutually agree on which weekend that she should exercise for the month, the default shall be the third weekend of the month.
- b. Enoch's weekend parent-time shall be from Saturday morning at 10:00 am until Sunday evening at 7:00 pm.
- c. Should either party relocate to within 30 minutes of the other party, either party may request that the parties return to mediation to discuss changes to the custody and parent-time arrangement. If the parties cannot agree on changes to custody and parent-time, either party may bring the matter before the court by way of filing a petition to modify without the need of showing a substantial and material change of circumstances.

7. LEGAL CUSTODY: The parties shall share the joint legal custody of the minor children as set forth more fully in the “Parenting Plan” found below.

8. CHILD SUPPORT: Child support shall be paid in accordance with Utah Guidelines as follows:

- a. Party Income: Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-104 and 205, each parent’s child support obligation shall be established in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes. Enoch’s gross monthly income is $4,166 per month, and Angela’s gross monthly income is $3,640 per month.
- b. Child Support Amount: In accordance with Utah’s Uniform Child Support Guidelines using a sole custody worksheet, Enoch shall pay child support to Angela in the amount of $900 per month. The parties recognize this amount as a deviated child support order that is higher than the standard calculation.
- c. Duration: Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-213, child support shall be paid for each child subject to the support order described herein until the child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child’s normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.
- d. Day of Month Support Due: Child support shall be payable one-half by the 7th day of each month and one-half by the 23rd day of that month. If Enoch is late on a child support payment, he shall pay Angela a $25 late fee.

- e. Method of Payment: Enoch may continue to make his child support payments to Angela via Venmo. However, if Enoch is late on any of his child support payments, Angela reserves the right to utilize income withholding through the Office of Recovery Services.
- f. Commencement Date: The above child support order shall become effective as of June 1st, 2026.

9. CHILD SUPPORT ARREARAGES: The parties shall each be deemed current on all child related expenses, including child support, daycare, and healthcare as of May 19th, 2026.

10. HEALTHCARE EXPENSES: U.C.A. § 81-6-208 shall apply ordering that medical insurance be maintained for the minor children, as follows:

- a. Angela is currently providing health insurance for the minor children. Should that no longer be available to Angela, the party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain the coverage.
- b. Both parents shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the dependent children, including for mental health care and orthodontic care.
- c. Both parents shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the child's portion of the premium actually paid by the parent who maintains the insurance.

- d. The party who incurs an out of pocket expense shall provide written proof of the expense to the other party within thirty (30) days of incurring such expense; the party who has incurred the expense shall then be reimbursed within 30 days from the time that written proof has been provided to the other party. A parent incurring healthcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.
- e. Written verification of insurance enrollment, medical and dental insurance premiums and any change in coverage or premiums shall be provided to the Office.

11. CHILDCARE EXPENSES: U.C.A. § 81-6-209 shall apply, ordering an equal division of all reasonable work related childcare expenses. The party who incurs the expense shall provide written proof of the expense to the other party within thirty (30) days of incurring the expense; the party who has incurred the expense shall then be reimbursed within 30 days after providing written proof of the expense to the other party. A parent incurring daycare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

12. EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any extracurricular activities in which both parties agree in writing that the minor children may be involved. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

1. ALIMONY: Neither party shall be awarded alimony and each party waives any and all claims he or she may have to alimony, now and forever.

2. REAL PROPERTY: The parties acquired no real property during the course of this marriage, nor do they presently own an interest in real property.

3. ASSETS: During the course of the marriage relationship the parties acquired moneys as found in various savings and checking accounts. Each party shall be awarded any savings and checking accounts held in their own name together with any and all money and value held therein.

4. VEHICLES: During the course of the marriage the parties acquired certain vehicles which will be awarded as follows, together with any debt and other encumbrances associated with the vehicle, holding one another blameless for the same:

Vehicles awarded to Enoch	Vehicles awarded to Angela
Nissan Kicks	Hyundai Sonata

5. DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS: To the extent that the parties acquired debts and obligations during the time of marriage, each party shall assume any and all debts held in his or her own name and shall hold the other party blameless thereon.

6. RETIREMENT RELATED ASSETS: Neither party have pensions, profit sharing plans, 401(K) accounts, IRA accounts, stock option plans, or other retirement-like plans or accounts that accrued during the marriage or that has any current value.

7. TAX FILING: The parties shall file separate tax returns commencing with the 2025 tax year, retaining any proceeds obtained therefrom as their own separate property and being responsible for any debts or liabilities associated with their own respective tax filings.

8. TAX BENEFITS FOR THE MINOR CHILDREN: Each year, Angela shall claim J.C.W. and A.N.W., and Enoch shall claim D.S.W. as dependents for tax purposes.

9. FORMER NAME: Angela shall be restored the use of her former name of "Asay" if she so desires.

10. DOCUMENTATION: Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

13. HEARING STRICKEN: The hearing that is scheduled for May 26th, 2026, shall be stricken.

14. ATTORNEY'S FEES: The parties shall each be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs.

15. ENTRY OF DIVORCE: Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry.

PARENTING PLAN

Holiday Division

1. The parties will equally share any and all vacation time, school breaks, summer visitation, holiday periods, and any off-track periods, if applicable, with the child as they may agree. Summer Extended Parent Time

2. The parties shall also each have an extended parent-time visit during the summer in accordance with UCA §§ 81-9-304 and 81-9-302.

3. The Parties shall provide written notification of the dates on which they intend to exercise their extended parent-time on or by May 1st of each year. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the noncomplying parent. If both parties provide notification timely but there is a conflict in the time periods in scheduling, the Father's proposed parent-time shall take precedence in odd numbered years and the Mother's proposed parent-time shall take precedence in even numbered years.

Parent Time Exchanges

4. Enoch shall provide all transportation for parent-time exchanges so long as Angela continues to live in Nephi. However, should Angela move further from Enoch's current residence, the parties shall meet in Nephi as a halfway meeting point for parent-time exchanges.

5. All parent time exchanges shall be curbside. During parent-time exchanges, the children shall be transported between the parties without either party leaving their respective vehicles, homes, or other designated exchange locations. When a party arrives to pick the children up for their designated parent-time, a text message shall be sent to the other party announcing their arrival. The child shall then be sent promptly such that the exchange takes place at the proper designated time. Third parties shall adhere to the above-described curbside exchange procedure to the same extent as the parties.

Telephonic and Electronic Contact

6. Each parent will be allowed reasonable telephone or other electronic or virtual contact with the child when the child is in the care of the other parent, at reasonable times and places, and for reasonable age-appropriate durations.

7. At such times as a child has their own phone, each parent shall have the child's phone number at all times. If a child's phone number changes, the new phone number shall be shared with both parents.

8. During a party's parent-time, that party shall allow the minor children to have open communication with the other party, including communication by telephone, email, video chat, and etc., at reasonable times, reasonable places, and for reasonable durations.

9. The parties will allow the children to take any phone or communication device provided by the other parent with them freely between the two homes. The parents shall have the right to limit the device use as seen fit by the parent, but may not limit the children's ability to contact the other parent. Both parties will have equal access to the device, including necessary passwords to unlock the device.

Relocation

10. Either party intending to relocate from the state of Utah or 150 miles or more from their current residence shall provide 60 days' advance written notice of the desired relocation to the other parent in accordance with UCA § 81-9-209, with all other provisions in UCA § 81-9-209 applying to both parties.

Encouragement of Parent-Child Relationship and Parent-Time

11. Each party has an independent obligation to affirmatively encourage a healthy bond and relationship between the children and the other parent.

12. Each party has an affirmative duty to ensure that parent-time takes place as ordered and that parent-time is not left to the discretion of the minor children.

Joint Legal Custody

13. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the children.

14. With respect to minor day-to-day decisions, the parent in charge of the children during his or her designated parent-time shall have the right to make all such day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the child without consulting with the other parent. As pertaining to the day-to-day decisions, the parties recognize that each parent may have their own parenting style, their own rules, and their own style of discipline. As long as such decisions do not threaten the health and safety of the children, each parent will respect the decisions of the other parent and give each other the due deference that they equally deserve.

15. With respect to major decisions, such as those matters pertaining to the health, education, and religion of the child, the parties shall confer and work together in good faith to reach joint decisions regarding these matters. Should a dispute arise relating to these matters (i.e. the health, education, or religion of the children, the parties shall adhere to the following dispute resolution procedure:

- a. Notice: The parties shall notify one another no later than within forty-eight (48) hours of being made aware of an issue that requires a major decision pertaining health, education, or religion of the minor children.
- b. Information: The parties shall exchange all relevant information and/or documentation pertaining to the matter in dispute.
- c. Discussion: The parties shall then discuss the matter in good faith and take into account one another's full point of view regarding the matter.

- d. Consultation: If a decision cannot be reached after consulting in good faith, the parties shall consult with a relevant professional or expert in the area of dispute, or other mutually agreed third party.
- e. Mediation: If a decision still cannot be reached, the parties shall promptly retain the assistance of a mediator, with the parties splitting the costs of such mediation 50/50.
- f. Presumptive Decision Making: If the parties are still unable to come to an agreement, Angela shall have presumptive final decision-making authority.
- g. Court Review: Enoch shall have the right to challenge any such decision by way of court review to determine whether the decision is contrary to the best interests of the minor children.
- h. No Undue Delay: Neither party shall cause any undue delay in utilizing this decision-making process and shall pursue the speedy resolution of all disputes.
- i. Right to Other Relief: In addition, this process shall not be interpreted to deny either party the right to seek urgent or emergency relief from the Court.

Legal Custody Recognition

16. Both parents shall be listed as emergency contacts at any institution or organization which the child attends or participates, and each party shall have an affirmative duty to ensure that the other parent is so listed. The title which they shall be listed as shall be "Mother" and "Father."

17. Both parents shall be listed as a legal custodial parent with any institution which the child attends, whether school, church, daycare, or other, and shall be deemed to have all the rights that a parent with legal custody possesses, including the right to make any decision pertaining to the child's health, safety, and education.

18. No institutional employee or officer, whether school, church, daycare, or other, shall construe one parent's rights to be greater than the rights of the parent.

19. No institutional employee or officer, whether school, church, daycare, or other, shall ever be deemed to have rights and authority greater than the rights and authority of the parents.

Healthcare Plan

20. Neither party shall change the current healthcare providers of the children or place the children with a new healthcare provider without following the legal custody dispute resolution process outlined above.

Education Plan

21. Angela shall be deemed the residential parent for purposes of school registration.

22. Each parent shall have an independent and equal right to check the children in and out of school, regardless of the stated preference of the other parent.

23. Both parents shall be granted equal access to all calendars, notices, emails, communications, and reports of any kind related to the children's education. If one parent does not have access to such information, that parent shall have an affirmative duty to ensure that the other parent is either granted timely access to the information in a timely manner. However, both parties shall be deemed equally responsible to obtain their own information independently and shall not rely upon the other party give them information that is readily available to both parties.

Travel

24. Whenever a parent intends to travel overnight out of the county with the children, they shall provide the other parent reasonable advanced notice of all of the following basic information: (a) an itinerary of the intended travel dates; (b) the intended travel destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location; and (e) the name and telephone number of any adult third parties who will be traveling with the child.

Party Communication

25. All communication between the parties shall be conducted in a civil and respectful manner.

26. Neither party will engage in any form of harassing or annoying form of contact with the other.

27. All communication regarding the children shall be made outside of the child's presence whenever possible, and neither party shall allow the children to view any communications between the parents or communications about the parents with other third parties.

28. The parties shall seek to shield the children from all forms of parental conflict, wherever possible. The parties will not allow the conversation to become heated or overly emotional, especially in the presence of the minor children or their siblings.

29. Except in cases of emergency or immediate necessity, all communication shall be "parent-to-parent." Neither parent shall allow a third party to communicate on their behalf or allow any third party to impersonate them or pose as them when communicating with the other parent.

30. All communication shall be strictly limited to matters related to the children and the co-parenting of the children, and neither party shall engage in any communication that is personal in nature or does not strictly pertain to the co-parenting of the minor children.

31. Except in cases of emergency, all communication shall take place through the App Close App. Each party shall be responsible to procure and maintain the app at their own cost and expense. The parties shall also use the app to schedule all events pertaining to the children such that both parties are apprised as to all events affecting the minor children, including but not limited to, medical and dental appointments, school events, religious events, scouting events, extracurricular events, practices, performances, parent-teacher conferences, etc., and all such information shall be posted to the joint calendar within 24 hours from learning of the event.

32. Except in cases of emergency, the parties are under mutual obligation to respond to any communication sent directly between another no later than between twenty-four (24) to forty-eight (48) hours of receiving the communication.

Notice of Events

33. The parties shall timely notify one another of all medical, dental, therapy, or other like appointments; all parent teacher conferences or other important meetings with agents of the school; all school, church, and community events and performances in which the children is/are participating or is to be honored; all sporting events and practices; an in general, any and all other events that are of importance to the children. Both parents shall have an equal right to participate in all such events and shall not be denied access to the children prior to, during, or after the event as to enable the children to be fully supported by both parents.

Accommodation of Important Events

34. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

Disclosure of Information Related to Child Safety

35. Both parties have the right to know the residence of the minor children at all times. As such, each party shall provide full disclosure of their current address and shall provide reasonable advance notice of any changes of address within 24 hours of any change.

36. Both parties have the right to the basic contact information of the other party. As such, the parties shall provide one another updated phone numbers and email addresses at all times.

37. The parties shall notify one another of all matters that could be defined as an “emergency” or those matters requiring an immediate decision as soon as reasonably possible.

38. Both parties shall have the full name and contact information of any third party who is providing care for the children.

Access to Important Records

39. Both parties shall have free and open access to all important records pertaining to the children, including but not limited to birth certificates, social security cards, passports, etc., and shall reasonably work together to sign any necessary documents to ensure that such records are up to date or that copies of the same can be released to the parties.

Party Restraints

40. Neither party shall enter the other’s residence without their express consent.

41. Neither party shall make negative, derogatory or disparaging remarks regarding the other parent in front of the minor children or do or say anything that will tend to undermine, damage or harm the parent-child relationship of the other parent, and shall be under an affirmative duty to prevent third parties from doing the same.

42. Neither party shall discuss the court case with the children or otherwise involve the children in the litigation in any way, including discussing what is contained in court pleadings, what occurred at a court hearing or a mediation, what the parties have or may discuss regarding settlement proposals, etc.

43. Neither party shall discuss parental disputes or disagreements in the presence of the minor children or seek to involve the children in parental disputes or disagreements.

44. Neither party will use the children as a messenger or problem-solver.

45. Neither party will interrogate the children regarding the other parent or require the children to provide an accounting of time spent with the other parent.

46. Neither party shall consume alcohol to the level of intoxication, use illegal drugs, or use prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner during parent-time, or allow the children to be subjected to other third parties doing the same.

47. Neither party shall engage in any form of corporal punishment against the children or allow third parties to do the same.

48. Neither party shall enable, encourage, or allow third parties to engage in anything which the parties themselves are restrained from doing. To wit, the parties shall actively restrain other third parties from engaging in any conduct or behavior from which they themselves are restrained.
