IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT
IYALY AMARIT BARRIOS AMADOR, Petitioner, v. GILBERTO MEDEL AYALA, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 254905599 Judge: Todd M. Olsen Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

Based upon the pleadings and papers filed in this case, the default of Respondent, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered by the Court, and good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action. Petitioner filed the Petition for Divorce on October 22, 2025. Respondent was served with the Summons and Petition for Divorce, failed to answer or otherwise appear, and the Default Certificate was entered against Respondent on or about June 3, 2026.
2. The parties were lawfully married on October 9, 2011 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah. The marriage is dissolved, and each party is granted a divorce from the other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences under Utah Code section 30-3-1.

3. There are five minor children born as issue of the marriage, identified by initials and dates of birth below:

No.	Initials	Sex	Date of Birth
1	JMA	male	07/05/2009
2	KMA	male	08/27/2010
3	NMA	female	01/04/2012
4	CMA	male	11/12/2014
5	MMA	male	05/18/2019

4. Petitioner is awarded sole legal custody and sole physical custody of the minor children.
5. Respondent shall have only supervised parent-time with the minor children. Such supervised parent-time shall occur only with a mutually agreed-upon supervisor and at such times as the parties may agree, until Respondent demonstrates that he is free from violent or criminal activity that bears upon the best interests of the children if left in his care, or until further order of the Court.
6. For child support purposes, Petitioner has gross monthly income of $2,500.00 and Respondent has gross monthly income or earning ability of $2,500.00. Based upon those incomes and a sole-physical-custody child support worksheet, Respondent shall pay Petitioner $829.00 per month as base child support. Child support shall be due and payable on the first day of each month, commencing on the first day of the month following entry of this Decree, and continuing until modified by further order of the Court or until terminated by law.

7. The parties shall share the children's reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, mental-health, counseling, prescription, and other health-care expenses as provided by Utah Code section 78B-12-212. The parties shall also share the children's portion of any medical insurance premium as required by law.
8. If work-related childcare is needed, the parties shall share equally any reasonable and necessary work-related childcare expense as provided by Utah Code section 78B-12-214. The party seeking contribution shall provide proof of the expense and proof of payment to the other party within a reasonable time, presumptively within 30 days of incurring the expense.
9. Either party may allow that party's parent or parents, including a stepparent, to exercise that party's parent-time by giving advance notice to the other party by any reasonable method. Neither party shall deny or withhold parent-time solely because a party's parent, including a stepparent, will be caring for the children during that party's regularly scheduled parent-time.
10. Neither party is awarded alimony. Each party is capable of supporting himself or herself, and neither party has established a present need for alimony.
11. Each party is awarded, as that party's separate property, any personal property owned by that party before the marriage. Each party is awarded the personal property now in that party's possession, and any personal property acquired during the marriage is awarded as previously divided by the parties to their mutual satisfaction unless otherwise agreed in writing.

12. The parties shall reasonably cooperate in copying or duplicating family photographs and other items of family memorabilia.
13. Each party is awarded any right, title, and interest in any motor vehicle presently in that party's possession or otherwise titled or registered in that party's name. The parties own no motor vehicles in their joint names.
14. The parties own no interest in real property, and no real property is awarded by this Decree.
15. Each party is awarded the checking, savings, or other financial accounts held in that party's sole name. The parties have no joint checking or savings accounts that have not been divided to their mutual satisfaction.
16. The parties have no known pension, retirement, or similar accounts to divide.
17. Each party shall assume and pay any debt or obligation in that party's separate name and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from such debt. The parties have no known joint marital debts that have not been divided. If a joint marital debt is later determined to exist, the parties shall be equally responsible for that debt unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
18. Any other debt shall be presumed to be the separate debt of the party who incurred it.

19. The parties are mutually restrained from bothering, harassing, threatening, or annoying the other party at the other party's residence, employment, or any other place.
20. The parties are mutually restrained from possessing or consuming any illegal controlled substance, or from being under the influence of alcohol or any illegal controlled substance, while the minor children are in their care.
21. The parties shall file separate tax returns for any remaining tax year of the marriage for which a joint return has not already been filed, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.
The parties have no known outstanding joint tax liabilities.
22. Petitioner shall be entitled to claim all five minor children as dependents for federal and state income tax purposes each year, beginning with the tax year in which this Decree is entered, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
23. Each party shall bear that party's own attorney fees and costs incurred in this action.
24. Petitioner may be restored to the use of the name, Amarit, if she so desires.
25. The parties shall execute and deliver any documents and shall take any other reasonable and necessary action required to implement and carry out the terms of this Decree.
26. This Decree resolves all claims between the parties in this divorce action and is a final order of the Court.
