IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR TOOELE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of:

CORBIN IAN DALEY
Petitioner

and

ELIZABETH LYNN COPSEY
Respondent

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264300174
Judge: Hilbig
Commissioner: Blocher

The above-entitled matter has been submitted to the Court for decision, Petitioner Corbin Ian Daley ("Corbin") and Respondent Elizabeth Lynn Copsey ("Elizabeth") having executed a Stipulation for Divorce whereby the parties consented to entry of a Decree of Divorce, and the Court having reviewed the records and file herein and being duly advised, and the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now ORDERS as follows:

Provisions Related to Dissolution of Marriage

1. The bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between Corbin and Elizabeth are hereby dissolved and the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce.

Provisions Relating to Children

2. The parties have one minor child: A.V.D., born in July 2024.

3. Corbin and Elizabeth are awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the minor child.

4. The parties will share equal parent time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-305 as follows:

a. The parties will follow a 5-2-2-5-time schedule with Elizabeth receiving Sunday and Monday overnight and Corbin receiving Tuesday and Wednesday overnight, with each party receiving alternating weekends from Thursday morning until Sunday morning when school begins.

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom
Week 2	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Mom

b. Summer. Each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted summer parent time, which may be consecutive pursuant 30-3-35.2 (subsection 5).

- i. For purposes of designating summer uninterrupted parent time, both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time (including the two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time in the summer) or vacation weeks with the children to the other parent.
- ii. In odd-numbered years, Corbin shall provide notice to Elizabeth by May 1st and Elizabeth shall provide notice to Corbin by May 15th.
- iii. In even-numbered years, Elizabeth shall provide notice to Corbin by May 1st and Corbin shall provide notice to Elizabeth by May 15th.

iv. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described, the first parent to provide notice may determine the summer break schedule for the other parent.

c. Holidays. The holidays shall be determined as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, pursuant §81-9-305 (subsection 4), they shall alternate holidays in accordance with U.C.A. §81-9-302. Corbin shall be designated as the non-custodial parent for purposes of holiday allocation only. Holidays take precedence over the regular and summer parent time rotation.

i. Holidays include any “snow” days, teacher development days after the children begin the school year, or other days when school is not scheduled, contiguous to the holiday period, and take precedence over the weekend parent-time. Changes may not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend parent-time schedule.

5. Parent-time exchanges shall occur at school when possible. When exchanges at school are not possible, parent-time exchanges shall occur at Deseret Peak Complex, 2930 UT-112, Grantsville, Utah. Third party adults who are known to the parties and the child will be allowed to provide transportation for parent time exchanges. Transportation to alternative places, such as school and extracurricular activities, is the responsibility of the parent with whom the child is then residing. During parent time exchanges, the parties will remain in their respective vehicles and confine their communications to what is necessary to make that exchange, reserving further communication to other times and means. Any communication during parent time exchanges will be civil, business-like and respectful.

6. Parenting Plan. The parties shall abide by the following Parenting Plan:

- a. Both parties will have access to the child's school, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;
- b. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the child's school work, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent;
- c. Each party shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the child;
- d. The parties will equally share the transportation of the child for parent time;
- e. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor child at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

f. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor child;

g. Each party shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within 24 hours of the change;

h. If either party intends to relocate more than 150 miles from the residence of the other parent, the relocating party shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-209.

i. The parent who has the child in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the child without having to consult with the other parent;

j. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels with either parent overnight or longer, the following will be provided to the other parent:

- i. an itinerary of travel dates;
- ii. destinations; and
- iii. places where the child or traveling parent can be reached;

k. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the child consistency and stability;

l. The parties will discuss any problems that either of them is experiencing with disciplining the child with the intent to have a “united front” as to matters of discipline and home rules;

m. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;

n. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the child;

o. The parties shall not put the child in the middle. The parties will not discuss with the child adult issues, including any legal or financial related issues between the parties;

p. The minor child will not be used as a messenger between the parties;

q. Neither parent shall question the minor child about the other parent’s activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child;

r. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child’s love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent’s actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent’s relationship with the child;

s. The parent with the minor child in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor child's homework is complete and transporting the minor child to school on time;

t. Communication regarding the minor child shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties; and

u. The parties will make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the minor child, including but not limited to their child's education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues. After discussing an issue and researching solutions, if the parties cannot reach an agreement on a major issue regarding the minor child, the parties will attempt to resolve the issue in mediation, dividing any and all mediation costs equally, before presenting the issue to the Court. Neither parent shall have final say.

Provisions Relating to Child Support

7. Corbin currently has a gross monthly income of $4,000. Elizabeth is currently not employed, but shall be imputed a gross monthly income of $2,600. Corbin is ordered to pay child support to Elizabeth in the sum of $76 per month pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq. Child support shall commence in May 2026.

a. Child support shall be due one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half of the 20th day of each month.

b. Support continues for the minor child until a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States or is emancipated.

c. The parties shall equally share any mandatory school fees and the cost of any extracurricular activities which are agreed to in advance in writing.

d. The person entitled to receive child support will be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code §62A-11 parts 4 and 5.

Provisions Relating to Childcare

8. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own child support expenses when the child is in his or her care.

Provisions Relating to Health Insurance/Medical Expenses

9. The party who can obtain the best insurance coverage at the most reasonable rate shall maintain health insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child when it is available at reasonable cost. Corbin currently carries the health insurance for the minor child. At times when both parties maintain health insurance for the child, the policy of Corbin shall be primary coverage and the policy of Elizabeth shall be secondary coverage. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket costs of the premium for each child's portion of the premium and one-half of all non-covered medical, dental, orthodontic and counseling expenses for the minor child. The terms of Utah Code §81-6-208 shall be incorporated into the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

a. The party who incurs out-of-pocket medical expenses must provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other party within 30 days of payment. The party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with this paragraph.

Provisions Relating to Alimony

10. Neither party shall be ordered to pay alimony.

Provisions Relating to Taxes

11. The parties shall equally share claiming the minor child on taxes (child credits, exemptions, etc.). Commencing with the 2026 tax year, Elizabeth shall be entitled to claim the minor child in even numbered years and Corbin shall be entitled to claim the minor child in odd numbered years. Pursuant to Utah Code §781-6-210, a party may only claim the child on his or her tax returns if he or she is current on his or her child support obligations on December 31 of the relevant tax year, and the award will result in a tax benefit.

Provisions Relating to Real Property

12. The parties do not own any real property. However, Elizabeth may remain in the trailer the parties have rented together, and she shall be responsible for, and hold Corbin harmless from, payment of the rent and other expenses related to the trailer.

Provisions Relating to Personal Property

13. The parties own certain vehicles and personal property. Each party is awarded his or her premarital property, property acquired by gift or inheritance and his or her clothing and personal effects. Corbin is awarded his 2006 Cadillac, which he owned prior to the marriage. Elizabeth is awarded the 2011 Mitsubishi, the washing machine, dryer and refrigerator. The parties shall attempt to divide all remaining personal property on their own. If the parties are unable to divide their personal property on their own, they shall attempt to resolve their disputes in mediation, with each party paying one-half of the mediation expenses, prior to presenting the dispute to the Court.

Provisions Relating to Debts and Obligations

14. During the course of the marriage, the parties incurred certain debts and obligations. Each party shall assume and pay and hold the other harmless from the debts in his or her separate name. To the extent there are any joint debts which are not known at this time, any such debts shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt. Neither party shall incur any further joint debt.

Provisions Relating to Financial Accounts

15. Each party is awarded any banking, retirement and investment accounts in his or her separate name.

Miscellaneous Provisions

16. Each party shall pay his or her own costs and attorney fees.

17. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of this Decree of Divorce.

18. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.
