IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH 450 S. State Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84114
In the matter of the marriage of: CATHERINE ALEJANDRA CANIZALEZ DIAZ, Petitioner, and JOEL ANTONIO MARTINEZ, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264900717 Judge: Hon. Robert Faust Commissioner: Hon. Kim M. Luhn Discovery Tier: 4

Before the court is the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement which resolves the Petition for Divorce in this case. The Stipulation and Settlement Agreement was signed by Petitioner Catherine Alejandra Canizalez Diaz ("Petitioner") on June 1, 2026, and by Respondent Joel Antonio Martinez ("Respondent") on June 4, 2026. The Stipulation and Settlement Agreement was filed with the Court on June 4, 2026. The Court hereby grants Petitioner a divorce from Respondent, severing the bonds of marriage between them. The Court also herein makes the following orders ancillary to the parties' divorce. For the foregoing reasons, IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Parties are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the Petition for Divorce.

2. The Petitioner and Respondent were married on August 19, 2017, in Las Vegas, Nevada, and are currently married.

3. Petitioner and Respondent are the biological parents of two (2) minor children: J.J.M., born September 16, 2020, and C.S.M., born July 30, 2024, hereinafter the (“minor children”).

4. The minor children are residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have so resided for at least six (6) months; accordingly, Utah is the home state of the minor children pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-11-201.

DIVORCE

5. The parties are now divorced from one another, and the bonds of matrimony are hereby severed.

PARENT TIME AND CUSTODY

6. Legal Custody. It is in the best interest of the minor children that the parties be awarded joint legal custody. The major decisions concerning the parties’ children’s general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall submit to good-faith mediation with a mutually agreed-upon mediator prior to initiating any court intervention. If the parties cannot reach an agreement in mediation, either party may pursue the matter in court. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children’s day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

7. Physical Custody. It is in the best interests of the minor children that the parties be awarded joint physical custody of the children under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-205, with equal parent time under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305, and Petitioner shall be designated as the residential parent for school purposes.

8. Parent time of the minor children shall be as the parties agree, but if the parties disagree, Respondent's reasonable right of parent time shall follow Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305.

9. The holiday schedule shall be as the parties may agree, but absent a mutual agreement, the parties shall follow the Holiday schedule enumerated in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303. Petitioner will be designated as the custodial parent, and Respondent will be designated as the non-custodial parent for purposes of the holiday schedule only.

10. Both parents are obligated to follow the policies, intent, definitions, and guidelines provided in Utah Code, Title 81, Chapter 9, et seq., and a parenting plan to that extent shall be ordered by the court.

11. If either party relocates more than 150 miles from the other, all provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 shall apply to the relocating party.

CHILD SUPPORT

12. In accordance with the Utah Child Support Act, set forth in Utah Code § 81-6-201 et seq., child support shall be calculated based on the parties' monthly gross income or imputed income and the parties' respective parenting time with the minor children.

13. Petitioner earns a gross monthly wage of $4,593.00, and Respondent earns a gross monthly wage of $7,484 under his 2026 year-to-date gross monthly income. Pursuant to the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet, Respondent shall pay Petitioner $246 each month for child support, as set forth in Utah Code § 81-6-201 et seq.

14. Should the obligated party fall more than thirty (30) days behind in his or her child support, the receiving party shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding payable through the Utah Office of Recovery Services as provided by Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11-401 et seq.

15. Upon a minor child turning eighteen years old or graduating from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the child support award for that child shall automatically terminate.

PARENTING PLAN

16. The parties shall be entitled to contact the minor children by telephone, email, and/or other means of virtual communication as is reasonably available and pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305. Such contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

17. The parties shall discuss and resolve any parent time issues among themselves, and such issues shall not be discussed with the minor children by any means.

18. All communications between the parties shall be civil in nature and shall be limited to email and text messages. Voice telephone contact shall be utilized between the parties only in case of an emergency involving the minor children, or coordination on the day of parent time exchanges as necessary.

19. The parties shall refrain from speaking negatively about one another in the presence of the minor children, and the parties shall not discuss the custody and parent time schedule or any legal actions with, or in earshot of, the minor children. The parties shall also require other third parties who come into contact with the children to so refrain and this restriction shall extend to all social media and networking websites and forums to which the children may have access.

20. Each party shall keep the other party advised of his/her current address and telephone number, and if possible, advise the other party no less than sixty (60) days in advance of any move. After giving the notice, the party shall provide the specific address they are moving to within 24 hours of knowing it. The parties shall also give new telephone numbers and emails within 24 hours of a change.

21. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the respective field. If they cannot agree, the parties shall mediate the issue. Mediation in the matter shall take place prior to seeking any court intervention. In the event the parties are unsuccessful in mediating the issue, Petitioner shall have interim final decision-making ability for the children.

22. The parties shall be entitled to contact the minor children by telephone, email, and/or other means of virtual communication as is reasonably available. Such contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

23. Special consideration shall be given by each party to make the minor children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the lives of either parent, which may inadvertently conflict with the parent time schedule.

24. The parties shall each ensure that the children are properly supervised, clothed, cleaned, and fed during their respective parent time. Each parent shall provide for the necessities of the minor children while the children are in his or her care, without relying on the other parent or using the items in the possession of the other parent for the minor children.

25. Should either party desire to travel out of state, or out of the county with the children, with the exception of the parties' existing residences under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, the parties shall give the other party thirty (30) days' advance notice of travel. The parties shall disclose an itinerary and contact information for a third party who will know the children's whereabouts when traveling with the children. If either party disagrees with the proposed travel, the parties may mediate the issue prior to involvement with the courts. Travel with the children shall not take precedence over the other party's parent time.

26. When the children travel with either parent overnight or out of their respective residential states, with the exception of the parties' existing residences under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least thirty (30) days prior to departure:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and
- d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

CHILD INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

27. Respondent currently maintains insurance for the minor children's medical, dental, and optical needs, and shall continue to maintain his insurance coverage for the children, so long as it is offered through his employment at a reasonable cost.

28. Otherwise, each party shall maintain medical, dental, and optical insurance for the minor children's benefit so long as it is available to the respective parties through their employment at a reasonable cost.

29. If the children are covered under both parties' insurance plans, Respondent's insurance shall be the primary insurance, and Petitioner's shall be secondary for purposes such as billing. The parties shall equally pay any sums not covered by insurance, including but not limited to physician care, inpatient care, prescriptions, medically necessary medical supplies, eye examinations, corrective lenses, dental and orthodontic care, and mental health services under the following guidelines:

- a. As required by Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208, each party shall provide the other written notice and proof of medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and mental health expenses incurred, and payments made thereon, by insurance or otherwise, within thirty (30) days of the date the expense is incurred. Each party shall provide the other copies of statements or written notice received of payments made to a provider by insurance. The obligated party shall pay his or her portion, as specified above, of incurred medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and mental health expenses directly to the party who paid the provider of medical, dental, orthodontic, vision and mental health services within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice from that party.

- b. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other Party's share of the expenses if the incurring party fails to comply with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.
- c. Any party ordered to and/or providing insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent children and thereafter, on or before January 10th of each year. The insuring party shall notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of the date the insuring party first knew or should have known of the change.
- d. As required by Utah Code § 81-6-208, the parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and mental health insurance premiums paid for the minor children's portion of the insurance. The parent obligated to provide child support shall be entitled to an offset, either adding to or deducting from his or her monthly child support payments to facilitate the equal sharing of the out-of-pocket costs of a medical insurance premium.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

30. Should it be necessary to incur a work-related childcare expense, pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-209, each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of all reasonable and necessary work-related childcare expenses incurred. The party incurring a childcare expense shall give the other party notice of all incurred childcare expenses within thirty (30) days, and the other party shall reimburse their portion of the childcare cost within thirty (30) days of receipt of payment verification.

31. The party incurring a childcare expense shall give the other party notice of the name and contact information for any childcare provider, and reimbursement for those expenses, and continued monthly payments shall be made pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209.

32. If either party has made his or her half payment on any childcare-related expense, that party shall notify the provider to ensure that no collection efforts are made against the paying party.

SCHOOL, SCHOOL FEES, AND EXTRACURRICULAR EXPENSES

33. The minor children shall attend school in a location as the parties mutually agree, but in the event of a disagreement on the issue, the minor children shall attend school based on the residential parent's current address.

34. Both parties shall have equal access to the children's school records, and both parents' names shall be listed with the children's school as parents. The parties shall ensure that the school communicates equally with both parents regarding the minor children's grades, absences, or any other issues that may arise or relate to the minor children's schooling.

35. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e., registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

36. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other, on a frequent basis, that is not available through the school calendar or email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and sporting events their children may be involved in that are not available online or through the emails of the program.

37. Extracurricular Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in-writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extracurricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time, and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

38. Both parties are mutually restrained from disparaging, harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children, or in the presence of the minor children. Furthermore, the parties shall not attempt to alienate the love and affection of the children from either parent. The parties shall be mutually restrained from alienating or otherwise interfering with each other's relationship with the children or allowing any third party to do so.

39. The parties shall refrain from speaking negatively about one another in the presence of the minor children, and the parties shall not discuss disputes about parent time or any legal actions with, or in earshot of, the minor children. The parties shall not discuss any changes to the parent-time schedule with the minor children unless the parties have previously agreed to such changes in writing. The parties shall also require other third parties that come into contact with the children to so refrain, and this restriction shall extend to all social media and networking websites and forums to which the children may have access.

40. The parties shall not harass, malign, or defame the other. The parties shall not interfere with the lives or relationships of the other party or with family members of the other party. All communication between the parties shall be civil, at reasonable times, and of reasonable frequency and duration.

41. The parties shall not involve the minor children in the legal disputes of the parties, financial matters, parent time, and/or custody. The parties shall not attempt to influence the children or the children's preferences with respect to issues of custody and/or parent time, either by reward, punishment, or guilt.

42. Neither party shall use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs during parent time with the children.

43. Neither party shall expose the minor children to or allow the viewing of any adult content, adult themes, adult media, or media including sexual adult content, while under their care and perspective parent time, whether it be through any media, internet media, social media, entertainment, movie content, or video game content.

44. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under the mutual restraining order and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

45. Both parties shall be restrained from engaging in any retaliatory or revenge-based actions that interfere with the other party's access to essential resources or communication. This includes turning off or disabling phone services used by the other party, freezing, locking, or otherwise restricting access to joint or individual bank accounts or credit cards without prior agreement or court order, canceling or interfering with utility services, insurance policies, or other essential accounts relied upon by the other party, and taking any action intended to disrupt the other party's financial stability, personal security, or ability to communicate effectively. Both parties shall act in good faith to maintain the status quo and ensure fair treatment during the pendency of this action.

ALIMONY

46. Petitioner is entitled to reasonable alimony according to the standard of living of the parties during the marriage to equalize the parties' living circumstances and shall be awarded based on Respondent's ability to pay and the Petitioner's need for alimony.

47. Petitioner is entitled to monthly alimony pursuant to Utah State Code §81-4-502, for the duration of the marriage, in the amount of $955 each month. Respondent's alimony obligation to Petitioner shall be for 102 payments, beginning on July 1, 2026. The parties shall abide by the standards of alimony pursuant to Utah State Code § 81-4-501 et seq..

48. Alimony shall be awarded to Petitioner unless one of the following conditions occurs: the death of either party, Petitioner remarries, or Petitioner cohabitates with another person through a determination by the court, whichever occurs first.

TAXES

49. The parties shall file their 2025 tax returns as married, filing jointly, and shall file each year separately thereafter. Any taxes or refunds obtained by the parties for the 2025 tax year shall be equally divided between the parties.

50. The parties shall each claim one (1) of the minor children for tax purposes each year, until the oldest child can no longer be claimed for tax purposes. At that time, the parties shall alternate claiming the remaining child for tax purposes, where Petitioner shall claim the minor child for tax purposes in even years, and Respondent shall claim the minor child for tax purposes in odd years.

51. The parties shall only have the ability to claim the minor children for tax purposes if the obligated party is current on his or her child support by December 31 of the given year. Otherwise, the other party shall claim the children for federal and state income tax exemptions.

REAL PROPERTY

52. At the time of this Petition, the parties have no ownership interests in any real property, and therefore, no division is required by the Court.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

53. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired various items of personal property which have been previously divided between the parties, and such property is now in the possession of that party, and shall be held by that party free and clear of any claim by the other.

54. Respondent shall retain all interest, title, and ownership in the 2020 Toyota RAV4, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner, and Respondent shall be solely obligated for any debt or liability associated with the vehicle, holding Respondent harmless from the same.

55. Respondent shall retain all interest, title, and ownership in the Dodge Ram truck, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner, and Respondent shall be solely obligated for any debt or liability associated with the vehicle, holding Petitioner harmless from the same.

INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT, AND BANK ACCOUNTS, AND SECURITIES

56. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties established, either jointly or separately, certain retirement, savings, investments, bank accounts, and/or other securities.

57. Petitioner is awarded the America First Credit Union bank account ending in 5505, and the Mountain America bank account ending in 5032. Petitioner is awarded all of her retirement, investment, and 401(k) accounts, if any such exist, in her sole ownership and possession, free and clear of any claim by Respondent.

58. Respondent shall be awarded the America First Credit Union bank account ending in 4235, and any other bank accounts. Respondent is awarded all of his retirement, investment, and 401(k) accounts, including his Tesla 401(k) account, if any such exist, in his sole ownership and possession, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

59. Should the parties have any joint banking or investment accounts, those accounts shall be immediately closed by the parties and the funds divided equally between the parties.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

60. The parties have no business interests.

DEBTS

61. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties have incurred various debts. The party in whose name the debt appears shall be solely responsible for it, and the responsible party is required to indemnify the other and hold the other harmless from any loss, damage, demand, or claim of any kind arising from his or her failure or neglect to do so.

62. The Respondent has a $29,710 loan on the Toyota RAV4, and a $22,521 loan on the Dodge Ram. The debt and loan obligation repayment for the aforementioned vehicles shall be the sole responsibility of Respondent, and Respondent shall remove Petitioner's interest and name from the vehicles immediately, should her name exist on those loans or titles. Respondent shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless from any debt obligation or negative credit impact, resulting from his sole obligation to maintain and pay back the loans of the vehicles, should any such occur.

63. The parties shall also be ordered to notify creditors or obligees of the Court's division of debts or obligations and to give creditors the parties' separate, current addresses. The parties shall keep any and all joint related debts current and in good standing with the creditors.

- a. In addition to a creditors' duties as a secured party under Utah Code Ann. § 81-7-102 and the creditor's duties as a trustee or beneficiary of a trust deed under Utah Code title 57, Chapter 1, conveyances a creditor who has been notified by service of a copy of a court order under Utah Code Ann. § 81-7-103 that the debtors are divorced or living separately under an order for separate maintenance, and who has been expressly advised of the separate, current addresses of the debtors either by the court order or by other written notice, must provide the debtors individually all statements, notices and other similar correspondence required by law or by the contract.

- b. With respect to a debtor who is not ordered by the court under Utah code Ann. § 81-7-103 to make payment on a joint obligation, no negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. § 70C-7107, and no report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Utah Code Ann., Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, may be made regarding the joint obligation after the creditor is served notice of the court's order unless the creditor has made a demand on the debtor for payment because of the failure to make payments by the debtor, who is ordered by the court to make the payments.
- c. Absent an agreement by the parties, any and all debts incurred by either party from the date of separation on May 15, 2024, and thereafter shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring the debt, with the other party being indemnified and held harmless from the same.
- d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. If a payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt, in addition to interest and attorney's fees, from the other party.

MISCELLANEOUS

64. Identity: Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

65. If she so desires, Petitioner shall be allowed to restore her maiden name, keep her married name, or any combination she chooses.

66. Petitioner believes there is no chance of reconciliation of the parties' marriage and that waiting and interlocutory periods provided by law would serve no useful purpose.

67. Execution of Documents/ Deeds/ Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer the titles or any other documents necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce. The parties shall provide a certified copy of the final Decree of Divorce, and any modifications thereto, to all creditors as outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-204(1)(e) and Utah Code Ann. § 15-4-6.5 and to effectuate compliance with these statutes.

68. Mediation. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or the terms or implementation of any agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed-upon third party or mediator before the parties initiate legal action. However, either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the Court in the future should an emergency arise that would make formal negotiation impractical.

69. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

 * * END OF ORDER * * ***
