In all other instances, the parent beginning his or her parent-time shall be responsible for transportation. The parent/person dropping-off or pickup-up a child may accompany the child to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

14. If either party is unavailable to personally transport the child for a parent-time exchange, they may designate an appropriate and responsible person to provide said transportation. If a third party is providing transportation for the child, the parent who elected that individual shall immediately provide the other parent with that third party's name and contact information.

15. Right of First Refusal: Pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-202, parental care is presumed to be better for the child than surrogate care. Therefore, if either party is available when the other parent is not available to personally care for the child during their parent-time for a period of more than four (4) hours, including overnight, they shall have the right of first refusal. A parent exercising the right of first refusal shall be solely responsible for picking the

In accordance with Utah Code 81- 6-203, Aruthur shall be ordered to pay child support to Michelle for the parties' children in the amount of $2,250.00 per month.

a. The child support will be paid until (I) a minor child reaches the age of majority or graduate High School in the expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code 80-7-105.

21. If a parent marries and their dependent child is not covered by their insurance, but is covered by the step-parent's plan, the step-parent's plan shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation for primary or secondary insurance as described above.

22. If the court or an administrative agency must determine which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the:

- e. Reasonableness of the cost;
- f. Availability of a group insurance policy;
- g. Coverage of the policy; and
- h. Preference of the custodial parent.

23. The party who carries the insurance on the child shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 26. Either parent who incurs health, optical, hospital, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other medical expenses for the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the costs and payment for the expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent shall reimburse them within thirty (30) days of receiving verification of payment. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expense or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with this provision. Utah Code 81-6-208.

27. Notice to Medical/Dental Expense Creditors: Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.7, Utah Code 81-3-105, and Utah Code 81-4-501(2)-(4), when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code 81-4- 501 (2)-(4), 81-4-204, or 81-6-208, or an administrative order under 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

- j. Notify the particular creditor of that party's current address; and
- k. inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under Utah Code 70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

28. Childcare: Each party shall be responsible and liable for one-half of the reasonable childcare costs actually incurred each month as a result of parties' work. Both parties' portions of these childcare costs shall be paid directly to the childcare provider in a timely manner. If a family member is providing childcare, then it shall be presumed that those services are being provided free of charge. The parties shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other party and shall promptly notify the other party of any changes.

29. Tans: Arthur will claim all children as dependents for the first seven years as of the date of this Agreement. Thereafter, each party will claim one child per year. Once only one minor child remains, the parties will alternate claiming that child in subsequent years.

30.Extracurricular Activities: If the parties have agreed in writing to the child's participation in an extracurricular activity, then they shall equally share the costs associated therewith. The parties shall respect the other parent's right to establish an independent life with the child so long as it is not detrimental to the child's development.

36. In an effort to maintain some consistency and standards for discipline, the parties shall attempt to adopt behavior rules that will apply in both homes. This shall include: bedtime, homework, types of movies and video games the child are allowed to watch/play, and frequency of television and computer time. Shall the child complain about a particular parent's rules for them, the explanation shall be that it must be resolved with the other parent so that the parents do not become an ally with the child in that regard. If it is perceived by one party that the discipline of the other is inappropriate, the discussion shall be had in a private and appropriate setting with the other parent, without going through the child.
