DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SALT LAKE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
CATHERINE JENNIFER BAKEWELL Petitioner,	Case No. 264900883
and	Judge Kara Pettit
JAMES MORRIS HOTALING, Respondent.	Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

The above-entitled matter having come before the Court; Petitioner having heretofore filed her Declaration as to Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce and Declaration of Military Service; Petitioner Catherine Jennifer Bakewell (“Catherine”) and Respondent James Morris Hotaling (“James”) having executed a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement dated the 11th day of June, 2026; the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and upon motion of Beau J. Olsen, attorney for Catherine, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. Having been married on November 6, 2010, the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Petitioner, CATHERINE JENNIFER BAKEWELL, and Respondent, JAMES MORRIS HOTALING, are hereby dissolved on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

2. Children. Two (2) children were born as issue of this marriage, to-wit: F.P.H., born November of 2013 and S.J.H., born November of 2011.

PARENTING PLAN

3. Custody/Parent Time. Parent time shall be as the parties agree. In the event the parties do not agree, the parties shall exercise custody pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303, with the following schedule

Mon	Tue	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat	Sun
Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom

- a. Transportation. Unless mutually agreed otherwise, the party who is to begin parent-time shall be responsible for picking up the children for parent-time. However, the parties shall utilize school to school drop offs when possible. When school is not in session, the receiving parent shall pick up the children at 9:00 a.m. from the other parent's residence.
- b. Right of First Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for minor children over any other third party (i.e., surrogate care) if the parent responsible for minor children is not personally available to care for the children for a period of four or more hours and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent-time under the right of first refusal shall (1) provide all transportation to and from parent-time, and (2) provide direct parental care.

- i. If a parent provides the right of first refusal related to work travel, the parties shall work together and reasonably allow the traveling parent to make up said parent time within a reasonable time.

- a. Both parents shall receive two weeks of uninterrupted extended parent time each summer. Both parents shall provide extended parent-time notification with the children by April 1 each year with James having first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Catherine having first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If parent time elections are not timely selected by April 1st, then the first parent to select their summer parent time shall have priority. Extended parent time shall not be used over the other parent's holidays.

5. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, extra curricular, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek an expert in the field (for school a school teacher, for medical the child's doctor) if they still cannot reach an agreement, Catherine shall have de facto final say. If James disagrees with Catherine's final say, he may request mediation or court review to determine if the decision is in the children's best interest.

a. Day to Day Decisions. The party with the parent-time shall make the day to day decisions for the children.

i. Medical. The parties shall continue to use the children's current healthcare providers and specialists that the providers recommend.

ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling the doctor's appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Schooling. The parties agree that absent written mutual agreement, that the children shall remain at their current schools and schools that flow from their current schools.

6. Communication. The parties shall utilize a co-parenting app such as Our Family Wizard, text messages or emails if preferable, for all routine communications. Parties may communicate via telephone in the event of an emergency, for time sensitive issues, or by mutual agreement. All communication, unless otherwise agreed, shall solely concern the children and/or implementation of this Decree of Divorce. All communication shall be civil. The parties shall have a teammate approach to co-parenting.

7. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges, text messages, phone calls and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time, within reason.

8. Cell Phones for the Children. The parties shall evenly divide the cost and service of the children's cell phones.

9. Travel. When a child travels with either parent overnight or longer, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent and the traveling parent shall provide the non-traveling parent with two weeks notice of their itinerary and travel plans, unless exigent circumstances apply:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location, who is willing to communicate with the other parent.

- d. For international travel, the parties shall give each other three months' notice and work together to ensure passports and other travel documentation are obtained in a timely and efficient manner.
- e. International travel shall also be mutually agreed to by the parties, however, consent cannot be unreasonably withheld.
- f. Passports shall remain at Catherine's residence when not in use.

10. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis, if said information is not readily available to the other parent. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in. The parties shall use the calendar in OFW or other calendar to share the children's schedules. Each parent is entitled to be at and participate in the children's events, regardless of who is exercising parent time. Furthermore, each party has a duty to get information directly from the child's source (school, coach, etc.) and shall not solely rely on one parent to provide them all the information.

11. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, family reunions, religious holidays and ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

12. Differing Parenting Styles. The parties shall honor one another's parenting style, privacy, and authority. Neither party shall infringe in the parenting style of the other, nor shall either party make plans or arrangements that would impinge upon the other parent's authority or time with the children without the express agreement of the other party. However, the parties shall work together to the extent possible to have similar house rules, bed times, curfews, etc., to provide consistency for the children.

13. Mutual Restraining. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party. Furthermore, the parties shall not make any disparaging posts about the other party on social media including Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, or other social media platforms.

14. Introduction of Romantic Partners. The parties shall be judicious when introducing the children to a future romantic partner.

15. Transportation other Than Parent. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible person may pick up the children, so long as the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual.

16. Relocation. The relocation of either party shall be governed by Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, however the parties agree that they may not relocate more than 10 miles from the current marital residence without mutual written agreement or further court order.

17. Activity Costs. Each party is hereby ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an activity is agreed to, both parties shall be responsible for ensuring the child attends and has appropriate transportation to and from the extracurricular activity during the parents' respective parent time.

- a. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that the children shall continue to be involved in and participate in rock climbing, skiing, and mountain biking. James agrees to pay 100% of said activity, including equipment, travel, passes, private coaches, and other costs associated with the sport.

18. A party who incurs an expense for a children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

19. Vehicle Insurance. When the parties' children drive, the parties shall evenly divide the cost of car insurance for the minor children.

20. School Costs. Each party is hereby ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, choir travel, school sports, books, required supplies, tutoring, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school for the minor children. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

21. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202 et seq. Catherine's gross monthly is $27,500 per month. James's gross monthly income is at least $100,000 per month. For purpose of calculating child support, Catherine shall have 183 overnights per year and James shall have 182 overnights per year. Based on a joint physical custody worksheet, child support shall be paid to Catherine in the amount of $2,450 per month. Child support shall begin being paid by James to Catherine in July 2026.

22. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each and every month.

23. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. James is currently providing said insurance.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.
- b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

- d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of James shall be primary coverage for the dependent and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Catherine shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.
- e. Double coverage is not necessary, but may be used if mutually agreed to by the parties. If double coverage occurs, then each shall be responsible for their own insurance premium. If at any time the children are covered by medical insurance provided by both parents, James's shall be considered the primary policy.

24. Daycare Costs. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209, the parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor children.

25. If an actual expense for the child care is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

26. In absence of a court order to the contrary, a parent who incurs a child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

27. In absence of a court order to the contrary, the parent shall notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

28. Dependency Exemption. Dependency for state and federal taxes shall be divided as follows:

Child	Even Tax Year	Odd Tax Year
F.P.H.	James	Catherine
S.J.H	Catherine	James

29. The tax credits may only be claimed if the obligor of child support is current as of December 31st of any given tax year.

30. 2025 Federal and State Taxes. The parties shall file joint taxes for the year 2025 and evenly divide any refund. If there is a liability, James shall be solely responsible for said liability.

31. Real Property. The parties own a home and real property located at 732 East Northcrest Drive, Salt Lake City, Utah 84103. Catherine is hereby awarded all right, title and possession to said home and real property. There is currently $814,401.70 in equity in said property. James is entitled to a payment of $407,200.85, which shall be accounted for in the financial asset division below. Catherine shall either assume the mortgage or refinance the mortgage into her individual name, within one year of this Decree of Divorce being entered by this court.

32. The parties also own 50% of a home and real property located at 581 Grouse Creed Road, Tetonia, Idaho 83452. Said home is currently under contract to be sold. The net proceeds of the sale of the home shall be evenly divided between Catherine and James and the parties shall follow the advice of their accountant to minimize taxes.

33. Alimony. Neither party shall be awarded past, present, or future alimony and Catherine forever waives any claim to alimony from James.

34. Property Settlement. In lieu of Catherine waiving alimony, in consideration of the $407,200 equity that James is owed, and in consideration of equalizing the marital estate, James shall pay Catherine a lump sum of $493,000 within seven days of the parties signing the stipulation. Thereafter, $128,572 is payable by no later than the 31st day of December each year for 2027, 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, 2032, 2033, 2034. These payments are waived and shall not be due from James to Catherine if the parties reside together for more than six (6) months in any given calendar year.

35. Personal Property. The parties are hereby awarded their personal effects, personal sporting equipment, and any gifts the parties have received during the marriage. The parties are also hereby awarded any items that each agrees to by written agreement.

- a. Notwithstanding the above, Catherine shall be entitled to the contents of the house at 732 East Northcrest Drive. Said offset was appropriately accounted for during the divisions of the accounts.

36. Vehicles. The parties shall divide the vehicles as follows:

Vehicle	Awarded to	Party Responsible for Debt, if any
2014 Acura MDX	James	James
2017 Ford F150	Catherine	Catherine
2019 Apex Nano	Catherine	Catherine
2021 Tesla Y	Catherine	Catherine

37. Debts. The debts shall be divided as follows:

- a. Each party shall be responsible for the debts in their individual names, particularly the respective credit cards, and shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other party harmless from liability thereon.

- b. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.
- c. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names, unless otherwise noted above. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.
- d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.
- e. Catherine shall indemnify and hold James harmless on all debts and obligations Catherine is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

f. James shall indemnify and hold Catherine harmless on all debts James is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

38. Financial Accounts and Investment accounts. The parties' financial accounts and investment accounts shall be divided and are hereby awarded as follows:

41. Pension Plan. Catherine has a pension plan with IHC which shall be divided pursuant to the Woodward formula.

42. Business. Catherine is hereby awarded CJB Consulting LLC, including all of its assets, debts, liabilities, and accounts receivable free and clear from any claim by James.

Catherine shall hold James harmless from any liabilities and obligations associated with CJB Consulting LLC.

43. The assets of Altius LLC, shall be divided as stated below.

44. Private Equity Investments. The parties have private equity investments with the following entities: Carrott Fertility, Inc; Co-Diagnostics; Divergent Capital VC Fund; FirmTech, Inc; Horizon VC, LP; Induction Bio, LLC; Inherent Biosciences Inc; Maximus Health, Inc; MBX Capital III-A; Paterna Biosciences, Inc; Paterna Biosciences; Holdco, Inc; Repro Nova; Sethara, LLC; Sethera Therapeutics, LLC; Springtide Ventures Fund III, LP; Stasys Medical Corp; Titin KM Biomedical Corporation. Said investments, existing options from the investment, and income from said investments shall be placed into a trust that shall be managed and dispersed by Mariana Mavor. Each party shall be equal beneficiaries to said trust. Any disbursements from the trust shall be distributed in an equal (50/50) basis to each party. If a capital call occurs, each party shall contribute 50% of the capital call. However, the parties do not anticipate any capital calls and shall use their best efforts to avoid any capital calls.

- a. The parties recognize and agree that various investments have "purchase options" that have value. Each party is entitled to 50% of said value. In the event a party wishes to purchase an option after this Decree is entered, the party may purchase up to 50% of said options, by paying the other party their 50% interest in said options. Once the options are purchased, it shall be removed from the trust and be deemed separate property.

- b. The parties shall seek the advice of an accountant to ensure that they effectively maximize any tax advantages and to ensure the post tax equal division of benefits flowing from these investments.

45. Intellectual Property. James owns intellectual property for various medical devices, including but not limited to hormone eluting bone implant patent. To the extent legally possible, James shall have the trust, listed in paragraph 48 above, be the owner of said intellectual property. Any profits or royalties from this property shall be evenly divided by the parties and managed by the trust as referenced in the paragraph above. James shall provide an accounting to Catherine and the trust for any royalties or income from the intellectual property by March 1st of each year, for the previous tax year. If it is not possible for the trust to own said property, then James shall then pay Catherine 50% of the net of tax amount of the royalties (by taking account for any taxes he would be responsible for) by October 15th of each and every year.

46. Deeds and Titles and Other Documents: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in this Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement this Decree of Divorce. Particularly, documents associated with taxes, royalties, private equity investments, etc.

The parties shall provide each other any past tax returns or any other important documents from the marriage.

47. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party is hereby ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

SO ORDERED.

In accordance with the Utah State District Court's Efiling Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Decree of Divorce does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge, but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Order.

NOTICE PURSUANT TO RULE 7(j) OF THE UTAH RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE TO THE PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to Rule 7(j) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, this Decree of Divorce prepared by Petitioner shall be the Order of the Court unless you file an objection in writing within seven (7) days from the date of the service of this notice.
