Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: QUINN ABRAHAM DUNFORD,	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264902583 Judge: WELCH Commissioner: BLOMQUIST

Petitioner,
AND

CAROLINE F MENDOZA,

Respondent.

The Court, having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES and DECREES that the bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between the parties are dissolved and the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences, to become final upon entry by the Court. The Court further ORDERS as follows:

Jurisdiction

1. Marriage information: Petitioner Quinn Dunford (“Quin”) and Respondent Caroline F. Mendoza (“Caroline”) agree that they are husband and wife, having been married on March 15, 2020, in Draper, Salt Lake County, Utah. The parties agree that they separated on or about October 7, 2024.

2. Residency: The parties agree that Petitioner is a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and that he has so resided from more than three (3) months immediately before the commencement of these proceedings.

3. General Jurisdiction: The parties agree that this Court has general jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Utah Code §78A-5-102(1) and Utah Code §81-4-402(1).

4. Personal Jurisdiction: The parties agree that this Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties pursuant to Utah Code §78B-3-205 and Utah Code §78B-15-604.

5. Venue: The parties agree that venue is proper in this Court pursuant to Utah Code §78B-3a-201 and Utah Code §81-4-203(1).

Grounds

6. The parties agree that they experienced difficulties during the marriage, which could not be reconciled, and which have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship. Accordingly, the parties agree that a decree of divorce should be entered on the ground of irreconcilable differences.

Children

7. The parties agree that they have no minor children and that none are expected.

Premarital/ Inherited Property

8. Unless otherwise indicated herein, the parties agree that they should each be awarded any and all interests that they may have in personal property that they acquired prior to the marriage.

9. Unless otherwise indicated herein, the parties agree that all property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

10. The parties agree and acknowledge that they do not have any claim to the other's inheritance and expressly waive any interest in the other family's estates, assets, holdings, and trusts that may exist.

Personal Property

11. The parties agree that they acquired certain items of personal property during the marriage and that such should remain as currently divided as follows:

- a. The 2020 Toyota Rav 4 is awarded to Caroline, and she is responsible for any debt associated with it.
- b. 2007 Acura MDX is awarded to Quinn.
- c. All pets are awarded to Quinn.
- d. Furniture, TVs, appliances and other personal property should be divided as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree they should use an alternate pick method to divide the remaining personal property.

12. Unless otherwise indicated herein, the parties agree that they should each be awarded their own personal effects, and any items purchased specifically for their own individual use (e.g. skis, bicycles, etc.)

13. The parties agree that they should have sole and exclusive ownership and possession of the personal property awarded to them herein, that they should be solely responsible for any and all obligations and expenses associated therewith, and that they should hold the other harmless with respect thereto.

14. To the extent that any personal property awarded to one party is titled or owned in the other party's name, the parties agree that the other party's name should be removed no later than thirty (30) days following entry of the Decree of Divorce and that each party should cooperate and sign any document necessary upon presentment to remove their name from the title associated with the personal property at issue.

Financial Assets

15. The parties agree that they acquired financial assets during the marriage and that such should be divided as set forth below.

16. Unless otherwise indicated herein, each party is hereby awarded all accounts in their own name.

17. Any and all joint accounts have been divided and closed.

Debts and Other Obligations

18. The parties agree that they acquired debt and other financial obligations during the marriage and that such should be divided as follows:

- a. The parties have no joint credit cards.
- b. Each party is responsible for any and all credit card debt in their own names.
- c. Caroline acquired student debt prior to the marriage which she is solely responsible for.

d. Caroline is solely responsible for the AFCU car loan for the 2020 Toyota RAV4.

19. Unless otherwise indicated herein, each party should be responsible for any debt incurred in their own name.

20. The parties agree that they should each be solely responsible for any debts or other financial obligations awarded to them herein and that they should hold the other party harmless from any liability associated with those debts or other financial obligations.

21. The parties agree that they should not incur any debt on any account or credit card awarded to the other and, to the extent that they do, they should be solely responsible for such debt.

22. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-4-406(3(b)), the parties agree that they should notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the division of debts, obligations or liabilities addressed herein and of the parties' separate, current addresses.

23. The parties agree that they should refinance any debt awarded to them herein that is in the other party's name into solely their own name within three (3) months following entry of the decree of divorce.

Business Interests/ Investments

24. The parties agree that they acquired business interests, assets, or investments during the marriage and that such should be divided as set forth below.

a. Caroline is awarded ownership of With Care Nail Bar free and clear of any claim from Quinn.

25. The parties agree that they should each be solely responsible for any and all debts, liabilities or obligations associated with the business interests, assets, or investments awarded to them herein, and that they should hold the other harmless with respect thereto.

26. To the extent that any business interest awarded to one party is titled or owned in the other party's name, the other party's name should be removed from the title within thirty (30) days following entry of the decree of divorce, and each party should cooperate and sign any document necessary upon presentment to remove their name from the title associated with the business interest at issue.

Taxes

27. The parties agree that they should equally share the total unpaid tax liability from 2021, 2022, and 2024, totaling $3,910.23.

28. The parties agree that they should file tax returns as married filing separately for 2025, and any refund or liability associated therewith should remain with the individual who filed the return.

29. The parties agree that they should file separate individual tax returns for 2026 and for following years. The parties also agree that they should each be awarded any amount refunded in connection with their individual tax returns and that they should each be solely liable for any amount due and owing, holding the other harmless from the same.

Spousal Support

30. The parties agree that they can financially support themselves, and neither party should receive spousal support from the other.

Attorney Fees

31. The parties agree that they should each be ordered to assume any outstanding attorney fees and costs incurred on their behalf while prosecuting this action and as of the date the Stipulation is signed.

Personal Conduct

32. The parties agree that they should be mutually restrained from bothering or harassing the other.

33. The parties agree that they should be mutually restrained from using the other's likeness or image in any way without express written consent of the other party.

Breach of Agreement

34. The parties agree that if either of them breaches the agreement, they may be liable to the other for the attorney fees of the other party related to enforcement efforts.

Execution and Delivery of Documents

35. The parties agree that they should act in good faith and cooperate to title the items awarded to them in a way that is consistent with the Stipulation and that they should each be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Stipulation and the decree of divorce entered by the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

 In accordance with the Utah State District Courts E-filing Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Decree of Divorce does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Decree of Divorce. **
