8. Virtual Parent Time. Each party shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the child. The parties will use the phones of each parent for this contact until the child has their own devices for communication. The parties will discuss and agree on an appropriate age for the child to have their own phone and other cellular devices. Until then, neither parent is required to allow the child unrestricted access to their personal phones, and each parent may supervise the child's use of their device during such communication, but will attempt to allow privacy for the communication.

9. Right of First Refusal. Each parent will have the right of first option to provide care for the minor child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the minor child is not available overnight, or longer during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Nothing in this provision will prohibit the minor child from participating in sleepovers/lateovers with family or friends or overnight sleep-away camps.

10. Access to Information. Both parties will have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. Each party will sign releases as necessary to ensure the other parent will have access to all records.

11. Decision Making. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the child, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate before court intervention. If after mediation the parties still cannot agree, they will follow the advice of the expert with whom they consulted. Each party shall have the right to obtain a second opinion at his or her own cost and to challenge the decision in Court.

12. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities and care when the child is in his or her care. If an emergency arises, the parent exercising parent-time shall have the authority to make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child. The parent exercising parent-time during an emergency shall use his/her best efforts to inform the other parent of the emergency and to advise and consult with the other parent regarding emergency medical treatment of the child.

13. School Choice. The child shall continue to attend her current schools and feeder schools until further agreement between the parties or order of the Court.

14. Travel. When the child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances and prior to departure for domestic travel or twenty-one (21) days for international travel:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates including flight numbers if traveling by air;
- b. Destination, including lodging plans;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached;
- d. And the name and telephone number of an available third person not traveling with the child who would be knowledgeable of the child's location in case of an emergency.
- e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation (if such notarized documentation is needed) between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The party who is traveling internationally shall be responsible for determining whether a notarized consent form is necessary based on the destination country's requirements. The parties will cooperate to timely renew the child's passports upon request of either party.

15. Our Family Wizard. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the parties will utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate, calendar and exchange receipts and shall utilize the tone meter. The parties will each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use text contact only for emergencies and changes on the day of the exchange. Each party shall set up and pay for their portion of Our Family Wizard by July 1, 2026. The parties shall respond within 48 hours of any communication. The parties will exchange receipts, calendar, and communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. The communication shall be civil, respectful, and limited to issues regarding the child.

16. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and sporting events their child may be involved in that are not available online or through emails of the program. The parties will maintain a shared calendar to confirm the child's schedule. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice. The parties have an affirmative duty to get information directly from the source if equally available to both parents. Confirmation that electronic access to the information is available for both parents is sufficient notice.

17. Relocation. Regarding the possibility of relocation, the parties shall give one another a minimum of 60 days advance written notice if they plan to move over 40 miles away from the marital home. All the provisions of Utah Code Section 81-9-209 shall also apply.

18. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule. Notwithstanding, if there is not an agreement to a change for a special event, the parent-time schedule controls.

19. Mutual Restraining Orders.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their child's best interest. Both parties shall encourage the child to refer to each party as "mom" or "dad" while in the other's care and will refer to each other as such when talking to the child.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues related to this divorce action or co-parenting in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent, with the child for the purpose of diminishing the relationship, or from discussing the other parent in a negative way with third parties in front of the child. Neither party will engage in questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and are restrained from allowing any other person to do so in their presence.

c. Both parties are restrained from discussing with or in the presence of the minor child any conflicts between the parties, past or present, and are to instruct third parties from doing the same. The parties are to promptly remove the child from any such situation.

d. Both parties are restrained from entering the other party's home absent express written permission of the other party.

e. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at any of the child's activities.

f. Both parties shall be restrained from discussing the legal action or any adult topics in a way that is not age appropriate with the minor child or in the presence of the child, and are to instruct third parties to also be so restrained.

g. A parent shall immediately contact the other parent if there is a safety concern regarding the child.

h. Both parties shall maintain a clean and safe environment for the minor child.

i. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

j. The parties shall not disparage the other party's family members, friends, paramour, significant other, fiancé/e, or future stepparents.

k. Both parties are restrained from discussing a potential activity (family, school, church, or extra-curricular), event, outing, event, party, vacation, or other similar events with or in the presence of the minor child of the parties prior to the parties mutually agreeing to the child participating in the same if the activity will require parental agreement to participate or will meaningfully impact the other parent's time.

l. Both parties are restrained from making any parent-time plans or adjusting the parent-time schedule through or in the presence of the minor child.

m. The parties are restrained from knowingly allowing the child to be in the presence of any illicit substance use, prescription drug abuse, or in the presence of any person under the influence of an illicit substance or prescription drugs in a non-prescribed way. The parties shall immediately remove the child from any such situation.

n. The parties are restrained from allowing the child to be a passenger in a vehicle in which the driver is known by the parent to have consumed any amount of alcohol in the previous three hours. The parties will not allow the child to be in the presence of any individual who has consumed alcohol to the point of intoxication if there is a safety issue for the child and will remove the minor child from such situations if they are in control of the environment in which this exposure may occur.

o. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

20. Child Support. Commencing July 1, 2026, Matthew is ordered to pay to Stephanie child support in the amount of $330 per month. Child support is calculated using a joint custody worksheet with 183 overnights to Stephanie and 182 Overnights to Matthew. Child support is based on Stephanie's gross monthly income of $5,206 and Matthew's gross monthly income of $12,736. Child support is due in full on the 5th day of each month, unless the Office of Recovery Services is involved to collect support, at which point different due date(s) may apply. Child support terminates when the minor child attains the age of eighteen, graduates from high school in their normal and anticipated year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or upon their emancipation as defined in Utah Code Section 81-6-213.

21. Childcare and Costs. The parties shall each pay their own work-related childcare costs. Prior to utilizing child care, each parent shall offer the other parent the first right to watch the minor child. The name and contact information for any childcare providers shall be provided to each parent and any childcare providers shall have both parent's numbers when watching the child.

22. Medical Insurance. Matthew will maintain and pay for the medical and dental insurance for the benefit of the minor child so long as the same is available to him at a reasonable cost. In the event that Stephanie also has medical insurance available, the parties shall determine which party has the best coverage considering the deductible, estimated out of pocket costs, continuity of providers, and premium costs for each policy available to the parties, and that party shall insure the child. The parties will confer in the month prior to open enrollment each year to determine the best coverage option for the following year. The parties shall equally pay any out-of-pocket or uncovered medical, health, dental, orthodontic, mental health, or vision/optical costs for the minor child including but not limited to, co-payments, deductibles, a per capita portion of the child's premiums, prescriptions, out-of-network providers, uncovered providers, and uninsured costs incurred for the benefit of the minor child consistent with Utah

Code Sections 81-9-208. A party receiving a request for reimbursement will pay the other party within 30 days of receipt of the final out of pocket expenses and proof of payment. The insuring party will provide to the other party verification of the health insurance coverage upon initial enrollment and upon any change in insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 days of the date of when the insuring party knows of the change. All other costs shall be shared as indicated herein. The insuring party shall sign any document necessary allowing the other party to access the child's explanation of benefits, premiums, billing, provider lists, and any other information needed to meet the child's medical needs.

23. Double Coverage. In the event the child is covered by both parties' health insurance, Matthew's health insurance shall be designated as primary coverage and Stephanie's health insurance shall be designated as secondary coverage. The parties may enter into a written agreement to vary from the provisions of this paragraph without amending the order arising therefrom.

24. Non-covered Medical Expenses. The parties shall equally share the cost of the child's non-covered medical expenses. Medical expenses include mental healthcare, vision, eyewear, orthodontia, dental, and preventative care. The party incurring such an expense shall provide written verification of the expense and proof of payment to the other parent within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of the final out-of-pocket expense. The other party shall pay his/her portion of the incurred expense upon receipt of written verification of the final expense pursuant to Utah Code Section 81-6-208 within thirty (30) days. Verification shall be provided in writing and through the co-parenting app if utilized.

25. School Fees. The parties shall share equally all mandatory public-school fees and the cost of school lunch for the minor child. The parties shall also equally pay for the cost of school registration, book and yearbook fees, labs fees, field trips, and similar types of education related fees for the minor child.

26. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall mutually agree in writing in advance on any extra-curricular activity in which the minor child may participate if shared costs and/or participation of both parties are anticipated. If a party commits a child to an activity without the prior consent of the other party, the non-consenting party shall have no obligation to participate in the costs and expenses associated with the activity or for the practices and participation of the child in the activity during the non-consenting party's parent-time. Consent to allow a child to participate in an extra-curricular activity shall not be unreasonably withheld. Either party may attend performances, games, etc. regardless of whether the party approved of or paid any portion of the extra-curricular activity.

27. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a marital interest in real property located at 11771 S. Bur Oak Lane, Sandy, UT 84092. The property shall be sold by the parties. The parties shall agree on a real estate agent to list the property within thirty (30) days of signing their Agreement, and shall list the property for sale within sixty (60) days of signing their Agreement. If the parties are unable to agree on a real estate agent, Stephanie shall pick three real estate agents and present them to Matthew. Matthew will then have seven (7) days to pick one of the three options. If Matthew does not pick by the end of the seven (7) days, Stephanie shall choose the real estate agent. The parties will follow the real estate agent's advice on pricing, staging, cleaning, any necessary repairs, etc. Both parties may remain living in the marital home while the home is listed. All costs associated with the home shall be equally split between the parties for as long as the home is listed for sale. At closing, the proceeds will be divided by first paying the remaining mortgage and all costs of sale. Any remaining proceeds shall be split equally between the parties.

28. Vehicles. Stephanie is awarded the 2011 Chevy Traverse. Matthew is awarded the 2007 Chevy Silverado and 1996 Jayco Camp Trailer. Each party is fully responsible for the vehicle awarded to her/him, including maintaining and paying on time any and all insurance, taxes, registrations fees, emissions testing, tires, repairs, maintenance, upkeep, oil changes, gasoline, etc., and any debt obligation associated with the vehicle awarded to her/him. The parties will cooperate to transfer title of the awarded vehicles into each other's names within thirty (30) days of the signing of their Agreement if needed.

29. Matthew's Business Interests. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired an interest in two businesses, namely AllPro Chubbuck LLP and RS Raintree Investors LLC. Matt shall retain these business interests in exchange for waiving his claim to Stephanie's Wells Fargo accounts ending in 8846 and 2087.

30. Stephanie's Business Interest. Stephanie was gifted an ownership percentage in "Your Employment Solutions" in 2010 by her parents. This business interest is premarital and is awarded in its' entirety to Stephanie.

31. Alimony. Stephanie is in need of alimony and Matthew has the ability to pay alimony. Matthew shall pay rehabilitative alimony to Stephanie in the amount of $1,500.00 a month for the first year after entry of the Decree, $1,000 a month for the second year, $500 a month for the third year, and terminating thereafter. Alimony is due in two equal payments on the 8th and 25th of each month, unless the parties otherwise agree.

32. Checking and Savings Accounts. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a marital interest in a number of checking and savings accounts. Stephanie is awarded the Wells Fargo accounts ending in 8846 and 2087 in lieu of her claim for division of the business property described in paragraph 29. There are three joint accounts: Wells Fargo 6940, Utah Community Credit Union 8800, and Utah Community Credit Union 7588. The parties shall work together to equally divide these accounts within thirty (30) days of the signing of their Agreement. The parties shall also work together to either close the accounts or remove a party's name from the accounts within thirty (30) days of the signing of their Agreement.

33. Retirement Accounts. Matthew has a 401(k) from O.C. Tanner with Empower, plan # 778-01. This account contains approximately $113,927.66 as of 3/31/26. Stephanie is awarded $56,963.83 from this account, to be transferred via a Qualified Domestic Relations Order. Matthew may take a loan out against his retirement. In the event that Matthew takes a loan out against his retirement, this will not affect the amount that Stephanie is awarded, and he shall not take more than $50,000 from the account. Additionally, this loan amount shall be assumed entirely by Matthew, and shall not be considered a marital debt. The parties agreed to jointly hire Connor Fackrell of Fackrell and McLean to prepare the Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") to divide the account. The parties will equally share any costs associated with the QDRO. The parties will reach out to Mr. Fackrell within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of this Decree of Divorce. Stephanie has a retirement account with the Utah Retirement Services. This account is premarital, and is awarded in its entirety to Stephanie.

34. Financial Accounts. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a marital interest in a certain financial account, namely Utah Community Credit Union Acct. 3940. The parties shall work together to equally divide the account.

35. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired multiple items of personal property. Stephanie is awarded her Barbie House, and the cream-colored, L-shaped couch, and one of the TVs, which is not the projector TV, which is awarded to Matt. The remaining personal property in the marital home will be divided equally as the parties may agree. The parties will work together to divide personal property by agreement. In the event there is a dispute about any items of personal property, those items will be divided as follows. The parties shall flip a coin, and the winning party shall select his or her choice from the disputed items. The parties shall thereafter alternate choosing each remaining item until all items are claimed.

36. Each party is awarded their personal effects.

37. Pets. The parties have two pets: A dog named Poppy and a cat named Kissy. Both pets are awarded to Matthew. Matthew shall be responsible for all costs, expenses, and responsibilities associated with the pets, and shall hold Stephanie harmless therefrom.

38. Taxes. The parties have already filed their 2025 taxes. The parties shall file separately for the 2026 tax year and every year thereafter.

39. Child Tax Credit and Dependents. The parties shall equally share the child tax credits with Stephanie claiming the minor child in even tax years and Matthew claiming the minor child in odd tax years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the party claiming a child must be current on all support obligations as of December 31 of the relevant tax year and must actually receive a benefit to claim the child. The parties shall cooperate with each other to provide any necessary documentation to carry out the terms of this paragraph, e.g., by signing and delivering IRS Form 8332.

40. Debts. Other than the mortgage on the marital home discussed above, there are no additional marital debts. Each party is responsible for payment of the debts held in his or her own name. If either party has incurred debts in the other party's name without that other party's knowledge, the person creating the debt shall be solely responsible for that debt. Regarding any and all debts and/or other obligations assigned to one party under the terms hereof, he or she alone shall be responsible for the same, and shall defend, indemnify against liability, indemnify against loss, and hold harmless the other party from the same. Both parties are entitled to provide notice to creditors respecting the division of debts between the parties, including a copy of their Agreement and this Decree of Divorce.

41. Responsibility for Assets. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, as to any and all assets awarded to a party under the terms hereof, beginning the day a party takes possession of an asset or upon the expiration of the time frame for taking possession, whichever is earlier, that party alone shall be fully responsible for all costs, liabilities, and/or obligations associated with such assets, including, but not limited to, debts, taxes, repairs, maintenance, upkeep, registration fees, insurance costs, fuel, etc., and he/she shall defend, indemnify against liability, indemnify against loss, and hold harmless the other party from the same.

42. Legal Fees. Each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees and legal costs incurred herein through the date of entry of this divorce decree.

43. Maiden Name. Stephanie shall be restored to her former name of Stephanie Riley if she so desires.

44. Cooperation. The parties are obligated to cooperate with each other and to perform in good faith all acts necessary to carry out the terms hereof. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other, in a timely manner, any and all documents reasonably necessary to carry out the terms hereof.

45. Default. In the event either party defaults in his/her obligations stated herein, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and court costs, incurred in the enforcement of the obligations from this Decree of Divorce.

46. Mediation. In the event of any future dispute or disputes between the parties, such as a petition to modify, the parties shall mediate in good faith with a mutually agreed upon neutral mediator. Mediation must occur prior to any court hearing, except in emergency situations, or on motions to enforce the terms herein. The parties shall equally share the mediator's fee. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, the Court shall appoint a mediator. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and provided to each party. If the Court finds that one party has used or frustrated the mediation process without good cause, the Court may award attorney fees, costs, and other financial sanctions to the other party.

47. Satisfied with Disclosure. Each party has represented and warranted that she/he has fully and completely disclosed to the other party all of his/her marital assets and liabilities of every kind and nature known to her or him, that the terms stated in this document encompass and address all such assets and liabilities, and that there are no assets or liabilities that have not been addressed in connection with this final settlement of this divorce matter. Each party was satisfied with their knowledge of the financial matters agreed upon and specifically represented that their Agreement was a fair and reasonable resolution of the issues in this divorce matter given all the facts and circumstances of the marriage.
