Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the Matter of the Marriage of: COURTNEY ALYSSA MURPHY, Petitioner, v. RYAN PATRICK MURPHY Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 234905895 Judge Linda Jones Commissioner Joanna Sagers

The Court, being fully advised, and having considered the Parties' Stipulated Petition for Divorce and having entered and signed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law already on file, now decrees and orders as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Petitioner and Respondent married in 2006 and have three minor children together, to wit: L.M. (DOB 12/04/2009), S.M. (DOB 08/31/2011), Z.M. (DOB 10/10/2013).

During the divorce process, Respondent consented to terminating his parental rights in the Juvenile Court (Case Nos. 1258728, 1258729, 1258730) and the Court signed the Termination on March 5, 2026. As a result, there are no minor children to address as a result of this marriage.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

2. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action. Respondent is a resident of Utah County and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. The Parties, Courtney and Ryan Murphy, were married on April 1, 2006, in Sandy, Utah and are currently married.

4. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 78A-5-102 and 78B-3-205.

5. Venue is proper pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-203.

6. During the marriage, the Parties experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the Parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship; therefore, a divorce shall be granted on the grounds of irreconcilable differences consistent with the terms and provisions contained below.

PROVISIONS REGARDING PARTIES' CHILDREN

Due to the termination of Respondent's parental rights, there are no minor children as a result of the marriage.

REAL PROPERTY

7. Real Property. The parties do not own real property.

PROVISIONS REGARDING PERSONAL PROPERTY

8. During the course of the marriage relationship, Parties have acquired certain items of personal property. Personal property has been divided in addition to the following:

A. Petitioner should be awarded the Honda Odyssey 2016 free and clear of any interest or responsibility by Respondent.

B. Respondent should keep any vehicle currently in his possession, free and clear of any interest or responsibility by Petitioner.

C. The Parties should assume any debts and obligations related to any property he or she is awarded and should indemnify and hold the other harmless from the same.

D. If Parties cannot agree to the division of any of the above stated property, Parties shall attend mediation.

PROVISIONS REGARDING FINANCIAL ASSETS, RETIREMENT

ACCOUNTS, PENSIONS, AND RELATED ASSETS

9. Financial Assets: The parties should equally divide all retirement, investment, and financial assets accrued during the marriage. After the division of these assets, the Parties should be awarded the financial accounts in their own names free and clear from any claim by the opposing party.

PROVISIONS REGARDING DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

10. During the course of the marriage, Parties accrued several debts, including but not limited to balances on multiple credit cards, medical debt, and other unknown debts. The parties agree to each take full responsibility for any debt known and accrued in their own name and shall hold the other party harmless from any liability associated therewith.

11. The parties should assume and pay and hold the other party harmless from liability on any other debts and obligations incurred by the parties after their date of separation, May, 2023.

12. Respondent remains fully responsible for any state or federal taxes, tax fees, or penalties incurred before the parties' separation, including the $1,259.11 Utah State Tax Commission fee that the parties were notified of on May 22nd, 2026.

13. As authorized by Utah Code Ann., § 81-4-406, the Parties shall notify all respective creditors regarding the division of debts, obligations, liabilities, and regarding separate and current addresses.

14. Each Party shall indemnify and hold other Party harmless from all debts and obligations he or she is awarded under the Decree of Divorce. This "hold harmless" clause shall apply to bankruptcy proceedings.

PROVISIONS REGARDING BUSINESS INTERESTS

15. Neither party has any business interests.

PROVISIONS REGARDING MISCELLANEA

I. ALIMONY AND SUPPORT.

16. Ongoing Child Support: Respondent owes no ongoing child support after March 5, 2026, the date the court signed the Order to Terminate the Father's Parental Rights and there are no child support arrears.

17. Alimony: Respondent should pay Petitioner alimony in the amount of $1,500 per month starting from the date of the Termination of the Father's Parental Rights, March 5, 2026, to terminate upon the first of the following to occur: (1) Petitioner's remarriage or cohabitation as defined by statute; (2) payment for a period of six years from the executing this Settlement; or (3) death of either party.

II. ATTORNEY'S FEES.

18. Each party shall pay their own attorney fees related to this action.

III. OTHER.

19. Prior to the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, Parties shall attempt to resolve the issue(s) first through mediation.

20. Petitioner reserves the right to keep her current last name of Murphy or be restored to the use of her former name of Marino if she so chooses.

21. Divorce Education: Petitioner will file the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class certificates within 30 days of the date this Settlement is signed.

22. Each Party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other Party the documents required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce the Court enters.

23. The Court shall grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate.

24. The Parties each indicate that there has been a complete, accurate, and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both Parties understand and agree that any deliberate failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury.

25. If any term, paragraph, or provision of this Decree of Divorce is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of this Decree of Divorce shall continue in full force and effect.

26. The Parties have negotiated the terms of this Decree of Divorce in good faith and have read it in its entirety and agree that it reflects all of the issues negotiated by the Parties. Each Party understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each Party hereto has contributed to the drafting of this Decree of Divorce, and that no provision shall be construed against any Party as being the draftsman thereof. Therefore, this Decree of Divorce shall be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the Party causing the Decree of Divorce to be drafted. The Parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting Party.

27. Each Party understands how this action affects their legal interests and knowingly enters into this Settlement Agreement either after having been fully advised by legal counsel or after acknowledging they have had an opportunity to consult with legal counsel and chose not to do so.

28. This Decree of Divorce is entire and completes and embodies all understandings and agreements between Parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of this Decree of Divorce shall have any force or effect. Each Party is aware that it has the right to proceed to trial in this matter and waives its right to trial. The Parties are satisfied that this Decree of Divorce is fair and reasonable and have no additional questions to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. The Parties agree that all issues that either Party wishes to raise are incorporated in this Decree of Divorce.

DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

29. The Court hereby dissolves the marriage of Petitioner and Respondent consistent with the terms contained herein and enters this Decree of Divorce.
