IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: ASHLEE AMBER DENNIS, Petitioner, and BRADLEY NEAL DENNIS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE CIVIL NO. 264902213 JUDGE: STEPHEN NELSON COMMISSIONER: KIM M. LUHN

The above-entitled matter has been submitted to the Court for decision, the parties having executed a Stipulation for Divorce whereby the parties consented to entry of a Decree of Divorce, and the Court having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

1. Dissolution: The bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between Petitioner Ashlee Amber Dennis (“Ashlee”) and Respondent Bradley Neal Dennis (“Bradley”) are hereby dissolved and the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce.
2. Children: The parties have two minor children: D.J.D., born in September 2024; and C.B.D., born in November 2025.
3. Custody: Bradley and Ashlee are hereby awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the minor children.

4. Parent Time: Bradley and Ashlee are hereby awarded equal parent-time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-305 as follows:

- a. The parties will follow a 5-2-2-5-time schedule with Ashlee receiving Monday and Tuesday overnight and Bradley receiving Wednesday and Thursday overnight, with each party receiving alternating weekends from Friday morning until Monday morning when school begins.

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom
Week 2	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad

- b. Summer. Each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted summer parent time, which may be consecutive pursuant 30-3-35.2 (subsection 5).

- i. For purposes of designating summer uninterrupted parent time, both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time (including the two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time in the summer) or vacation weeks with the children to the other parent.
- ii. In odd-numbered years, Bradley shall provide notice to Ashlee by May 1st and Ashlee shall provide notice to Bradley by May 15th.
- iii. In even-numbered years, Ashlee shall provide notice to Bradley by May 1st and Bradley shall provide notice to Ashlee by May 15th.
- iv. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described, the first parent to provide notice may determine the summer break schedule for the other parent.

c. Holidays. The holidays shall be determined as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, pursuant §81-9-305 (subsection 4), they shall alternate holidays in accordance with U.C.A. §81-9-302. Bradley shall be designated as the non-custodial parent for purposes of holiday allocation only. Holidays take precedence over the regular and summer parent time rotation.

i. Holidays include any “snow” days, teacher development days after the children begin the school year, or other days when school is not scheduled, contiguous to the holiday period, and take precedence over the weekend parent-time. Changes may not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend parent-time schedule.

5. Transportation. Parent-time exchanges shall occur at daycare/school whenever possible. When daycare/school exchanges are not possible, the party receiving the children for his or her parent time shall be responsible for picking up the children from the party with the children. Third party adults who are known to the parties and the children will be allowed to provide transportation for parent time exchanges. The children will be fed, bathed, and appropriately clothed before parent time exchanges occur. The children will be picked up and delivered promptly at the scheduled times. Each parent will notify the other as soon as possible whenever a parent time exchange will not occur as scheduled. Transportation to alternative places, such as school and extracurricular activities, is the responsibility of the parent with whom the children are then residing. During parent time exchanges, the parties will confine their communications to what is necessary to make that exchange, reserving further communication to other times and means. Any communication during parent time exchanges will be civil, business-like and respectful.

6. Parenting Plan. The parties shall abide by the following Parenting Plan:

- a. Both parties will have access to the children's school, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;
- b. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the children's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent;
- c. Each party shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the children;
- d. The parties will equally share the transportation of the children for parent time;

e. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

f. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children;

g. Each party shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within 24 hours of the change;

h. The parent who has the children in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children without having to consult with the other parent;

i. For emergency purposes, whenever the children travel with either parent overnight or longer, the following will be provided to the other parent:

i. an itinerary of travel dates;

ii. destinations; and

iii. places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

j. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the children consistency and stability;

k. The parties will discuss any problems that either of them is experiencing with disciplining the children with the intent to have a “united front” as to matters of discipline and home rules;

l. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;

m. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the children;

n. The parties shall not put the children in the middle. The parties will not discuss with the children adult issues including any legal or financial related issues between the parties;

o. The minor children will not be used as a messenger between the parties;

p. Neither parent shall question the minor children about the other parent’s activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children;

q. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children’s love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent’s actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the children;

r. The parent with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time;

s. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties;

t. All communication between the parties will be civil and respectful; and

u. The parties will make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the minor children, including but not limited to their children's education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues. After discussing an issue and researching solutions, if the parties cannot reach an agreement on a major issue regarding the minor children, the parties will attempt to resolve the issue in mediation, dividing any and all mediation costs equally, before presenting the issue to the Court.

7. Child Support: Ashlee has a gross monthly income of $2,513. Bradley has a gross monthly income of $6,833. Bradley is hereby ordered to pay child support to Ashlee in the sum of $384 per month pursuant to the Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq. Child support shall commence on July 1, 2026.

a. Child support shall be due one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half of the 20th day of each month.

b. Support continues for the minor child until the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States or is emancipated.

c. The parties shall equally share any mandatory school fees and the cost of any extracurricular activities which are agreed to in advance in writing.

d. The person entitled to receive child support will be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code §26B-9 parts 3 and 4.

8. Childcare: Unless agreed otherwise in writing, each party shall be entitled to arrange for childcare for the minor children during his or her parent time and shall be solely responsible for his or her own childcare expenses.

9. Health Insurance/Medical Expenses: The party who can obtain the best insurance coverage at the most reasonable rate shall maintain health insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children when it is available at reasonable cost. Bradley currently carries health insurance for the minor children. At times when both parties maintain health insurance for the children, the policy of Bradley shall be primary coverage and the policy of Ashlee shall be secondary coverage. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket costs of the premium for the children's portion of the premium and one-half of all non-covered medical, dental, orthodontic and counseling expenses for the minor children. The terms of Utah Code §81-6-208 are incorporated into this Decree of Divorce.

10. Alimony: Each party is capable of supporting his or her own financial needs. Neither party shall be ordered to pay alimony.

11. Taxes: The parties will share claiming the minor children on taxes (credits, exemptions, etc.) as follows: Commencing with the 2026 tax year, Bradley shall be entitled to claim D.J.D. and Ashlee shall be entitled to claim C.B.D. A party may only claim the children on his or her tax returns if he or she is current on his or her child support obligations on December 31 of the relevant tax year, pursuant to Utah Code §78B-12-317(2).

12. Real Property: The parties do not own any real property.

13. Personal Property: The parties own certain vehicles and personal property. Each party shall be awarded his or her premarital property, property acquired by gift or inheritance and his or her clothing and personal effects. Bradley will be awarded the 2023 Hyundai Santa Fe, subject to any indebtedness thereon. Ashlee will be awarded the 2025 Chevrolet Trailblazer subject to any indebtedness thereon. Except with respect to premarital property and property acquired by gift or inheritance, all remaining personal property shall be awarded to the parties as it is presently divided.

14. Debts: Each party shall assume and pay and hold the other party harmless from his or her separate debts. To the extent that there are any joint debts which are not known at this time, any such debts shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt. Neith party shall acquire any further joint debts.

15. Financial Accounts: Each party is awarded his or her separate banking accounts free and clear of the other. The parties do not have any retirement of investment accounts.

16. Restraining Orders: Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.
17. Miscellaneous: The Court shall enter equitable orders regarding payment of the parties' costs and attorney fees incurred in this divorce action.
18. Each party is hereby ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of this Decree of Divorce.
19. Ashlee shall be restored to her maiden name, if she so desires.
20. The parties shall attempt mediation prior to filing a petition to modify the provisions of this Decree of Divorce.

Order becomes effective on the date of electronically added signature and seal on page one.
