Attorney - Mediator

Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of

JENNY HOBBS,

Petitioner,

and

JARED HOBBS,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 264902986

Judge: Chelsea Koch

Commissioner: Kim M Luhn

The Petitioner, Jenny Hobbs, and the Respondent, Jared Hobbs, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There is one minor child born or adopted between the parties, to wit: M.J.H. (born January 2011).
2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.
3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Parent-time with the minor child shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule then they shall follow a week-on/week-off schedule with exchanges to occur on Monday after school or 5:30 p.m. if school is not in session.
4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by April 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by April 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If unable to agree, then holiday parent-time shall be as follows. Parties shall follow normal rotating parent-time during any holidays not listed:

Holiday	Holiday Time Period	Respondent (Jared)	Petitioner (Jenny)
Mother's Day	(1) Holiday begins on Mother's Day at 9 a.m. (2) Holiday ends on Mother's Day at 7 p.m.	Every year with Mother	Every year with Mother
Father's Day	(1) Holiday begins on Father's Day at 9 a.m. (2) Holiday ends on Father's Day at 7 p.m.	Every year with Father	Every year with Father
Christmas Eve	(1) Holiday begins on December 23rd at 7 p.m. (2) Holiday ends on December 24th at 7 p.m.	Every year with Father	Every year with Father
Christmas Day	(1) Holiday begins on December 24 th at 7 p.m. (2) Holiday ends on December 25th at 7 p.m.	Every year with Mother	Every year with Mother
Day of Father's Birthday	(1) Holiday begins at 9 p.m. (2) Holiday ends at 9 p.m.	Every year with Father	Every year with Father
Day of Mother's Birthday	(1) Holiday begins at 9 p.m. (2) Holiday ends at 9 p.m.	Every year with Mother	Every year with Mother

6. The minor child shall continue to attend their current school and feeder schools unless the parties mutually agree in writing to transfer schools. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves more than 30 miles away from their current residence the parties will revisit the issue of parent time and custody.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently unemployed however based on her experience and ability to work, it is reasonable and appropriate to impute her to a gross monthly income of $2,600.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

a. The Petitioner's completion of an MBA program, or twenty-four (24) months from the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce, whichever occurs first, shall constitute a substantial and material change in circumstances for purposes of child support review. Upon the occurrence of either event, Petitioner's income for child support purposes shall be imputed at $25.00 per hour, or Petitioner's actual gross earnings at that time, whichever amount is greater. Child support shall thereafter be recalculated based upon the parties' then-current incomes and in accordance with applicable law.

9. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $37,500.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $2,600.00 with 183 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $37,500.00 with 182 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 et seq. a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Respondent shall be ordered to pay Petitioner the sum of $1,336.00 per month beginning the first of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is ever being provided by a plan by both parents, the Respondent's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Petitioner's shall be considered secondary.

- a. Respondent shall be responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance.
 - b. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.
 - c. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
 - d. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents. Due to the age of the child, daycare is not anticipated.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, AND MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

14. Respondent shall be responsible for the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor child:
- a. Cell phones
 - b. Car insurance

- c. School fees and costs
 - d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the child participates are approved.
 - e. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.
15. Respondent shall be responsible for the costs of M.J.H.'s mission.

TAX EXEMPTION

16. Petitioner shall be allowed to claim M.J.H. each and every year as a dependent for state and federal taxes.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

17. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

33. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e), Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

34. For so long as Respondent has a child support obligation, Respondent shall maintain a life insurance policy with a minimum death benefit of $100,000.00. Petitioner shall be designated as beneficiary of said policy for the purpose of securing Respondent's child support obligation.

35. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

36. Respondent shall be ordered to pay alimony to Petitioner as follows:

- a. Respondent shall pay to Petitioner alimony in the amount of $5,000.00 per month for the first three (3) years.
- b. Beginning on the first day of the month following completion of the initial three (3) year period, Respondent shall pay alimony to Petitioner in the amount of $4,000.00 per month for an additional eight (8) years.
- c. Alimony payments shall be paid by the fifth (5th) day of the month immediately following entry of the Decree of Divorce and by the fifth (5th) day of every month thereafter.
- d. Alimony payments shall continue for the length of (11) years as outlined above or until Petitioner cohabitates or remarries, whichever occurs sooner. Petitioner has an obligation to notify Respondent of her cohabitation or remarriage and alimony shall cease upon Petitioner's cohabitation or remarriage. Alimony shall end in the event of the death of either party.

37. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

38. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

39. Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner for the cost of Petitioner's health insurance premiums, up to a maximum of $400.00 per month, for a period of thirty-six (36) months following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. Reimbursement shall be conditioned upon Petitioner maintaining health insurance coverage through the health insurance marketplace and providing reasonable documentation of the premium cost and payment. Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner within a reasonable time after receipt of such documentation.

40. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

41. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

42. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

43. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached through mediation. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the “drafting party.”

44. Each party shall execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

45. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

46. Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name of Jenny Francisco Sandoval if she so desires.
