Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT OF SALT LAKE COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF DUSTIN BRADSHAW, Petitioner, and. SIERRA BRADSHAW, Respondent,	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case Number 264900730 Judge May, Comm. Blomquist

The above-entitled matter having been presented to the Court pursuant to the Petition and Motion filed with the Court, and the Petitioner having appeared through affidavit and been represented by Chase Kimball, and the Respondent having been lawfully defaulted pursuant to a signed Acceptance of Service and Consent to Entry of Default, the Court being fully advised in the premises and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court hereby enters the following:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1 . Petitioner is hereby granted a divorce against Respondent.

2 . The parties have one child born as issue of said marriage, to wit:KGB, born August 30th, 2021;

The child is presently residing jointly with the parties and it is in the best interest of the minor child that the parties be awarded joint legal and physical custody of said child. It is contemplated that the current visitation schedule where the child mostly resides with Respondent, and Petitioner gets Wednesday nights and every other weekend with said child will continue, or as the parties may agree. In the event of a visitation dispute the parties will review the visitation statute, UCA 81-9-303, and follow it to resolve the dispute. If the dispute continues, the parties will engage in good faith mediation before returning to this court.

0 . Major Holidays and the child's birthdays will be shared as noted in UCA 81-9-303. The child will celebrate parent's birthday and Mother's Day and Father's Day with respective parent regardless of the day of the week the event occurs.

1 . Petitioner is employed and earns $7292 per month salary. Respondent's salary is $5,466 per month. Support pursuant to the guidelines is $486 per month, and is due on the first of every month.

2 . It is reasonable and proper that Petitioner should be required to pay child support and half of reasonable daycare expenses for the minor child of the parties. The parties will exchange tax returns each year so that adjustments to support may be made when necessary.

3 . When an expense which is to be divided according to this Petition is incurred by either party, the other party will be notified with written proof of the expense and payment within thirty days of the expenditure, and that other party will have thirty days to reimburse half of this expense. Failure to notify the other party as noted herein will constitute a waiver of reimbursement of that expense.

4 . The parties are advised that pursuant to Utah statute, they are required to mediate before coming to Court if they are unable to agree to a settlement between themselves, more information can be found by calling 1-800-620-6318.

Parenting Agreement

0 . Petitioner and Respondent agree and recognize that their parenting relationship will continue for many more years, and that it is in the best interest of their child to have a meaningful and quality relationship. In furtherance of that goal, Petitioner and Respondent agree as follows:

a. To consult with each other in an amicable way in the coordination of visitation matters; to consult with each other if their child is experiencing school problems, emotional concerns, or other problems, and to share options and ideas for meeting the child's needs;

b. To remain civil, courteous, and respectful in all of their future dealings as they regard their children;

c. To accommodate the child's need to have quality relationships with family members, and the children's attendance at weddings, funerals, birthday and/ or anniversary parties, etc.;

d. To share all school work, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of their children;

e. To enable each of them to have access to their child's school, religious, medical, dental and psychological records;

f. To take affirmative steps to share information regarding times and locations of Parent-Teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices, and other events involving their children;

g. To refrain from calendaring, scheduling or planning participation in events or activities which conflict with agreed visitation rights, and negotiate reasonably if these situations occur to accommodate the best interest of the children.

h. To refrain from speaking critically or derogatorily of one another, or of the respective families of one another, in the presence of their children, nor allow third parties to do so.

i. To keep each party informed as to the present and current address and telephone number of each other.

j. To inform the other parent if the visitation time will be spent away from the parental residence, e.g. out of town or out of state.

k. The parties will equally share the travel between homes to assist normal visitation.

m. The parties agree that whoever has the children at any particular time will offer the other the right of first refusal to babysit if that party is going to be absent for over four hours, as long as the accepting party agrees to provide all transportation coming and going.

n. If the party with physical custody decides to move more than 150 miles away from the current home, that party will notify the other party at least 60 days in advance, and will otherwise follow the procedures of UCA 81-9-209.

o. Petitioner has medical insurance for the child at his employment, and it is reasonable that the parties split these expenses. Should Petitioner be unable to maintain this insurance at a reasonable price, Respondent will be required to obtain insurance through her own employer, which cost will be split by the parties. Any medical, optometric, and dental expense for the minor children which is not otherwise covered by insurance should be split equally between the parties. The party incurring the cost of these uncovered expenses will notify the other party in writing with appropriate proof within 30 days of the uncovered expense, or forfeit payment of said uncovered expense pursuant to UCA 81-6-208 and 81-6-209. When an expense is presented properly the other party will pay the expense within 30 days.

1 . Pursuant to UCA 81-6-211, base child support award shall be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; or 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court, or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time.

2 . The parties will trade off the tax deduction for the child every other year, with Petitioner getting odd years and Respondent even. However, if in any year where Petitioner is entitled to the tax deduction, he must be current for all support as of December 31st of that year, or he will lose his deduction for that year.

3 . During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain debts. Said debts should be paid off as currently divided. All debts incurred after the separation of the parties on about February 2nd, 2022, shall be the responsibility of the party incurring it.

4 . Pursuant UCA 81-4-406(3)(b), the parties should notify respective creditors regarding the division of debts and liabilities herein and then provide the current addresses of the parties. All debts shall be refinanced within 60 days into the sole name of whoever is awarded the property. The parties will further cooperate as necessary to see that all personal property is solely titled in the name of the receiving party, pursuant to URCP 70.

5 . During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. Said personal property should be awarded to each of the parties as they have heretofore divided it.

6 . Both parties are fully capable of supporting themselves, therefore no alimony will be awarded to either.

7 . The parties will file their 2025 taxes separately.

8 . The parties should pay their own legal fees.

9 . The Respondent shall be entitled to return to her maiden name of Johnson, should she desire to.
