and,

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 26490381

Judge: Chelsea Koch

Commissioner: Russell Minas

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER came before the Court pursuant to the parties' Stipulation ("stipulation" or "agreement") and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Jurisdiction of the Court and Grounds were established by the declaration and stipulation filed with the Court. The Court has reviewed the parties' agreement and approves of the same. The Court, now being fully advised in the premises, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and for good cause showing, makes its order as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MARRIAGE

1. The parties are husband and wife, having been married on March 19, 2012, in Salt Lake City, Utah.
2. The parties shall be granted a decree of divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of the marriage relationship impossible. A decree of divorce shall be entered, dissolving the bonds of matrimony.
3. One child has been born or adopted as issue of this marriage, namely: J.G.S., born October 2023.

STATE ASSISTANCE

4. Neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

Legal Custody

5. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor child pursuant to the Parenting Plan herein.

Physical Custody

6. Both parties acknowledge and agree that J.G.S.'s emotional stability, sense of security, and the minimization of transitions are of paramount importance. The parties further agree that it is in J.G.S.'s best interest to develop and maintain a meaningful, secure relationship with Jake as his father, while recognizing that historically, and at this stage of development, Ashley has been and remains his primary caretaker.

7. The parties affirm that the parent-time schedule and parenting plan set forth below are established with these shared priorities in mind and are intended to support J.G.S.'s developmental needs, best interests, and overall well-being.

8. Ashley shall be awarded sole physical custody of the minor. Parent-time shall be as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, Jake shall be granted parent-time as follows:

a. Jake shall have parent-time each week consisting of two (2) three-hour parent-time periods per week in the mornings on Mondays and Thursdays; one (1) three-hour visit each Wednesday evening; and a ten (10) hour visit every Saturday.

b. Once Jake obtains a suitable residence for overnight parent-time, and the parties agree that the minor child is developmentally ready, Jake shall exercise overnight parent-time every other Saturday commencing at 4 p.m. and ending on Sunday at 10 a.m.

c. "Suitable residence" for purposes of overnight parent-time shall be determined jointly by the parties with the child's best interests as the primary consideration; however, if the parties are unable to agree, a residence shall be deemed suitable if it provides a safe, clean, and stable environment free from hazards, illegal activity, or individuals who pose a risk to the child; including functioning utilities and adequate access to food, clothing, and hygiene; provides the child with a consistent, age-appropriate sleeping arrangement, a separate bedroom; allows for reasonably privacy and supports normal routines such as sleep and school preparation.

9. This parent-time schedule shall remain in effect until J.G.S. reached four (4) years of age, based upon his developmental needs and ability to tolerate transitions. The parties agree that the parent-time arrangement may be reviewed and re-evaluated upon J.G.S. reaching four (4) years of age.

10. Upon J.G.S. entering elementary school, the parties agree that the parent-time arrangement may be reviewed and re-evaluated. Ashley shall continue to exercise sole physical custody. At that time, the parties shall consider exercising a parent-time schedule resulting in approximately 256 overnights per year with Ashley and approximately 109 overnights per year with Jake.

PARENTING PLAN

Verification

11. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-203 this parenting plan is submitted in good faith.

Relocation

12. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209, if either party relocates more than 150 miles away from their current residence or out of state, then the relocating party shall comply with the notice requirements in Utah Code § 81-9-209.

Right of First Refusal

13. Each parent will have the first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and transportation. The parent offering the right of first refusal shall notify the other parent as soon as it is known that such care will be necessary. If such request is not responded to within forty-eight (48) hours, the right of first refusal is deemed waived. Sleepovers requested by the child when the parent is available shall not trigger the right of first refusal, but only when surrogate care is required.

Travel

14. The parties agree to inform each other of plans to travel with the child overnight and will do so as soon as the travel is planned, but in no circumstances later than fourteen (14) days prior to the travel beginning. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor child travels with a parent, the parent shall provide the following information to the other parent: an itinerary of travel dates; destinations; places where the minor child or traveling parent can be reached.

Holidays

15. Holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree in writing. If the parties do not agree on a holiday schedule, they shall follow the holiday schedule outlined below:

- a. Holidays shall be shared between the parents on the same day, rather than alternating by year, and the parents shall not be required to spend holiday time together.
- b. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, holiday time shall be divided into two (2) blocks, with one (1) parent exercising parent-time in the morning and the other in the afternoon/evening. The exchange time shall occur at a consistent, pre-determined hour to support routine and reduce transitions.
- c. For purposes of clarity, the following schedule shall apply:
- d. Thanksgiving: Jake from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Ashley from 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- e. Christmas Eve: Jake from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Ashley from 2:00 to 7:00 p.m.

- f. Christmas Day: Ashley from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Jake from 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- g. Easter: Ashley from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Jake from 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- h. Mother's Day: Ashley from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., overnight follows non-holiday regular parent-time schedule.
- i. Father's Day: Jake from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., overnight follows non-holiday regular parent-time schedule.
- j. Independent Day (July 4): Ashley from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Jake 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- k. Pioneer Day (July 24): Jake from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Ashley 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- l. Holiday parent-time shall supersede the regular parent-time schedule. Exchanges shall occur curbside at the receiving parent's residence unless otherwise agreed in writing. The parties may modify holiday times by mutual written agreement as the minor child's developmental needs evolve.

Special Events

16. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent, which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

Extra-Curriculars

17. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurriculars activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties agree to make their best effort to allow the child to enjoy activities they are interested as long as there is prior and mutual consent from both parties, and each is financially able to contribute to these expenses.

18. Reimbursement shall be made to the parent paying the expense within thirty (30) days of each occurrence. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense.

19. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

School Expenses

20. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any necessary out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, tuition, books, required fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification. The parties will use their best efforts to discuss any costs prior to any expenditures.

21. Either party may propose enrolling the minor child in a private school. If the parties mutually agree to enroll the minor child in private school, the parties shall share the tuition and associated expenses equally, unless otherwise agreed in writing. If one party elects to enroll the minor child in private school and the other party is financially unable to contribute to one-half of the tuition and related expenses, the party electing to enroll the child may proceed with enrollment and shall be responsible for payment of the tuition and associated costs.

22. Ashley shall be designated as the residential parent for the minor child's school enrollment and educational address.

Virtual Parent-Time

23. The decision to purchase a cellular phone for the child shall be as the parties agree.

24. If agreement is reached that the child shall have a cell phone then both parents shall encourage liberal phone visitations. The child's request to call a parent shall be reasonably accommodated.

25. If agreement is reached that the child shall have a cell phone, the child shall always be able to use this phone to contact that parent or emergency services. Either parent may restrict the phone's use for discipline purposes but must provide a reasonable alternative means of contact so that the other parent's virtual parent-time or the child's access to emergency services are not restricted.

Decisions Regarding Raising the Child

26. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor child and shall make good faith efforts to confer and jointly make all major decisions concerning the child's health, education, and welfare. In the event the parties are unable to reach an agreement, they shall first consult with and give due consideration to the recommendations of an appropriate professional, including but not limited to a child psychiatrist, therapist, physician, teacher, or other qualified child development professional relevant to the issue in dispute. If the parties remain unable to resolve the issue after consulting with an appropriate professional, they shall participate in mediation in good faith to resolve the dispute. If mediation is unsuccessful, Ashley shall have final decision-making authority on the disputed issue on an interim basis. Jake may file the appropriate pleadings with the Court to seek judicial review and resolution of the issue.

Religious Upbringing and Exposure

27. The parties agree that any major decisions regarding the minor child's formal religious affiliation, participation in ordinances or rites of initiation, or enrollment in religious education programs shall be made only by mutual written agreement.

28. Each party shall have the right to expose the minor child to that parent's sincerely held religious beliefs and practices during that parents' schedule parent-time, including attendance at religious services, participation in religious holidays, and age-appropriate religious instruction.

29. Neither parent shall disparage or criticize the other parent's religious beliefs or practices in the minor child's presence, nor shall either parent pressure the minor child to reject the other parent's beliefs. The parties agree to support the minor child's ability to experience religious traditions in both households without conflict or loyalty pressure.

30. Because the parties share joint legal custody of the minor child, any significant disagreement regarding the minor child's religious upbringing, religious exposure, or participation in religious practices that cannot be resolved through good-faith discussion between the parties shall be addressed through the same decision-making and dispute-resolution process as outlined in the Stipulation for other major decisions concerning the child.

Respect, Cooperation, and Communication

31. Both parents shall encourage affection and promote respect toward the other parent.
32. The parents shall be absolutely restrained from harassing, stalking, abusing, or demeaning the other parent.
33. The parents shall be restrained from discussing this case, support, or any other adult topics within range of the child.
34. Neither parent may do anything that places the child's physical, mental, or emotional wellbeing and health at risk.
35. The parents shall communicate primarily in writing via text message regarding day-to-day co-parenting matters. Each party shall keep the other informed of the minor child's schedule, developmental progress, and anticipated needs. Either parent may request a telephone conference as reasonably necessary to discuss issues concerning the minor child.

School

36. Ashley shall be considered the residential parent for school selection purposes.
37. Both parents shall be listed as contacts at the school, and both should have full access to all school records and portals.

Contact Information and Records

38. Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses, and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

Drug and Alcohol Restrictions

39. Neither parent shall consume alcohol, illegal drugs, or any other intoxicating substances during their parent-time or within eight (8) hours prior to the commencement of their parent-time. Each parent shall ensure that they are sober and not impaired for the duration of their parent-time.

Introducing Romantic Partners

40. The parties agree that any introduction of a new romantic partner to the minor child shall be handled in a manner that prioritizes his emotional security, stability, and developmental needs.

41. The parties agree that neither party shall introduce the minor child to a new romantic partner until at least six (6) months following the signing of the Decree and until that party has been in a committed and exclusive relationship with the partner for at least six (6) consecutive months.

42. Neither party shall permit regular in-home contact between the minor child and a romantic partner, nor permit the minor child to be present for overnight stays involving a romantic partner, until at least twelve (12) months following the signing of the Decree and until that party has been in an exclusive relationship with that partner for at least twelve (12) consecutive months.

43. Any introduction of a romantic partner to the minor child shall be gradual and age-appropriate, with the shared goal of preserving the child's sense of safety, predictability, and trust within both parents' households.

44. Each party shall provide the other with reasonable advance notice prior to introducing a new romantic partner to the minor child and initiating regular in-home contact between the minor child and the romantic partner.

CHILD SUPPORT

45. Pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-202 et seq. it is reasonable and proper that Jake pay Ashley child support. Child support shall begin March 2026 and shall be paid as follows:

46. Jake is employed full-time and earns a gross monthly income of $8,739 Ashley earns a gross monthly income of $2,595. In accordance with Utah Code 81-6-203, the sole custody worksheet, Jake shall pay child support to Ashley in the amount of $849 per month. per month.

47. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code § 78A-6-801 et seq.

48. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month shall be considered delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month shall be delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

49. The person entitled to receive child support shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to U.C.A. § 62A-11 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended), and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure will apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income will be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the noncustodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments shall be sent elsewhere. If mandatory income withholding is implemented by the Office of Recovery Services, child support shall be due on the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by the party requesting income withholding.

50. Under Utah Code § 78B-12-210(8), the parties shall have a right to adjust the child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code § 62A-11-306.2, if the child receives TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services will review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

51. Under Utah Code § 78B-12-210(7) and (9), the parties should have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive child other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

52. Jake shall cover health and dental insurance for the child and shall be responsible for maintaining such coverage. Jake shall be solely responsible for payment of one hundred percent (100%) of the minor child's health and dental insurance premiums. Jake shall provide proof of coverage within fourteen (14) days of a written request from Ashley. If at any point the parties elect to double-cover the child, each party shall be responsible for the premiums associated with the coverage he or she elects to maintain.

- a. Any uninsured or out-of-pocket healthcare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child, including but not limited to medical, dental, orthodontia, vision care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments not covered by insurance, shall be shared by the parties on a 70/30 basis, with Jake responsible for seventy percent (70%) of such expenses and Ashley responsible for thirty percent (30%).
- b. The party incurring the expense shall provide documentation and receipts to the other party within thirty (30) days of the expense being incurred. The receiving party shall reimburse their proportionate share within thirty (30) days of receipt of such documentation.
- c. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide written verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider.
- d. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Jake shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Ashley shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.
- e. Either parent may obtain routine or emergency medical care for the minor child during that parent's parent-time. Non-emergency medical procedures or significant ongoing treatment shall be discussed and agreed upon by both parents when reasonably possible and in following the process in making decisions for the child.

f. Both parents shall have equal access to the minor child's medical providers, insurance information, and medical records and may attend medical appointments.

A written, signed record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and a copy provided to each party. The parties shall share the cost of the mediator equally. A dispute may not be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parties to first resolve the issue through mediation. Orders to Enforce and emergency requests may be filed without mediation if mediation is not practical given the time restraints.

71. The parties shall sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this document. If a party fails to execute a document within sixty (60) days of the signing of the Stipulation, the other party may bring an order to show cause at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. 72.
