Attorney for Justin Staley

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:
CHRISTY STALEY
And JUSTIN STALEY

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case: 234905285
Judge: SKANCHY
Commissioner: BLOMQUIST

THIS MATTER comes before the Court for entry of a Decree of Divorce. Having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court ADJUDGES, DECREES, AND ORDERS:

1. RESIDENCE. Christy was an actual and bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this divorce action.
2. MARRIAGE. The parties are husband and wife, having been married September 26, 1998 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah.
3. GROUNDS. The parties are divorced on grounds that during the course of the marriage, irreconcilable differences have arisen making continuation of this marriage impossible.

4. CHILDREN. Two children have been born as issue to these parties, to wit: M.S., born June 2011, and Q.S., born, March 2013.

5. LEGAL CUSTODY. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children.

6. PHYSICAL CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME. Christy is awarded primary physical custody of the children. Justin's parent-time will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-302 with the following deviations: Justin will have one weekend each month, where he will have a "fat weekend" meaning his parent time will not end Sunday night, but will end Monday morning by taking the children to school. This "fat weekend" should be the last weekend in a given month where Justin will exercise parent-time. The parties shall also exercise equal parent-time during the summer months while school is not in session with the exchange taking place on Sundays at 7PM.

a. Exchanges shall be at the school or curbside if there is not a school exchange option. Curbside means the parent in the car stays in the car and the parent in the residence stays in the residence. This is appropriate due to the age of the children. It will be the receiving parent's obligation to pick the children up from the parent who is ending his/her parent-time.

b. Christy will remain the noncustodial parent for purposes of determining the holiday schedule.

7. PARENTING PLAN. The parties shall abide by the following parenting plan:

a. The children shall attend therapy which will be "safe-harbor" and will include a therapist who is AFCC informed. The parents will further be involved in utilizing a therapist or coparent coordinator to learn coparenting skills in the midst of this high conflict divorce.

b. The parents will attend the Bill Eddy coparenting class.

c. The parties will keep each other informed of the activities, and appointments for the children if that information is not available to the other parent. Both parents will have access to the children's school calendars. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully if such information is not available on the school calendar. Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the children's records without limitation. Both parties will be listed as parents and basic contact information provided for all third parties who interact with the children (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, day care, etc.). Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time.

d. Both parents shall have access to the children during school and authority to check the children out of school on his or her custodial days. The party with the minor children in his/her care will be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time. Regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time.

e. The parties will keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change. The parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the children so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.).

f. All contact and communication between the parties shall be civil in nature. Medical emergencies should be communicated immediately to the other parent by whatever means possible to reasonably alert the other to the situation as soon as possible. The parties will respond to the requests of the other in a timely manner and within 48 hours.

g. Communication between a parent and the children (phone, Facetime, texting and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, uncensored, unmonitored, and unrecorded.

h. When the minor children are traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202.

i. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent, including but not limited to demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent, or from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or parent time. As used in this paragraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not. Neither party will interrogate or "pump" the children for information about parent time or the potential significant relationships of the other party. The parties will not put the children in the middle. The parties will not discuss with the children adult issues including any legal or financial related issues with the children. Neither parent should question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money and ensure that each parent will be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children. The parties will not use the children to send messages to the other for parent time issues but will discuss such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the children. Both parties should be restrained from making parent time arrangements or adjustments through the child. Neither parent will inform the children of events or family gatherings which are scheduled to happen on the parent-time of the other parent. Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the children. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the child from such circumstances. Each party is obligated to remove the child from any environment where third persons may be engaging in similar conduct.

j. Both parties are restrained from committing trying to commit or threatening to commit any form of violence against the other. This includes stalking, harassing, threatening, physically hurting, or causing any other form of abuse that could cause bodily injury.

k. Both parties will stay at least 200 feet away from the other, except that children's event they will ensure they stay at least 50 feet away from each other.

l. If Christy intentionally violate paragraphs \(j\) and \(k\) above, Justin will be entitled to re-file his protective order on the allegations of 254903467 and on allegations of violating the terms herein.

m. Justin will not consume alcohol while the minor children are in his care.

n. For major decisions regarding the children, the parties will consult in good faith on all issues. If the parties cannot reach an agreement on any raised issue, they will involve any relevant professional, i.e., the doctor for medical issues, to aid in resolving their disagreement. If the parties cannot reach an agreement using an appropriate third person, or a third person is not utilized, then they shall attend mediation. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute in mediation then Christy will have the final say on the matter. However, Justin will have a right to request the Court review and enter a decision on Christy's final decision.

8. CHILD SUPPORT. Christy's gross annual income is $74,295.86 ($6,191.32/month), and Justin's is $67,668.99 ($5,639.08/month). Justin will pay to Christy child support in the amount of $898.00 per month.

9. HEALTHCARE EXPENSES. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-208, health care coverage for the medical expenses of a child shall be provided by the parents if health insurance is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. Justin's health insurance plan is primary if the children are double covered, and Christy's will be secondary.

a. Each parent will share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of health insurance.

b. Each parent will equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the children, including co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles.

10. FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS. The parties are awarded their own financial accounts.

11. RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS. Each party is awarded a marital share of the other's retirement accounts, according to the Woodward formula. QDROs will be prepared to divide the retirement accounts.

12. DEBTS. Each party will pay their own debts.

13. SETTLEMENT OF FINANCIAL MATTERS. There are no other financial claims between the parties._

14. INSURANCE. The parties may have cash value life insurance which if it exists, shall be divided equally.

15. ALIMONY. Neither party is awarded alimony.

16. TAXES. The parties will file separate 2025 tax returns with each claiming one child for 2025, and sharing the children the same each year thereafter. Specifically, Christy will claim the child Q.S., and Justin will claim the child M.S. When there is only one child to be claimed, Justin will claim the child for the odd tax years and Christy will claim the child for the even tax years. The right to claim a child on a parent's tax return is contingent on being current with child support.

17. PERSONAL PROPERTY. Justin will have 14 days (until March 10, 2026) to make arrangements with Christy to do an inventory of the personal property at the home. Christy may be present while Justin inventories the items and both parties may have a third person of his/her choosing to accompany them for the inventory. Either party may record the walk-through. Justin will then provide a list to Christy of the items he would like to be awarded. If the parties cannot reach an agreement on Justin's list then they will take the matter to mediation to resolve. If there are items that are claimed to be nonmarital and disputed and cannot be resolved, the Court will rule on those items._

18. MARITAL HOME. Christy may be awarded the home upon her refinancing and paying ½ of the equity to Justin. She must complete that process and pay the equity within 120 days from the entry of the Decree of Divorce. If she does not, then the home will be sold and the equity divided equally.
