a. $532.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

37. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

38. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

40. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

41. Anneliese Pixton will give Glendon Pixton the information needed to set up direct deposit through Glendon Pixton's employer. Once Glendon Pixton has the information, Glendon Pixton will have Glendon Pixton's employer set up direct deposit to an account of Anneliese Pixton's choice. One half of the child support is due by the 5th of each month, and the other half is due by the 20th of each month.

42. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

43. Glendon Pixton will pay any ORS fees. If Anneliese Pixton is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Anneliese Pixton, Glendon Pixton will reimburse Anneliese Pixton.

- the difference is not temporary, and
- the amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines.

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62A-11-306.2).

46. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

- custody;
- the relative wealth or assets of the parties;

- income of a parent of 30% or more;
 - the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
 - the medical needs of the child; or
 - the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.
- (Utah Code 81-6-202 and 81-6-212)

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines.

The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))

47. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Glendon Pixton's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Anneliese Pixton's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Glendon Pixton's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Anneliese Pixton's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

- c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
