Attorney for Breanne Tennille Hughes

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

BREANNE TENNILLE HUGHES,
Petitioner,

and

DERRICK DANIEL HUGHES,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 254906223

Honorable Judge: James Gardner

Commissioner: Russell Minas

The above-captioned matter came on regularly for consideration by the court without hearing. Pursuant to the Stipulated Settlement Agreement a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION

2. Legal Custody: The parties should receive joint legal custody of the minor children.

3. Physical Custody: The parties should receive joint physical custody of the minor children as outlined in the parenting plan below. Mother shall be designated as the Primary Custodial parent of S.H, and Father shall be designated as the Primary Custodial parent of M.H.

PARENTING PLAN

Verification

4. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-203(5), this parenting plan is submitted in good faith.

Decision Making

5. Minor Decisions. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the children shall be made by the parent with whom the children are residing at the time.

6. Major Decisions. The parties must discuss the major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually discussed by both parties before making and implementing any decision.

a. If after discussion, the parties cannot agree, the parties should be required to seek the advice of any professionals involved in the children's life such as teachers, doctors, or therapists,

b. If after seeking the advice of professionals, the parties cannot agree, either party may request mediation. If mediation is requested, the parties should be required to attend one session of mediation unless the parties both agree in writing that mediation is unnecessary. The parties should be required to split the cost of mediation equally.

c. If after mediation the parties still cannot agree, either party may request assistance from the court.

7. Emergency Decisions. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the children. A parent making emergency decisions will notify the other parent immediately or as soon as reasonably able of any decisions that are being made.

8. Emergency decisions and day-to-day decisions are exempt from this provision.

Education Plan

9. The minor children should continue to attend the current schools and feeder schools within the Jordan School District unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. If the parties disagree, they should follow the decision-making provisions in the parenting plan.

Parent-Time Visitation

10. Parent-time should be as the parties agree. If there is disagreement between the parties, The parties should receive equal parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305. The parties should follow a 2-2-5 schedule with Mother receiving every Monday and Tuesday and Father receiving every Wednesday and Thursday. The parties may agree to change to a week on week off schedule in writing.

Holiday & Extended Parent-Time

11. Holiday Parent-Time. Holiday parent-time should be as the parties can agree. In the event they cannot agree, the parties should follow the holiday schedule outlined in Utah Code. 12. Extended Summer Parent-Time. Each year, a parent may designate two consecutive weeks to exercise uninterrupted parent-time during the summer when school is not in session.

13. In even numbered years, Mother shall provide notice of her requested dates for extended parent-time by May 1 and Father shall provide notice of his requested dates for extended parent-time by May 15.

14. In odd numbered years, Father shall provide notice of his requested dates for extended parent-time by May 1 and Mother shall provide notice of her requested dates for extended parent-time by May 15.

15. If a parent fails to provide notice within the timeframes outlined above, the complying parent may determine the schedule of the noncomplying parent. If both parents fail to follow the notice requirements, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for the other parent.

Exchanges

16. Exchanges should be as the parties agree, if the parties disagree, exchanges occurring at school are preferred with the parent ending parent-time dropping the child off at school and the receiving parent picking up the child after school. When school is not in session, the parent beginning parent-time shall pick up the child at the residence of the other parent or at another agreed upon location. All exchanges should be completed curbside with the receiving parent remaining within arm's length of their vehicle at all times and the giving parent remaining within arm's length of the threshold of their residence or vehicle.

17. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child if the other parent and the child are aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child within a reasonable time.

18. The parties will ensure that the minor child is ready for all exchanges on time and received within 5 minutes of the scheduled exchange time or notice of the parent's arrival for pick-up, whichever is later.

Virtual Parent-Time

19. Both parents shall allow communication between the children and the other parent at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations. The children should not be restricted from contacting the absent parent as they desire. Neither parent has the authority to block the other parent from communicating with the minor children through any of their devices or accounts.

20. Should a parent buy a cell phone or other device for a child to use, the child shall always be able to use this phone or device for the purpose of contacting either parent. Either parent may restrict the phone's or device's use to communication with the other parent only.

Information Sharing

21. Both parents shall keep the other informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, email addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency. If either parent changes any of his or her contact information as indicated above, that parent must notify the other parent in writing within 24 hours of the change.

22. Both parents shall also provide their contact information to all third parties who are important in the child's lives, such as day care providers, educators, doctors, dentists, and both parents shall be listed as the child's parent and as an emergency contact with those providers.

23. Both parents shall have access to all records of the child including, but not limited to, school, medical, dental, and psychological records, and this Parenting Plan shall constitute a release to allow each parent access to all records of the children. The parents will make arrangements with the minor children's schools for each parent to receive a copy of the children's report cards, school calendars, etc.

24. Unless each parent has independent access to this information, each parent should share with the other all schoolwork, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of the minor children. Further, unless each parent has independent access to this information, each parent should take affirmative steps to share information regarding the times and locations of parent-teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices and other significant events involving the children.

Communication

25. Both parents should engage in civil communication to discuss matters relating to the minor children with each other only and shall avoid using the minor children to relay messages or information. Neither party should block the other parent on their own devices or the device of the minor children.

26. Communication should be as the parties agree. Should the parties disagree, the parties should primarily communicate through text or email with phone calls being appropriate in emergencies.

Respect and Cooperation

27. Both parents should support each other in their respective parenting roles and encourage a positive relationship between the children and the other parent and encourage third parties to do the same. The parties should respect the children's rights to have a meaningful bond with each parent, stepparents, and other relatives.

28. Both parents recognize that the best interest of the children requires them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the children.

29. Both parents shall share information to the other parent on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with the children or the well-being of the children.

30. The parties shall build a co-parenting relationship filled with trust and respect.

31. The parties shall start over and recommit to this Parenting Plan when one or both neglect a provision in this plan.

32. Both parents shall have full access to all electronic devices or accounts the children use, including knowing usernames and passwords.

33. Parent-time shall not be denied for failure to comply with any of the provisions in this pleading. Intentional denial of parent-time shall be grounds to change custody at any court proceeding.

Extended Overnight Trips

34. Both parties shall notify the other whenever the children travel on any overnight trip exceeding one (1) night. The traveling party shall provide an itinerary of travel dates; destinations; and a way the children or traveling parent can be reached in advance of the trip. The traveling party shall get the other's permission should this trip interfere with the parent-time schedule. In case of emergency, the traveling parent will provide as much notice as possible.

School Functions and Extracurricular Activities

35. Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all extracurricular activities and school functions the children attend.

36. The parties shall keep each other informed of any extracurricular activities the children are involved in and notify the other parent of any special events or ceremonies for the children within 24 hours of receiving notice of the same.

37. Neither parent should schedule or promote to the children events or activities that fall on the other parent's parent-time without first obtaining permission from the other parent in the following manner: The requesting parent will notify the other parent of the event or activity and discuss with them the benefits of the children's attendance prior to discussing it with the children. If the other parent has something scheduled or decides that the children cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent will abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the children.

Parent-Time Respect

38. Both parents shall comply with the parent-time schedules unless they mutually agree to alter the schedules in writing. If either parent wrongfully denies parent-time as set forth herein without agreement by the other party, that parent will pay all costs associated with mediation or litigation associated with resolving the violation and to ensure future compliance.

39. Notwithstanding the above provision, both parents should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parent-time schedules for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment but not unreasonably refuse.

40. Both parents should give special consideration to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of a children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedules.

41. The parties shall notify the other when a child is ill. Prior to the exchange of the child who is ill, the parties shall discuss regular parent-time and shall reasonably accommodate the sick child. If the parties cannot agree, regular parent-time shall not be affected. A parent shall not use the child's illness to frustrate parent-time.

42. Neither parent-time nor child support are to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

Non-interference with the Parties' Personal Lives

43. Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority, and control of the other party, except as impacts the care of the children, as set forth in this Petition.

44. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other party.

Relocation of a Parent

45. The parties recognize that to accommodate the parent time schedule they need to reside within 30 miles of each other. Neither parent may relocate with the minor child more than 30 miles from the other parent without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

46. In the event either party intends to relocate outside of the State of Utah or more than 150 miles from their current residence, the parties shall be bound by all notice and other provisions of Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 (60 days formal written notice shall be required). The parties shall be encouraged to give notice more than 60 days in advance of the desired relocation if possible, and to mediate the issue, insofar as time permits.

Adjustments or Modifications

47. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes can be made whenever the parties agree.

Failure to Comply

48. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions under this Parent-Time Section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

End of Parenting Plan***

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Child Support

49. The Court should order child support that is consistent with a Child Support Obligation Worksheet for Joint Custody and the Uniform Child Support Schedule.

50. Father makes $7,500 gross monthly income.

51. Mother makes $7,500 gross monthly income.

52. The parties agree that for purposes of child support, Derrick shall serve as the tie-breaking decision-maker for the minor child, Mavis, and Breanne shall serve as the tie-breaking decision-maker for the minor child, Sebastian.

53. The parties agree to take all reasonable communication steps to work out any disputes in the best interest of their children and with each parent being the custodial parent of one it will take away perceived leverage over the other parent and add incentive to create solutions.

54. Neither party should be required to pay child support to the other party.

55. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-212(4) & (5), any child support order may be adjusted by motion when the most recent Child Support Order is older than three (3) years and by petition when the most recent Child Support Order is less than three (3) years old.

Medical Insurance and Medical Expenses

56. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, the parties shall jointly provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the children where available at a reasonable cost.

In the event both parties have insurance for the children, Father's insurance shall be designated as primary, and Mother's insurance shall be designated as secondary unless the parties agree otherwise.

57. Should one party obtain health/medical insurance through their employment or other business undertakings, the other party shall be liable for the payment of one-half of the cost of said insurance premium for the children's portion of that insurance. The children's portion shall be determined on a pro rata share of the premium actually paid by a parent. In the event of double coverage, each party should pay their own premium.

58. The parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the health insurance premium.

59. The parties shall divide equally all reasonable and necessary medical expenses for the children which are not covered by insurance.

60. The parent who incurs reasonable or necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment.

61. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the medical expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification and payment within thirty (30) days of payment.

62. The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

63. The parties shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth herein.

64. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.

65. The parent who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

Childcare Expenses

66. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209, both parties shall share equally all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related childcare expenses by a licensed daycare provider.

67. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

68. Childcare by family members is preferred and is presumed to be of no cost.

69. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.

70. A parent incurring childcare expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these notice provisions.

School Fees & Extracurricular Activities

71. School Fees. The parties shall divide all required school costs and fees equally. This does not include co-curricular fees without written agreement. Co-curricular fees are fees related to elective classes such as band, music, and dance that require additional fees.

72. Extracurricular Expenses. Each party is required to pay one half of all costs relating to the minor children's participation in extracurricular activities so long as both parties agree to the activity in writing. Neither party shall register a child for an activity that is on the parent's parent-time without the express permission of the other parent.

73. A party's agreement to an extracurricular activity cannot extend beyond the current season or a year's commitment without agreement.

74. All reimbursement requests should be made within 30 days of making payment and all reimbursements should be provided within 30 days of receiving the request.

Taxes

75. When there are two minor children, Father should claim M.H. every year and Mother should claim S.H. every year for state and federal tax purposes.

76. When there is one minor child, the parties should alternate claiming the child for state and federal tax purposes with Father claiming the minor child the first year there is only one child.

77. A parent must be current on their child support obligations by December 31st of a given year to receive the benefit of claiming a child on their tax filing for that year.

Alimony

78. Both parties are capable of supporting themselves. No alimony should be awarded now or in the future.

Personal Property

79. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties acquired personal property.

The parties shall have 30 days after the signing of the Decree of Divorce to divide all personal property to their satisfaction. Should the parties be unable to agree on dividing personal property, the parties should schedule mediation within 30 days.

80. The parties are awarded all premarital personal property, gifts, and inheritances as their own separate property, free and clear of any claim from the other party.

Vehicles

81. During the course of the marriage the parties acquired vehicles which should be divided as follows:

a. Father should be awarded the 2018 Chevy Silverado and the 4-wheeler.

Father should indemnify and hold Mother harmless regarding the vehicles awarded Father.

b. Mother should be awarded the 2017 Chevy Spark and indemnify and hold Father harmless regarding the vehicles awarded to Mother.

Real Property

82. The parties acquired a property during the course of the marriage located at 5948S.

Stoneflower Way, Kearns, UT 84118. Both parties are on the mortgage for the home.

83. The marital residence shall be immediately listed for sale. After payment of all mortgages, liens, closing costs, realtor commissions, and ordinary costs of sale, the net equity shall be divided between the parties as follows: Mother shall receive sixty-five percent (65%) of the net equity, and Father shall receive thirty-five percent (35%) of the net equity.

- a. Father shall provide Mother with a list of proposed real estate agents from which Mother may select the listing agent.
- b. After Mother selects the listing agent, the marital residence shall be listed for sale within thirty (30) days.
- c. The parties shall follow the recommendation of the listing agent regarding the listing price, sale strategy, necessary showings, and acceptance of the best reasonable offer.
- d. From the proceeds of the sale, and before distribution of the remaining net equity to the parties, the Zable debt and the Synchrony account ending in 0907 shall be paid in full, unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing or ordered by the Court.

Financial Accounts

84. All financial accounts utilized by the parties (checking, savings, IRAs, Money Markets, investment, etc.) have been disclosed and the funds therein are equitably divided between the parties.

85. Each party shall keep all accounts in their own name, and any shared accounts shall be divided and closed within 30 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

Debts

86. The Debt with Zable and the Synchrony account ending in 0907 for the windows and door of the marital home with an estimated balance between the two accounts of $14,469.39 shall paid equally between the parties and paid equally in full with the equity from the sale of the home.

87. Each party should indemnify and hold the other free and harmless from any debts and/or obligations assigned to them.

88. Each party should be responsible for any and all debts incurred solely in their name either prior to, during, or after the marriage, and hold the other free and harmless therefrom.

Retirement Benefits

89. Each party should keep the retirement accounts in their own name. Father has a retirement account that should be awarded to Father free and clear of interest by Mother. Mother represents that Mother does not have a retirement account.

Mutual Restraints

90. Neither parent shall do or say anything that tends to diminish the love and affection a child has for their parent. This includes making insulting, harmful, or disparaging comments about the other parent while in the presence of the minor child, while exercising parent-time, or on social media platforms. The parties have an affirmative duty to remove the child from the presence of anyone engaging in such behavior.

91. Both parties are restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening violence, or harming the other party at their place of residence, employment or any other place.

92. Neither party shall introduce the minor children to a romantic partner until that party has been dating that partner consistently for six months.

93. Both parties should be restrained from using the image or likeness of the other party to obtain credit or incur debts. Any party that incurs debts in the other party's name shall be fully responsible for that debt.

Other

94. Each party should be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

95. Mother should be permitted to change her name to Breanne Tennille Tusi should she so desire.

Attorney Fees

96. Each party shall be fully responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

Miscellaneous Provisions

97. If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the final Divorce Decree, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Divorce Decree.

98. Before bringing any future legal action in this case, other than an enforcement action, the parties must first attempt mediation to resolve issues that may arise between them.
