ORDER AND JUDGMENT IN TRAVERSE
AGAINST GARNISHEE DEFENDANT
CONTEMPORARY SERVICES CORPORATION

Civil No. 249922940
Judge WELCH

Plaintiff's Garnishee Order to Show Cause came on for hearing before the above court on January 28, 2026 at 1:00 pm, the Honorable Charles Stormont, District Court Judge, presiding.

Bryan L. Quick appeared on behalf of Plaintiff, Knight Adjustment Bureau. The court, having called the matter at 1:00 pm, determined that no one appeared on behalf of the Garnishee Defendant, Contemporary Services Corporation, after the stated company had been duly served with process and the notice to appear.

There is also on record a verification of good faith attempts to obtain compliance with the garnishment heretofore served.

Whereupon, the court being advised in the premises, and upon motion of counsel for the Plaintiff, the court herewith orders that Judgment in traverse is herewith granted in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Garnishee Defendant as set forth below:

$15,992.57 Amount owing in Writ as of 11-27-2024

$ 28.00 Garnishee Order to Show Cause service fee

$ 350.00 Attorney fee

$16,370.57 Total Judgment

with interest on the total judgment at the rate of 6.23% per annum as provided by law from 7-28-26 until paid.

It is further ordered that this judgment may be augmented in the amount of reasonable costs and attorney's fees expended in collecting said judgment by execution or otherwise. Said costs and fees shall be established by affidavit.

In the event the Garnishee Defendant believes that the court has erred in entering a judgment against it, the Garnishee Defendant may file a motion to set aside the judgment under Rule 60(b) URCP within three months of the date of entry of judgment. Said motion must be supported by an affidavit setting forth mistake, inadvertence, excusable neglect, or other grounds establishing that the Garnishee Defendant's failure to appear for the court hearing on 1-28-26 was not willful or part of a series of actions indicating disrespect for court orders.
