Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: DECREE OF DIVORCE

SIARRA GLICK,

Petitioner,

and

SCOTT JASON AURICH,

Respondent.

Civil No. 264903789

Judge Joel Ferre

Commissioner Renee Blocher

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER comes before the Court for a final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Court, having received the Verified Petition for Divorce and Stipulation which was agreed to by the parties on July 21, 2026, and further pleadings in this matter, having entered appropriate Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law consistent with Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce and Stipulation finding said Petition fair, equitable and in the best interests of the parties, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, for good cause appearing, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE as follows:

The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved and Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce, to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO JURISDICTION

1. Petitioner is a bona fide and actual resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.
2. Respondent is a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.
3. The parties were married on April 21, 2023, in Provo, Utah and are presently married. The parties separated on or about June 21, 2026.
4. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-402(1); the parties are actual residents of the State of Utah and County of Salt Lake.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO GROUNDS

5. During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHILDREN

6. There is one (1) minor child born as issue of this marriage to wit: [J.H.A. DOB 04/17/2024].
7. Pursuant to Rule 100 Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Petitioner states, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor child filed or pending in the Juvenile Court.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE UNIFORM CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT ACT

8. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101 et seq. in that:

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §78B-13-209, said minor child currently resides in Salt Lake County, Utah.

b. Petitioner has no information of any other proceedings that could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions.

c. Petitioner does not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the child or who claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, child support or visitation/parent time rights with respect to the child.

CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT-TIME AND PARENTING PLAN

9. Legal Custody: Petitioner shall be awarded sole legal custody of the minor child.

10. Physical Custody and Parent Time: Petitioner shall be awarded sole physical custody of the minor child. Parent time shall be as the parties agree. If they do not agree, Respondent's regular parent-time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302.

a. If Respondent is unable to exercise his weekend parent-time due to his work schedule, he may exercise make-up parent-time on his days off (currently, Tuesdays and Wednesdays) beginning Tuesday at 8:00am and ending Wednesday at 7:30pm. Respondent shall give at least 7 days' notice if he intends to exercise his regular weekend or his make-up parent-time.

11. Pickup and Delivery for Parent Time: Both pick-up and drop off shall be as the parties agree. If an agreement cannot be reached, the party exercising parent time shall pick up the minor child.

12. Summer Parent Time: The parties shall exercise summer/extended parent time as they agree. If they cannot agree, as a modification to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, Respondent may be granted one week of summer parent-time at his election. Respondent shall give notice of his week of summer parent-time by May 1 each year. If he does not give notice by May 1, Petitioner may select Respondent's week. Petitioner is granted two weeks of summer parent-time at her election. She shall give notice of her dates by May 15. There shall be no extended summer parent-time.

13. Holidays: Holiday time shall trump the usual parent-time schedule. The parties shall exercise holiday parent time as they agree. If they cannot agree, Petitioner shall be granted all holiday parent-time except for the following:

Respondent shall be granted the following modified holiday parent-time:

- a. Every year, October 1 from 8:00am-8:30pm (Respondent's birthday);
- b. Every year, Father's Day according to the schedule in Utah Code Ann §81-9-302;

- c. On odd-numbered years, Independence Day according to the schedule in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302;
- d. On odd-numbered years, Thanksgiving Day from 8:00 am-8:30 pm;
- e. On odd-numbered years, Christmas Eve starting at 4:00pm through Christmas Day at 8:30pm;
- f. On even-numbered years, the day of the minor child's birthday from 3:00 pm-8:30pm;
- g. On odd-numbered years, the day before the minor child's birthday from 3:00pm-8:30pm.

14. Relocation: If either of the parties intends to relocate more than 50 miles from the other, the relocating parent shall give the other 60 days' notice along with his/her new contact information, and at a minimum, parent time shall be subject to the relocation provision contained in Utah Code §81-9-209 and Ross v. Ross, 2019 UT App 104.

15. Right of First Refusal: The parties shall each have the right of first refusal to watch the child if the other parent is working or unable to be with the child for a period that is overnight, and the parent's spouse is unavailable. The party utilizing the right of first refusal shall be responsible for picking up the children and dropping off the child.

PARENTING PLAN

16. Advisory Guidelines: In addition to the parent-time schedules provided in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302 and Utah Code Ann. §81-9-203 the following advisory guidelines in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202 are suggested to govern all parent-time arrangements between parents in the event the parties do not agree to the parent time schedule.

17. Decision-Making: Day-to-day decisions involving the child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is then located. Emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child shall be made by the parent who is with the child at that time. If there is a dispute that cannot be resolved through discussion of the parties, Petitioner has final say as the sole legal custodian. If Respondent disputes any of Petitioner's decisions, he shall attempt mediation prior to filing any court action.

18. School: The child shall attend school in the district based on Petitioner's residence. The parties shall have access to the child during school and authority to check the child out of school, but only for good cause, during their respective parent time and with notice to the other party. The minor child shall attend school absent extenuating circumstances, medical appointments, sickness, or as otherwise agreed by the parties.

19. Notice of Events: The parties shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and both parents are entitled to attend and participate fully.

20. Access to Records: Both parties shall have access directly to all school reports and medical records and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency.

21. Travel: In the event the parties vacation away from their home, the parent exercising parent-time with the child shall provide, as soon as reasonably possible, but not less than 3 days to the other parent the following prior to leaving for vacation with the minor child:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destinations, including an exact address where the child will be staying and a phone number where they can be reached (for example, if they are staying at a hotel or at the home of a family member or friend);
- c. Places where the minor child or traveling party can be reached.
 - i. Passports: Petitioner may obtain a passport for the minor child without a signature from Respondent.
 - ii. The minor child shall not leave the United States without express written permission from Petitioner.

22. Overnights: The minor child shall not be able to stay overnight or attend sleepovers with non-relatives without written permission from both parties.

23. Notice of Contact Information: Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address, email, and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.

24. Notice Regarding Illnesses: The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the child has while in their home for parenting time. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the child, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental or mental health professionals.

25. Sharing of Information: The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other regarding the child.

26. Reasonable Contact: Each parent shall make an effort to have the child contact the other parent as frequently as is reasonably requested or as desired by the child. Each party shall have uncensored, reasonable virtual time with the minor child.

27. Cell Phone: When the minor child is the appropriate age for a cell phone (not before the age of 12, except by agreement of the parties), the parties shall split the cell phone bill equally.

28. Car Insurance: When the minor child is old enough to drive, the parent providing a vehicle for the child shall be responsible for paying the car insurance on the vehicle the minor child drives.

29. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of the parenting plan or a child support order, the other parent's obligations under the parenting plan or the child support order are not affected. Failure to comply with a provision of the parenting plan or a child support order may result in a finding of contempt of court.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SUPPORT PAYMENTS

30. Petitioner is unemployed and shall be imputed at $1,257 per month in gross income for purposes of calculating child support.

31. Respondent is employed and earns $5,845 per month in gross income for purposes of calculating child support.

32. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202, Respondent shall pay child support to Petitioner in the amount of $714 per month for one (1) minor child of the parties pursuant to a sole custody worksheet. This amount shall be paid to support the minor child pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines until said child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

a. Child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

b. Child support shall be paid by Respondent directly to Petitioner via Venmo or direct deposit. If Respondent misses a payment, the parties shall use the Office of Recovery Services (ORS). If this is the case, Respondent shall be responsible for any ORS fee.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

33. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, if health insurance for the benefit of the minor child is available to either party, that party shall be required to maintain said insurance and shall follow the provisions stated in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208 in regard to health insurance for the minor child.

a. Respondent shall maintain health insurance for the minor child.

b. Respondent may deduct Petitioner's portion of the health insurance premium from his monthly child support amount, after providing confirmation of the amount to Petitioner.

c. Should Petitioner have insurance for the minor child, her insurance shall be listed as secondary with Respondent's as primary.

d. Should Petitioner have the option for a preferable health insurance plan, and the parties mutually agree in writing, Petitioner's may be listed as primary. Should this be the case, Respondent shall add his portion of the health insurance premium to his child support payment each month.

34. The parties shall each pay one-half (½) of any out-of-pocket medical expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child, including medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, prescription, and therapy costs. The party incurring the cost shall pay the cost, then provide a receipt to the other party within 7 days of incurring the cost. The receiving parent shall reimburse ½ of the cost within 30 days of receiving the receipt or proof of expense.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHILD CARE EXPENSES

35. The parties shall follow the provisions of Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209 for any work-related childcare. Any childcare provider or babysitter for the minor child must be a licensed childcare provider, a relative, a known friend, or a known neighbor.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND EXPENSES

36. The parties shall equally share the extracurricular activity and education expenses of the minor child to which both parties agree in writing, and neither party shall unreasonably withhold this agreement.

37. The parties shall allow the child to attend extracurricular activities even if it is on the parent-time day of the other party.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO ALIMONY

38. Neither party shall be awarded alimony.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BANK AND FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

39. During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired certain bank and financial accounts. The parties have already divided their accounts to their satisfaction. Each party shall be awarded and retain the bank accounts currently in their name free and clear of any claim from the other.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PENSION AND RETIREMENT ASSETS

40. Respondent's Fidelity 401k shall be awarded as follows: retirement assets accrued during the marriage and to the date of divorce shall be divided with 40% to Petitioner and 60% to Respondent. A Qualified Domestic Relations Order or Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) shall be issued as needed with the costs for such order and for plan administration fees being paid by Petitioner. Petitioner shall be responsible for preparing any and all paperwork and forms required to divide said accounts and shall do so within one year of entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter. Respondent shall have the affirmative duty to provide the QDRO preparer any documentation necessary to effectuate this paragraph. Petitioner shall not be listed as a surviving spouse under the terms of the plan.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BUSINESS INTERESTS

41. During the course of the marriage, the parties have not acquired any business interests.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PERSONAL PROPERTY

42. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property, which shall be divided as follows:

- a. Petitioner shall be awarded the 2015 Acura TLX and all equity contained therein, free and clear of any claim from Respondent.
- b. Respondent shall be awarded the 2025 Acura MDX and all equity contained therein, free and clear of any claim from Petitioner.
- c. Respondent shall make good faith efforts to sell the 2024 Kawasaki Ninja ZX4RR motorcycle by August 1, 2026 for market value. Petitioner shall receive all equity from the sale. If Respondent is unable to sell by August 1, 2026, the motorcycle shall be awarded to Petitioner free and clear of any claim from Respondent.

d. Petitioner shall be awarded her wedding ring.

43. Each party shall be solely responsible for any maintenance, payments, or loans on the vehicle they are awarded.

44. Other marital property shall be divided as the parties agree.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY

45. During the course of the marriage, the parties have not acquired any real property.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

46. During the course of the marriage, the parties have not acquired any debts. Any debt not herein listed shall be the responsibility of the party that incurred the debt.

47. Each party shall be ordered to assume, pay, and hold the other party harmless from liability on all debt in his or her own name.

48. The parties shall be restrained from incurring any debt or obligation on any joint account and on any account in the name of the other party.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO TAX CREDIT

49. The parties shall claim the minor child for federal and state tax purposes as follows: Respondent shall claim the minor child on his taxes on odd-numbered tax years, and Petitioner shall claim the minor child on her taxes on even-numbered tax years. For all tax years, Respondent must be 100% caught up on his child support obligations by December 31 of the applicable tax year to claim the minor child.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO MUTUAL NON-HARASSMENT

50. The parties shall be subject to the following Mutual Restraining Order:

a. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the child or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or visitation.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

c. Both parties are restrained from discussing custody issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child.

d. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and child during the other parent's parenting time.

e. Neither party shall enter the residence and/or work location of the other party unless they are invited to do so.

f. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the child what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section, and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

g. The parties shall exercise prudence when introducing new romantic partners to the minor child.

h. The preferable method of communication is to communicate electronically (text, email, or co-parenting app) with each other about issues related to the child. The parties may speak in person or over the phone at their mutual election.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

51. Each party shall pay their own attorney's fees.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

52. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

53. The Court shall grant other relief as the Court deems to be equitable.
