21. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information and records concerning their child. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, and discretionary medical treatment shall be based on mutual agreement of the parties.

22. When it is time for HAG to begin attending school, the parties shall reassess the parent time schedule to determine what is in her best interest and where she shall attend school.

2. PARENTING PLAN

23. Unless otherwise agreed upon, the receiving parent will provide transportation of the child.

24. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other, the parties shall attend mediation to discuss a new custody agreement.

25. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text, email, or mail at any time needed and will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use phone contact for emergencies or changes on the date of the exchange.

26. The parties minor child shall not be introduced to a new romantic partner until the parent has been introduced to that new partner and the relationship has been ongoing for eight months.

27. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

28. When the child travels with either parent overnight, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: itinerary for travel dates, list of destinations, places where the child or traveling parent can be reached, and the name and telephone number of an available third person that would be knowledgeable of the child's location. The parent taking the child on trips or vacation will be responsible for all costs associated with the travel.

29. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis. The parties shall, within reason and where one party may not be aware of these things, notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and any sporting events their child may be involved in.

30. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

31. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing, or otherwise. Both parties are to refrain from using drugs or drinking to intoxication during parent time. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party. To the extent possible, neither party shall permit any third party to do any of the above either.

32. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or the terms or implementation of any agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third-party or mediator before the parties initiate legal action. However, either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the Court in the future should an emergency arise, which would make formal negotiation impractical.

33. Each party shall be ordered to mutually assume and be responsible for 50% of any out-of-pocket amounts incurred for any mutual agreed-upon extracurricular activities that the minor child might be involved in. The party incurring extracurricular out-of-pocket costs must submit to the other party verification of incurred expenses in the form of a receipt or an invoice, within 30 days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within 30 days of receiving verification of incurred expenses.

34. The parties shall abide by U.C.A. §81-6-208 and shall be ordered to secure and maintain health insurance for the child. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of all individuals covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

35. The parties shall share equally all reasonably necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents. The party who incurs medical or dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expense to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other party will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one half of all reasonably necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

36. If, at any point in time, the child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Michael shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Makenzie shall be the secondary coverage for the dependent child. If either parent remarries and his or her dependent child are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a stepparent's health, hospital, or dental insurance, the plan of the stepparent is to be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and retains the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

37. The parties shall adopt U.C.A. §81-6-209, and each parent shall share reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor child.

38. Makenzie shall claim HAG for all even tax years. Michael shall claim HAG for all odd tax years.

3. CHILD SUPPORT

39. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-107 et seq.

40. Makenzie is currently unemployed but shall be imputed a monthly income of $1,257 for child support purposes.

41. Michael is employed and receives veteran's benefits earning $9,200 per month for child support purposes.

42. Based on the forgoing incomes, and a joint physical custody worksheet where Makenzie receives 208 overnights and Michael receives 157 overnights, Michael shall pay Makenzie $634 per month.

43. Michael shall pay Makenzie an upward deviation of an additional $266 per month for a total of $900 per month until HAG begins attending Kindergarten with the understanding that neither party will need to utilize childcare services during that time. Michael's child support payment shall be effective June 1, 2026.

44. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

45. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each month, and the other half on the 20th of each month.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

46. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, name calling, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the child or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or visitation.

47. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes the child's best interest.

48. Both parties shall be restrained from discussing divorce issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties shall also be restrained from discussing the child's relationships with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child. Neither party shall request or encourage the child to hold back information from the other party which shall otherwise be divulged to the other party by the other parent.

49. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, threatening, stalking, digitally stalking, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and child during the other parent's parenting time.

50. With the exception of child exchanges as set forth above, neither party shall go the residence or workplace of the other party without written permission.

51. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the child what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

52. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISION

S53. The parties shall maintain and pay for their own separate vehicle, dental, vision, and health insurance policies as of the date of the Decree of Divorce.

54. If she so chooses, Makenzie shall be entitled to legally change her name to her maiden name of Makenzie Stodter.

55. If either party must pursue legal action to receive timely and complete payment or reimbursement from the other party as required in the decree, the party pursuing legal action shall be entitled to an award of attorney's fees and the delinquent payments or reimbursements shall be due with interest.

56. The parties shall be duly ordered to execute and deliver all documents necessary to effectuate the Decree of Divorce.
