IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF	DECREE OF DIVORCE
KEILANI MARIE DELA CRUZ WEIRES, Petitioner, Vs. ALLAN NORDAN WEIRES, Respondent.	Judge GIBSON Commissioner BLOCHER Case No.: 264902711

COME NOW the parties, Petitioner being represented by counsel, and Respondent representing himself and stipulate and agree as follows. Respondent acknowledges receipt of the Petition for divorce, accepts service thereof, agrees to submit himself to the jurisdiction of this court, and agrees to the entry of a decree of divorce upon the terms set forth herein. In so doing, Respondent acknowledges that he has the right to counsel of his own choosing, but has chosen to represent himself in this matter. Respondent acknowledges that Braden Ellis represents Keilani Marie Dela Cruz Weires, in these proceedings, and is not acting as Allan's legal counsel. Having accepted the Stipulation and Settlement agreement entered into on June 23rd, 2026, and entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the court now enters as follows:

1. Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent which dissolves the bonds of matrimony between them.
2. The parties have one minor child: K.D.W. born May of 2019.
3. There are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor children filed or pending in the Juvenile Court pursuant to Utah R. Civ. P. 100.
4. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-13-101 et seq. in that Utah is the home state of the minor children at the time of commencement of this proceeding.
5. The child lives with the following persons: KEILANI MARIE DELA CRUZ WEIRES, Mother.
6. There is no person, not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the children or who claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or visitation with, the children.

Child Custody and Parent-time

7. The Petitioner should be awarded sole legal custody of the minor child.

Custody Provisions

8. Petitioner shall have primary physical custody of the child. Custody and residency shall be exercised as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, Respondent shall have parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209. Respondent's parent-time shall not commence until Respondent has completed the required parenting courses.
9. Respondent shall be responsible for all costs associated with travel for parent-time.

Provisions Relating to Support Payments

10. Petitioner is employed at BoomCloud and earns approximately $3,750 per month.

11. Respondent is employed full-time, and earns an earning potential of no less than $5,910 per month.

12. A base monthly child support obligation for Respondent should be entered pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines. Respondent shall be ordered to pay $618 per month.

13. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 78B-12-202 et seq. Respondent should be ordered to pay child support to commence when the parties separated in April of 2021. No child support payments have been made from that time until the date of this Stipulation. The parties agree that Respondent is behind on child support in the amount of $37,698. The parties agree that the collection of child support arrears shall be deferred as long as Respondent pays child support payments beginning July 1, 2026 in the amount of $700 per month. If Respondent fails to maintain his support obligations as current, the entire child support arrears amount shall be entered as a judgement against Respondent, and Petitioner shall have the right to collect on the full child support arrears. If Respondent makes all of his future child support payments on time, the child support arrears shall be deemed satisfied along with the final payment of child support when the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

14. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 62A-11-502 the obligor parent (non-custodial parent) shall make child support payments directly to the obligee parent (custodial parent) as by direct deposit. However, any party may subsequently pursue income withholding through the Office of Recovery Services upon if either the obligor or the obligee requests. In the event income withholding is commenced, all administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by Respondent in addition to the base child support obligation.
15. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 30-3-10.5 support shall be payable 1/2 by the 1st day of each month and 1/2 by the 20th day of that month.
16. When the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted beginning the month after the event. The adjustment will reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support. The income used for the purpose of adjusting the support shall be the income of the parties at the time of the entry of the most recent child support order.
17. Each of the parties is under mutual obligation to notify the other within (30) days of any change in monthly income.

Provisions Relating to Health Insurance

18. In exchange for the right to claim the minor child for taxes each year, Petitioner shall be responsible for the cost of the out of pocket premiums for the parties' minor child's health insurance and medical expenses.

Provisions Relating to Debts and Obligations

19. Each party should be responsible for the debt listed in their own name, and any debts listed in both parties' names will be split equally.

Provisions Relating to Personal Property

20. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

21. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The parties should divide the personal property as the property is presently divided.

Provisions Relating to Real Property

22. The parties own no real property together, and none was acquired by the parties during the marriage.

Provisions Relating to Alimony

23. Neither party shall be awarded alimony now or hereafter.

Provisions Relating to Pension and Retirement Related Assets

24. Any retirement account acquired during the marriage shall be awarded to the party who's name the account is in.

Tax Exemptions

25. As part of this global settlement Petitioner shall claim the minor child for tax purposes.

Attorney's Fees

26. If this matter is uncontested, each party will be responsible for his/her own attorney fees. Otherwise, Respondent will pay Petitioner's reasonable attorney fees.

Other

27. For the purposes of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. § 520, neither party is a member of the military.

28. Respondent should be restored the use of her former name, Keilani Marie Bernando Dela Cruz, if she so desires.

29. The parties' minor child shall have his name updated to "Koa Ray Eugenio DLC-Weires", with a new birth certificate being issued with the updated name listed.

30. The provisions of the Decree of Divorce should be interpreted using the principles of good faith and fair dealing and principles of reasonableness as determined by the Court.

31. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.
