CHILDREN

5. Children. Petitioner and Respondent have one (1) minor child born as issue of the Marriage: Y.A. (07/2017). There are no other children who are expected to be born as issue of this marriage.
6. Rule 100 Information. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code § 81-11-101 et seq., and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code § 81-8-102 et seq., the parties state upon information and belief, that:
 - a. Parties are unaware of any proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent-time or visitation concerning the parties' minor child which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order.
 - b. Parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' child.

- c. Parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the parties' minor child and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to the parties' minor child.
7. Custody. The parties are awarded custody of the minor child as follows:
- a. Legal Custody: It is in the best interests of the minor child that the parties be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child.
 - b. Physical Custody: It is in the best interests of the minor child that Petitioner be awarded primary physical custody of the minor child, subject to the parent-time of Respondent, outlined below.
8. Parent-Time. Parent-time shall be exercised as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, Respondent shall be entitled to parent-time consistent with Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-302, to be exercised at dates and times reasonably available to him considering his work and on-call schedule.
- a. Holiday Parent-Time: Summer and holiday parent-time shall be coordinated to align with the parent-time schedule of Respondent's older children so they can spend that time together.
 - b. Post-Relocation Parent-Time: In the event Petitioner relocates outside the State of Utah, Petitioner shall be responsible for providing Respondent with a total of four weeks of parent-time per year, to be taken in blocks of at least two weeks each. Respondent shall have priority in determining the timing of these blocks in order to coordinate with the schedule of his other children. Petitioner shall be responsible for the cost, arrangement, and all logistical aspects of facilitating this parent-time.

Respondent agrees to contribute up to $4,000 per year toward these costs, if needed, payable within 10 days of receiving valid receipts.

9. Transportation. Transportation shall be the responsibility of the receiving party. If Petitioner relocates outside of Utah, Petitioner shall be responsible for arranging and covering the travel expenses necessary to facilitate the minor child's visits with Respondent, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.
10. Right of First Refusal. Each party shall have the first option to provide care for the child if the party exercising parent-time is unavailable overnight and the other party is personally available and willing to provide such care and transportation.
11. Residence. Petitioner's residence will be designated as the child's primary residence, provided that Petitioner remains a resident of Utah.
 - a. Relocation. Respondent agrees that Petitioner may relocate with the minor child to a Muslim-majority country, at Petitioner's discretion, including for employment purposes, without requiring further permission from Respondent or the court. In the event of relocation, Petitioner shall notify Respondent in writing and provide all relevant relocation details in advance.
12. Parenting Plan. In addition to the advisory guidelines outlined in §§ 81-9-202 and 81-9-203, the parties shall adhere to the following:
 - a. Mutual Restraining Order: Neither party shall make disparaging remarks, whether in person or through electronic means, about the other party to, or in front of, the child, nor permit others to do so. Further, neither party shall discuss the case or case-related matters directly with or otherwise in the presence of the child, nor permit others to do so. Both parties are restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

- b. Communication: The parties shall communicate directly with the other and not through third persons. The child shall never be used as a messenger. Communication shall be respectful and at no time will it be sarcastic or derogatory. The minor child shall be permitted to have access to her cell phone at all times and shall be allowed to communicate freely and privately with Respondent, without interference, monitoring, restriction, or discouragement by Petitioner or any third party.
- c. Address and Phone Number: The parties shall always keep the other party informed of their address and telephone number when exercising parent time.
- d. Medical Information: Both parties shall have the right to obtain medical information on the minor child from healthcare providers directly without the necessity of going through the other party or getting their permission.
- e. Educational Information: The custodial parent's residence shall be considered the primary residence for purposes of school for the minor child. Both parties shall have the right to obtain educational information of the minor child directly from educators and counselors without the necessity of going through the other party or getting their permission. Each party shall be listed as a parent and authorized contact for the child with all school, medical and dental providers, and extracurricular organizations, and shall have equal access to all information, communications, and records related to the child.

- f. Notice of Activities: Both parties shall have the right to be notified by the other party of major events in the child's life that they otherwise would not be aware of, so that they can have enough advance notice to attend.
- g. Out-of-State and International Travel: Respondent shall not take the parties' minor child outside of the United States without informing Petitioner. Respondent shall not take the parties' minor child outside of the State of Utah or the United States without providing an itinerary to the other party in advance of the travel. The itinerary shall include but not be limited to the following: (i) the dates of departure and return; (ii) the locations and addresses where Respondent and the parties' minor child will be staying overnight; (iii) emergency contact information; and (iv) verification of round-trip or return travel arrangements, including copies of return tickets or comparable documentation confirming the scheduled return to Utah.
- h. Notice of Overnight Stays: Both parties shall notify each other, in advance and in writing, anytime the minor child will be staying somewhere other than party's home overnight. This includes, but is not limited to, sleepovers with friends, travel (as further outlined above), vacations, in-state trips, out-of-state trips, etc. Parties shall provide the address and location where the child will be staying, the dates and times of the overnight stay, the names and contact information of all adults supervising or residing at the location, and a telephone number where the child may be reached during the overnight stay. Parties shall also promptly notify each other of any material changes to the overnight arrangements.

- i. Decision Making: The parties shall confer in good faith regarding all major decisions concerning the minor child, including but not limited to matters involving the child's health, education, general welfare, religion, daycare, medical and dental treatment, and therapy. Petitioner shall provide Respondent with reasonable advance notice of such decisions and a meaningful opportunity to discuss the issues and provide input prior to a decision being made. After discussion with Respondent, Petitioner shall have final decision-making authority regarding such matters. In the event Respondent disagrees with a decision made by Petitioner, Respondent may seek review by the court at any time without first being required to participate in mediation.
- j. Emergency Medical Decisions: In case of a medical emergency, the party who has custody of the child at that time shall have the authority to make any initial decision regarding emergency medical care. That party will notify the other parent of the emergency immediately.
- k. Day-to-Day Decisions: Whichever party has the child in their physical custody shall make minor, day-to-day decisions regarding the child in that party's care.
- l. Implementation of Treatment: Each of the parties shall facilitate, help and promote the taking of medication or other regimens of therapy for the child as prescribed by a doctor.
- m. Firearms: If either party owns or acquires a firearm, they shall secure said firearm in a locked safe.
- n. Other Provisions: Any provisions of Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-9-202 and 81-9-203 not otherwise specified here shall apply.

13. Child Support. It is in the best interest of the minor child that the child support order of this action be as follows:

- a. Incomes: Petitioner shall be imputed with $3,500.00 per month as her gross monthly income. Based on information and belief, Respondent is employed and earns approximately $60,169.00 per month as his gross monthly income. Based upon the gross monthly incomes of the parties, Respondent should pay child support in the amount of $3,677.00 per month. However, the parties agree that Respondent has prepaid $225,000.00 in child support by providing Petitioner with a residence, as articulated more fully below, in the amount of $525,000.00.
 - i. Provided Residence. The residence Respondent shall gift to Petitioner is located at 5566 West Arnica Ridge Circle, Salt Lake City, UT 84118.
 - ii. Premarital Agreement and Cash: Of the said $525,000.00, $300,000.00 shall be credited toward Respondent's alimony obligation as articulated in the Premarital Agreement, and the remaining $225,000.00 shall be credited to Respondent as a prepayment of child support. Respondent will also provide Petitioner with $30,000.00 in cash within seven (7) days of the Stipulation being signed by both parties plus 70,000K within one year from the date of signing this agreement, as an additional prepayment toward his child support obligation.

iii. Support: Respondent shall pay $2,000.00 per month for until the minor child turns 18 years old. Said payments shall be payable in one installment on the 5th calendar day of each month.

14. Child Support Arrears. Respondent does not owe any past-due child support as of the date of this Agreement, and no child support arrears exist.

15. Health Insurance. Insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child shall be provided by either the Petitioner or Respondent if available at reasonable cost through employment and/or government assistance. If insurance is not available through their employment, the parties shall cooperate in selecting reasonably priced insurance coverage for the minor child. The party maintaining the medical insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 USC §§ 601, et seq, upon the child's initial enrollment and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. Respondent shall be responsible for payment of the health insurance premiums for the minor child, provided the insurance coverage has been preapproved by Respondent in writing. If Petitioner elects to obtain or maintain insurance coverage for the minor child without Respondent's prior written approval, Petitioner shall be responsible for one-half of the insurance premiums and related costs.

16. Medical/Dental Expenses. Respondent shall be solely responsible for all uninsured medical, dental, orthodontic, optometry, and mental health expenses incurred for the minor child that are medically necessary and reasonable in cost, including deductibles and co-payments. However, except in the case of emergency medical treatment, Respondent shall only be responsible for uninsured expenses that are preapproved by Respondent in writing. For approved expenses, Petitioner shall provide Respondent with

17. School Tuition. Respondent shall be solely responsible for all tuition and education related expenses for the minor child while she resides in Utah. If the child attends a school outside the State of Utah, Respondent shall contribute up to $20,000 annually toward tuition and education-related expenses if Petitioner is not employed. Respondent shall contribute up to $12,000 annually if Petitioner is employed and either her annual gross income is $200,000 or more, or her employer covers the child's education expenses. If Petitioner is employed but neither of the above conditions is met, Respondent shall contribute up to $20,000 annually toward tuition and education-related expenses. For all approved expenses, Petitioner shall provide Respondent with written verification of the expense, and Respondent shall remit payment in full within ten (10) days of receiving such verification.

18. Extracurricular Child Related Expenses. Respondent shall be solely responsible for all tuition and education-related expenses for the minor child that are preapproved by Respondent in writing. For approved expenses, Petitioner shall provide Respondent with written verification of the expense, and Respondent shall remit payment in full within ten (10) days of receiving such verification.

19. Other Child Expenses. Any other child-related expenses not otherwise specified here shall be governed by Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, etc.

20. Tax Dependency Exemption. Respondent shall be awarded the dependency exemptions for the minor child for federal and state income tax every year going forward. If there is no benefit to Respondent, then Petitioner may be awarded the dependency exemption for that particular tax year.

21. Filing of 2025 Taxes. Petitioner shall promptly and fully cooperate with Respondent in connection with the preparation and filing of all applicable state and federal income tax returns for the year 2025, which will be submitted as married filed jointly. Respondent will prepare or cause the returns to be prepared and filed. Respondent will also be responsible for any and all liabilities or taxes due associated with his income. Respondent will also be solely entitled to any tax refund or credit arising from the 2025 tax filings, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

or any other ownership structure, together with all equity and interests therein, free and clear of any claim, interest, or right of Petitioner now or at any time in the future.

24. Other Property. All other property that either party owns or has any interest in, including but not limited to any businesses, corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, trusts, joint ventures, real property, personal property, accounts, accounts receivable, securities, intellectual property, contractual rights, and any other legal or equitable interests, whether held individually or jointly with any third party, other entity, other trust, etc., shall be awarded to the owning party as their sole and separate property, free and clear of any claim, interest, or right of the other party, now or at any time in the future.

27. Alimony. Alimony shall be as follows:

- a. Lump-Sum Alimony Under Premarital Agreement. Respondent shall pay Petitioner a lump-sum alimony award of $300,000.00, pursuant to the parties'

Premarital Agreement. In lieu of making the lump-sum payment directly to Petitioner, the parties have agreed that Respondent will provide Petitioner with residence having an approximate value of $525,000.00. However, Petitioner shall be solely responsible for all future taxes, HOA dues, water, sewer, gas, electric, maintenance, etc., without any contribution or obligation from Respondent. Petitioner agrees to accept the said residence as full, complete satisfaction of the $300,000.00 required in the Premarital Agreement. Further, Petitioner also agrees to credit Respondent $225,000.00 associated with the said residence as part of his prepaid child support obligation. As part of this agreement, Petitioner waives any further claim against Respondent for alimony or any other related financial obligation.

Consistent with Utah law, each party shall execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the final order, hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of their order, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and ask that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.
29. Modification. Based on Respondent's financial concessions articulated in this Stipulation, Petitioner agrees that she shall not seek, request, or petition the court to modify or increase any financial obligations, support, payments, or financial responsibilities of Respondent set forth herein, or that could have been addressed herein. Petitioner specifically waives any claim for additional financial support from Respondent beyond the terms of this Stipulation. Petitioner may seek to modify any provision of this Stipulation, other than the financial provisions referenced above, which shall not be modifiable. Petitioner further agrees that the financial provisions set forth herein (including but not limited to child support, alimony, etc.) shall be nonmodifiable, and that Petitioner shall not seek to modify, increase, or otherwise challenge the financial components of this Stipulation. In the event Petitioner files any action, petition, or motion seeking to modify any financial provision contained herein, Petitioner shall be responsible for all attorney fees and costs incurred by Respondent in defending against such action. In return, the respondent shall not modify the custody arrangement.
