6. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties.

- a. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, both parties shall do a formal statement to the other party including the following:
 - i. The neutral observation of what has occurred.
 - ii. The need of the child or the parent

iii. The applicable law or paragraph of Decree or Order

iv. The proposed resolution

b. The parties shall then attempt to mutually agree after formal statements are given.

c. If the parties still do not agree, the parties will then they shall submit the formal statement to the Special Master for decision.

7. Special Master. Spencer Ricks shall be appointed as Special Master, and each party shall pay the retainer by May 15, 2026. The parties agree to sign the standard Special Master Agreement and shall pay the fees as set forth in the agreement.

8. Medical.

a. The parties will continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the child and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the child's medical care.

b. The parties will use their current dentist as the dentist for the child and specialists that their dentist recommends, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the child's dental care.

c. Emergency and sick care shall be attended immediately by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment, and the parent who has the parent time shall attend the appointment. If it is emergency care, both parents shall be able to attend the care.

d. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

9. Educational Plan. The child is on the waiting list at Spectrum Academy and shall attend as soon as the child is accepted. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

10. Therapy. The parties agree that the child shall attend therapy until released by the therapist or mutually agreed upon by the parties. Each party shall pay one-half of the therapy bill directly to the therapist. If payment to the provider is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. The parties will follow the recommendations of the child's therapist.

11. Relocation. If either party moves more than 35 miles from the other parent's residence, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

12. Our Family Wizard. The parties will utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate and calendar and exchange receipts. The parties will each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use text contact only for emergencies and changes on the day of the exchange. Each party shall set up and pay for their portion of Our Family Wizard by May 15, 2026. The parties shall respond within 48 hours of any communication. The parties will exchange receipts, calendar, and communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. The communication shall be civil and limited to issues regarding the child.

13. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

14. Travel. When the child travels with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached;
- d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.
- e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times.

All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

15. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

16. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their child may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

17. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule. The parties should give as much advance notice as possible with a minimum of 3 days for a funeral and 30 days for a wedding, if possible.

18. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent.

Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent.

Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

- b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.
- c. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at any child's activity.
- d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.
- e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.
- f. The parties shall use no corporal punishment.
- g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

19. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available for six hours or more during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

20. Limitations.

- a. The parties will not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner, or alcohol in excess while they are exercising parent-time.
- b. The parties will not view pornography while they are exercising parent-time.
- c. Neither parent shall introduce the child to paramours until they have been in an exclusive committed relationship for 3 months.
- d. The parties shall not have the child around any person with felony charges.

21. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extracurricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

22. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

23. Curbside Transportation for the Child. For the month of May, June, July, and August 2026, the parties shall exchange at the Sandy police station. Thereafter, the parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parties' residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If the exchange occurs at the residence, the parties shall have a curbside exchange. The receiving parent shall pull up in front of the residence and text to announce the arrival. The receiving parent may wait inside the vehicle for the child to come out, but shall remain in a position where he or she can make physical contact with the vehicle at any time. The non-receiving parent shall remain in a position where he or she can touch the front door at all times during the exchange. If a child is needing assistance, the parent at the door shall get the child from the car. If there is any physical contact or communication between the parties or their respective third parties at an exchange, the parties shall change their exchange location back to the police station until otherwise directed by the Special Master. This does not preclude the parties from speaking to the child at the exchanges.

24. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

25. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

26. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code §81-9-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related expenses for the minor child. The other parent shall be given the first right of refusal to provider care prior to being asked to pay for one-half the cost of childcare.

27. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

b. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

c. If a parent will have no benefit from claiming the child, the other parent shall be granted the dependency exemption/tax credit for the child.

28. Taxes. The parties will file joint tax returns for 2025. If there is a tax liability, each party shall pay their percentage portion based on the pro rata amount that they would owe if they filed separately. If there is a refund, the parties shall each receive one-half of the refund.

29. Copies of the Taxes. Mother shall give Father an electronic copy of the past taxes in her possession within 30 days.

30. Real Property. The parties are selling their home for a reasonable market value price and shall accept the offer from Austin Packer. The parties will cooperate to the reasonable terms of the offer. In the event that the offer fall through, the parties agree to immediately put the home for sale with a mutually agreed upon Real Estate Agent, Steve Cutler. If there is any issue with the sale of the property, the parties will use the Special Master to resolve the dispute. The proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;
- ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;
- iii. Third, the following debt in the following amounts shall be paid by the Title Company:

Wells Fargo	$ (8,992)
Capital One/ Discover	$ (25,552.00)
Citi Card	$ (10,415)

- iv. Thereafter, the equity is equally divided between the parties.

31. Interim Payments. The parties will use the Wells Fargo joint account with $20,167 to make interim payments on the mortgage, utilities, and minimum payments on the debts herein and shall divide the account the day that the home closes. The parties acknowledge that any funds put in the account that are greater than $20,167 shall be awarded to the party who deposited the funds. If either party uses the account for their own personal or unnecessary spending, the party who spent the funds shall have the amount deducted from their portion of the division. The parties will not make any payments to their parents out of the Wells Fargo Joint Account.

32. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties should be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:

a. Exchange of the above items shall be within the next 14 days. Each party may elect a third party to be present at the exchange and a Police Officer to keep the peace.

b. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

33. Vehicles. The Mother is awarded the 2012 Subaru. The Father is awarded the 2004 Toyota.

34. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

a. Debts shall be paid by the home equity.

b. The parties shall maintain minimum payments as they have historically done.

c. Any charge made after May 5, 2026 shall be the responsibility of the person who has made the charge.

d. Each party will pay the loans back to their respective parents.

e. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

f. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

g. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

35. Financial Accounts.

a. The following accounts are awarded to Mother:

i. Wells Fargo IRA Roth

b. The following accounts are awarded to Father:

i. Princept Trust Co.

c. The following accounts shall be equally divided:

i. Wells Fargo Savings Account ending in 7686

ii. Met Life Whole Insurance

36. Retirement Accounts: The parties shall divide the marital portion of the Kroger 401 RSA Plan Fidelity with Mother and Father each receiving 50%. The parties will divide the amount with each receiving the marital portion above with the division date as the entry of the Decree of Divorce with associated gains and losses, if possible by the plan. The parties shall use Fackrell & McLean to prepare their necessary documentation for division with each paying one-half of the cost.

37. Life Insurance. The Father will carry life insurance on his life in the face amount that will cover his total aggregation of child support and alimony which is currently $200,000, until such time as the parties' minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18). During such period, the Father will name the Mother as beneficiary for the said portion of the life insurance policy. The Father should provide proof yearly within 14 days of request.

38. Name: Mother will have the option of restoring her name to Renae Watson.

39. Child Support and Alimony. Based upon the parties' joint physical custody, with Father's gross monthly income of $6,959, and Mother's imputed gross monthly income of $1,257, Father's child support obligation shall $332/month, with Mother having 183 overnights per year and Father having 182 overnights per year on a 50/50 parent-time schedule calculation. The Father shall pay Mother the following family support (which is a combination of child support and alimony) which shall be terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. This shall be done through an electronic transfer:

- a. From June 1, 2026 through May 31, 2028, the Father shall pay the Mother $2,150 per month.
- b. From June 1, 2028 through May 31, 2031, the Father shall pay the Mother $1,850 per month.
- c. From June 1, 2031 through November 1, 2035, the Father shall pay the Mother $1,550 per month.
- d. When alimony terminates, the parties shall recalculate child support at that time.
- e. Payments shall be made with ½ on the 5th and ½ on the 20th of each month.

40. Guardianship. The parties shall apply for disability 8 months prior the child's 18th birthday and will apply for Guardianship, if applicable. If there are issues, the parties will mediate prior to court intervention.

41. Trust. The parties will work together to dissolve the Marital Trust no later May 20, 2026 and the Father shall pay for any costs associated with the dissolution.

42. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

43. Divorce Education: The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

44. Drafting. Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of this stipulation. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of this Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. This Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

45. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly. Any and all claims, including but not limited to any arrearages, whether known or unknown through the date of signature of this agreement are hereby waived.

46. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action. If either party prevails on an enforcement action, the prevailing party shall be awarded attorney fees.

47. The best interest of both parties will be served by the Court entering this Decree of Divorce.

EXECUTED AND ENTERED BY THE COURT AS INDICATED BY THE DATE AND
