DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case Number: 254906320

Judge Matthew Bates

Commissioner Joanna Sagers

This matter having come before Honorable Matthew Bates, Petitioner, Brandon Parache ("Brandon"), and Respondent, Macady Parache ("Macady"), having executed and filed a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation") filed with the court on July 20, 2026, the court having reviewed the records and pleadings filed herein, and the court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised in this premises, now therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, as follows:

1. Minor Children. Two children have been born as issue of this marriage, both of whom are still minors as follows: S.R.L.P. born July 7, 2021; and L.T.A.P. born August 22, 2023. (“the children”).

2. Child Custody. Brandon is awarded sole physical and sole legal custody of the parties’ minor children.

3. Parenting Plan. The following parenting plan should govern the parties’ rights of parent-time with the children:

a. The parties shall meet to introduce their significant others that are currently involved in the children’s lives.

b. Parenting Time: Parent time will remain status quo, with Macady to have parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302 with the exception that Macady’s weekend will end at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday evening.

(i) 2026 Summer Parent Time. For the 2026 summer break parent time will remain status quo with Macady to have every other weekend parent time.

(ii) Holidays shall be discussed and agreed upon between the parties. If the parties do not agree, holiday parent-time shall be pursuant to the holiday schedule.

f. Transportation: Macady shall pick the children up on Friday from the children's daycare or from the children's schools when they are regularly released. Brandon shall pick the children up at the beginning of his parent-time from Macady's residence beginning July 1, 2026. All parent-time exchanges at either party's residences shall be curbside. Both parties shall have the children ready and available at the appointed time.

g. Decision Making: Brandon shall make all decisions concerning the minor children, but shall keep Macady informed as to significant issues.

h. Google Calendar. The parties shall utilize a shared google calendar to keep each other informed as to all of the children's extra-curricular activities and medical appointments.

i. Access to Information. Macady shall be given access to the children's school Skyward account and the children's daycare app so she can view information regarding the children.

j. Communications Regarding the Children: Both parents have the right to reach out to the other parent to exercise virtual parent-time at any time at a reasonable time and for a reasonable duration. Messages should be responded to within 24 hours of receipt. The parties should remain civil.

k. Respectful Co-Parenting. The parties shall not make harmful, insulting or denigrating comments regarding the other party in the children's presence, and to use their best efforts to prevent others from doing so. The parties should accommodate the children's needs to have quality relationships with extended family members, and to facilitate the child's attendance at significant family functions.

l. Sharing of Information: Both parties should provide each other with their current residential and mailing address, telephone numbers and email address within 24 hours of any change. Macady shall have access to the children's school work, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of the children. Further, each parent should take affirmative steps to share information regarding the times and locations of parent teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices and other significant events involving their children.

m. Education Plan. For school attendance, Brandon is deemed the residential parent. The parties shall share equally all required school fees including registration fees, costs for books, graduation costs, class fees, and school activity fees.

n. Mental Health Treatment and Parent-Time.

i. Respondent shall remain under the care of a mental health professional and shall continue to participate in any recommended mental health treatment, including therapy, counseling, medication management, and compliance with prescribed medications, unless otherwise directed by the treating professional.

ii. Quarterly Verification. Beginning July 1, 2026, and every (90) days thereafter for the next twelve months, Macady shall provide Brandon with a written report or letter from Macady's treating healthcare professional verifying:

- a. Macady is actively participating in mental health treatment;
- b. Macady is attending recommended therapy and/or counseling sessions; and

c. Macady is substantially complying with prescribed medications and treatment recommendations.

iii. The report shall not be required to disclose confidential medical details, diagnoses, treatment notes, or privileged communications beyond the information necessary to verify compliance with this provision.

iv. Unsupervised Parent-Time. So long as Macady timely provides the verification required herein and remains in compliance with treatment recommendations, Macady shall exercise unsupervised parent-time as otherwise set forth in this Stipulation.

v. Emergency Concerns. Nothing herein shall prevent either party from seeking immediate court relief if circumstances arise that present a substantial risk of harm to the minor child.

n. Relocation. If either party moves further than 150 miles from their current residences, the parties may request the provisions of the Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 as to providing notice and the relocating parent's parent-time.

o. Personal Conduct Orders. Macady should have appropriate housing and beds for the children during her parenting time. If either party moves in with someone other than their current significant others, the parties shall provide names and dates of birth for all individuals over the age of 18 they intend to reside with.

p. Child Support. Brandon's monthly gross income is $3,640 per month. Macady currently earns $2,426 per month. Macady is ordered to pay Brandon child support in the amount of $527 per month. Macady anticipates beginning new employment in July 2026 earning $3,120 per month. If Macady does begin the anticipated new employment in July 2026, then beginning August 1, 2026, child support shall automatically increase to account for her actual income, which is anticipated to be $18 per hour which would result in a child support amount of $644 per month. Child support shall be paid consistent with the provisions of the Utah Code Ann. §81-6-205 (Sole Custody) until said children become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during their normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

a. The obligee (custodial parent) shall be entitled to immediate and automatic income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11 Parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended). This income withholding procedure applies to existing and future payors, and all withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services at such time that income withholding is commenced by the Office of Recovery Services.

10. Child Support, Day Care and Medical Expense Arrearages. The parties agree to waive any claim for child support, day care, and the children's medical expense arrearages, in exchange for Brandon claiming both minor children as dependents for income tax purposes as set forth below.

11. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall share extracurricular activities equally so long as they are agreed upon in writing and in advance of enrollment. Otherwise, the parent enrolling a child in an extracurricular activity should bear all costs for the activity and non-enrolling parent should not be obligated to have the child participate during his or her parent-time.

12. Child Care Expenses. The parties shall equally share all work related child care incurred for the minor children, pursuant to §81-6-209.

13. Medical Insurance. If the parties have a policy of medical and/or dental insurance, the parties should equally share the children's out-of-pocket portion of the insurance premium actually paid pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

14. Primary Insurance Coverage. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Brandon should be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Macady should be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent should be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child. If both parties carry policies of medical and dental insurance for the benefit of the minor children, then each party shall be solely responsible for their own medical and dental insurance premiums, without reimbursement from the other party.

15. Medical, Dental and Other Health Care Expenses. In addition to all deductible amounts, the parties shall share equally all co-payments and any reasonable uninsured costs incurred for the benefit of the parties' children including medical, dental, optical, orthodontia, psychological and other such expenses. The parent incurring such an expense should provide written verification of the expense to the other parent within thirty days of receiving notice of the final out-of-pocket expense. The other parent should pay their portion of the incurred expense upon receipt of written verification of the final expense pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

16. Child-Related Tax Deductions. Brandon shall claim the minor children for all income tax purposes for the 2026 and 2027 tax years. The parties shall each claim one minor child for the tax year 2028, with Brandon to claim Lyra and Macady to claim Silas for so long as the children are able to be claimed as dependents, and so long as the parties will receive a tax benefit from said claiming. When there is only one child to be claimed, the parties shall alternate claiming the child, with Macady to be entitled to claim the child the first year only one child is eligible to be claimed. The parties should cooperate in signing any forms required by the IRS allowing her to do so.

17. Tax Filing. Brandon and Macady shall file individual tax returns for the 2026 tax year and all further tax years.

18. Alimony. Neither party should be awarded alimony now or in the future.

19. Real Property. No real property was purchased during this marriage.

20. Marital Property Previously Divided. Each party shall retain all personal property, financial accounts, retirement accounts, vehicles, household furnishings, and other assets currently in his or her possession, custody, or control, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

21. The parties further acknowledge that they have fully resolved all issues regarding the division of marital property and neither party shall have any further claim against the other for any asset currently possessed or controlled by the other party, except as otherwise specifically provided herein.

22. Debts and Obligations. During the course of this marriage the parties incurred certain debts and obligations which shall be awarded as follows:

a. Brandon shall be solely responsible for the Lifestone Counseling obligation in the approximate amount of $3,300, the outstanding Dominion bill owing in the amount $137.80, the Rocky Mountain bill in the amount of $630.80. Macady shall provide the statements to Brandon by July 1, 2026, so that he can make arrangements to pay the obligations.

b. Macady shall be solely responsible for all medical expenses she incurred prior to or during the marriage.

c. The parties should be awarded any past or present, debts and obligations incurred in their separate name and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless thereon.

23. Return to Former Name. Macady shall be allowed to return to her former name should she so desire.

24. Attorney's Fees. Each party shall pay their own legal fees and costs incurred in this matter.

25. Final Stipulation. The Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of the Stipulation shall have any force or effect. The parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses but waive this right. The parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in the stipulation.
