IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – STATE OF UTAH IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY – SALT LAKE COUNTY DEPARTMENT
[450 S State Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84114]

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: JASLYN CATHERINE HOWARD-HANNA, And TRENT WILLIAM HANNA.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 254905081 Judge: JAMES GARDNER Commissioner: KIM M LUHN
---	---

This matter came before the Court upon the Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce, Custody, Child Support, and Parent-Time filed by Petitioner, Jaslyn Catherine Howard-Hanna ("Jaslyn"), the Answer filed by Respondent, Trent William Hanna ("Trent"), the parties' Stipulated Settlement Agreement resolving all issues in controversy, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered contemporaneously herewith. The Court, being fully advised on the premises, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

- 1. DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE. The marriage between Jaslyn Catherine Howard-Hanna ("Mother") and Trent William Hanna ("Father") is dissolved upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-405. Effective upon entry of this Decree, the parties are restored to the status of unmarried persons.

2. LEGAL AND PHYSICAL CUSTODY

- a. The parties have been the primary caregiver(s) for the minor child(ren) since birth, consistently meeting their physical, emotional, educational, medical, and special needs.
- b. The parties demonstrate the capacity and willingness to be effective parent(s), with appropriate parenting skills and the ability to communicate well with the other parent.
- c. The parties encourage love and affection between the child(ren) and the other parent, facilitate frequent and continuous contact between them, and provide direct personal care rather than surrogate care.
- d. The parties agree that the custody and parent-time arrangements set forth are in the child(ren)'s best interests under Utah Code § 81-9-204.
- e. The parties agree that Joint Legal Custody is in the best interest of the child(ren).
- f. The parties agree that Joint Physical Custody is in the best interest of the child(ren), so long as the parties live within reasonable distance of each other. If Jaslyn remains out of the state of Utah, Trent shall be awarded sole physical custody. Physical custody and parent-time are further outlined below.

3. PARENTING PLAN

4. PARENTING PLAN – INTRODUCTION

- a. This Parenting Plan is established to promote the best interests of the Child(ren) by defining the rights and responsibilities of each Parent, ensuring stability, and fostering meaningful relationships with both parties. The Plan is structured around two guiding principles: the Child(ren)'s Rights and the parties' Rights and Responsibilities, supported by enforceable procedures for cooperation, communication, and dispute resolution.

5. PARENTING PLAN – CHILD'S RIGHTS

a. Right to Safety and Stability. The Child has the right to live in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment in which their physical, emotional, and developmental needs are met.

b. Respectful Conduct Between Parties. The Child has the right to be free from parental conflict, disparagement, and manipulation. Both parties shall model respectful behavior.

c. Child's Right to Be Free from Parental Conflict and Interference by Others. The Child has the right to maintain loving relationships with both parties and to be protected from adult conflict. The Child shall not be exposed to disparaging comments about either Parent, discussions about the issues in this case, or attempts to influence the Child's preferences regarding custody or parent-time. The Child shall not be used to relay messages, gather information, or otherwise be placed in the middle of parental disagreements.

d. The Child also has the right to be protected from similar conduct by third parties. Neither Parent shall encourage or permit any third party to speak negatively about the other Parent, involve the Child in parental disputes, or otherwise undermine the Child's relationship with either Parent. Each Parent shall make reasonable efforts to prevent such conduct and shall remove the Child from situations where it occurs.

- e. Parental Communication. The Child has the right to meaningful, age-appropriate communication with each party. Parties shall promote consistent and reliable contact between the Child and the other Parent.
- f. Child's Right to Communicate with Each Parent. The Child has the right to maintain regular communication with both parties. When the Child is with one Parent, they shall have the opportunity to communicate with the other Parent up to daily, depending on the Child's age, interest, and ability.
- g. Each Parent shall support and facilitate this communication by providing reasonable means for contact, including access to a functioning phone or device when appropriate. Communication shall occur in a manner that respects the Child's comfort and privacy and shall not be monitored, restricted, or interfered with except as reasonably necessary for the Child's safety or well-being.
- h. Child's Right to Maintain Contact with Each Parent. The Child has the right to maintain a meaningful relationship with each Parent and to spend time with each Parent as scheduled. When circumstances require that scheduled parent-time be exchanged, rescheduled, or adjusted, the parties shall cooperate in good faith to ensure the Child is able to see and spend time with the affected parent as soon as reasonably possible. Parent-time adjustments shall prioritize preserving the Child's relationship with both parties and minimizing disruption to the Child's routine and emotional well-being.
- i. Child's Right to Participate in Significant Family Events. The Child has the right to participate in important family events and meaningful occasions in the lives of both parties and extended family members. When reasonably possible, the parties shall give special consideration to allowing the Child to attend family functions such as funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, meaningful ceremonies, and other significant events that may unintentionally conflict with the regular parent-time schedule. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to accommodate such events in a manner that supports the Child's connection with both families.

j. Relationships with Siblings, Extended Family, and Community. The Child has the right to maintain relationships with their siblings, safe extended family members, and meaningful connections within their community unless limited by court order. Each Parent shall facilitate such contact during their custodial time.

k. Child's Right to Parental Care (Right of First Refusal). If the parties both live in Utah, they shall be awarded the right of first refusal as follows:

i. The Child has the right to be cared for by a Parent whenever reasonably possible.

If a Parent is unable to personally care for the Child overnight during that Parent's scheduled time, the Child has the right to be offered time with the other Parent before alternative childcare is arranged. The Parent needing care shall notify the other Parent as soon as practicable, and the other Parent shall respond within two (2) hours of receiving the request.

ii. If Jaslyn remains out of the state of Utah, she shall ensure that she is personally present for her parent-time. Further, she shall not be awarded the right of first refusal when Trent is unavailable.

l. Child's Right to Safe and Responsible Childcare. The Child has the right to be cared for by safe and responsible caregivers. Any childcare provider shall be at least eighteen (18) years of age, capable of ensuring the Child's safety, and free from a history of criminal conduct or child abuse that would place the Child at risk.

m. The Child has the right for both parties to be informed about regular childcare providers. The parties shall share the name and contact information of any regular childcare provider. In emergency situations, reasonable temporary caregivers may be used to ensure the Child's safety and care.

n. Child's Right to Predictable and Peaceful Exchanges. The Child has the right to timely, predictable, and respectful exchanges between parties. If a Parent is more than thirty (30) minutes late for an exchange without providing notice, the other Parent may reschedule the exchange. All exchanges shall occur in a calm and respectful manner, without confrontation or discussion of legal matters, so the Child is not exposed to Parental conflict.

o. Child's Right to Mental and Emotional Health Support. The Child has the right to receive counseling or therapeutic support when it is reasonably believed to benefit their emotional well-being. Either Parent may initiate counseling or therapy for the Child when appropriate to support the Child's needs so long as the other party is notified. Both parties shall cooperate in facilitating the Child's participation in counseling and, when feasible, shall work together to select an appropriate provider. When the parties have a disagreement regarding counseling, they shall follow the Dispute Resolution process.

p. Child's Right to Personal Privacy. The Child has the right to reasonable privacy appropriate to their age, gender, and developmental stage. Each Parent shall respect the q. Child's Right to Personal Dignity. The Child has the right to be treated with dignity, respect, and consideration in each Parent's home. The Child has the right to live in an environment that respects their personal autonomy and emotional well-being. The Child shall not be subjected to intrusive questioning or monitoring about the other Parent's household and shall not be used to convey messages, relay disputes, or gather information between parties.

r. Right to Safe and Capable Supervision. The Child has the right to be supervised and cared for by adults who are capable of providing safe and responsible care. The Child shall not be placed in the care of any person who is impaired by alcohol, illegal drugs, misuse of prescription medication, or any other substance that would affect that person's ability to safely supervise or care for the Child. The Child shall receive age-appropriate supervision and shall not be left in situations where their safety, health, or well-being could reasonably be endangered.

s. Right to a Safe Environment. The Child has the right to live in environments that are safe and free from illegal activity, dangerous conditions, or individuals whose conduct could reasonably endanger the Child's physical safety or emotional well-being. The Child shall not be exposed to illegal drug use, violence, or other unsafe behavior. Any firearms or dangerous weapons in a home where the Child resides or visits shall be securely stored in a manner that prevents access by the Child.

t. Child's Right to Appropriate Conduct by Overnight Guests. The Child has the right to be in safe, respectful, and emotionally appropriate environments in each Parent's home. Each Parent shall ensure that any overnight guests, including romantic partners, behave in a prudent and appropriate manner when the Child is present. The parties shall consider the Child's comfort, safety, and emotional well-being before introducing new partners or guests into overnight settings.

6. PARENTING PLAN – PARTIES' RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

a) Parent Responsibility to Uphold the Child's Rights.

i) The parties acknowledge that the rights described in the Parenting Plan belong to the Child and exist to promote the Child's safety, stability, dignity, and healthy relationship with both parties. Each Parent shall respect, protect, and actively support the Child's rights during their parent-time and when making decisions affecting the Child.

ii) Neither Parent shall take actions, or allow others to take actions, that would undermine or interfere with the Child's rights as set forth in this Parenting Plan. Both parties shall cooperate in good faith to ensure these rights are honored and implemented in a manner consistent with the Child's best interests.

b) Parent Responsibilities for Communication and Decision-Making.

i) Day-to-Day Decisions.

(1) Each Parent shall have the responsibility and authority to make routine day-to-day decisions for the Child while the Child is in that Parent's care. These decisions include matters such as meals, bedtime, homework, discipline, transportation, extracurricular participation during that Parent's time, and other ordinary daily activities.

ii) Emergency Decisions.

(1) Either Parent may make emergency decisions affecting the immediate health or safety of the Child. The Parent making such a decision shall notify the other Parent as soon as reasonably practicable. Both parties are authorized to obtain emergency medical or mental health care for the Child when necessary.

i. Parent Right to Participate in Significant Decisions (Joint Legal Custody).

(1) Each Parent shall participate in significant decisions affecting the Child, consistent with the terms of this Parenting Plan. The Parents shall communicate and cooperate in good faith when making such decisions and shall act in the Child's best interests, including consideration of the advisory guidelines set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-202.

ii. Significant decisions include those relating to:

- (1) education and school placement;
- (2) religious upbringing;
- (3) non-emergency medical, dental, and mental health treatment; and
- (4) other major issues affecting the Child's welfare.

iii. The parties shall consult with one another in good faith and make reasonable efforts to reach agreement before making such decisions. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, they shall follow the Dispute Resolution provisions set forth in this Parenting Plan.

iv. Parent Responsibility to Communicate Directly.

(1) Each Parent has the responsibility to communicate directly with the other Parent regarding matters affecting the Child. Such communication shall occur in writing when practicable, including through text message, email, or a parenting communication application. Each Parent also has the right to receive relevant information from professionals involved with the Child, including medical providers, educators, counselors, or therapists, when such information is reasonably necessary to support informed decision-making regarding the Child.

v. Parent Right to Use a Parenting App.

(1) Each Parent has the right to require that communications concerning the Child occur through a parenting app designed to document and improve parent-to-parent communication. Each Parent shall be responsible for one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of any reasonable costs associated with the application.

vi. Parent Responsibility for Civil and Child-Focused Communication.

(1) Each Parent has the responsibility to communicate with the other Parent in a respectful and child-focused manner. All communications shall remain focused on the needs and best interests of the Child. Each Parent shall make reasonable efforts to respond to communications in a timely manner. Communications concerning urgent matters affecting the Child's health, safety, or schedule shall be acknowledged as soon as reasonably practicable.

vii. Parent's Right to Records and Information.

(1) Each Parent has the right to access all records and information concerning the Child, including but not limited to school, medical, dental, and psychological records. This Parenting Plan constitutes a release authorizing each Parent to obtain such records and information directly from the relevant providers or institutions.

viii. Parent Responsibility for Reasonable Flexibility.

(1) Each Parent has the responsibility to exercise reasonable flexibility regarding schedules and routines when doing so supports the Child's best interests. The parties shall make good-faith efforts to accommodate reasonable requests for temporary adjustments to parent-time or routines when such adjustments do not disrupt the Child's stability or well-being.

15. PARENTING PLAN – PARENT-TIME, RESIDENCE, AND CHILD-RELATED LOGISTICS

a) Parent-Time Schedule and Holidays.

i. While Jaslyn is living out of the state of Utah, Trent shall be awarded sole physical custody of the minor child and Jaslyn shall be awarded parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-209 with the following modifications:

(1) Until the Child enters Kindergarten, Jaslyn shall be awarded three (3) consecutive weeks of parent-time each and every Spring (in lieu of Spring Break) and three (3) consecutive weeks of parent-time each and every Fall (in lieu of Fall Break and Thanksgiving). In the years that Jaslyn is awarded Thanksgiving, her Fall parent-time shall include Thanksgiving. In the years Trent is awarded Thanksgiving, Jaslyn's parent-time must not include Thanksgiving. Summer Break and Christmas shall be divided pursuant to relocation statute.

(2) Once the Child enters Kindergarten, Jaslyn shall be entitled to every Spring Break and six (6) weeks of parent-time each summer. Fall Break, Thanksgiving, and Christmas shall be divided pursuant to the relocation statute.

(3) Jaslyn shall be solely responsible for all travel costs except that Trent shall pay for the return flight of the Child's summer parent-time.

ii. When the parties live within fifty (50) miles of each other they shall share equal parent-time as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, they shall divide parent-time according to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-305 equal parent-time following a 2-2-5-5 schedule with Jaslyn exercising parent-time every Monday and Tuesday overnight and Trent exercising parent-time every Wednesday and Thursday overnight. The parties shall alternate weekends including Friday, Saturday, and Sunday overnight.

(1) Holiday parent-time follows Utah Code § 81-9-303 unless otherwise agreed.

Changes to custody or parent-time require written agreement or court approval.

(2) Trent shall be the custodial parent for Holiday parent-time.

(3) Extended parent-time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-305(5). Pursuant to subsection (b)(i)-(ii), Jaslyn shall make first designation in even-numbered years and Trent shall make first designation in odd-numbered years.

b) Primary Residence. The Child's primary residence shall be with Trent.

c) School Enrollment. The Child shall be enrolled in school within the district of their primary residence unless otherwise agreed in writing.

d) Exchanges.

- i. When the parties are both living within Utah, exchanges shall occur at times and locations agreed upon by the parties. Unless otherwise agreed, school-to-school exchanges shall be implemented when school is in session. If school is not in session, exchanges shall take place curbside . If Jaslyn lives within twenty-five (25) miles of Trent or within Salt Lake County, the party who is receiving the Child shall be responsible for transportation. However, if Jaslyn does not live within twenty-five (25) miles of Trent or within Salt Lake County, she shall be solely responsible for transportation. All exchanges shall be conducted promptly, peacefully, and without exposing the Child to conflict.

e) Passports.

- i. The Child's passport(s) shall be held jointly unless otherwise agreed in writing, and each Parent shall have equal access to the passport(s) upon reasonable request. Both parties shall cooperate in completing and signing all documents necessary to obtain or renew the Child's passport(s). Neither Parent shall remove the Child from the United States without the prior written consent of the other Parent or a court order. A Parent traveling internationally with the Child shall provide at least fourteen (14) days' advance written notice, including the travel dates, destination(s), flight information, lodging details, and a reliable means of contact during travel. The traveling Parent shall return the passport(s) to the other Parent within a reasonable time following the Child's return.

- f) Travel and Contact Information. Parties shall provide notice of any overnight travel and share itineraries, contact information, and emergency contacts at least twenty-four (24) hours before departure.

16. PARENTING PLAN – DISPUTE RESOLUTION

a) Dispute Resolution.

- i. The parties shall make good-faith efforts to resolve disagreements cooperatively, efficiently, and in the best interests of the Child before seeking court intervention, except in emergencies affecting the Child's immediate health or safety. Each Parent shall make routine day-to-day decisions during their parent-time, and routine disagreements do not require use of this process.
- ii. If a dispute arises, the parties shall first attempt to resolve the issue through respectful direct communication. If unresolved, the initiating Parent shall provide Written Notice, and the other Parent shall respond within five (5) business days. The parties shall then make reasonable efforts to resolve the issue within ten (10) calendar days.
- iii. If the dispute remains unresolved, the parties shall participate in mediation or other mutually agreed ADR, sharing costs equally unless otherwise agreed. The parties shall cooperate in scheduling ADR within fifteen (15) calendar days of Written Notice and complete the session within forty-five (45) calendar days.

- iv. If after mediation or other ADR procedure, the parties still cannot agree, Trent shall have final say as it relates to education decisions until and unless the parties are sharing joint physical custody.
- v. Both parties shall participate in good faith. Except in emergencies, neither Parent may seek court intervention until ADR has been completed in good faith.
- vi. Any agreement reached may be summarized in writing by either Parent, and unless objected to in writing within five (5) business days, the summary shall serve as a record of the agreement. Such summaries do not modify this Parenting Plan unless approved by the Court.
- vii. “Written Notice” means communication by text, email, or a parenting application that clearly describes the issue and proposed resolution, and is deemed received upon delivery, regardless of whether it is opened or read.

b) Enforcement Process (Non-Mediated Issues).

- i. For alleged violations of this Parenting Plan or matters not subject to dispute resolution, the complaining Parent shall provide Written Notice describing the alleged violation and allow five (5) calendar days to cure, unless emergency relief is required. If the issue is not cured within that time, the complaining Parent may seek enforcement from the Court.

c) Court Costs and Fees.

- i. If enforcement requires court action, the non-prevailing Parent shall pay reasonable court costs and legal fees.

17. PARENTING PLAN – ADMINISTRATIVE & PROCEDURAL PROVISIONS

- a) Notice and Updates. Parties must update contact or address changes within twenty-four (24) hours of any change per Utah Code § 81-9-202.
- b) Relocation. If a Parent relocates more than 150 miles away, both must comply with Utah Code § 81-9-209 (notice, travel, cost-sharing).
- c) Modification or Review. This Plan remains in effect until modified by written agreement or court order.
- d) Good Faith and Best Interests. This Plan is made in good faith to promote the Child's best interests. Both parties share responsibility to implement it cooperatively.

18. PARENTING PLAN – FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES RELATED TO THE CHILD

- a) Health and Dental Insurance.
 - i. One or both parties shall maintain health and dental insurance for the Child as available through employment or other reasonable means. The Parent providing coverage shall furnish proof of insurance, policy details, and insurance cards to the other Parent. Both parties shall cooperate in using the insurance for the benefit of the Child.
- b) Unreimbursed Medical, Dental, and Health Expenses.
 - i. Any expenses not covered by insurance, including co-pays, deductibles, orthodontia, counseling, therapy, or vision care, shall be shared equally (50/50) unless otherwise ordered. The Parent incurring the cost shall provide documentation and proof of payment within thirty (30) days, and reimbursement shall be made within thirty (30) days of receipt.

c) Insurance Claims and Cooperation.

- i. Both parties shall cooperate in completing insurance forms, obtaining approvals, and providing necessary signatures to ensure prompt payment of benefits.

d) Tax Matters and Dependency Claims.

- i. The parties shall allocate the right to claim the minor Child as a dependent for federal and state income tax purposes as follows:
 - (1) Jaslyn shall claim the child in even-numbered tax years, and Trent shall claim the Child in odd-numbered tax years.
 - (2) Each party shall execute any required forms, including IRS Form 8332, to effectuate this provision. All claims remain subject to applicable federal tax law.

e) School-Related Expenses.

- i. Each Parent shall pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the Child's reasonable school-related expenses. School-related expenses include school registration fees, field trips, required educational materials, and required school uniforms or specialty clothing required by the school.

f) Extracurricular Activity Expenses.

- i. Each Parent shall pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the Child's reasonable costs for extracurricular activities that are mutually agreed upon in advance. Either Parent may enroll the Child in an extracurricular activity during that Parent's parent-time without the other Parent's consent; however, if the activity requires a financial contribution from the other Parent and was not agreed to in advance, the enrolling Parent shall be solely responsible for the cost.

g) Child Support.

i. Child support shall be calculated in accordance with the Utah Child Support Guidelines. The Utah Child Support Worksheet is used to calculate support is incorporated by reference.

ii. Parties' Gross Monthly Incomes. For purposes of calculating child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, the parties' gross monthly incomes are to be as follows:

(1) Jaslyn's gross monthly income: Imputed at $2,600.00

(2) Trent's gross monthly income: $6,667.00

iii. Until joint physical custody is implemented, child support shall be calculated on a sole custody worksheet. Therefore, Jaslyn shall pay $278.00 per month beginning June 1, 2026. Trent waives any claim to child support amounts due before June 1, 2026.

iv. If and when equal custody is implemented, the total overnights for the Parties shall be as follows:

(1) Jaslyn's overnights: 183

(2) Trent's overnights: 182

v. If the parties are exercising equal parent-time, the parties acknowledge that the guideline child support calculation results in Trent owing child support in the amount of $225.00 per month. The parties agree that, because this amount is de minimis, neither party shall pay child support to the other.

h) Expense Reimbursement Procedure.

- i. A Parent who incurs an unreimbursed expense for the Child shall provide the other Parent with documentation of the expense, including a receipt and proof of payment, within thirty (30) days after the expense is incurred. The other Parent shall reimburse their share within thirty (30) days after receiving the documentation. Failure to provide documentation within thirty (30) days may result in waiver of the reimbursement request unless the requesting Parent demonstrates good cause for the delay. Any disputes regarding the reasonableness or reimbursement of the expense shall be addressed through the dispute resolution process set forth in this Parenting Plan.

19. END OF PARENTING PLAN

20. OTHER PARENTING AGREEMENTS

a) Temporary Travel and Extended Parent-Time

- i. The parties stipulate and agree that on the weekend of March 27, 2026, the minor child shall travel to Orlando, Florida, for a brief vacation with Jaslyn, and thereafter shall travel with Jaslyn to Michigan for an extended parent-time period. The Child shall travel to Orlando in the company of Leanne Bond, together with her husband and children, and Jaslyn shall meet the Child in Orlando at the gate upon arrival. Following the Florida vacation, Jaslyn shall accompany the Child to Michigan, where the Child shall remain with Jaslyn until Trent retrieves the Child from Michigan and returns the Child home on or about June 12, 2026, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. Jaslyn shall pay all travel expenses for the Child through arrival in Michigan, and Trent shall pay all travel expenses for retrieving the Child from Michigan and returning the Child home.

21. DIVORCE

a) Spousal Support (Alimony)

- i. Both parties have steady income and are able to support themselves. Neither party seeks alimony, and both agree that no alimony shall be awarded now or in the future.

Therefore, the Court reserves no jurisdiction to award alimony now or in the future.

22. DIVISION OF PROPERTY AND DEBTS

a) Real Property

- i. The real property located at 3546 West 7980 South, West Jordan, Utah 84088 (the “home”) is currently listed for sale.
- ii. The home shall be sold.
- iii. The parties shall cooperate in good faith with the listing and sale of the home.
- iv. If any disagreement arises regarding any matter necessary to sell the home, the parties shall follow the recommendation of the listing agent.
- v. Upon sale of the home and payment of all ordinary and necessary costs of sale, the net proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties.

b) Vehicles

- i. Each party shall be awarded the vehicle(s) currently in their possession, along with any associated loans or debts. The party retaining a vehicle shall be solely responsible for its debt, registration, and insurance, and shall hold the other harmless from related liability.

c) Retirement and Investment Accounts

- i. Each party shall retain his or her own retirement, pension, deferred compensation, and investment accounts, including any 401(k), IRA, Roth IRA, and similar plans, free and clear of any claim by the other party.
 - ii. Each party shall be solely responsible for any taxes, loans, penalties, or obligations associated with the accounts retained by that party.
- d) Financial Accounts.
 - i. Each party shall retain his or her own checking, savings, money market, certificate of deposit, and brokerage accounts, free and clear of any claim by the other party.
- e) Debts and Indemnification.
 - i. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Decree, each party shall be solely responsible for any debts incurred in his or her own name and shall retain and pay all debts not otherwise listed or allocated herein and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom.
- f) Personal Property.
 - i. The parties acknowledge and agree that all personal property has previously been divided to their mutual satisfaction. Each party is awarded the personal property currently in his or her possession, free and clear of any claim by the other party.
- g) Animals (Dogs)
 - i. Jaslyn is awarded the dog, Kobe, as Jaslyn's sole and separate property.
- h) Insurance and Tax Matters

- i. Each party shall maintain their own health insurance after entry of the Decree.

The parties shall each be responsible for tax liabilities post-separation.

i) Restoration of Name.

- i. Jaslyn may return to her former name of Howard and may do so upon entry of the Decree. Petitioner is authorized to use a certified copy of this Decree as proof of name change for all legal purposes.

j) Attorney's Fees. Each party shall be responsible for their own legal fees and costs.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT this Decree constitutes the final judgment of the Court resolving all claims between the parties. All provisions of this Decree are binding and enforceable, and the Court retains continuing jurisdiction to interpret, implement, enforce, and modify this Decree as authorized by Utah law.
