IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
JENNIFER SARAI MONZON, Petitioner, v. JONATHAN EMMANUEL FLORES, Respondent.	DIVORCE DECREE Case No. 264902866 Judge: Hon. Linda Jones Commissioner: Kim M. Luhn

Petitioner, JENNIFER SARAI MONZON, by and through her counsel of record, Melissa Flores, and Respondent, Jonathan Emmanuel Flores, have agreed to the terms of this divorce. The Parties stipulated and agreed to a final resolution on the divorce issues, which were reduced to a written Stipulation filed with the Court. The Court, having reviewed the Parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement and the file herein and having previously entered and signed its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND GROUNDS

1. Residency: The Petitioner and Respondent are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
2. Marriage Statistics: The Parties were married on February 20, 2024, in West Jordan, Utah, United States, and are presently married.
3. The Petitioner and Respondent separated on July 12, 2025, and maintain separate residences.
4. Grounds: During the course of their marriage, the Parties have experienced difficulties and cannot be reconciled, which have prevented the Parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.
5. Petitioner should be awarded a Decree of Divorce on the basis of irreconcilable differences consistent with the terms herein.

JURISDICTION OVER MINOR CHILD

6. 6. Children. Before the marriage, one (1) child was born to the Parties, namely: A.S.F.M. born 11/29/2023.
7. Home State: The State of Utah has jurisdiction over the custody, visitation, and child support issues in this action, for the following reasons:
 - a. Utah is the home state of the minor child. The minor child has resided in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for more than six (6) months before filing this action.

b. Neither party has information of any custody or parentage proceeding concerning the minor child in any district court or juvenile court in any district or juvenile court in this state or in any other state.

c. Neither party knows of any person, not a Party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the child or claims to have custody or parent time rights concerning the child.

d. There are no criminal or delinquency in any court in this state or any other state or country in which a party or the Parties' child is involved.

CHILD CUSTODY

8. Petitioner has always been the sole caregiver for the child since birth and primarily engaged in daily care of the child, including making decisions regarding the child's care, raising the child in the ways, including, but not limited to:

- a. Decisions regarding medical providers;
- b. Setting, confirming, and attending all doctor and dental appointments;
- c. Day-to-day decision-making;
- d. Bathing, feeding, and caring for the minor child's personal hygiene;

9. Since the Parties' separation date, Respondent has had very little interaction with the minor child. Even when Petitioner has offered daytime parent time, Respondent has not sought such time with the child.

10. It is, therefore, in the best interest of the minor child that the Court award Petitioner sole physical custody of the minor child, to wit: A.S.F.M., born 11/29/2023. The Parties should be granted joint legal custody of the minor child.

11. Consistent with sole physical custody and based on the age of the child, Petitioner should be awarded 365 overnights each year. While Respondent should not be granted overnight visitation at this time, Respondent should be awarded daytime visitation with the child upon agreement with Petitioner. If no agreement can be reached, Respondent shall be awarded the daytime visitation outlined in U.C.A. 81-9-304. For statutory visitation that includes overnights, Respondent shall be awarded 9 AM - 6 PM visitation on those days with no overnights.

12. The Parties shall mutually agree upon the division of holidays. If no agreement can be reached, the Parties shall exercise holiday parent-time pursuant to the statute referenced above, specifically U.C.A. 81-9-304, again, only for daytime visitation (9 AM - 6 PM). Petitioner should be designated as Primary Custodial Parent, and Respondent should be designated as Non-Custodial Parent for purposes of dividing holiday time.

13. Petitioner and Respondent shall engage mediation services once the minor child is eight (8) years old to review overnight visitation.

14. Petitioner and Respondent should be jointly responsible for all transportation costs, if any, associated with parent time.

15. During pick-up and drop-off of the minor child, both Parties shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during custody exchanges.

16. The Parties shall also prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other party.

17. Each parent shall give special consideration to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the lives of the child or in the life of either parent, which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

18. If the non-custodial parent will be providing transportation, the custodial parent shall have the child ready for parent-time when the child is to be picked up and shall be present at the custodial home or shall make reasonable alternative arrangements to receive the child when the child is returned.

19. When the custodial parent will be transporting the child, the noncustodial parent shall be at the appointed place when the noncustodial parent receives the child. Once the child begins school, regular school hours may not be interrupted for a school-aged child for the exercise of parent time by either parent.

20. Neither parent time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

21. The custodial parent shall notify the noncustodial parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to attend and fully participate.

22. Both parents shall have direct access to all the child's school reports, as well as medical records, and shall be notified immediately by the custodial parent in the event of a medical emergency.

23. Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within twenty-four (24) hours of any change.

24. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of telephone privileges and virtual communication if the equipment is reasonably available.

25. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the noncustodial parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers, unless the court, for good cause, orders otherwise.

26. At any time during either Party's visitation, where the Party is going to be away from the child for a period of time at or exceeding three (3) hours, the other Party should be given the right of first refusal is watching the child, before placing the child with a surrogate care provider.

CHILD SUPPORT

27. During the course of the Parties' marriage, the Petitioner and Respondent have always been joint breadwinners and contributors to family expenses.

28. The Petitioner works full-time and makes $3,600.00 a month.

29. The Respondent also works full-time and makes $5,000.00 a month.

30. The Respondent should be ordered to pay $495 monthly to the Petitioner as base support for the minor child. Child support is calculated pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines and in accordance with the Joint Custody Child Support Worksheet.

a. Child support should begin the month immediately following the entry of the Divorce Decree and should be paid on the tenth (10th) day of each month.

b. Child support should continue until the child reaches eighteen (18) years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is otherwise emancipated.

d. Petitioner should be entitled to mandatory income withholding pursuant to U.C.A. 62A-11-part 4 (1953 as amended). Any Federal and/or state tax refunds or rebates due to Respondent may be intercepted and applied to arrearages. The Respondent should pay all administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services.

e. Each of the Parties should be under a mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income.

TAX EXEMPTIONS

31. Unless and until Respondent is awarded overnight visits with the minor child, the Petitioner shall solely claim the child as a dependent exemption for state and federal tax purposes.

32. The Respondent shall maintain medical, vision, and dental care insurance for the minor child, if it is available at a reasonable cost.

a. The Parties should share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by the parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion should be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of Parties on said plan.

b. Both Parties should equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, vision, and orthodontic expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the Parties.

c. The parent ordered to maintain insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other parent or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title VI of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent should notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date that the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

d. A parent who incurs medical, dental, vision, or orthodontic expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expense to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical, dental, vision, or orthodontic expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expense if that parent fails to comply with the subparagraphs "c" and "d" above.

CHILD CARE AND CHILD-RELATED EXPENSES

33. Both Parties should share equally in all reasonable work, career, or education-related expenses, should such expense become necessary.

34. Respondent shall pay Petitioner two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) monthly for childcare costs until the child reaches six (6) years of age or is enrolled in first grade, whichever comes first. This payment shall be made by the tenth (10th) of each month.

35. The Parties should share equally in the child's school fees and extra-curricular activities. The parent who incurs the school fee or extracurricular expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, and the parent receiving the written verification of the cost and payment of the expense has thirty (30) days to provide reimbursement of 50% to the incurring parent. If said parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expense within the prescribed thirty (30) days, he or she loses the right to receive reimbursement from the other parent.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

36. During the course of the marriage relationship, the Parties have acquired certain items of personal property. Said personal property should be divided among the Parties fairly and equitably. On the date of the entry of the Decree, all personal property division shall be final and deemed equitable by both the Parties and the Court. At such time, neither Party may claim against the other any further division with the Court.

a. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either Party as a result of family inheritance, trust, or similar sources should be awarded to the Party from whose family it came.

b. Both Parties should be allowed to keep the personal property items that they brought with them into the marriage, and/or the items the Parties received as gifts from family members and each other.

VEHICLES

37. Petitioner shall be awarded the 2019 Toyota 4Runner. Respondent shall make the monthly car payment of $780.00 and shall pay the $200 insurance payment. Petitioner shall refinance the car within ninety (90) days of the entry of the Divorce. Petitioner shall be responsible for paying all maintenance and other costs associated with this vehicle, including but not limited to registration fees, taxes, liabilities, gas, repairs, and general maintenance. Once the car is refinanced into Petitioner's name, Petitioner shall be responsible for paying the monthly car payment and insurance premiums on the car.

38. Once the car is refinanced in Petitioner's name, Petitioner will indemnify and hold Respondent harmless from any liability or costs related to this vehicle.

REAL PROPERTY

39. During the course of their marriage, the Parties have not acquired any real property.

ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENTS,

AND/OR RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS

40. During the course of their marriage, the Parties have acquired profit sharing stock options, bonuses, investments, retirement, and/or pension accounts.

41. All profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investments, retirement, and/or pension accounts should become the sole and separate property of the person who has earned such stock options, bonuses, investments, retirement, and/or pension accounts and the other Party shall have no claim to any monies therefrom.

42. During the course of the marriage, the Parties have acquired joint bank accounts.

43. The Parties' bank account (checking or savings) retaining sole ownership of the funds in the account.

44. The Parties should be restrained from dissipating, transferring, or in any way disposing of material assets or accounts during the pendency of this matter, without a written agreement by the Parties or further order of the Court.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

45. During the course of their marriage, the Parties have accumulated debts and/or obligations. These debts and obligations should be divided as follows:

a. All debts in the Petitioner's name shall remain the legal obligation of the Petitioner.

b. All debts in the Respondent's name shall remain the legal obligation of the Respondent.

46. Any debts incurred by a Party for their own benefit or to further the benefit of a third party, should be the sole responsibility of the part that incurred the debt.

47. Each Party should be obligated to assume any and all debts or obligations and debts incurred in their own names after the filing of the Petition for Divorce.

ALIMONY

48. Neither Party should be required to pay alimony to the other Party.

RESTRAINING ORDERS

49. Both Parties shall be restrained from threatening, harassing, bothering or harming the other Party at their home or, if relevant, their place of employment.

50. Each Party should be restrained from obtaining any new debt or credit cards in the name of the other Party and from incurring any new debt on any joint account during the pendency of this action.

51. The Parties shall be restrained from dissipating, transferring, or in any way disposing of marital assets or accounts during the pendency of this matter, without a written agreement by the Parties or further order of the Court.

MISCELLANEOUS

52. No dispute arising from or related to the Decree of Divorce should be presented to the Court without a good faith attempt by both Parties to resolve the issue through mediation or other mutually agreeable method of dispute resolution.

53. If any dispute arising from or related to the Decree of Divorce is submitted to the Court, the prevailing Party may be awarded their attorney fees and costs associated with prosecuting or defending the dispute.

54. Divorce Orientation and Education for Parents: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated 30-3-11.3, both Parties are required to attend a Divorce Orientation and Education for Parents course.

55. Independent Advice of Counsel: Respondent understands and acknowledges that he is free to get independent legal advice by counsel of their own choosing.

56. Final Stipulation: The Stipulation and Settlement filed with the Court is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the Parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of the Stipulation shall have any force or effect. The Parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses, but waive this right. The Parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the Parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues that either Party wished to raise have been incorporated into the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement.

DATED this 2nd day of AUGUST 2026.
