

Mark R. LaRocco (12148)
INTERMOUNTAIN LEGAL, P.C.
2159 South 700 East, Suite 240
Salt Lake City, Utah 84106
Telephone: (801) 970-2800
Facsimile: (801) 951-4901
Email: mlarocco@intermountainlegal.net
Please cc: jlin@intermountainlegal.net

Attorney for Darren Lunt

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH, SALT LAKE DISTRICT

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

JENNIFER LUNT,

Petitioner,

and

DARREN LUNT,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 254902991

Judge Kara Pettit

Commissioner Russell Minas

The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE AND GROUNDS

1. The parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce due to irreconcilable differences, forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between them, to become final upon signature and entry.

MINOR CHILDREN

2. There is one (1) minor child as issue of the marriage, namely: A.E.L, born April 2010.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

3. The parties are hereby awarded joint legal custody of their minor child pursuant to the Parenting Plan contained therein.

4. The parties are hereby awarded joint physical custody of their minor child as agreed between them, but if no agreement, then with parent-time as follows:

a. The parties shall follow a week-on, week-off schedule, with exchanges each week on Sundays.

b. The receiving parent is responsible for the transportation of the child.

5. The parties shall equally share holiday parent-time as agreed between them, but if no agreement, then holiday parent-time shall be shared equally pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-303, with Jennifer designated as the noncustodial parent only for purposes of the holiday and extended parent-time schedule, and Darren designated as the custodial parent only for purposes of the holiday and extended parent-time schedule.

6. The parties shall equally share extended parent-time as agreed between them, but if no agreement then each parent is entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted parent-time each year, which uninterrupted parent-time may not interfere with the other parent's holiday time.

a. In even years, Jennifer may designate extended parent-time at any time and Darren may make a designation after May 1. In odd years, Darren may designate extended parent-time at any time and Jennifer may make a designation after May 1. A parent shall make a designation at least thirty (30) days before the day on which the designated two-week period begins.

PARENTING PLAN

7. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann Sec. 81-9-203 et seq., the following parenting plan shall be followed:

- a. The parents shall have joint legal custody.
- b. The parties must discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's health care, religious upbringing, and extracurricular activities. The parties shall work together to come up with a plan on how to determine decision-making for major decisions related to medical, religion, and extracurricular activities, and any other major or significant decisions related to the welfare of the child.
- c. Pursuant to U.C.A. Sec. 81-9-203(11), the parties shall adhere to the following education plan:
 - i. The child shall continue to attend school at Murray High School and graduate from Murray High School.
- d. Both parents shall have access to the child during school, and both parents have the authority to check the child out of school.

- e. Minor day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.
- f. If the parties do not agree on a major final decision, that they shall use their best good-faith efforts to resolve the matter by consulting with professional(s) in the area of disagreement.
- g. If the parties are still unable to resolve the disagreement after consulting with professional(s), then the parties shall attend mediation, with each party paying half.
- h. In the dispute resolution process, preference shall be given to the provisions in this Parenting Plan.
- i. The parties shall attend mediation prior to any court action for such disputes, except those related to financial support, unless an emergency exists.
- j. A written record of any agreement reached in counseling or mediation shall be prepared and provided to each party.
- k. If arbitration becomes necessary, a written record shall be prepared and a copy of the arbitration award shall be provided to each party.
- l. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.
- m. The district court has the right of review from the dispute resolution process.

- n. For any decisions on which the parties cannot agree and the parties have not been able to resolve in mediation or counseling, neither party shall have final say, but the Court shall have the final say after the parties have exhausted all other dispute resolution options.
- o. The above parent-time schedule shall be followed by the parties unless they mutually agree on a different schedule in writing.
- p. Both parents shall make a best effort to provide forty-eight (48) hours' notice of change of schedules in case a trade or offer of right of first refusal needs to be made.
- q. Both parents shall follow the right of first refusal for overnight periods or longer: If a party with parent-time is personally unable to care for the child on his or her parent-time for at least one (1) overnight, then that party is under an affirmative obligation to notify the other parent, with reasonable advance written notice, and the other party may then choose, but is not required, to accept the right of refusal parent-time. The parent accepting right of first refusal parent-time must pick up and drop off the child at the residence of the other parent at the beginning and the ending of the right of first refusal parent-time.
- r. Fostering good communication and healthy viewpoints of the other parent is encouraged and expected. Neither parent shall be allowed to disparage the other parent or allow others to do so in the presence of the minor child under any circumstances. Both parties shall build a new co-parenting relationship built on trust and desire for the best interest of the minor child.

s. Both parents shall be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents shall be governed by the following principles:

- i. The parties shall have a co-parenting relationship which shall be built on trust and respect;
- ii. The parties shall establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;
- iii. The parties shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and shall say positive words about the other parent to the child and shall be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. The parties believe this purpose to be honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;
- iv. The parties shall listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;
- v. The parties shall make all attempts to resolve all conflict between them and shall utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they are unsuccessful personally;
- vi. The parties shall solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii. If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties shall take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to email;

viii. The parties shall work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix. The parties shall live by the golden rule that they shall treat each other as they would like to be treated; and

x. The parties shall see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties shall effectively work together as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

t. The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in 81-9-202 of the Utah Code shall be binding upon the parties, unless another provision within this document is more specific, in which case the more specific provision shall govern.

u. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this parent-time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

8. Both parents shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents shall also prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent. Each parent shall have and maintain clothes at their respective homes, each party shall (if needed) share safety equipment such as car seats, and each party shall share homework or other school-related needs.

9. Each party shall notify the other whenever the party intends to take the child on any overnight trip exceeding two (2) nights, and both parties shall provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Both parties shall obtain the other's permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

10. The parties shall make their best efforts to keep all communications between them brief, informative, friendly, and firm, and in writing using text or email, unless both parties agree that a telephone call is warranted based on the situation (for example, an emergency involving a child). If a party feels like text or email is not working or problematic in some way and believes that the parties' communication can be improved by using a co-parenting app, then that party shall notify the other party and both parties shall then switch all communication to a mutually agreed upon co-parenting app, with each party paying for his or her own costs related to the app. If the parties cannot agree on a co-parenting app, Our Family Wizard shall be the default.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

11. The parties shall regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties shall also adhere to the following:

- a. Both parents shall cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child.
- b. Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child.
- c. Both parents shall share information on any condition, problem, significant fact or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

12. Neither party shall ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents shall generally contact each other by text only discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and not involve the child. For longer discussions involving the child, the parties may email each other. Unless both parties mutually agree otherwise, telephone calls are reserved for emergencies only.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

13. Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all public, social and school-related functions their child attends.

14. Each party has an affirmative duty to receive notifications from third parties for child-related events. If a party receives information about a child-related event that the other party is not privy to, then that party must notify the other party and ensure that the other party has the same and equal access to receiving notifications from the third party regarding that event.

ILLNESS

15. The parties shall notify the other when any child is ill. When a child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times shall be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time shall be rescheduled. Neither parent shall use illness of a child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time. Each party shall follow the orders of medical care providers including regarding medications and care.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

16. Jennifer and Darren shall recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents shall use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties shall adhere to the following:

- a. Neither parent shall attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent shall make, nor shall they allow another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child.
- b. The parents shall cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and shall notify each other of their child's regular activities.
- c. The parents shall not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get the child's input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

17. The parties shall never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

- a. The requesting party shall notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with them the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent shall abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child.

- b. The child shall be free to express interest in any activity to either parent at any time.
- c. Both parties also shall not interfere with each other's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent-time without just cause, that parent shall pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court-related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

18. The parties shall be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest or deceptive, frivolous, or in any way violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for legal fees incurred by the aggrieved party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

19. The parties shall be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least twenty-four (24) hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but the other party shall not unreasonably refuse.

RELOCATION

20. In order to continue to maintain equal physical custody and allow their child to graduate from Murray High School, the parties intend to and shall continue to reside within a reasonable distance of each other and from the school.

21. However, if a party desires to relocate to such a distance that equal physical custody will be impracticable and unfeasible, that parent shall provide sixty (60) days' written notice to the other parent, and the parents shall attend mediation to discuss the parent-time and custody arrangements before litigating the matter.

22. The written notice of relocation shall contain statements affirming the following: the parent-time provisions in Utah Code Ann. Sec. 81-9-209(9) or a schedule approved by both parties shall be followed, and neither parent shall interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court-ordered parent-time arrangements, or the schedule approved by both parties.

23. In the event that a party relocates prior to either both parties' agreement on a new custodial schedule or prior to court order, then the child shall remain temporarily with the non-relocating parent until the parties mutually agree or the court orders otherwise.

24. A parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation herein shall be in contempt of the court's order.

RELATIVES

25. Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued. Any visitation by relatives shall be done during scheduled parent-time of the parent that the relative is related to.

CONTACT INFORMATION

26. The parties shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

CHILD SUPPORT

27. Child support shall follow Utah Child Support Guidelines, based on custody and parent-time arrangements, as follows:

- a. Child support would be calculated pursuant to the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines, Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. (2025), using a Joint Physical Custody Worksheet and the parties' respective or imputed incomes with both parties' imputed to full-time employment.
- b. Darren's gross monthly income is imputed to $7,220.67 and Jennifer's gross monthly income is imputed to $3,000.
- c. Therefore, based on the parties' imputed incomes and the Child Support Worksheet (Joint) with Jennifer at 183 overnights and Darren at 182 overnights, the amount of child support that Darren would be required to pay monthly is $225.

d. However, there shall be a deviated order downward to $0 because a child support award resulting from use of the guidelines is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of the child pursuant to U.C.A. Sec. 81-6-202(3), for the following reasons:

- i. In lieu of paying child support, Darren shall cover the child's insurance premiums without reimbursement from Jennifer.
- ii. The parties have another child who is an adult.
- iii. Darren shall also cover both of the parties' children and maintain their insurance as adults for as long as he is legally allowed (currently until age 26).
- iv. Darren is currently paying $351.72 per month for both of the parties' children to be on his insurance.
- v. The parties are each capable of providing for the minor child while the child is in his or her own house.
- vi. The child is 16 years old, and there would only be two (2) more years of child support.
- vii. This child support deviation shall take effect for the remainder of the child's minority.
- viii. There is not any past-due child support owed by either party.

HEALTH INSURANCE & MEDICAL EXPENSES

28. The parties are hereby required to carry health care coverage for the medical expenses of the minor child, and insurance shall be provided for the minor child if insurance is available at a reasonable cost. Currently, Darren covers the child on his insurance, and he shall continue to do so without reimbursement from Jennifer.

29. If, at any point in time, a child is covered by the health insurance plans of both parents, the health insurance plan of Darren Lunt shall be primary coverage for the child and the health insurance plan of Jennifer Lunt shall be secondary coverage for the child. If a parent remarries and the child is not covered by that parent's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child.

30. Jennifer and Darren shall each pay 50% of any and all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child, including co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles, provided that a party incurring an expense notifies the other party of the expense and sends physical proof within thirty (30) days of incurring the expense. The reimbursing party must give 50% of the expense to the paying party within thirty (30) days of receiving proof and notice of the expense.

31. Jennifer and Darren shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated §81-6-208.

32. The parent maintaining health care coverage or insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the office under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the child, and after initial enrollment on or before January 2 of each calendar year.

33. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the office under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

34. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment.

35. The Court may deny a parent incurring medical expenses the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Paragraphs 30 through 34.

CHILD CARE COSTS

36. The parties do not anticipate the need for child care costs given the age of the child (16). In the event that either party needs child care, that parent shall arrange and pay for it on his or her own without reimbursement from the other party.

CHILD TAX EXEMPTIONS/CREDITS

37. Beginning for the tax year 2025, the parties shall split equally all child tax credits, deductions, exemptions, and any other benefits associated with the minor child, as follows:

- a. Darren shall claim the child for odd-numbered calendar years beginning in 2025.
- b. Jennifer shall claim the child for even-numbered calendar years beginning in 2026.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES & EXPENSES

38. Each parent shall share equally the cost of any extracurricular activities incurred on behalf of the minor child that are agreed upon in advance and in writing by both parents.

- a. The parent who directly pays for such expenses shall provide a receipt or other written verification of payment to the other parent within thirty (30) days.

- b. A party incurring school and extracurricular activity expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if he or she fails to provide timely notice.
- c. A party shall not unreasonably withhold consent for the child to participate in extracurricular activities.

REAL PROPERTY

39. The parties acquired an interest in real property which was subsequently sold by agreement of the parties during the divorce proceedings, and the funds were put into escrow in an account held by Jennifer's attorney, Russell Gray.

40. The parties have already agreed on equal disbursements of the proceeds, leaving $187,297.94 of net sale proceeds.

41. The remaining amount of house sale proceeds shall be split as follows, which Jennifer is hereby awarded in lieu of alimony: Darren shall keep $60,000 of the proceeds and Jennifer shall keep the remaining $127,297.94.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

42. At the time of signing of the Stipulation, Darren's Roth IRA is just under $35,000 and Jennifer's IRA is just over $60,000.

43. Each party shall keep his or her own accounts, including retirement accounts, which would give Jennifer more Roth IRA money than Darren would be receiving, as there is approximately a $25,000 disparity in the parties' IRA Accounts.

44. This extra amount is awarded to Jennifer in lieu of alimony.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

45. The parties acquired various items of personal property prior to and during the course of the marriage, which shall be equitably divided in the full division of the marital estate. The parties represent that they each have all items that shall be awarded to them in their possession.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

46. The parties acquired various checking, savings, investment, retirement, and other financial accounts during the course of the marriage, all of which are hereby equitably as follows:

- a. Each party is hereby awarded any and all accounts in his or her name.
- b. Each party is hereby awarded one-half of any money in joint accounts, and the parties shall cooperate to close such accounts following distribution.

BUSINESS

47. The business Weya Bago, LLC, is hereby awarded to Darren in full, which includes any and all inventory, assets, and accounts in the name of the business, with Jennifer taking nothing therefrom.

48. Darren is wholly responsible for any debts, liabilities, accounts payable, and money owed by the business, indemnifying and holding Jennifer harmless therefrom.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

49. The parties acquired various debts and obligation during the course of the marriage, which are hereby divided as follows:

- a. Jennifer shall be solely responsible for any debts in her name, indemnifying and holding Darren harmless therefrom.
- b. Darren shall be solely responsible for any debts in his name, indemnifying and holding Jennifer harmless therefrom.
- c. Darren shall be solely responsible for any remaining unpaid taxes, whether federal or state, for his separate tax filings beginning for the tax year 2025 and going forward.
- d. Jennifer shall be solely responsible for any remaining unpaid taxes, whether federal or state, for her separate tax filings beginning for the year 2025 and going forward.
- e. Both parties shall be equally responsible on a 50/50 basis for any remaining unpaid taxes, whether federal or state, for all tax filings from the tax year 2024 and prior.
- f. The parties are unaware of any joint debts in both parties' names; however, in the event that there are joint debts, each party shall be responsible for paying off one-half of the debt, with the following exception:
 - i. In the event that a joint debt in both parties' names that is attached to any item of personal property awarded to a party, such as a vehicle, the party to whom the vehicle is awarded is responsible for paying off the debt, indemnifying and holding the other party harmless therefrom.

50. Neither party shall incur any other debts, obligations or liabilities on the other party's credit or do anything for which the other party may be legally liable. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from loss and/or liability from the debts assigned herein, and their associated obligations or liabilities which may exist or come into existence in violation of the foregoing. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.5, the parties shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce to all creditors of the parties existing at the time of the entry of the decree of divorce.

51. If a party misses a loan payment on a property item that for which both parties are indebted, then (i) the other party may make a payment to protect his or her credit; (ii) the property item shall be immediately put up for sale; (iii) the net proceeds of the sale shall first be paid to the other party up to and including the amount(s) paid to protect his or her credit.

52. Neither party shall use the other's name, likeness, identity, or image to obtain credit or for any other purpose.

53. Pursuant to U.C.A. Sec. 15-4-6.7, the court enters the following order:

a. When a court or an administrative agency enters an order that provides for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a child as described in Section 26B-9-224 or 81-6-202, a provider who receives a copy of the order:

- i. at or before the time the provider renders medical or dental services to the child, and upon request from a parent, shall separately bill each parent for the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or
- ii. within thirty (30) days after the day on which the provider renders the medical or dental service to the child, may not:

1. make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or
2. make a negative credit report under Section 70C-7-107, or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order.

b. (2)

- i. When a court enters an order that provides for the payment of school fees of a child in a separate maintenance action under Section 81-4-204 or in a divorce action under Section 81-4-406:
 1. a provider, who receives a copy of the order before the day on which the provider first issues a bill for a school fee and upon request from a parent, shall separately bill each parent for the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order;
 2. a provider, who receives a copy of the order, regardless of whether the provider receives the copy before, on, or after the day on which the provider first issues a bill for the school fee, may not make a negative credit report under

Section 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order; and

3. each parent is liable only for the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order.

ii. A provider may bill a parent for the parent's share of a child's school fee under an order described in Paragraph 53.b.(2)i. regardless of whether the provider grants the other parent a waiver for all or a portion of the other parent's share of the child's school fee.

ALIMONY

54. Jennifer shall receive a greater portion of the real property house sale proceeds and a greater portion of the IRA proceeds, as indicated above, in lieu of some of Darren's prospective alimony obligation:

a. Darren shall provide Jennifer a copy of his tax return each year, no later than May 1, for the tax year 2026; if it appears that Darren has recovered his earning capacity (meaning his income is similar to or greater than his gross income from 2024), Jennifer may file an action to re-open the alimony issue based on the standard of living during the marriage. In the event that occurs, Darren shall receive a credit for the alimony he previously paid via the parties' unequal division of the house proceeds and the retirement assets. However, if any of the standard alimony-terminating events have occurred, namely that either party has died, Jennifer has remarried, or Jennifer has cohabitated with another individual, then Jennifer is hereby prohibited from filing an action to re-open the alimony issue.

NAME CHANGE

55. Jennifer shall be restored to the use of her maiden name of “Winn” at her option and election.

LIFE INSURANCE

56. Pursuant to U.C.A. Sec. 81-4-406(3), if a party owns a life insurance policy or an annuity contract, there shall be an acknowledgement by the Court that the party:

- a. Has reviewed and updated, where appropriate, the list of beneficiaries;
- b. Has affirmed that those listed as beneficiaries are in fact the intended beneficiaries after the divorce becomes final; and
- c. Understands that, if no changes are made to the policy or contract, the beneficiaries currently listed shall receive any funds paid by the insurance company under the terms of the policy or contract.

COOPERATION

57. Jennifer and Darren shall cooperate with the other to effect change in titles to property to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

58. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

59. Both parties are hereby restrained from speaking, in the presence of the child, derogatorily about the other parent or in such a way that influences the child's preference regarding custody or parent-time, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent.

60. Both parties are hereby restrained from using any corporal punishment or physical discipline upon the child for any reason.

61. Both parties are hereby mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or a party shall remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

62. If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

ATTORNEY FEES

63. Each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees.

OTHER LAWSUITS

64. With one exception, all other lawsuits filed by Darren are hereby his sole responsibility, and he shall receive any judgments and such shall not be deemed marital money.

65. This includes, but is not limited to, lawsuits against Scott Creasey/Chargeback Defense, Dr. Mike Ryan/Dustin Jones/Zenith Family Health, Leilani Whitmer/Brown Family Law. Jennifer is not required to pay any of Darren's attorney fees related to these lawsuits, and she is indemnified and held harmless by Darren for having to pay any of the attorney fees.

66. If Darren brings suit against Scott Creasey/Chargeback Defense and is successful, Darren shall pay Jennifer 25% of any net proceeds he receives from the lawsuit (i.e., 25% of any recovery after deducting attorney fees).

THIS DOCUMENT CONSTITUTES A BINDING ORDER OF THE COURT WHEN IT BEARS THE JUDGE'S SEAL AT THE TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE

APPROVAL AS TO FORM BY:

/s/ Russell Gray*

RUSSELL GRAY

Attorney for Jennifer Lunt

*Written authorization to affix electronic signature on record with e-filer.

RULE 7(j) NOTICE

Pursuant to Rule 7(j) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, a true and correct copy of the above DECREE OF DIVORCE was served by the means indicated in the Certificate of Service attached hereto, on August 3, 2026, to the parties indicated therein. Notice of objections to this order must be submitted to counsel within seven days after service. Should no objections to this order be submitted to counsel within seven days after service, this Order shall be presented to the Court for entry and signature.

/s/ Mark R. LaRocco

MARK R. LaROCCO

Attorney for Darren Lunt

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that on August 3, 2026, I served a true and correct copy of the foregoing DECREE OF DIVORCE with the Court causing service to be effectuated on the following via method indicated:

Russell Gray
Attorney for Jennifer Lunt
rgray@carrwoodall.com
(email)

/s/ Mark R. LaRocco