Parent-time transfers

12. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

13. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers

Decision-making

14. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

15. The school the children will attend is based on Alexander Louis Rasmussen's home residence.

16. Alexander Louis Rasmussen and Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen has authority to check the children out of school. Alexander Louis Rasmussen and Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen.

Communication with each other

17. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

20. Other terms about communication with the children: Neither parent or other guardian may provide a child with a communication device such as a phone or watch without informing the other parent. Both parents may check communication devices for the purpose of keeping the child safe but may not check the device to monitor or limit communication with the other parent.

Records and information sharing

21. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

22. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

23. If the children will be travelling for more than 2 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 21 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 7 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

24. Other agreements about travel by the children: Both parents shall notify the other parent at least three days in advance or as early as possible of travel plans, schedule, location, and phone numbers if the children will be spending the night away from the other parent's home whether for camping, a sleepover, or any other reason.

Child care

25. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Other qualifications: Child care provider must be capable of caring for a child with disabilities and complex medical needs.

26. Other terms about child care: Child care provider must not be a registered sex offender and must not care for the children in the residence or presence of a registered sex offender. The other parent shall have the first right of refusal for any child care lasting longer than 12 hours or overnight.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

27. If either parent moves 150 miles or more from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

28. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

(A) fall break if the minor child's school dismisses for fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for fall break and ending on the day before school resumes; or
(B) Labor Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Labor Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. the entire winter break period beginning on the day that school dismisses for the winter break and ending on the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for the spring break and ending on the day before school resumes; or

(B) Presidents' Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Presidents' Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. Thanksgiving, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Thanksgiving and ending on the day before school resumes.

c. extended parent-time equal to half of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks with:

i. the noncustodial parent entitled to the first half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an odd number; and

ii. the noncustodial parent entitled to the second half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an even number; and

iii. the noncustodial parent will return the child to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on a weekend on which the non-custodial parent normally exercises parent-time, the non-custodial parent is entitled to the

ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in this Relocation Schedule and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend or holiday parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend or holiday parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

f. In addition to the parent-time for which a non-custodial parent is entitled under the statute, the non-custodial parent is entitled to, at least two times a week:

i. brief telephone contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration and

ii. virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. If the parties cannot agree whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide, taking into consideration the best interest of the minor child, each parent's ability to handle any additional expense for virtual parent-time, and any other factors the court considers material.

iii. Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace the in-person parent-time the noncustodial parent is entitled to.

29. Other terms about relocating: Except with the agreement of both parents or extenuating circumstances, Alexander shall maintain residence at his current address long enough for the children to complete at least the next three years of school at their current schools.

30. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved, except one-half of the expenses for the summer or off-track time will be paid by the other parent.

31. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

32. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

33. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

34. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Alexander Louis Rasmussen) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

35. Alexander Louis Rasmussen's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $12267. Alexander Louis Rasmussen receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

36. Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3467. Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen receives the following gross monthly income:

37. The adjusted gross monthly income for Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen is $3467.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

38. It is in the best interest of the children that Alexander Louis Rasmussen be ordered to pay child support to Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen as follows:

a. $639.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

39. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

40. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

41. The base child support amount using the joint custody calculation is $639 per month.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

42. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

43. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

44. Child support will be paid as follows:

Through Venmo, check, direct deposit, or as agreed upon by both parties. If parties cannot agree, then direct deposit to an account of Laura's will be used.

45. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

46. Alexander Louis Rasmussen will pay any ORS fees. If Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen, Alexander Louis Rasmussen will reimburse Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen.

47. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

48. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

49. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

50. Alexander Louis Rasmussen may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

51. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

52. Alexander Louis Rasmussen must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Alexander Louis Rasmussen's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Alexander Louis Rasmussen's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Laura Elizabeth Rasmussen's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

53. All reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses will be paid as follows

Each parent shall be responsible for paying for child care expenses incurred during and because of their own work or other activities.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

54. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

55. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.
