Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT, IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

GLORIA CHAMBERS,

Petitioner,

v.

CORKY CHAMBERS

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 264902997

Judge: METTLER

Commissioner: BLOMQUIST

The court has entered its findings of fact and conclusions of law on the above-entitled matter and found that a Decree of Divorce is warranted in this matter. That parties have completed all requirements for the entry of a decree, or have such requirements have been waived. The court, being fully advised, hereby ORDERS AND DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION & GROUNDS

1. Petitioner and Responded were married on or about April 26, 2008, and are currently husband and wife.

2. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action. Specifically, Petitioner has been a resident of Draper, Utah for the past 6 months prior to filing

3. Grounds for Divorce: the court hereby grants a divorce to the Petitioner based on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

CHILDREN AND CUSTODY

4. There are no minor children of the marriage, and none are expected.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO FINANCIAL ASSETS AND DEBTS

5. Bank Accounts: Joint bank accounts shall be closed and their contents divided equitably between the parties. Any individual bank accounts shall be retained by the party whose name is on the account. To the extent that they contain marital assets, they shall be disclosed and divided equitably within 30 days of the signing of this agreement. This is with the exception of the long-standing Zions Bank account. Respondent will retain control over the checking and savings account and its possessions and will remove Petitioner from those accounts.

6. Retirement Accounts: Respondent has a pension for which he draws funds currently. Petitioner has no retirement account. The pension shall be divided equitably between the parties. Respondent will provide a current statement within 30 days of the signing of the stipulated agreement, whereupon Petitioner will execute the QDRO documents.

7. Debts: There is a significant amount of debt that Respondent has incurred without the knowledge of Petitioner. During the parties' marriage, Respondent, without Petitioner's authorization or knowledge, took out several credit cards in Petitioner's name which were subsequently maxed out. The following debts shall be considered separate debts owned by him alone and not the debts of the marital estate or of Petitioner, even if they have Petitioner's name on the account. Respondent agrees that he fraudulently used her name and information. The court orders that these debts are all the separate debts of Respondent:

a. US BANK, 502216	b. $19,367.00
c. Synchrony, 523077	e. $2174.00
d. CREDIT ONE, 350229	f. $1,980.00

ww.	Capital One, 781441	ccc.	$1268.00
xx.	Discover, 267348	ddd.	$13,382.00

8. There are also other debts that are the separate property of Respondent which are in collection, for which we do not have sufficient information. However, Respondent agrees these are his separate debts. These debts include:

- a. Comenty Debt Collector, 10533253
- b. D&A Services LLC 10533396
- c. MCM Collector 337850905
- d. Gursel Law Firm, 7348
- e. Cavalry Portfolio Collector Bank, 23936493

9. There is a federal tax debt of $9000. Petitioner and Respondent will share this evenly.

10. In the event of a bankruptcy, where the aforementioned debts are covered, Respondent agrees that he will be 100% responsible for any structured settlement payment.

11. Respondent agrees that for debts where there are no known account numbers, he will provide the information necessary to properly identify these accounts within 30 days of the signing of the stipulated agreement.

12. Each party is ordered to notify the creditors of the debts assigned to them of this divorce and to provide the creditor with their current mailing address by sending them a copy of the Decree. The party assuming the debt shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other party harmless from any and all liability, claims, or demands arising from the assigned debts. The parties acknowledge that this Decree does not modify the contractual rights of any third-party creditor, and a creditor may still seek payment from either party if the debt was a joint debt.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PERSONAL PROPERTY

13. The parties shall divide their personal property equitably. Regarding vehicles, Petitioner is awarded the Tiguan free and clear of Respondent. Likewise, Respondent is awarded the Jetta free and clear of Petitioner. The parties shall each bear responsibility for any debts on these vehicles and hold the other harmless. Each party will sign any necessary paperwork to transfer ownership.

a. Regarding all other personal property, the parties will work together to divide it evenly. In the event that they cannot, the parties will create an inventory of all items and take turns picking items one by one until the items are fully divided. Petitioner shall choose first in such an event.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY

14. The parties own a home at 14294 S Side Hill Lane Draper, UT 84020. It is believed that the home has equity.

15. Petitioner is awarded the home free and clear of the Respondent. Respondent acknowledges that he has received his share of the equity in the home already. He agrees to sign a quitclaim deed removing his name from the home and to sign any other documents necessary to transfer title to Petitioner's name alone. In the event of a sale, she will be entitled to 100% of the proceeds.

- a. Once the divorce decree is signed, Respondent will exit the marital home within 30 days.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO ALIMONY

16. No alimony shall be awarded. Both parties are capable of meeting their own needs.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

17. Attorney Fees: each party will bear their own attorney fees.
18. Name Change: Petitioner surname shall be restored to Mendoza.
19. Other Orders: The parties are ordered to fill out any paperwork necessary to effectuate this divorce.
