12. Legal Custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall mediate. Thereafter Mother shall have interim final say, subject to Father's right to court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical.

i. The parties shall continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care.

ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended immediately by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment, and the parent who has the parent time shall attend the appointment.

If it is emergency care, both parents shall be able to attend the care.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party shall elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

13. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties shall be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

14. Our Family Wizard. The parties shall utilize Our Family Wizard (or another mutually agreed upon co-parenting app or communication method) to communicate and calendar and exchange receipts. The parties shall each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. The parties shall use text contact only for emergencies and changes on the day of the exchange. Each party shall set up and pay for their portion of Our Family Wizard by July 31, 2026. The parties shall respond within 48 hours of any communication. The parties shall exchange receipts, calendar, and communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties shall not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. The communication shall be civil and limited to issues regarding the children.

15. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available which is currently twice per week for the parent does not have parent-time. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

16. Travel. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;
- d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.
- e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- f. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither parent shall travel with the children internationally until the youngest child is five years of age.

17. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

18. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

19. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

20. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. The parties shall not use corporal or severe punishment with the children.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

21. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

22. Limitations.

a. The parties shall not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner, or alcohol while they are exercising parent-time.

b. Neither parent shall introduce the child to paramours until they have been in an exclusive committed relationship for 6 months. This 6 month period cannot begin before Father has moved beyond Tier 4 parent-time.

c. The parties shall not have the child around any person with felony charges.

d. The parties are constrained from allowing the minor children to be in the presence of any other person who the parties suspect or have reason to suspect may be under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or non-prescribed drugs.

e. Upon reasonable suspicion, either party shall submit to random alcohol or drug testing at the request of the other party. If a UA of EtG is requested, the test shall be completed within 24 hours and shall be observed. The party requesting the test shall pay for the cost of the test. If the test is positive or “dirty”, the party taking the test shall be responsible to reimburse the requesting party the cost within 30 days. The results of the drug or alcohol test need to be provided within 24 hours of receiving the results. Failure to take the test shall be considered a positive or “dirty” test. If the test is positive or “dirty” for either parent, parent-time for the violating party shall be suspended until further order of the court.

23. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agreed, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief or enforcement action from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

24. Activity Costs. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

25. School Fees. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

26. Curbside Transportation for the Children. The parties shall utilize school-to-school or daycare exchanges when possible. If school to school exchanges are not possible, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If the exchange occurs at the residence, the parties shall have a curbside exchange. The receiving parent shall pull up in front of the residence and text to announce the arrival. The receiving parent shall wait inside the vehicle for the children to come out. The non-receiving parent shall remain in a position where he or she can touch the front door at all times during the exchange. Prior to the youngest child being 5 years of age, the parties shall make best efforts to do a reasonable curbside pickup. If a child is needing assistance, the parent at the door shall get the child to the car, put them in the car seat, and put their items in the trunk.

27. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent shall be with the children by 8:30 p.m.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

28. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $2,773 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $13,186 per month. The support has been calculated according to the Sole Physical Custody Worksheet. Father's child support obligation shall be $1,838 per month. Child support shall commence August 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

29. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

30. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code §81-9-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children. The parties shall produce verification within 30 days of the expense. Before a childcare expense is given to another party, they shall have the opportunity to provide the care.

31. Dependency exemption. The parties shall share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are two minor children, the parties shall each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother shall claim the oldest child and Father shall claim the youngest child.

b. When there is only one minor child, the parties shall alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Mother shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Father shall claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

c. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

32. Taxes. The parties shall file joint tax returns for 2025. The parties shall equally share any tax refund or tax liability.

33. Real Property. The marital property located at 6161 South Longmore Drive, Kearns, Utah 84118 is awarded to Father with all debts and liabilities commencing on August 1, 2026. Father shall hold the other party harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the home. Father shall get the utilities solely in his name by August 1, 2026. Father is awarded the home and Mother shall sign a Quitclaim Deed transferring the title within five business days of receipt. Mother shall vacate the home no later than September 7, 2026.

34. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2014 JEEP	Mother
2022 Trailer 2021 Flat Deck Trailer 1997-1998 Ski Doos	Father

a. All premarital items are awarded to the respective parent who owns the item.

b. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation.

35. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:		Obligation of:

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in their agreement and this Decree of Divorce and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Shall other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

36. Financial Accounts. Due to the division of the debts herein, the accounts shall be divided as follows:

a. The following accounts are awarded to Father:

Crypto Robinhood
Robinhood Equities
401k
Crypto Trezer XRP
Bitcoin
Crypto Hot Wallet
Robinhood Traditional IRA

b. Each party is awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts as the primary account holder.

37. Retirement Accounts: Mother is awarded 100% of Father's TSP Account with the date of division being entry of this Decree of Divorce with associated gains and losses. The parties represent there are no loans on the TSP account. Each party shall pay one-half of any administration fees from the retirement administrator. The parties shall use Fackrell & McLean to prepare their necessary documentation for division with each paying one-half of the cost.

38. Name: Mother shall have the option of restoring her name to Henkel.

39. July Payment. Father shall pay Mother $4,000 no later than July 15, 2026.

40. Alimony. Father shall pay Mother the following alimony which shall be terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. This shall be done through an electronic transfer:

a. From August 1, 2026 through January 31, 2028, Father shall pay Mother $2,962 per month.

b. From February 1, 2028 through July 31, 2029 Father shall pay Mother $2,562 per month.

c. From August 1, 2029 through July 31, 2030, Father shall pay Mother $2,162 per month.

d. The payments shall be made $\frac{1}{2}$ on the 5th and $\frac{1}{2}$ of the 20th.

e. Alimony shall terminate effective August 1, 2030, unless sooner terminated by statute or as designated herein.

41. Property Settlement. In consideration of the debts that Father is taking, Mother shall pay Father $\frac{1}{2}$ of the net proceeds after-tax of the total TSP withdrawal for a property settlement which shall occur upon receipt from the initial division of the TSP.

42. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in this Decree of Divorce.

43. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicated that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understood and agreed that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury and if any asset was not disclosed the other party shall be awarded 100% of the asset. The property referred to in their agreement represented all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

44. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party is ordered to assume and pay his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

45. Protective Order. The protective order shall be modified to adhere to the agreements herein.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

That judgment be entered accordingly.
