Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.

- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 3 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 7 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

23. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Relocation of a parent

24. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 50 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

25. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the the parent who moved, except one-half of the expenses for the summer or off-track time will be paid by the other parent.

26. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

27. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

28. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

30. Stacie Marie Burke's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $11042. Stacie Marie Burke receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Matthew Andrew Burke) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

31. Matthew Andrew Burke's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $6413. Matthew Andrew Burke receives the following gross monthly income:

32. The adjusted gross monthly income for Matthew Andrew Burke is $6413.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

33. It is in the best interest of the children that Stacie Marie Burke be ordered to pay child support to Matthew Andrew Burke as follows:

a. $324.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

34. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

35. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

36. The base child support amount using the joint custody calculation is $324 per month.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

37. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)). The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

38. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

39. Child support will be paid as follows:

Stacie to send payments via Chime bank.

40. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

41. Stacie Marie Burke and Matthew Andrew Burke will each pay half of any ORS fee.

a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Matthew Andrew Burke, Stacie Marie Burke will reimburse Matthew Andrew Burke for half the fee.

45. As long as Matthew Andrew Burke is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Matthew Andrew Burke may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

b. Jayden Brady Burke

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

46. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

47. Matthew Andrew Burke must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

- a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Matthew Andrew Burke's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Stacie Marie Burke's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Matthew Andrew Burke's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Stacie Marie Burke's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
- g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
- h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

48. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.
 - a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
 - b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
 - c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

49. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

50. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

51. This other property will be divided as follows:

Matthew and Stacie owned two dogs prior to separation: Luna (Great Dane) - Matthew will be granted full ownership Chief (Golden Retriever) - Matthew and Stacie will have joint ownership of Chief, switching off every 2 weeks.

Debts

52. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real property

53. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

54. Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

55. The parties do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

56. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)

Name after divorce

57. Stacie Marie Burke changed her name when the parties married. Stacie Marie Burke's name will be Stacie Marie Minardi after the divorce.
