6. Legal Custody. The parties shall share joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical.

- i. The parties shall continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care.
- ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party shall elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan. The children shall attend South Jordan Elementary, South Jordan Middle School, and Bingham High School unless agreed to otherwise by mutual agreement of the parties or further order of the court. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

7. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties shall be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

8. Communication. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and shall not use their children to deliver messages. The parties shall use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

9. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

10. Travel. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;
- d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.
- e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

12. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the shared calendar shall constitute notice.

13. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

14. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are, hereby, restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also, hereby, restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise “pumping” the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children’s activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children’s presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are, hereby, mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are, hereby, restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. Both parties are, hereby, restrained from placing negative posts about the other parent or the divorce on social media.

g. Any audio recordings involving the other party shall be deleted within 30 days of the signing of the stipulation.

h. Both parties are, hereby, mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

15. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

16. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action.

However, either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

17. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

18. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

19. Transportation for the Children. The parties shall utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent-time shall provide all of the transportation.

20. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

21. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $5,200 per month. The Father's gross monthly income is $21,800 per month. The Mother has 183 overnights and the Father has 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. The Father's child support obligation shall be $1,255 per month. Child support shall commence the month after their nesting ends. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

22. 2Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. 3Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 4Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. 5The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

23. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time.

24. Dependency exemption. The parties shall share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are three minor children, the parties shall alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children. The Mother shall claim 2 oldest children in odd-numbered tax years and the oldest child for even-numbered tax years and the Father shall claim 2 youngest children in even-numbered years and youngest child for odd-numbered tax years.

b. While there are two minor children, the parties shall each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother shall claim the oldest child and Father shall claim the youngest child.

c. When there is only one minor child, the parties shall alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father shall claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

d. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

25. Taxes. The parties shall file joint tax returns for 2025. The parties shall equally share in any cost of preparation of taxes. The parties shall equally share any tax refund or tax liability.

26. Real Property.

a. The marital property located at 1008 Emily Frances Circle South Jordan, Utah 84095 is, hereby, awarded to the Mother with all debts and liabilities commencing on the month after

Father vacates the home. Father shall vacate the home within 60 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties shall continue paying the mortgage and utilities as they have historically done through this nesting period. Thereafter, Mother shall hold Father harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the home. The Mother shall get the utilities solely in her name by 60 days from the entry of the Decree of Divorce or upon Father leaving the home whichever is earlier. The Mother shall refinance or assume the home by 12 months from the entry of the Decree of Divorce. In the event that Father's name is not removed from the loan within 12 months, the parties shall immediately put the home for sale with a mutually agreed upon Real Estate Agent. Mother shall give Father three names for Real Estate Agents and Father shall choose one within 14 days of receipt. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;
- ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;
- iii. Thereafter, Mother shall receive all of the equity therefrom.

b. The four plex property located at 14397, 14399, 14401, 14403 South Ashburn Way Herriman, Utah 84096 is, hereby, awarded to the Father with all debts and liabilities commencing on August 1, 2026. Thereafter, Father shall hold the other party harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the real property. The Father shall refinance or assume the home by 12 months from the entry of the Decree of Divorce. In the event that Mother's name is not removed from the loan within 12 months, the parties shall put the property for sale within 14 days with a mutually agreed upon Real Estate Agent. Father shall give Mother three names for Real Estate Agents and Father shall choose one within 14 days of receipt. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;
- ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;
- iii. Thereafter, Father shall be awarded all of the equity therefrom.

c. The marital property located at 388 North 300 East Logan, Utah 84321 is, hereby, awarded to the Father with all debts and liabilities commencing on August 1, 2026. Thereafter, Father shall hold the other party harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the real property. The Father’s name is solely on the loan, and he shall be awarded all of the equity therefrom.

27. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties should be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item and shall refinance within 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce, if applicable. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
Tesla	Father
Ford Expedition	Mother
Frank the Dog	Father
Trailer	Father
Guns (Prenuptial and Marital)	Father
Mother’s Gun (Smith and Wesson 9 mm)	Mother

- a. Each party is, hereby, awarded their own inherited, heirloom, gifted property from their own family members, and premarital property.
- b. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation within 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. After 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce or as mutually agreed upon in writing otherwise, each party shall be awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

28. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debts in Mother's Name	Mother
Debts in Father's Name	Father

- a. Nesting. The parties shall pay off the all of the credit cards when they are finished nesting and thereafter each party will pay their own credit cards.
- b. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.
- c. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

29. Financial Accounts.

- a. Father is, hereby, awarded the following accounts:
 - i. Crypto Account;
 - ii. Robinhood Account;
 - iii. Accounts associated with the Logan Property with Bank account ending in 1280 and Herriman Property with Bank account ending in 3290.

b. The following accounts shall be equally divided after paying the credit card bills through the date that nesting is terminated:

i. Mother's main personal account (Mountain America ending in 8100) and thereafter Mother is awarded the bank account.

ii. Father's main personal account (Chevron 8297) and thereafter Father is awarded the bank account.

iii. Any unreasonable charges shall be paid in full by the party who makes the charge.

c. The Fidelity Account shall be divided with Mother receiving 79% and Father receiving 21% on the date of the division. The approximate balance of that account is currently $335,901. Mother shall open her own Fidelity account for the transfer of these funds. Father shall maintain ownership of the current account.

30. Retirement Accounts: The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of all retirement, 401k, and IRA, and will divide the amount with each receiving $\frac{1}{2}$ of the marital portion with the division date as the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Father shall receive his pre-marital portion. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any.

31. Name: Mother is, hereby, given the option of restoring her name to Glover.

32. Alimony: The Father shall pay Mother $3,645 per month for a term of 9 years unless sooner terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. Equal payments will be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony shall commence on the month after Father vacates the home.

33. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

34. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party is, hereby, ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
