DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SALT LAKE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
KASEY RICHARD KRAATZ
and	Case No. 264901247
KERI LYN KRAATZ.	Judge Amber Mettler Commissioner Russell Minas

The above-entitled matter having come before the Court; Petitioner having heretofore filed his Declaration as to Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce and Declaration of Military Service; Petitioner and Respondent having executed a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement dated the 21st day of May, 2026; the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and upon motion of Martin N. Olsen, attorney for Petitioner, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between

Petitioner, KASEY RICHARD KRAATZ, and Respondent, KERI LYN KRAATZ, be and the same are hereby dissolved.

2. Children, Custody, and Parent Time. Kasey and Keri have two (2) children born as issue of the marriage, one child is over the age of 18, therefore only one minor child is at issue in this action to-wit: M.L.K. born October 2008.

3. Provisions Relating to Child Custody and Parent-Time. That Kasey and Keri are awarded the joint legal custody and physical custody of the minor child pursuant to the proposed Parenting Plan below.

PARENTING PLAN

4. The parties desire to create an effective co-parenting relationship for the benefit of their minor child. The parties desire to raise a happy and well-adjusted child and to respect both parents and both parents expect to respect the other parent's respective parenting roles.

5. Time Sharing Schedule. The parties shall cooperate to plan their child's time-sharing schedule based on the following principles:

- a. The parties shall trade favors and do their best to ensure that the children have meaningful time in both homes;
- b. The parties shall be flexible with each other when minor changes are necessary; and
- c. The parties shall give as much advance notice as possible if changes are necessary.

6. The following schedule shall be the guideline:

- d. Joint Legal and Physical Custody. The parties shall be awarded the joint legal and physical custody of the minor child, with a 50/50 time sharing schedule pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-205.
- e. Parent-time transfers: Pick up and drop off ("transfers"), the parties shall make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the minor child prior to each scheduled parent-time.
- f. Holiday Sharing Schedule. Holiday time shall be consistent with the schedule outlined in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302 with Kasey being designated as the custodial parent and Keri being designated as the non-custodial parent for purposes of holiday parent time; and
- g. Special Occasions. The parties shall notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school programs, school activities, sports events, church events, extracurricular activities, etc., so that both parties shall have the option of attending the special event if possible.

7. Decision Making. The parties shall share joint legal custody of their child. The parties shall share decision making as follows:

- a. Day-to-Day Decisions: The parent in charge during any time-shared block may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the child's care. This is interpreted to mean that the parent who has physical custody of the child during the time-shared block may make those minor day-to-day decisions without having to consult with the other parent;

- b. Major Decisions: The parties shall consult with one another and reach agreements on major issues concerning the medical, dental, psychological treatment, and education of their child; and
- c. Emergency Treatment: The parent who has custody of the child during the time-sharing block may initiate emergency medical, dental, or psychological treatment, and shall notify and involve the other parent as soon as possible.

8. Procedure for Joint Decision Making. The parties shall share all major decisions concerning the child's health, education, and general welfare. The parties shall implement the following decision-making procedure as their guide:

- a. The parties shall initially identify the issue;
- b. The parties shall research the issue and create possible solutions related to the issue and to listen to and understand each other's perspective;
- c. The parties shall brainstorm all possible solutions related to that specific issue;
- d. The parties shall then consult with professionals relevant to the issue, such as therapists, teachers, medical providers; and
- e. The parties shall use the most sensible resolution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved, particularly the child, in an attempt to reach a "win-win" solution.

9. Tie-Breaking Procedure. If the parties cannot reach a consensus regarding a major parenting decision after following the joint decision-making procedure, and implementing the governing principles as outlined above regarding what is defined as the shared vision, then Kasey, is granted final decision-making authority. Either party may request that an expert become involved to assist the parties in resolving the issue and breaking the impasse. The parties shall retain the assistance of a mediator before either side seeks resolution in court.

10. If fees are necessary, the parties shall split the fees for any experts or mediators equally, 50% assessed to each party.

11. Education Plan. The school that the minor child shall attend is based upon Kasey's home residence. Both parties have the authority to check the child out of school. Both parties shall have access to the child during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions shall be made by Keri.

12. Record and information sharing. Both parties shall have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, childcare and health care.

13. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

14. The parties shall immediately notify the other parent of any change of address and telephone number and agree to inform the other parent regarding logistical details of extended vacations.

15. Communication. The parties shall communicate with each other by any and all methods. The parents shall provide age-appropriate help to the child to communicate with the other parent and shall give the child privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents shall not interfere with or monitor communication between the child or the other parent.

16. Each party shall have liberal access to the child by way of virtual and/or telephone contact. The children shall be allowed to contact either of the parties at any time or at any place and neither parent shall interfere with this privilege.

17. The parties shall notify the other parent of significant illnesses involving the children and of any information relating to the child's medications.

18. Travel. During the parties' parent-time, the parent may consent for the child to travel with a sports team, religious group, relatives, friends, by themselves or with other.

19. If the child shall be traveling for more than four (4) days, the parent arranging the travel shall notify the other parent at least ten (10) days in advance. That parent shall give the other parent the travel schedule, locations, and phone numbers at least two (2) days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent shall provide as much notice as possible.

20. Relocation. Neither party may relocate with the minor child more than twenty-five (25) miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further Court Order.

21. If either parent lives more than 150 miles away from the other parent or the parents live in separate countries, cost for the child's travel expenses for the parent-time shall be paid by the parent who moved.

22. If a parent is found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they shall be responsible for the child's travel-related expenses.

23. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within thirty (30) days of receipt of the documents detailing the expense.

24. Email Communication. In order to implement the above parenting plan as outlined by the governing principles, the parties shall each provide regular emails to the other parent. The purpose of emails between the parties is to share information and discuss issues regarding the children in a positive manner. The parties shall summarize for each other all significant information relating to their children's progress during the prior week.

25. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

26. The parties shall immediately notify the other parent of any change of address and telephone number and agree to inform the other parent regarding logistical details of extended vacations.

27. The parties shall communicate in the most reasonable manner, whether by telephone, email, or text. Kasey recognizes that the children feel more secure and loved when their parents are working together in a positive, cooperative, and constructive manner.

28. Consistency in Parenting. The parties' consistency in parenting shall help them to raise emotionally healthy and secure children. Therefore, the parties shall discuss parenting strategies, and develop, if possible, consistent rules and parenting approaches.

29. The parties shall implement, whenever possible, consistent bedtimes, discipline strategies, and other rules. Moreover, Kasey recognizes that parenting shall be more effective if the parties work together as a united front.

30. Extended Family. The parties shall explain the parenting plan to any extended family members, including new spouses, parents, siblings, and others. This communication shall further their children's healing and enable other family members to feel comfortable about attending activities and special occasions of the children where family members of both parents may be present. In addition, the parties shall take all necessary steps to assist others in understanding that they have set up a parenting plan for the purposes of ending conflict and healing the family.

31. The parties shall encourage other family members to have a civil and friendly relationship with the other parent and all of their extended family members.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

32. Provisions Relating to Child Support Payments. Kasey is self-employed and has a gross monthly income of $5,417 per month.

33. Keri is employed at Big Leap and earns $10,000 per month, in addition Keri receives $5,150 per month as business income and therefore grosses $15,150 per month.

(1953 as amended), Keri shall provide the primary health care coverage, as defined by Utah Code Section § 81-6-101, for the medical expenses of the dependent child. Kasey shall provide the secondary health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent child.

- a. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of the parties in this case.
- b. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.
- c. A parent who incurs medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
- d. A parent incurring medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subparagraphs "b" and "c" above.

- e. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

36. Provisions Relating to Health Insurance for Kasey. Keri shall contribute up to $500 per month for up to 18 months from the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce toward health insurance (medical, dental, and vision). If COBRA is elected, Keri shall cover that cost. If a different plan is chosen, Keri shall contribute up to that same amount.
