Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

BRYSON JONES EWELL

Petitioner,

and

RACHELLE DIANN EWELL

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil: 254300296

Judge: L. Douglas Hogan

Commissioner: Renee Blocher

This matter came before this Honorable Court on Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce for the court to make Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and a Decree of Divorce based on the Stipulation on file with the Court; and the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and with good cause appearing IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. Residency. Respondent is a bona fide resident of Tooele County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three months immediately prior to the filing of this action. Petitioner is a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

2. Marriage Information. Petitioner and Respondent were married on November 23, 2012 in South Jordan, Salt Lake County, State of Utah. They separated on or about May 3, 2025.

3. Grounds. The parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in their marriage and there is no chance of reconciliation. The parties request that this Court order that the marriage be dissolved.

4. Children. The following are minor children of the parties.

- a. E.E., born in October of 2020; L.E.,
- b. born in March of 2023; and
- c. D.E., born in April of 2025

5. Pursuant to Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100(a), the parties acknowledge that there are no proceedings involving custody, criminal, protective orders, or delinquency involving the above-named minor child in juvenile court or any other venue.

6. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6 et seq. (1953 as amended), in that Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

7. Legal Custody. Each of the parties being fit and proper persons, the parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor children.

- a The parties shall discuss all major decisions concerning the children including their health, education, and general welfare, daycare, medical and dental treatment, and therapy.
- b To accomplish this, the parties shall use the following decision-making procedure:
 - (1) Identify the issue; (2) Discuss possible solutions; (3) Consult with any applicable and available experts; and (4) Adopt the recommendation of those experts.

- c The parties agree that the children shall continue to attend their current schools (presently Twenty Wells Elementary School) and any schools into which they would feed unless both parents move out of the school district or otherwise agree.
- d Neither party shall allow the children to get piercings or tattoos without the written approval of the other party.
- e The parties agree that the children shall be raised within The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Duplicate records shall be maintained in both Mother's and Father's wards, although Mother's ward shall be deemed the children's primary ward for ordinance and recommend purposes.
- f Father shall be entitled to perform any ordinances for the minor children (baptism, confirmation, priesthood ordinations, etc.) so long as he is deemed worthy to do so by his Bishop.
- g The parties agree that the children may continue in therapy as previously order by the court. Neither party shall have ex parte communications with the therapist. The therapist shall provide any guidance or information to the parties in writing, addressed to both parties simultaneously. Unless agreed otherwise, the parent sessions with the therapist shall discontinue.
- h The parties agree that they shall take an online co-parenting class to assist in their communication and co-parenting practices

8. Physical Custody and Parent Time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children, with parent time being as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, Father's parent time shall as follow:

- a Beginning immediately, Father's parent time with the minor children shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303, as follows:

- i Father shall have the minor children for a midweek overnight on Thursday, beginning at the end of the children's school or, at the election of Father, 6:00 p.m.
- ii Father shall have the minor children on alternating weekends, from Friday at the end of school (if the children are in school) or, at the election of Father, at 6:00.
- iii If the children are not in school for any of Father's parent time and Father is available to be with the minor children, Father may pick the children up beginning at 8 a.m., or after work.

9. Transportation. Exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the following shall apply:

- a. School-to-school exchanges shall be utilized when available. When any child is of school age, the children not enrolled in school shall be dropped off in the same manner as the child or children in school, meaning that the non-school aged children shall be dropped off at the residence of the parent commencing parent time.
- b. When school-to-school exchanges are not utilized, exchanges shall be curbside, with the receiving parent picking up the minor children.
- c. These curbside visits shall be as follows: the party picking up the children shall stay in their vehicle and the other party shall stay in their residence. There shall be no communication between the parties or any other adults participating in the exchange during child exchanges. If the child's age requires parent assistance during an exchange the party picking up the child(ren) shall exchange the children door side.

- d. A spouse, grandparent, or other responsible adult third party known to the child and both parties may be utilized for exchanges. Any such third party shall be obligated to the same conduct requirements as the parties.
- e. The parent ending their parent time shall ensure that the children are ready for exchanges at the appointed exchange times.

10. Holiday Parent Time. Holiday parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, holiday parent time shall be based upon Utah Code Ann §81-9-303, as set forth herein:

- a. The parties shall not include Juneteenth, Columbus Day, or Veteran's Day in their agreed holiday schedule.
- b. Holiday parent time shall take precedence over regular parent time, and both parties shall be restrained from interrupting the other's holiday parent time.
- c. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parenttime shall be responsible for the children's attendance at school for that school day.
- d. If the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school.
- e. If a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:
 - i. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day; ii. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
 - iii. the holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Mother's Day, Father's Day, or the child's birthday; iv. extended parent-time; and

v. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

f. A parent exercising parent-time for the child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the child's birthday.

g. Unless the parties agree otherwise, holiday parent time shall be according to the following modified schedule:

11. . Summer Parent Time. Summer parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, summer parent time shall be as follows:

- a. Each parent shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted summer extended parent time. Father shall be entitled to an additional two (2) weeks of summer extended parent time, interrupted by a weekend visit from Mother.
- b. Each parent shall provide notice of their intended extended summer parent time. During odd-numbered years, Father shall provide notice of his intended extended summer parent time by May 1 and Mother shall provide notice of her intended extended summer parent time by May 15. During even-numbered years, Mother shall provide notice of her intended extended summer parent time by May 1 and Father shall provide notice of his intended extended summer parent time by May 15.
- c. If a parent fails to provide notice as set forth herein within the applicable time period, the non-complying parent shall lose their priority and the complying parent may schedule their own extended summer parent time

12. Parenting Plan. The parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202 unless otherwise stated herein. In addition, the parties shall adopt the guidelines as follows:

- a. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;

b. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the children's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent;

c. The parties shall notify the other parent of major injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the children;

d. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers, coaches, and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise, and shall encourage such teachers, coaches, and others to add both parents to email and communication lists, so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

e. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children;

f. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number, and telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change;

g. The parent who has the children in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children without having to consult with the other parent;

h. For emergency purposes, whenever the children travel with either parent overnight or longer, the following shall be provided to the other parent: (1) an itinerary of travel dates; (2) destinations; (3) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location;

- i. Before leaving the United States with the children, the parent taking the minor children will give the other parent at least thirty (30) days' notice. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining passports for the minor children and making those passports available to the traveling parent;
- j. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the children consistency and stability;
- k. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;
- l. The parties shall not put the children in the middle. The parties shall not discuss adult issues including any legal or financial-related issues with the children;
- m. The minor children shall not be used as messengers;
- n. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the children, and shall provide proof of those arrangements upon request of the other party;
- o. The minor children shall never be left with surrogate caregivers who are adults or older adolescents who are not related to them without providing information regarding the surrogate care giver to the other parent;
- p. While the parties' children are minors, neither party shall have any roommates without disclosing their identities to the other parent;

- q. Neither parent shall question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships, or how the other parent spends his/her time or money. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children;
- r. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time;
- s. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties;
- t. Each party shall be responsible to maintain clothing and other items for the children to use when they are with that party;
- u. All firearms shall be safely stored and not within access of the children during parent time; and
- v. The parties shall continue to utilize Our Family Wizard for all non-emergency communications

13. Mutual Restraining Order. The parties stipulate and agree to the following mutual restraining order:

- a Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, name calling, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the children or speaking to the children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the children's preferences regarding custody or visitation.
- b Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes the children's best interest.

c Both parties shall be restrained from discussing divorce issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties shall also be restrained from discussing the children's relationships with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children. Neither party shall request or encourage the children to hold back information from the other party which shall otherwise be divulged to the other party by the other parent.

d Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and children during the other parent's parenting time.

e Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the children what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

f Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, both parties shall be mutually restraining from going to the residence of the other party, except for child pickup or drop-offs, which shall be curbside and for which the party picking up the minor children shall stay in their car.

g Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service

14. Child Support. Child support shall be based on Utah Child Support Guidelines and the Child Support Worksheet attached hereto. For purposes of the Stipulation, the parties have established

Father's monthly income as $3,695 and Mother's monthly income as $6,755. Father's monthly child support obligation is established at $344 for three (3) minor children pursuant to the joint custody worksheet, with Mother having 220 overnights and Father having 145 overnights:

- a. Child support shall be payable one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half on the 20th day of each month unless the parties otherwise agree.
- b. Child support shall continue until the child turns eighteen (18) or graduates from high school at the regular age, whichever occurs later.
- c. Payor's income may be subject to income withholding by the ORS in accordance with the Utah Code. If Mother utilizes ORS collection when Father is not in arrears, Mother shall pay all ORS fees.
- d. Child support payments shall begin May 1, 2026.
- e. Both parties waive any claim they may have for past child support.

15. Childcare Expenses. If children are not in school, it is the responsibility of the parent exercising parent time to provide daycare for the children. Each party shall be responsible for any childcare expenses during their own parent time or days.

16. School Fees and Extracurricular Expenses. The costs of school fees and extracurricular expenses shall be divided as follows:

- a. The parties shall be equally responsible for the children's mandatory school fees.
- b. The parties shall be equally responsible for any extracurricular activities that are agreed upon in writing by both parties. If the parties do not agree on an extracurricular activity, one party may enroll a minor child in such an activity but will do so at his or her sole expense. The parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to determine activities that are in the best interest of the children, balancing the interests of all involved. Neither party may unreasonably enroll a child in extracurricular activities which infringe on the parent time of the other parent. Conversely, neither party shall unreasonably object to extracurricular activities during their respective parent time. Unreasonable positions on the matters set forth in this Paragraph 17 may form the basis of a petition to modify

17. Medical, Dental and Other Healthcare Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, insurance for the medical, accident, vision, and dental expenses of the minor children shall be provided by the party which can obtain the best such coverages at reasonable cost.

- a. If at any time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be considered the primary coverage for the child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be considered the secondary coverage for the child.
- b. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. If both parties are providing insurance, then neither party shall seek or receive reimbursement for such coverage.
- c. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

- d. Each parent who has obtained insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or shall have known of the change.
- e. Each parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.
- f. The parties shall follow Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §154-6.7, §81-3-105, and §81-4-501, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, §81-4-204, or §81-6-208, or an administrative order under §62A-11326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order

18. Tax Exemptions. Tax exemptions for the minor children shall be awarded as follows:

- a. For tax year 2025, the parties have filed separate tax returns and have divided the refunds between themselves.
- b. Starting with tax year 2026, Mother shall claim D.E. and Father shall claim L.E. The parties shall rotate claiming E.E., with Mother claiming her for even tax years and Father claiming her for odd tax years.
- c. When there is only one dependent child, Mother shall claim the child for odd years and Father shall claim the child for even years.
- d. If, on December 31 of any year, either party is behind on any support payments ordered pursuant to the Stipulation, that party shall waive their right to claim any minor children for that year.
- e. The parties shall follow all IRS guidelines as to filing status.

19. Alimony. Neither party shall be awarded alimony now or in the future.

20. Real Property. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired no real property.

21. Vehicles. The parties own certain vehicles, which shall be divided as follows:

- a. Mother shall be awarded the 2012 Mitsubishi Gallant. Mother shall assume all payment obligations for that vehicle.
- b. Father shall be awarded the 2020 Ford Edge. Father shall be responsible for all payment obligations for that vehicle.
- c. Each party shall remove the other party from title and, if necessary, refinance the vehicles awarded to them no later than thirty (30) days from entry of the Decree.
- d. If either party becomes fifteen (15) days late on a payment for which the other party is on the loan, that vehicle shall be immediately placed for sale and sold to satisfy the loan. The party awarded that vehicle shall be solely entitled to all sale proceeds and shall be solely obligated for any deficiency upon such sale. If a party chooses to sell a piece of property awarded to him/her, or when a party refinances, the other party shall fully cooperate in that process, including signing all requisite documents.

e Beginning May 1, 2026, each party shall maintain and pay for their own automobile insurance policy.

f Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any vehicle(s) awarded to him/he

22. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. The parties shall each be awarded the personal property that is in his or her respective possession on the date of the Stipulation, with the exception of the following:

a Mother shall be awarded the following items of personal property which are currently in Father's possession

i The "O Jerusalem" painting/photograph;

ii Four (4) Star Wars and/or Star Trek baby pictures;

iii The Smith & Wesson MP22 rifle;

iv Two (2) cannisters of .22 ammunition (approximately 4,500 rounds);

v Mother's USB sticks containing her school information and work history, for which items Father shall conduct a search and provide them to Mother if he locates them.

b Within fourteen (14) days of the Stipulation, the parties shall schedule a day prior to June 1, 2026 for Mother to pick up her personal items listed herein c If there is any dispute regarding an item of personal property, the parties shall return to mediation prior to seeking court intervention.

23. Debts. During the marriage, Father and Mother acquired certain debts. Those debts have been divided between the parties.

- a Except as otherwise described herein, each party shall be responsible for any debts in his/her own name.
- b Any joint debts later discovered and not addressed herein shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt

24. Financial Accounts. During the course of the marriage the parties acquired bank and savings accounts. The parties have previously divided these accounts between themselves, and they request this Court's order confirming their division, as follows:

- a Mother shall be awarded the joint Chartway accounts.
- b Father shall be awarded the joint America First Credit Union accounts
- c Mother shall be awarded any other accounts in her name.
- d Father shall be awarded any other accounts in his name.

25. Retirement. Prior to and during the marriage, the parties accumulated certain retirement accounts. They shall be awarded as follows:

- a Father shall be awarded all retirement accounts in his name.
- b Mother shall be awarded all retirement accounts in her name.

26. Life Insurance. Either party may obtain a life insurance policy on the life of the other. The party wishing to obtain such a policy shall be solely responsible for all costs and expenses of obtaining and maintaining such a policy. Each party shall cooperate with the other to obtain such coverage, including submitting to any required medical examination and signing any such documentation as may be necessary.

27. Business Interests. Father has acquired an interest in Ewell Acres, LLC and Peak Parables, LLC (collectively, the "Businesses"). The Businesses, including all their respective accounts, equipment, receivables, contracts, goodwill, and assets of any kind, are awarded to Father as his sole and separate property. Mother waives any claim she may have to the Businesses, now or hereafter. Father shall be solely responsible for any and all costs, expenses, payables, taxes, debts, or obligations of any kind pertaining to the Businesses. Father shall indemnify and hold Mother harmless against any such obligations.

28. Maiden Name. If she so chooses, Mother shall be entitled to legally change her name to her maiden name of Rachelle Diann Carr.

29. Dispute Resolution. If a dispute arises between the parties, they shall return to mediation prior to filing an action in court. Enforcement actions may be filed directly with the court without mediation.

30. Cooperation. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided, to divide automobile insurance policies, and to cooperate in every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is fully satisfied.

31. Attorney Fees. Both parties shall pay their own attorney's fees in this matter.
