DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SALT LAKE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
PATRICK SCHINDLER
and	Case No. 264901238
KRISTIE SCHINDLER.	Judge James Gardner Commissioner Russell Minas

The above-entitled matter having come before the Court; Respondent having heretofore filed her Declaration as to Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce and Declaration of Military Service; Petitioner and Respondent having executed a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement dated the 11th day of August, 2026; the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and upon motion of Beau J. Olsen, attorney for Respondent, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between

Petitioner, PATRICK SCHINDLER, and Respondent, KRISTIE SCHINDLER, be and the same are hereby dissolved.

- a. Both parents shall receive two weeks of uninterrupted extended parent time each summer. Said uninterrupted time shall be taken in two separate one week periods. Both parents shall provide notification extended parent-time with the children by April 1 each year with Patrick having first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Kristie having first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If parent time elections are not timely selected by April 1st, then the first parent to select their summer parent time shall have first priority. Extended parent time shall not be used over the other parent's holidays.

5. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, extra curricular, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek an expert in the field (for school a school teacher, for medical the child's doctor) if they still cannot reach an agreement, the parties shall mediate and evenly divide the cost of mediation. If no agreement is reached in mediation, then either party may seek a decision from the court commissioner.

- a. Day to Day Decisions. The party with the parent-time shall make the day to day decisions for the children.
 - i. Medical. The parties shall continue to use the children's current healthcare providers and specialists that the providers recommend.
 - ii. Schooling. The minor children shall continue to attend their current schools and feeder schools, which are West Lake Middle School and Hunter/Granger High School. However, the youngest child may continue his charter school through high school if he so chooses.
 - iii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling the doctor's appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

6. Communication. The parties shall utilize a co-parenting app such as Our Family Wizard, text messages or emails if preferable, for all routine communications. Parties may communicate via telephone in the event of an emergency, for time sensitive issues, or by mutual agreement. All communication, unless otherwise agreed, shall solely concern the children and/or implementation of this Decree of Divorce. All communication shall be civil. The parties shall have a teammate approach to co parenting.

7. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges, text messages, phone calls and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time, within reason.

8. Travel. When a child travels with either parent overnight, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent with one week notice, unless exigent circumstances apply:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location, who is willing to communicate with the other parent.
- d. For international travel, the parties shall give each other two months' notice and work together to ensure passports and other travel documentation are obtained in a timely and efficient manner.
- e. International travel shall also be mutually agreed to by the parties, however, consent cannot be unreasonably withheld.
- f. Passports shall remain at Kristie's residence.

9. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis.

The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in. The parties shall use the calendar in OFW or other calendar to share the children's schedules. Each parent is entitled to be at and participate in the children's events, regardless of who is exercising parent time.

10. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, family reunions, religious holidays and ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

11. Mutual Restraining. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party. Furthermore, the parties shall not make any disparaging posts about the other party on social media, like Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, or other social media platforms.

12. Introduction of Romantic Partners. The parties shall not introduce the children to any romantic partners or allow any romantic partners to spend the night during parent time, until the parent and the third party have been in a committed relationship for at least three months.

13. Transportation other Than Parent. A step parent, grandparent, or other responsible person may pick up the children, so long as the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual.

14. Relocation. The relocation of either party more than 30 miles shall be governed by Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

15. Activity Costs. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an activity is agreed to, both parties are responsible for ensuring the child attends and has appropriate transportation to and from the extracurricular activity during the parents' respective parent time.

16. A party who incurs an expense for a children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

17. School Costs. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, choir travel, school sports, books, required supplies, tutoring, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school for the minor children. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

18. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202 et seq. Kristie's gross monthly is $7,916 per month. Patrick's gross monthly income is $4,600 per month. Kristie shall have 220 overnights per year and Patrick shall have 145 overnights per year. Based on a joint physical custody worksheet, child support shall be in the amount of $416.00 per month, beginning September of 2026 through May 31, 2027. Commencing June 1, 2027 and while there are two minor children, child support shall be $366.00. When there is only one minor children, child support shall be $225.00 (based on the parties' current salary and overnights with the minor child(ren)).

19. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each and every month.

20. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Kristie is currently providing said insurance.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

- b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.
- d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Patrick shall be primary coverage for the dependent and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Kristie shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

- e. Double coverage is not necessary, but may be used if mutually agreed to by the parties. If double coverage occurs, then each shall be responsible for their own insurance premium.

21. Daycare Costs. That there are no daycare costs anticipated. In the event daycare is needed, the parties shall pay for their own daycare needs.

22. Dependency Exemption. That dependency for state and federal taxes shall be divided as follows:

Child	Even Tax Year	Odd Tax Year
D.S.	Kristie	Patrick
R.S.	Patrick	Kristie
R.P.S.	Kristie	Patrick

23. The tax credits may only be claimed if the obligor of child support is current as of December 31st of any given tax year.

24. Real Property. That the parties own a home and real property located at 3612 Tafton Road, West Valley City, Utah 84120.

- a. The home shall be immediately placed for sale with a mutually agreed upon realtor. If the parties cannot agree on a realtor, then Kristie shall pick three realtors with Patrick picking from one of the three provided. Once a realtor is selected, the parties shall agree on all offers and counter offers. If the parties cannot agree, they shall defer to their realtor's recommendation.
- b. Once the house is sold, the proceeds shall be divided as follows:
 - i. Pay off the outstanding mortgages (AFCU approximately $79,300 and PNC $293,000);
 - ii. Pay off all closing cost and realtor fees;
 - iii. Pay to the extent possible, pay off the debts listed in the paragraphs below
 - iv. If any equity exists after the payment of debts, then said equity shall be evenly divided.
- c. Patrick shall vacate the marital home sixty days from August 11, 2026. However, while he remains in the marital residence, he shall pay 50% of the mortgage, utilities, and upkeep on the marital home.

25. Time Shares. The parties own an interest in two Westgate Timeshares. Said time shares and any costs associated with the time shares are awarded to Kristie.

26. Alimony. That Kristie shall pay alimony to Patrick based on the following:

- a. Commencing September 1, 2027 through May 31, 2027, Kristie shall pay Patrick monthly alimony in the amount of $416.00. Commencing June 1, 2027, through May 31, 2033, Kristie shall pay Patrick monthly alimony in the amount of $366.00. Commencing June 1, 2033 through May 31, 2035, Kristie shall pay Patrick monthly alimony in the amount of $225.00. Alimony shall terminate upon Kristie's death, Patrick's death, Patrick's cohabitation as defined by Utah law, or Patrick's remarriage.

27. Personal Property. The parties are awarded their personal effects and any gifts or inheritance the parties have received during the marriage. The remaining personal property shall be equitably divided between the parties. In the event that they cannot agree on disputed property, the parties shall divide the property one item at a time (however, it shall be dishes, no dish and the party shall be awarded the whole set of property in dispute) with Patrick selecting first and then the parties alternating every other pick. They may request a third party to observe to keep the peace.

28. Vehicles. That the parties shall divide the vehicles as follows:

Vehicle	Awarded to	Party Responsible for Debt, if any
Ionic	Kristie	Kristie

- a. With the exception of the debts above, each party shall be responsible for the debts in their individual names, particularly the respective credit cards, and shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other party harmless from liability thereon.

- b. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.
- c. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed herein and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names, unless otherwise noted above. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.
- d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.
- e. That Patrick shall indemnify and hold Kristie harmless on all debts and obligations Patrick is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).
- f. That Kristie shall indemnify and hold Patrick harmless on all debts Kristie is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

30. Financial Accounts. That the parties financial accounts shall be divided and awarded as follows:

Name of Account	Approximate Amount	Awarded to
AFCU	$31.98 (checking) $1.29 (Savings)	Kristie

Patrick's personal accounts	$42,000	Patrick

31. Retirement Accounts: That Patrick is awarded $300,000 from Kristie's retirement account. The parties shall work together with David Hunter or Rori Hendrix to complete the QDRO to divide said accounts.

32. Name: Kristie shall have the option of restoring her name to Wayne if she so chooses.

33. Deeds and Titles and Other Documents: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in this Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement this Decree of Divorce. The parties shall provide each other any past tax returns or any other important documents from the marriage.

34. Full Disclosures. The parties represent that there has been a complete and full disclosure of any and all material facts, including, all assets and liabilities currently held by the parties. The parties are satisfied with the financial disclosures and have no need for additional information to make an informed decision related to the division of assets.

35. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

36. Severability. That if any of the terms herein are not enforceable, it shall be severed from the terms herein and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

In accordance with the Utah State District Court's Efiling Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Decree of Divorce does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge, but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Order.
