

Brent K. Wamsley, #6051
Braden D. Wamsley, #16181
Brock A Wamsley, #19734
1 Wamsley & Associates, L.C.
Attorney for Zam Zam Booher
4360 South Redwood Road, Suite 1
Salt Lake City, Utah 84123
Telephone: 801-969-5900
braden@wamsleylaw.com

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of: ZAM ZAM BOOHER and CODY BOOHER	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 254904536 Judge: James Gardner Commissioner: Russell Minas
---	--

The above-captioned matter having come before the above-referenced Court, the Court having reviewed the file and finding the necessary pleadings in the file, the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised states:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

TERMINATION OF MARRIAGE

1. The parties were married on April 22, 2017.
2. The parties are awarded a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and the marriage between the parties is hereby terminated.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENTING PLAN

3. The parties have two minor children:

- i. B.B (05/12/2019);
- ii. B.B (06/05/2020).

PHYSICAL AND LEGAL CUSTODY

4. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information and records concerning their children. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, and discretionary medical treatment shall be based on mutual agreement of the parties. However, in the event of disagreement regarding an important decision, the parties shall, first, consult any professionals that may have relevant feedback for a particular issue regarding the minor children. (Such as doctors, counselors, teachers, coaches, etc.) Second, if the parties still cannot agree neither party shall have final say. If the parties cannot agree after consulting professionals the parties agree to mediate the decision before bringing Court action.

5. Regarding educational decisions, neither parent shall be considered the residential parent for purposes of determining where the children attend school, instead the parties agree that the children will remain in their current school and schools that they feed into unless both parties agree in writing to change the children's school. If the parties cannot agree on educational decisions the parties must, first, consult any professionals that may have relevant feedback for a particular issue regarding the minor children. (Such as doctors, counselors, teachers, coaches, etc.) Second, if the parties still cannot agree neither party shall have final say. If the parties cannot agree after consulting professionals the parties agree to mediate the decision before bringing Court action.

6. The parties shall share equal (50/50) parent time as they agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties shall follow the following 4-4-3-3 schedule:

_Saturda y	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesda y	Thursda y	Friday
Week 1	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Cody	Cody	Cody
Week 2	Cody	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Cody	Cody	Cody
Week 3	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Cody	Cody	Cody
Week 4	Cody	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Zam Zam	Cody	Cody	Cody

- a. Exchanges on Wednesdays will occur with Zam Zam dropping them off at school or at 8:00 am when school is not in session.
- b. Exchanges on Saturday mornings will occur at 9:00 am.
- c. Exchanges on Sunday mornings will occur at 8:00 am.

7. Holiday parent time shall be as the parties can agree if the parties can't agree they shall follow Utah Code 81-9-303, with Respondent designated as the custodial parent.

PARENTING PLAN

8. Unless otherwise agreed upon, the receiving parent will provide transportation of the children.

9. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other, the parties will be bound by U.C.A. §81-9-209 with Respondent being designated as the custodial parent.
10. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text, email, or mail at any time needed and will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties will use phone contact for emergencies.
11. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parenttime if equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.
12. When the children travel with either parent overnight, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: itinerary for travel dates, list of destinations, places where the children or traveling parent can be reached, and the name and telephone number of an available third person that would be knowledgeable of the children's location. The parent taking the children on trips or vacation will be responsible for all costs associated with the travel. Consent must be obtained from the other party for any out of state or international travel
13. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs extracurricular activities, and any sporting events their children may be involved in.
14. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

15. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing, or otherwise. Both parties are to refrain from using drugs or drinking to intoxication during parent time. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party.

16. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or the terms or implementation of any agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third-party or mediator before the parties initiate legal action. However, either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the Court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation impractical.

17. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for 50% of any out-of pocket amounts incurred for any mutual agreed-upon extracurricular activities that the minor children might be involved in. The party incurring extracurricular out-of -pocket costs must submit to the other party verification of incurred expenses in the form of a receipt or an invoice, within 30 days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within 30 days of receiving verification of incurred expenses.

18. The parties shall abide by U.C.A. §81-6-208. Both parties are ordered to secure and maintain health insurance for the children. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of all individuals covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

19. The parties shall share equally all reasonably necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents. The party who incurs medical or dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expense to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other party will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party is responsible for the payment of one half of all reasonably necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

20. If, at any point in time, the children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be the secondary coverage for the dependent children. If either parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a stepparent's health, hospital, or dental insurance, the plan of the stepparent is to be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and retains the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

21. The parties shall adopt U.C.A. §81-6-209, and each parent shall share reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children. However, If either parent is unable to care for the child(ren) during their scheduled parenting time for more than three (3) hours, they must first offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the child(ren) before using a third-party caregiver. This includes babysitters, nannies, daycare, or any other non-parental care. The parent needing childcare must contact the other parent as soon as possible with the date, time, and reason care is needed. If they decline or do not respond, the other parent may arrange third-party care.

This does not apply to:

- Time the child(ren) are in K-12 school.
- Short absences under three (3) hours.
- Emergencies where the other parent cannot be reached.

22. If the parties cannot agree on an important or major decision regarding the children, then the parties will:

- a. First, consult any professionals that may have relevant feedback for a particular issue regarding the minor children. (Such as doctors, counselors, teachers, coaches, etc.)
- b. Second, if the parties still cannot agree neither party shall have final say.
- c. If the parties cannot agree after consulting professionals the parties agree to mediate the decision.

23. Beginning with the 2025 tax year, the parties shall follow the following schedule related to taxes:

- i. The parties agree that each shall claim one of the two minor children.
Petitioner will claim B.B. (05/12/2019) each tax year until she ages out and Respondent will claim B.B. (06/05/2020) each tax year until only one child remains a minor.

- ii. Once only B.B. (06/05/2020) remains a minor, the parties will alternate, claiming B.B. (06/05/2020) each year with Petitioner being entitled to odd numbered tax years and Respondent being entitled to even numbered tax years.

24. The parties shall refrain from any form of physical discipline that could be construed as abuse including hitting the children. The parties shall also not allow others to engage in physical discipline that could be construed as abuse.

CHILD SUPPORT

25. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-204 et seq.

26. Petitioner is employed and earns approximately $4,011 gross per month.

27. Respondent is not presently employed; however, he is not disabled or otherwise unable to work. Accordingly, the parties agree that he shall have earnings imputed to him as his income. The parties further agree that his education, training, and occupational skills give him the ability to earn approximately as much as Petitioner and that his income shall therefore be imputed at $3,950 gross per month.

28. Given the incomes of the parties and the 50/50 joint custody schedule, child support shall be calculated with Petitioner having 182 overnights and Respondent having 183 overnights.

29. The child support based on the guidelines is $7 from Respondent to Petitioner but given that the amount is under $10 neither party is required to pay child support to the other.

30. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

31. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each month, and the other half on the 20th of each month.

ALIMONY

32. Neither party shall be awarded alimony, now or in the future.

DIVISION OF PROPERTY AND DEBTS

33. The parties own no real property.

34. Each party is awarded their own separate personal property that they acquired before their marriage.

35. All personal property has already been divided and neither party shall have any claim to personal property in the possession of the other party.

36. Petitioner is awarded the 2015 Honda CR-V.

37. Respondent is awarded the 2005 Escalade Cadillac.

38. Each party is awarded any and all bank accounts in their own name free and clear of any claim by the other party

39. Each party is awarded and shall retain any retirement or pension benefits held in their own name free and clear of any claim by the other party.

40. The parties are each awarded their own stocks, bonds, or other investments or accounts free and clear of any claim by the other party

41. Each party are solely responsible for any debts incurred in their own name, except that all medical debt for the children shall be divided equally with each party paying one-half.

42. Each party is restrained from obtaining or incurring future debts in the name of the other party.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

43. The parties are duly ordered to execute and deliver all documents necessary to effectuate the Decree of Divorce.
44. Respondent if she so chooses is allowed to change her name back to her maiden name: Zam Zam Mohammed Nur.
45. The parties are restrained from harassing the other party, either directly or indirectly.
46. The parties shall each pay their own attorney's fees and costs incurred in prosecuting this action.

SEE COURT SIGNATURE STAMP AT THE TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE

Approval as to Form:

/s/ Benjamin Wall.

Benjamin Wall

Attorney for Cody Booher

Esigned by Braden Wamsley w/ permission of Benjamin Wall via email on 9/1/2026.

/s/ Benjamin Stoneman.

Benjamin Stoneman

Attorney for State of Utah/ORS

Esigned by Braden Wamsley w/ permission of Benjamin Stoneman via email on 9/1/2026.