

Yi Law. The court having reviewed the file in this matter, and having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now:

ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES

That the Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent, such to become final upon signature and entry herein.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHILDREN

1. Children. There were three (3) children born as issue of this marriage. Namely, LARB, born September 2017; ASRB, born August 2019, and BNRB, born October 2020.
2. Utah has jurisdiction to make children custody and visitation determinations in that:
 - a. Utah is the home state of the minor children at the time of the commencement of this proceeding.
 - b. Said Minor children has resided in Salt Lake County, State of Utah for at least six months.
3. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the Uniform Children Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code 78B-13-101 et Seq. and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code 78B-14-101 et Seq.,

- a. Upon information and belief, Petitioner states that no proceeding involving the custody of the children of the parties has been filed or are pending in the juvenile court or in any other jurisdiction or state.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CUSTODY

4. Physical Custody: The Mother shall be awarded the physical custody of the minor children. Father shall be awarded Parent-Time as the parties may agree. The parties have agreed that Father shall have parent time on Wednesdays after school until 8:30pm every week beginning on May 7, 2025, as well as from Friday after school to Sunday at 7pm every other weekend, beginning on May 16, 2025. If the parties are unable to agree, Parent-Time shall be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-304(8). All communication for exchange purposes shall be via text with the children's maternal grandmother, Patricia Tinoco (801-512-6573). Father has not seen the children since May 3, 2026 to date. Father will complete a parenting class and will not have visitation until the class is completed.
5. Legal Custody: The parties shall share legal custody of the minor children equally.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHILDREN SUPPORT

6. Children Support: The Mother is employed and claims to earn $4,1600.00 per month. The Father is employed and earns approximately $5,167.00 per month. Effective May 1, 2025, children support is awarded to the Mother from the Father in the amount of $1008.00 per month pursuant to the children support guidelines. Children support is due one-half by the 5th and on-half by the 20th of each month.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PARENT-TIME AND PARENTING PLAN

7. Parenting Plan. The parties shall use the terms herein and Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-203 as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby. The parties shall keep each other informed of the activities and appointments for the children. The parents shall notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party shall have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully. Both parties are entitled to direct access to all the children's records without limitation. Both parties shall be listed as parents and basic contact information and provided for all third parties who interact with the children (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, day care, etc.). Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions shall be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the children's life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education. If there is a disagreement, Carla shall have the final decision, Notwithstanding the Parenting Plan, the parties parenting plan shall be limited by the April 2, 2026 Continuous Protective Order in Case No. 241914440, DA No. 24.015883 ("Protective Order"). Any communications required by this paragraph 12 shall be governed by the Court's orders in the Protective Order, including the no contact, the stay away, and other orders provisions in the Protective Order. Specifically, “contact is allowed only indirectly through the protected person’s mother, P.T., and such contact must be strictly limited to communication about the children.” Protected Order at 4 ¶ 8.

- a. Dispute Resolution: If the parties disagree on a major decision regarding the children, the parties shall first consult with an appropriate professional or relevant individual about the issue—doctor, teacher, therapist, coach, etc. If the parties still disagree on the issue, then the parties shall promptly submit the matter to mediation. If mediation does not resolve the issue, mother shall have the final decision, but father shall file a motion with the court and the court shall decide the issue using the standard of the best interest of the child if father does not agree with mother’s decision.
- b. Contact Information: The parties shall keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change. Further, all communication between the parties shall be through Carla’s mother.
- c. Communication with Parent: There shall be no communication between the parties as long as there is a protective order in place.
- d. Communication with Children: Communication between a parent and the children (phone Facetime, texting, and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, uncensored, unmonitored, and unrecorded. If the children are not available when a parent calls, then the party with the parent time shall initiate or have the children initiate return contact as soon as possible the same day, but not later than 24 hours. The children may initiate contact with either parent at any reasonable times and durations, so long as such communication is not unduly disruptive to the other parent's parent time. While the children are with Father there will be no communication with Mother because there is a protective order in place and mother does not want any contact with Father. While the children are with Mother nightly contact with Father shall be through Carla's Mother. Every night at 8pm Carla's mother will make a 3-way call with Father and the children and connect them on the call or the Facetime as appropriate. call Father with the children. The communication shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, uncensored, unmonitored, and unrecorded.

e. Educational Plan: Both parents shall have access to the children during school and authority to check the children out of school on his or her custodial days. The parties shall share passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the children to and from school on time. In the future, if the parties disagree on the school placement or registration, they shall use the dispute resolution procedures outlined herein in paragraph 12(a).

f. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amounts for any extracurricular activities if both parties agreed in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents shall make reasonable efforts to have the children attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the children attend during his or her parent time.

g. Schools Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket school expenses for the minor children incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

h. Transportation: The parties shall share transportation equally as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the receiving parent who is beginning parent time shall pick up the children at school or at the residence of the other when school is not in session at the time of an exchange. However, a parent with overnight parent time shall be responsible to drop the children off at school the next morning, if school is in session. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the sending parent and the children are aware of the identity of the individual.

i. Curbside: There shall be no curbside exchanges at Carla's residence pursuant to the Protective Order. Exchanges will be done either at the children's school or at Carla's mother's residence.

j. Travel: When the minor children are traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

k. Out of Country Travel: When a party desires to travel outside the United States with the minor children, the traveling party shall give complete information as outlined in the previous paragraph, and the non-traveling party shall reasonably cooperate and sign the documentation required by the airlines, TSA, Homeland Security, etc. so that the minor children may travel out of the United States and back into the United States safely. The Mother shall maintain possession of the children's passport and cooperate and give the passport to the Father when he is traveling with the minor children, and he shall return the passport to the Mother within 7 days after returning from travel. Father will cooperate in obtaining a passport for the children including completing and notarizing Form DS-3053 within 14 days of entry of this Decree.

- a. Summer: Parent-Time during the summer shall continue as outlined above, except that extended summer parent time with both parties shall be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-304. Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended parent-time by May 1st each year. If the parties have a scheduling conflict for their extended summer parent time, the Mother shall have priority in even-numbered years and the Father in odd-numbered years. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, a parent's extended summer parent time may not be taken on the other parent's holidays under the code.
- b. Special Occasions: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with parent-time schedule.
- c. Relocation: The relocating parent shall provide written notice to the other parent at least 60 days before the day on which the relocating parent intends to relocate. The relocation notice must include the parent-time provisions in Utah Code subsection 81-9-209(9). Or a parent-time schedule approved by both parties. That a parent will not interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements for the parent time schedule approved by both parties. The court shall upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to review the notice of relocation and the relevant parent-time schedule under Utah Code

Section 81-9-302 or 81-9-304 and make appropriate orders regarding the parent time schedule and costs for parent-time transportation.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

9. Mutual Restraining Orders re Children: Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent, including but not limited to demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent, or from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or parent time. As used in this paragraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.
- a. Do Not Pump Children for Information. Neither party shall interrogate or "pump" the children for information about parent time or the potential significant relationships of the other party. The parties shall not put the children in the middle.
- b. Do Not Discuss Adult Issues with Children. The parties shall not discuss adult issues with the children, including any legal or financial related issues with the children. Neither parent shall question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships, or how the other parent spends his/her time or money and ensure that each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children.
- c. Do Not Use Children to Send Messages to Other Party. The parties shall not use the children to send messages to the other for parent time issues but shall discuss such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the children.

Both parties shall be restrained from making parent time arrangement or adjustments through the children.

d. No Corporal Punishment. Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the children.

e. No Harassment and No Domestic Violence. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children.

f. No Alcohol in Excess, Illegal Drugs, or Abuse of Prescription Drugs. Neither party shall use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 24 hours prior to or during parent time with the children. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

10. First Refusal. Parental care is presumed to be better than surrogate care. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the minor children over surrogate care. If the parent responsible for the minor children is not available for a period of four (4) hours or longer during parent-time, and the anticipated care will take place outside of a party's home, and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent-time under the right of first refusal shall (1) provide all transportation to and from parent time, and (2) provide direct parental care.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHILDRENCARE

11. Childcare: Pursuant to Utah Code 78B-12-14, work-related childcare expenses shall be paid equally by each party. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements with family members are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge. A party using family members to provide childcare shall not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO HEALTHCARE

12. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: One or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children if such coverage is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall do so. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the children's portion of insurance. See Utah Code 78B-12-212. If, in the future, any children are covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of the Mother shall be primary, and the coverage of the Father shall be secondary.

13. Medical and Dental Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor children, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 78B-12-212.

14. Past Medical Expenses: The parties shall provide proof of paid medical expenses for the last 12 months from the date of this agreement within 30 days of the date of this agreement. Each parent shall be responsible to reimburse 50% to the parent who paid of any verified payments for medical expenses for the minor children for the past year, but not before that. For any expenses not verified by appropriate documentation to the other parent in the next 30 days, the right for reimbursement is waived.

15. Division of Accounts: Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.7 and prior to service being initiated, each party shall elect that providers for dental, medical, and school expenses shall create separate accounts for each party to pay their half of the costs separately.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO TAXES

16. Taxes: Petitioner shall claim the minor children on her tax returns odd numbered years and Respondent shall claim the minor children on his tax returns even numbered years.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO ALIMONY

17. Alimony. Both Petitioner and Respondent are able bodied adults who can support themselves and are not in need of support from each other.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PERSONALTY

18. Personal Items: Prior to and during the course of their marriage, the parties have acquired certain items of personal effects, jewelry, clothing and belongings which have previously been divided between the parties and which division shall be confirmed in each.

19. Furnishings: Prior and during the course of their marriage, the parties have acquired various items of furniture, fixtures, appliances and household goods which have previously been divided between the parties and which division shall be confirmed in each.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLES

20. Motor Vehicle. During the course of the marriage, the parties have not acquired an interest in Motor Vehicles.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY

21. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in real property. There is a lot in Duchesne which shall be awarded to father with any equity it may have and subject to any debt thereon.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BANK ACCOUNTS, INVESTMENTS, RETIREMENT OR PENSIONS, PROFIT SHARING PLANS, ETC.

22. Bank Accounts, Investments, Retirement/Pensions, Etc.

23. Petitioner shall be entitled to Petitioner's own bank accounts, investments, retirement or pensions, profit sharing plans, etc, established after the date of separation.

24. Respondent shall be entitled to Respondent's own bank accounts, investments, retirement or pensions, profit sharing plans, etc, established after the date of separation.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BUSINESS INTERESTS

25. Business Interests. During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in a business entity. The business has been closed and it has no assets except for a 2012 Freightliner Truck which shall be awarded to father.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

26. Debts. During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired debts and obligations that shall be divided as follows:

Carla Delfina Belmonte Tinoco	Abraham Esau Ramirez Zaragoza
$20,000.00 to her father	$20,000.00 to Carla's father
$500.00 to Vivint	$20,000.00 to America First credit card
	$500.00 to Vivint
	$4000.00 Business debt to America First
	$97,335.00 for the 2016 Kenworth T680 Trailer
	$26,000.00 to Abraham's mother

27. Hold Respondent Harmless. Petitioner shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold Respondent harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by Petitioner before the date of marriage, and after the date of separation.

28. Hold Petitioner Harmless. Respondent shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold Petitioner harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by Respondent before the date of marriage, and after the date of separation, and for all his debts listed in paragraph 31. Respondent shall also repay the portion of his debt to Carla's father within 18 months. Petitioner shall be entitled to her attorney fees if she must file a motion to enforce to keep these debts current or for repayment of these debts.

In addition, Respondent entered into a repayment plan for the American First Credit Union credit card loan ending in 6329, civil case number 258803581, on August 18, 2026. Respondent must maintain this payment arrangement. If for any reason, he does not maintain such agreement and Petitioner's paycheck is garnished, Respondent must repay the amounts garnished from her paycheck within 30 days of the garnishment. Petitioner shall be entitled to her attorney fees if she must file a motion to enforce for Respondent to maintain this payment arrangement.

29. Both parties are prohibited from, and shall agree not to incur any debts, obligations, or liabilities on the other party's credit. Additionally, both parties shall refrain from doing anything to make the other party liable on a debt or to damage the other party's credit.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO NAME CHANGE

30. Name Change. Respondent did not change her name after the marriage and shall continue to be known by her maiden name after the divorce.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO ATTORNEY FEES

31. Attorney's Fees. Each party shall be responsible for each of their attorney's fees.

32. If any term, paragraph, or provision of this Stipulation is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of this Stipulation shall continue in full force and effect.

33. Each Party understands how this action affects their legal interest. Each Party enters into this Stipulation after being fully advised by legal counsel or after each Party acknowledges they have had an opportunity to consult with legal counsel prior to the execution of this Stipulation if desired.

34. This Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between Parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of this Stipulation shall have any force or effect. Respondent and Petitioner are aware they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all their evidence and witnesses but waive this right. Respondent and Petitioner are satisfied this Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions Respondent and Petitioner must ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either Party wishes to raise have been incorporated in this Stipulation.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO INHERITANCE

35. Inheritance. Any and all property and monies received or retained by either party pursuant to the divorce shall be deemed the separate property of such party free and clear of any right, interest or claim of the other party, including the right to inherit or to be named as a beneficiary except as specifically awarded therein, and each party shall have the right hereafter to use and enjoy, independently of any claim or right of the other party, all items of real or personal property awarded to them.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO DOCUMENTS

36. Documents. The parties shall be entitled to full and complete access to all records, statements, financial documents, etc., concerning any of the issues addressed or referenced in the Decree of Divorce to ensure that they are not deceived or taken advantage of, whether it involves the home, any business interest, retirement accounts, vehicles, credit cards, debts, personal assets, stock holdings, bonds, bank accounts, other assets, bill, debts, or tax records.

37. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other party without cost any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.
