Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH, SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT
STEPHEN ANDREW SPENCER, Petitioner, v. CARLYE ROWENA SPENCER, Respondent	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case no. 244903314 Judge Linda Jones Commissioner Joanna Sagers

THE COURT, having received evidence on behalf of the Petitioner in support of the Petition and being fully advised in the premises, and having rendered its decision herein through written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and it appearing therefrom that judgment should be entered in accordance therewith, now hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

1. Each party is awarded a divorce from the other on grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to section 30-3-1 Utah Code Annotated.

2. The default of the Respondent on file herein and at all times referred to, is hereby adopted and approved by the Court.

Parties & Jurisdiction

3. The Court is a proper forum to hear this matter and has jurisdiction over the parties, their property, and the subject matter.

4. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

5. Petitioner and the Respondent were married, having been legally joined in wedlock on July 14, 2014, in Lindon City, Utah County, state of Utah.

6. There are two children born as issue of this marriage. To wit: SBS, a boy, born July 19, 2015; and ABUS, a girl, born December 23, 2016.

Custody/Parent-Time

7. Petitioner is awarded the sole physical custody of the minor children.

8. Petitioner is awarded sole legal custody of the minor children.

9. Respondent's parent-time is restricted until such time as Respondent may demonstrate that she is free from impairment of intoxicating substances and that she has adequately addressed her history of violence.

10. Respondent's issues involving use of controlled substances and acts of violence continue to the present time and bear on Respondent's fitness to provide care for the minor children without supervision at least until such time as Respondent may remedy such parenting deficiencies to normalize her parent-time at a later date. The Court will make such appropriate orders that will ensure that Respondent will have identifiable tasks, upon the completion of which she may petition this Court to remove any restrictions for the exercise of her parent-time.

11. Respondent's parent-time shall be supervised as the parties may agree or otherwise as determined by the Court.

Child Support

12. Petitioner is self-employed as a ride-share driver and currently earns a gross monthly income of $2,000 per month.

13. Respondent is not presently employed but has a history of earning wages or salary and is capable of earning $2,000 per month for purposes of calculating child support.

14. Based upon the foregoing and a sole-physical custody worksheet, Respondent is ordered to pay child support to the Petitioner at the rate of $430.00 monthly as base child support. Child support shall be due and payable on the first day of each month.

15. The children are currently covered by Medicaid. It is proper that the state of Utah be given notice of this action on the grounds that the children are covered by Medicaid. If circumstances change such that either parent can obtain health insurance coverage for the minor children through their employer, then the whichever party who can do so is ordered to obtain such insurance pursuant to the Utah Child Support Act, §78B-12-212.

16. Pursuant to the Utah Child Support Act, 78B-12-212, the parties are ordered to share all necessary medical expenses for the minor children, including any out-of-pocket expense for the children's portion of any medical insurance premium.

17. If work-related childcare is needed, then the statutory provisions of 78B-12-214 shall apply such that the parties shall share equally any necessary and reasonable childcare expense. No childcare expense shall be incurred if a suitable provider is available without cost.

18. The party incurring work-related childcare cost shall provide the other with proof of the expense and proof of payment within 30 days of incurring such expense. Pursuant to statute, the party failing to provide proof of the expense and proof of payment within a reasonable time, presumptively 30 days, may be denied contribution for that expense based upon the untimeliness of providing notice of that expense.

19. Either party may allow their parent or parents to exercise parent-time awarded to that party by giving advance notice to the other party by any method. Neither party shall deny or withhold parent-time on the grounds that a party's parent, including a stepparent, will be caring for the children during that party's regularly scheduled parent-time.

20. Respondent is restrained from consuming alcohol to the point of intoxication or consuming any other intoxicating substance while providing care for the children or from being intoxicated in any manner while the children are in her care.

Alimony

21. Both parties are capable of supporting themselves and neither is in need of alimony.

Neither party is awarded alimony.

Personal Property

22. The parties are each awarded any personal property owned by them prior to the marriage as their separate property, free and clear from any claim from the other.

23. The parties are each awarded any items of personal property acquired during the marriage as they have heretofore divided it to their mutual satisfaction unless otherwise agreed.

24. The parties are ordered to reasonably cooperate in copying or duplicating family photographs and other items of family memorabilia.

Motor Vehicles

25. Both parties are awarded any right, title, or interest to any motor vehicles currently in their possession or otherwise registered or titled to them.

26. Petitioner is specifically awarded any marital interest in the 2018 Honda Insight.

27. Respondent is specifically awarded any marital interest in the 2008 Dodge Nitro or the 2015 Ford Explorer.

Real Estate

28. The parties do not own an interest in real estate.

Bank Accounts

29. The parties are awarded any checking or savings accounts in their own names.

30. The parties have no joint savings or checking accounts that have not been divided to their mutual satisfaction.

Retirement Accounts

31. The parties have no interest in any pension or retirement account.

Debts

32. The parties are ordered to assume and pay any debts or obligations in their separate names.

33. The parties have no presently existing debts that were acquired during the period of the marriage for the purpose of the marital community. However, if it is later determined that there is a marital debt or obligation for which both parties are obligated, then the parties are ordered to pay equally any such outstanding debts in their joint names.

34. Any other debts will be presumed to be the separate debt of the party incurring it.

Restraining Order

35. The parties are mutually restrained from bothering, harassing, or annoying, the other party at their place of residence, employment, or any other place.

36. The parties are mutually restrained from possessing or consuming any contraband controlled substance or from being under the influence of alcohol or other controlled substance when the children are in their care.

Tax Filing

37. The parties shall file separate tax returns for any remaining year of the marriage in which a joint tax return is not yet filed, unless otherwise agreed.

38. The parties have no outstanding tax liabilities.

39. Henceforth, Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the older child as his dependent for income tax purposes. Respondent shall be entitled to claim the younger child as her dependent for income tax purposes so long as she is current in support obligations on the last day of the year as per statute.

Attorney's Fees

40. Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting or defending this action.

Other

41. Respondent shall be restored to the use of her former name of Carlye Rowena Lee if she so desires.

42. Respondent is ordered to complete the online course for divorcing parents.

43. The parties are ordered to execute and deliver any documents necessary or take such other reasonable and necessary action to implement and carry out the terms of the decree of divorce entered by the Court.

THE ENTRY OF THIS ORDER IS INDICATED ABOVE.
