5. Extended Parent-Time. Each party shall receive up to two (2) uninterrupted weeks of extended parent-time in the summer. The uninterrupted parent-time shall not be structured so that a party exercises parent-time for three (3) consecutive weeks. This limitation will cause the ordinary parent-time schedule to deviate from its ordinary rotation. Both parents shall provide notification of extended summer-time, with the child by May 1st each year for first option parent and May 15th for second option parent. Charlotte shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Robert shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may have priority.

6. Legal Custody. The parties are hereby awarded joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical. Emergency and sick care shall be attended immediately by the parent who is exercising the parent-time. The parent shall notify the other parent within thirty (30) minutes for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within twenty-four (24) hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment, and the parent who has the parent-time shall attend the appointment. If it is emergency care, both parents should be able to attend the care.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party shall elect for dental, medical, and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan. Charlotte's residence shall be designated as the home residence for school purposes under U.C.A. Sec. 81-9-203(11)(d)(i). The parties shall have an annual review of the education plan to see if there is a better option that would be in the best interests of the child. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

7. Relocation. If either party moves more than fifteen (15) miles from the other parent, the parties shall be bound by the sixty (60)-day notice requirements of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-209.

8. Communication. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and shall not use their children to deliver messages. The parties shall use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

9. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

10. Travel.

a. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to departure or twenty-one (21) days for international travel:

- i. An itinerary of travel dates;
- ii. Destination;
- iii. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;
- iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent-time or other mutually agreed-upon times. All out-of-country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within twenty-four (24) hours of any change.

12. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

13. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

14. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent.

Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent.

Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.

f. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

15. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

16. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation herein, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed-upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. However, either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the Court in the future shall an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

17. Activity Costs. Each party is hereby ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the shared calendar within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

18. School Fees. Each party is hereby ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

19. Transportation for the Children. The parties shall utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school-to-school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed-upon. However, for the remainder of the 2024-2025 school year, because Robert starts work at 7 a.m. and Charlotte only lives two blocks from the elementary school, Robert may drop off the child at Charlotte's house prior to going to work so she can drop the child off at school on Robert's parent-time mornings.

20. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

21. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Robert's gross monthly income is $10,655 per month. Charlotte's gross monthly income is imputed at $3,000 per month. Pursuant to a Joint Physical Custody Worksheet, the parties' incomes, and Charlotte having 183 overnights and Robert having 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation, Robert's child support obligation shall be $366 per month, commencing September 1, 2025. As of the signing of the Stipulation (June 2026), Robert is current, and so there are no arrearages.

22. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Robert is currently providing said insurance.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be paid by whichever parent does not have the children on his or her health insurance policy, which is currently Robert.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within thirty (30) days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Robert shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Charlotte shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within seven (7) days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

23. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time. The parent with the overnight shall be responsible for the childcare that day unless otherwise mutually agreed-upon writing.

24. Dependency Exemption. The parties shall share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. Robert is entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Charlotte shall claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

d. Robert is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

25. Taxes. The parties shall file joint tax returns for 2025. The parties shall equally share in any cost of preparation of taxes. The parties shall equally share any tax refund or tax liability.

26. Real Property.

a. The parties acquired an interest in real property located at 6398 Furnace Creek Ct., West Valley City, UT 84118 (“Marital Home”). Charlotte is hereby awarded exclusive use, control, and possession of the Marital Home subject to the following conditions:

b. Charlotte shall be solely responsible for all costs associated with the Marital Home, including, but not limited to, the mortgage, taxes, insurance, utilities, repairs, Air Conditioning debt, Shower debt, and Charlotte’s portion (at least $600) of the monthly HELOC payment until Charlotte sells the home or refinances.

c. On or before December 31, 2034, Charlotte shall refinance the Marital Home out of Robert’s name and the remaining HELOC debt at the time of the refinance, and in exchange for Robert not taking any equity out of the Marital Home (estimated to be approximately $200,000 at the signing of this document), all equity in the Marital Home shall be awarded to Charlotte and she is responsible for paying off the remaining HELOC debt, which means she may refinance the HELOC debt out of Robert's name, if allowed, or she may pay off the HELOC debt at the time of refinance, if allowed.

d. In the event that Charlotte is unable to refinance the Marital Home by December 31, 2034; or if at any time prior to December 31, 2034, Charlotte stops using the Marital Home as her primary residence, or is more than thirty (30) days delinquent on any mortgage payment, or Charlotte is more than sixty (60) days delinquent on her portion of the HELOC, the Shower Debt, or the Remodel Debt, then the parties shall list the home for sale as indicated below.

e. The parties may freely agree to their own real estate agent as may be agreed between them, but if the parties are unable to agree, then a Certified Divorce Real Estate Expert shall be appointed to sell the home. For the purposes of this document, the agreed-upon real estate agent or Certified Divorce Real Estate Expert shall be referred to as the "Realtor."

f. The parties shall follow the recommendations of their Realtor regarding listing price, reductions in price, counter-offers and reasonable offers to accept. The parties shall also follow the recommendations of their Realtor regarding repairs, home preparations, staging, cleaning, showings and maintenance necessary to sell the home for the best price. As Charlotte will be receiving the benefit of the increased equity while she maintains possession of the Marital Home and Rob rents, as well as all remaining equity in the Marital Home, Charlotte shall be solely responsible for all of these costs. In the event that Robert pays any of these costs, he shall be reimbursed for them through the sale of the home.

g. The parties shall response to buyer offers, counter-offers, repair requests, and any other contractual obligations prior to their expiration or deadline, which may be less than 24 hours.

h. The Realtor's work, as required by the Court, cannot be performed without the cooperation of the parties. The parties must fully cooperate with and be responsive to the Realtor's processes, procedures, and requests in furtherance of selling the Marital Home. The parties must provide all documents requested by the Realtor or their staff upon request.

i. After dutiful attempts to reach mutual agreement, should there by an impasse, the Realtor shall communicate to each party with a detailed accounting of the issue, the steps taken to resolve it, the Realtor's recommendations, and a timeline for response.

j. If at any point the parties do not comply with this Order, the Realtor may cease work until further orders from the Court or necessary compliance is achieved. This may include placing the property on Hold status or withdrawal from Active status in the Multiple Listing Service, should the actions by one or both of the parties deem it detrimental to keep it active for showings.

k. To the extent that any party's request of the Realtor is contrary to the Court Orders, the parties acknowledge and understand that they shall not petition the Court for alternate orders, because the Realtor will not act against Court Orders. It is understood that the Realtor will serve in a neutral capacity to discharge obligations owed to the Court and the parties. The Realtor cannot and will not give any type of legal advice.

l. Upon the sale of the Marital Home at a reasonable market value price, proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- i. First, the cost of sale shall be paid;
- ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;
- iii. Third, the entire remaining HELOC debt shall be paid;
- iv. Fourth, the entire remaining Air Conditioning debt and Shower Remodel debt shall be paid.

m. The parties shall not allow the mortgage to remain unpaid for more than thirty (30) days, and in the event that a mortgage payment is more than thirty (30) days late, then the parties shall immediately list the home for sale, and each party shall cooperate in good faith to make his or her best efforts to sell the home. Because it is Charlotte's responsibility to pay costs associated with the Marital Home, Robert may have the choice to pay the mortgage to protect his credit, and then recover any mortgage payment(s) he has made through the net sale proceeds of the sale of the Marital Home.

n. The parties shall not allow the Air Conditioning debt or the Shower Remodel debt to remain unpaid for more than sixty (60) days, and in the event that an Air Conditioning debt payment or a Shower Remodel debt payment is more than sixty (60) days late, then the parties shall immediately list the home for sale, and each party shall cooperate in good faith to make his or her best efforts to sell the home. Because it is Charlotte's responsibility to pay the Air Conditioning debt payments and the Shower Remodel debt payments, Robert may have the choice to make a debt payment for such to protect his credit, and then recover any such debt payments he has made through the net sale proceeds of the sale of the Marital Home.

o. The parties shall not allow the HELOC debt to remain unpaid for more than sixty (60) days, and in the event that the full HELOC debt is more than sixty (60) days late, then the following shall occur:

- i. If Charlotte fails to pay her full $600 monthly payment toward the HELOC for more than sixty (60) days, then parties shall immediately list the home for sale, and each party shall cooperate in good faith to make his or her best efforts to sell the home. Because it is Charlotte's responsibility to pay the $600 toward the HELOC, Robert may have the choice to make a debt payment for such to protect his credit, and then recover any such debt payments he has made through the net sale proceeds of the sale of the Marital Home.
- ii. If Robert fails to pay his full $300 monthly payment toward the HELOC for more than sixty (60) days, Charlotte may obtain a judgment against Robert for each $300 payment that he doesn't pay at least sixty (60) days after it is due. Because it is Robert's responsibility to pay the $300 toward the HELOC, Charlotte may have the choice to make a debt payment for such to protect her credit, and then recover any such debt payments she has made through a judgment against Robert.

27. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property has already been divided and the parties are hereby awarded any personal property currently in his or her possession free and clear of any claim from the other.

28. Vehicles. Robert is hereby awarded the 2023 Hyundai Santa Fe free and clear of any claim from Charlotte, and Robert shall be solely responsible for the insurance, registration, and any other costs and fees associated with this vehicle. Charlotte is hereby awarded the 2020 Honda Odyssey free and clear of any claim from Robert, and Charlotte shall be solely responsible for the insurance, registration, and any other costs and fees associated with this vehicle. Robert shall also be responsible for paying the monthly loan payment on the 2023 Hyundai Santa Fe. The parties shall be ordered to remove the other party from the title associated with the motor vehicle awarded to him or her within sixty (60) days of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

29. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage, which are hereby divided as follows:

a. Charlotte shall be responsible for the monthly loan payments associated with the Shower Remodel debt and the Air Conditioning debt (which includes the HVAC upgrade), holding Robert harmless.

b. Charlotte is responsible to pay at least $600 each month toward the HELOC debt and Robert is responsible to pay at least $300 each month toward the HELOC debt.

i. As of January 15, 2026, the parties shall not incur any additional debt on the HELOC unless both parties mutually agree in writing otherwise, with an additional agreement of how the parties are to pay off any additional HELOC debt.

c. Robert shall be solely responsible for any debts in his name, including student loans and credit cards in his name, holding Charlotte harmless.

d. Charlotte shall be solely responsible for any debts in her name, including student loans and credit cards in her name, holding Robert harmless.

e. At the time of the Marital Home sale, the HELOC, the Air Conditioner debt, and the Shower Remodel debt shall be paid off completely with the home sale or refinance proceeds.

f. Accumulation of Debt. Except as may be indicated otherwise in this document, neither party shall incur any additional liability on any of the above debts, any joint credit cards, or any other debt which shall be paid off jointly through the sale of the Real Property.

g. Other Debts. The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed herein, and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

h. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party. If Robert makes a payment toward a debt that Charlotte is required to pay according to this document, then whatever Robert pays dollar for dollar shall be added to his equity payout upon refinance or sale of the Marital Property. If Charlotte makes a payment toward a debt that Robert is required to pay according to this document, then whatever Charlotte pays dollar for dollar can be part of a Judgment that Charlotte may obtain against Robert.

30. Phone Plan. The parties shall equally share in the costs of the cell phone for the minor child.

31. Checking and Saving Accounts. Each party is hereby awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts free and clear of any claim from the other. Any joint accounts shall be closed within fourteen (14) days of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

32. Retirement Accounts. Each party is hereby awarded monies in their own separate retirement accounts free and clear of any claim from the other.

33. Name. Charlotte shall have the option of restoring her name to Charlotte Chacheluer.

34. Alimony. Robert shall pay alimony to Charlotte in the amount of $1,615 per month for a period of five (5) years beginning June 1, 2026. Alimony shall terminate automatically upon the first of the following occurrences: Charlotte's remarriage or cohabitation, Charlotte's death, or Robert's death. In the event that Charlotte remarries or cohabitates, she shall be under an affirmative obligation to notify Robert in writing as soon as possible. As of the signing of the Stipulation (June 2026), Robert is current, and so there are no arrearages.

35. The parties acknowledge that the purpose of this alimony award is to provide support during the five (5)-year period set forth above. Upon the expiration of the five (5)-year alimony term, the parties may confer in good faith regarding whether any additional financial support may be appropriate in light of the needs of the parties' child. This provision does not create an obligation for Robert to continue alimony beyond May 31, 2031, and that any future support shall be subject to the parties' mutual agreement or further order of the Court.

36. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

37. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party shall assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action, except as may be indicated below.

38. Default or Breach. In the event that party defaults on his or her obligations in this document or breaches any provision of this document, then the defaulting party shall pay the reasonable attorney fees and court costs of the aggrieved party related to his or her motion to enforce.

39. Life Insurance. Pursuant to U.C.A. Sec. 81-4-406(3), if a party owns a life insurance policy or an annuity contract, there is an acknowledgement by the Court that the party:
- a. Has reviewed and updated, where appropriate, the list of beneficiaries;
 - b. Has affirmed that those listed as beneficiaries are in fact the intended beneficiaries after the divorce becomes final; and
 - c. Understands that, if no changes are made to the policy or contract, the beneficiaries currently listed will receive any funds paid by the insurance company under the terms of the policy or contract.
