Attorneys for Respondent

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

CHANTELE FELT,

Petitioner,
and

JOSEPH FELT,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 254905400
Judge Kristine Johnson
Commissioner Russell Minas

The Court, having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES and DECREES that the bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between the parties are dissolved and the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the ground of irreconcilable differences, to become final upon entry by the Court. The Court further ORDERS as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Each party was a bona fide and actual resident of Utah County, State of Utah, for more than three months prior to the commencement of this action.

MARRIAGE

2. The parties were married on April 12, 2013, in Lindon, Utah and are now and have been since that time, husband and wife. The parties separated on or about August 2024. A Petition for Divorce was filed on September 26, 2025.

GROUND

3. Disagreements have ensued between the parties concerning their marriage and their future together; meaningful communication between the parties has ceased; notwithstanding attempts by the parties to reconcile and resolve their differences, the same have been to no avail and have become irreconcilable making continuation of the marriage under the circumstances impossible. Accordingly, the parties are hereby granted a divorce based on irreconcilable differences, pursuant to Utah Code §81-4-405(1)(h).

CHILDREN

4. There are currently two (2) minor children, A.C.F., born June 11, 2014 (currently age 12) and M.J.F., born March 27, 2018 (currently age 8). No other children are expected in the future).

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT TIME

5. Petitioner is hereby awarded sole physical custody of the minor children.
6. The parties are hereby awarded joint legal custody of the minor children.
7. The parties shall exercise parent-time as the parties can agree. If the parties are unable to agree, Petitioner shall be awarded primary physical custody of the minor children, with the Respondent exercising parent-time consistent with Utah Code Ann. 81-9-209 as follows:

(a) in years ending in an odd number, the minor child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

(i) fall break if the minor child's school dismisses for a fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for fall break and ending on the day before school resumes; or

(ii) First Half of Winter Break on the day school lets out until December 27

(b) in years ending in an even number, the minor child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

(i) spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for the spring break and ending on the day before school resumes; or

(ii) Thanksgiving, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Thanksgiving and ending on the day before school resumes;
Second Half of Winter Break, beginning December 27 at 7 p.m. with return the day before school resumes at 7 p.m.

(c) extended parent-time equal to 1/2 of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks with:

(i) the noncustodial parent entitled to the first 1/2 of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an even number; and

(ii) the noncustodial parent entitled to the second 1/2 of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an odd number; and

(d) one weekend per month, at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. Respondent elects third weekend of the month. If a military assignment conflicts on the third weekend of the month provided he gives a 60-day notice and there is not a significant scheduling conflict for Petitioner, he shall be awarded the weekend before his military assignment.

8. In the event Respondent is deployed, Petitioner shall allow parent-time for third parties consistent with Utah Code 81-10-101 et seq., 81-9-201, and 81-9-20.

9. For 2026, Respondent shall be able to elect parent-time between July 22, 2026 and August 15, 2026 with a 48-hour notice.

LEGAL CUSTODY

10. The parties are hereby awarded joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. If after engaging in a meaningful discussion with each other about a major decision the parties do not mutually agree, the parties shall seek the advice of an expert in the field (e.g., Doctor for medical decision). If they cannot come to an agreement after obtaining input from an expert relevant for that particular decision, the parties shall participate in mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator with the parties equally dividing the cost of mediation. In the event the parties are still unable to agree regarding the children after following the dispute resolution process herein, Petitioner shall have final decision making authority but Respondent shall have the option to file a motion with the Court to have the issue addressed accordingly. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the child(ren) are in his or her care. Each party shall have the right to treat the child(ren) for emergency medical needs, and shall provide the other party notice of the emergency as soon as reasonably possible.

11. Each party shall have access to all educational and medical records of the children. Each party shall be listed as a parent for the purposes of school/daycare contact or medical care provider contact. Both parents shall provide notice to the other parent of issues relating to any serious illness or accident or other circumstance that significantly affects the children's health and welfare, as soon as reasonably possible. Both parties shall have open access to contact the necessary persons or entities so that the party shall be notified of significant activities of the child(ren), whether related to education, sports, arts, extra-curricular activities, church or other activities and events in which the child participates so that both parents may attend or participate.

PARENTING PLAN

12. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-203, et. seq, the following provisions are in the best interest of the parties' minor children, and the parents shall follow them as part of the Parenting Plan as follows:

- a. The visitation and parent-time schedules as set forth herein shall be adhered to in order to maximize the continuity and stability of the life of the parties' minor children.
- b. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the parties' minor children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the parties' minor child(ren) or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

- c. The children's clothing and items they bring with them for parent time shall be returned with them at the conclusion of each parent-time visit.
- d. The delivering parent shall have the minor children ready at the time they are to be picked up.
- e. If due to emergency circumstances, a parent shall be late or is unable to be present to pick-up or deliver the child(ren), then that parent shall notify the other as soon as possible to advise them.
- f. Neither parent-time nor child support shall be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-order.
- g. Both parties shall be responsible to create a safe and clean living environment for the minor children.
- h. Each party shall be listed on email lists to ascertain their own information regarding the minor children's extra-curricular and school functions.
- i. Each parent shall provide the other with a current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.
- j. Each parent shall be awarded liberal unmonitored telephone and virtual parent-time, with the minor children during reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration taking into account the minor children's respective schedules. The children shall be allowed to call either parent at any reasonable time. Neither parent shall ask the minor child(ren) to contact the other parent to make a request, ask permission for an upcoming event, extend parent time, or seek information. Neither parent shall have the minor child(ren) relay messages to the other parent on their behalf.

- k. Each parent shall support the other parent in their respective parenting role.
- l. Travel with the Minor Child. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann § 81-9-202(19), for emergency purposes, whenever the minor child(ren) travel out-of-state with either party, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent: (i) an itinerary of travel dates; (ii) destinations; (iii) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (iv) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. Each party shall notify the other party in advance of all upcoming out-of-state planned travel.
- m. Mutual Restraining Orders. The parties shall comply with the following mutual restraining orders:
 - i. A restraining order is hereby entered enjoining each party from making disparaging comments about the other party, or permitting a third party from making disparaging comments about the other party, in the presence of the minor children.
 - ii. A restraining order is hereby entered enjoining each party from discussing the issues of this divorce action or the terms of this Agreement with the minor children.
 - iii. In the event the parties have to communicate about the children, the parties shall at all times and in all communications remain civil with each other and not harass, threaten, demean or belittle each other. The parties shall refrain from making derogatory or disparaging comments about or to the other parent when within the hearing of the children.

- iv. The parties shall ensure the child(ren) are insulated from adult-related matters and adult-related decisions and shall not include the children in the decision-making process.
- v. The parties shall never act or speak in a way that might diminish the love and affection of the child(ren) toward the other parent, regardless of the truthfulness of the allegation. The parties shall not allow third parties to do that which they themselves are prohibited from doing.

13. Parent-time transportation: Petitioner shall be responsible for one-half of the summer transportation and Respondent shall pay the other costs.

14. Both parties shall continuously provide the other with their current address and telephone number.

15. If either party travels outside the state of Utah with the minor children, advance notification shall be provided as required by Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302(19).

CHILD SUPPORT

16. Child support shall be calculated consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-206.

17. For purposes of calculating child support, Petitioner's gross monthly income shall be imputed at $3,128.

18. For purposes of calculating child support, Respondent's gross monthly income shall be set at $12,431.

19. Commencing August 1, 2026, and based on a Sole Physical Custody Worksheet, Respondent shall be ordered to pay child support to Petitioner in the amount of $1,756 per month and continuing each month thereafter until the minor attains the age of eighteen (18) years and graduates from high school with his/her regular class, if later, or otherwise the children become emancipated, at which time child support shall cease.

INSURANCE, MEDICAL EXPENSES AND CHILD CARE

20. Whichever party acquires a health insurance policy that is more cost-effective for the parties, then that party shall be responsible for maintaining the health insurance coverage on behalf of the minor children, so long as it is available to them at reasonable cost. Currently, the children are covered under Respondent's Tricare insurance. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket cost of the premium actually paid for the child's portion of insurance, which portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of people covered under the policy.

21. All medical, health, orthodontic, dental, and optical expenses not covered by insurance and incurred for the parties' minor children shall be equally divided between the parties.

22. On a regular basis, but in no event less than every thirty (30) days, the parties shall provide the other with verification in the form of canceled checks, statements, receipts, or invoices for all unreimbursed medical care expenses. Upon receipt of said verification, each party shall reimburse the other within thirty (30) days for all properly documented unreimbursed medical care expenses.

23. The parties shall adopt Utah Code §81-9-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children.

24. Life Insurance. In the event of Respondent's death, Respondent's Service Member Life Insurance Plan shall be paid out to the minor children as beneficiaries.

ALIMONY

25. The Respondent shall pay Petitioner $1,494 per month for a term of 6.5 years (on January 31, 2033) unless sooner terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. Equal payments shall be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony shall commence on August 1, 2026.

PROPERTY AND DEBT DISTRIBUTION

26. The Kirby vacuum shall be given to the Petitioner upon her arranging for pick up, and she shall pay $150 to Respondent upon pickup. Thereafter, each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control.

27. Petitioner is, hereby, awarded the vehicle she currently has in her possession, specifically the 2024 Honda CR-V, and hold Respondent harmless, including but not limited to the monthly payment, insurance costs, registration expenses, maintenance costs, insurance costs and any and all liability associated with the vehicle. Petitioner shall be solely responsible for all such costs without assistance from Respondent. The parties shall work together to transfer title within 60 days of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

28. Respondent is, hereby, awarded the 2015 Ford F-150 free from any claim from Petitioner.

29. All separate and inherited property shall remain the separate property of that party.

30. During their marriage, the parties acquired certain real and personal property and incurred certain debts and obligations which shall be divided and allocated between the parties as described below.

REAL PROPERTY

31. The parties did not acquire any real property during the marriage.

ASSETS

32. Separate bank accounts in the name of either party individually must be disclosed, and any money deposited into such accounts, acquired during the marriage, is marital property and shall be equitably divided, including but not limited to, the interest or growth that may have occurred from that money.

33. Each party is hereby awarded the accounts in their own respective names.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

34. Each party shall be responsible for any and all debts incurred solely in their name either prior to, during, or after the marriage and hold the other free and harmless therefrom. Respondent shall pay the consolidation loan. Petitioner's portion of the TSP was deducted to compensate for the debts and obligations.

INVESTMENT AND RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

35. The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of the pensions and shall divide the amount with each receiving $\frac{1}{2}$ of the marital portion as defined by the Woodward formula (Woodward Formula: Total Months Married During Employment/Service as numerator and Total Months of Employment/Service as denominator. This fraction is the marital portion in which each party is entitled to one-half.) The division date shall be the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any.

36. The TSP shall be awarded to Respondent. The Respondent shall be responsible for paying the TSP Loan.

TAXES

37. The parties shall file separate 2026 income tax returns.
38. Each party shall amend their 2025 taxes. Petitioner shall claim the youngest child and Respondent shall claim the oldest child. Petitioner shall amend her taxes in 30 days and shall inform Respondent when the amendment is complete.
39. Thereafter, the parties shall each claim one minor child every year for purposes of child tax credits with Respondent claiming A.C.F. each and every year and Petitioner claiming M.C.F. each and every year. When A.C.F. is no longer eligible, the parties shall alternate claiming M.C.F. with Petitioner claiming M.C.F. in even numbered years and Respondent claiming M.C. F. in odd numbered years.

MISCELLANEOUS

40. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service, or for any other purpose.
41. Each party shall be retained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party.

42. The parties are hereby restrained from contacting the other party in excess; communication shall be via text message or email, except in case of emergencies, and shall be cordial.

43. Petitioner shall be responsible to return her Dependent Common Access card immediately upon entry of this Decree of Divorce.

44. Petitioner shall be restored to the use of her maiden name, Wilkinson, if she so desires. The children's last names shall be changed to Wilkinson at the Petitioner's cost (to Aura Chantele Wilkinson and Maverick Joseph Wilkinson).

45. In the event a future dispute rises regarding the parties' Decree of Divorce, the parties shall participate in mediation prior to seeking relief from the Court, equally dividing the mediation costs.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
