Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

MEGAN REGINA CHESNUT,

Petitioner,

and

RYAN JOSEPH CHESNUT,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case Number: 264903833

Judge: Robert Faust

Commissioner: Russell Minas

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce and Respondent's Answer to Verified Petition for Decree of Divorce. The parties, having reached a written Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, the same having been received and approved by the Court. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause otherwise appearing:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED

The parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce, said Decree to become final upon its being signed by the court and entered in the Office of the Third Judicial District Court Clerk

1. Residence. The parties are residents of Salt Lake County Utah and have been for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.
2. Marriage Information. The parties to this action are husband and wife having been married on November 6, 2010, in Atlanta, State of Georgia. The parties separated on May 3, 2026.
3. Grounds for Divorce. During the course of this marriage, the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented them from pursuing a viable marriage relationship. They have grown apart respecting their goals and interests, and they have both moved on emotionally. A Decree of Divorce shall be entered, dissolving the bonds of matrimony, the Decree to become effective immediately upon entering.
4. General Jurisdiction. This Court has general jurisdiction over this matter, pursuant to Utah Code §78A-5-102(1).
5. Personal Jurisdiction. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties, pursuant to Utah Code §78B-3-205 and Utah Code §78B-15-604.
6. Venue. Venue is proper in this Court, pursuant to Utah Code §78B-15-605.
7. Minor Children. There have been two children born as issue of this marriage, to wit: D.F.C. born November 2012 and A.J.C. born May 2015.
8. The children are resident(s) of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and presently reside at 2872 W. Rolling Creek Way, South Jordan, UT 84095. In compliance with U.C.A. § 81-11-209, Petitioner verifies that the children have resided with their parents during the last five years.
9. Home State Jurisdiction. Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children, pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-11-101(6), and Utah has jurisdiction over this matter, pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-11-201(1), in that the children have lived in Utah with a parent for at least six consecutive months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

PARENTING PLAN AND SUPPORT

10. Custody and Parent-time. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the minor child. The specifics of joint physical custody and parent-time shall be as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties shall exercise parent-time on a week-on/week-off basis with exchanges happening Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m.

11. The Court shall implement the parties' parenting plan included herein pursuant to Utah Code Section 81-9-203, which they file with good faith genuine belief that it advances the best interests of the parties' minor children.

12. For holidays, the parties shall follow U.C.A. §81-9-303 with the exception that neither party is awarded two weeks of interrupted parent-time during the summer. Megan shall be designated as the "custodial parent" and Ryan designated the "non-custodial parent" for purposes of holiday designation. Notwithstanding the statutory holiday schedule, when a holiday falls on a Monday or creates a three-day weekend, the parent exercising the immediately preceding weekend shall continue exercising parent-time through Tuesday morning, at which time the children shall be returned or exchanged in accordance with the parties' regular schedule.

13. Each parent shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted summer parent-time during the summer months, when school is not in session. The parents will notify each other in writing by May 1st of each year of the dates he/she will be exercising his/her summer parent-time. If the summer parent-time selected by the parties' conflicts, Ryan will have first option of his summer parent-time in calendar years ending in an even number and Megan will have first option of her summer parent-time in calendar years ending in an odd number. If the party with the first option does not provide written notice by May 1st, the other parent shall be entitled to first option. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday parent-time.

14. Transportation. Transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent-time exchanges shall be as follows: The parties shall share all parent-time exchanges with the receiving party providing the transportation.

15. Parenting and Educational Plan. The parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202 as the binding Parenting Plan. In addition:

A. Both parties will have access to the minor child's school, church, medical and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the minor child are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;

B. The minor children are currently exclusively homeschooled by Megan. Ryan shall ensure that the children do their lessons and keep up with all schoolwork during his parent-time and shall otherwise supplement the children's math education using textbooks during his parent-time.

C. D.F.C. is currently enrolled in the Bridgeway homeschool program and A.J.C. is currently enrolled in Acellus classes, the minor children shall continue in these programs for the 2026/2027 school year and the parties shall revisit the children's school arrangements before the start of the next academic year. Neither parent shall unilaterally change a child from homeschool to in-person schooling, or from in-person schooling to homeschool, without the written agreement of the other parent or further order of the Court. Before the beginning of each subsequent academic year, the parties shall confer regarding the children's educational needs and appropriate school placement.

D. During Megan's parent-time, the children shall regularly attend karate and Mathnasium in which they are currently enrolled; Ryan shall attempt to bring the children to South Jordan at least once a week during his parent-time to attend those same activities. Ryan will make reasonable efforts to support the children's continued participation in karate and Mathnasium during his parent-time when practical. Failure to transport the children to South Jordan on any given occasion shall not be considered a violation of the Decree of Divorce.

E. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the minor child's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent;

F. The parties shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the minor child;

G. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers, tutors and others who work with the minor child at programs, school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

H. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor child;

I. When a parent leaves the minor child in the care of a third-party caregiver, the name and contact information of the other parent will be provided to the caregiver. Additionally, the other parent shall be provided the name and contact information of the caregiver;

J. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change;

K. The parent who has the minor child in his/her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the minor child without having to consult with the other parent;

L. The parties agree to work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the minor child consistency and stability;

M. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the minor child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;

N. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication/virtual parent-time with the minor child. The parent with the minor child in his/her care will not interfere with the virtual parent-time;

O. The parties agree that they will not put the minor child in the middle of their disputes;

P. The parties will not discuss with the minor child or in the minor child's presence adult issues, including the parties' legal proceedings or financial related issues of the parties;

Q. The minor child will not be used as messengers between the parents;

R. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the minor child;

S. Each party will have adequate clothing for the minor child at his/her residence;

T. Neither parent shall question the minor child about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money;

U. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child;

V. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the minor child's love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the minor child;

W. The party with the minor child in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor child's homework is complete and transporting the minor child to and from school on time;

X. Communication regarding the minor child shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties;

Y. The parents shall have access to the minor child during school hours and the authority to check the minor child out of school during his/her custodial time for emergency purposes or necessary appointments;

Z. Both parties shall be restrained from using drugs, abusing prescription drugs, and abusing alcohol in the presence of the child or before they begin exercising parent-time.

AA. Both parties shall instruct any third parties who are smoking, using drugs, or abusing alcohol to refrain from doing so in the presence of the child. If they refuse to do so the party shall remove the child from that location,

BB. The parties will make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the minor child including but not limited to the minor child's education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues. After discussing the issue and researching solutions, if the parties cannot reach an agreement on a major issue regarding the minor child, they shall consult with a professional in the field of the dispute. If they are still unable to agree, they shall participate in mediation in a good-faith effort to resolve the disagreement. Neither party shall have final decision-making authority. If the parties remain unable to reach an agreement following mediation, either party may bring the unresolved issue before the Court for determination.

CC. The parties agree that they will both use their best, good-faith efforts to find a residence within 30 miles of the marital home.

DD. Each parent shall use reasonable efforts to support the children's age-appropriate friendships and social relationships. Neither parent shall unreasonably interfere with the children's ability to maintain established friendships, attend reasonable social activities, or communicate with friends during that parent's custodial time, provided the activity does not materially interfere with the parent-time schedule or the children's educational obligations.

16. Relocation: The parties shall adhere to the provisions of the relocation statute as set forth in U.C.A. §81-9-209.

17. Travel with Minor Child: For emergency purposes, whenever the child travel with either parent out of the state, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent: (a) An itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

18. The parties shall cooperate to obtain passports for the minor child. The parties shall cooperate to obtain the passport paperwork and to execute the paperwork. This shall also happen any time the passports need to be renewed or replaced for any reason. The parties shall cooperate in providing the passports to the other parent as needed for travel with the minor child at least eight weeks before international travel. The parties shall follow the CDC and State Department recommendations regarding travel with the child. The parent traveling internationally with the minor child shall provide the following information to the other parent at least four weeks in advance of the travel or immediately upon obtaining the information in the event of an emergency: (a) an itinerary for travel with dates; (b) flight numbers; (c) hotels or Airbnb arrangements; and (d) contact information in the country where they will travel.

19. Tattooing, Body Piercing, and Permanent Cosmetics: Neither parent will or allow others to permanently change the appearance of the child's bodies, including but not limited to: body piercing, tattooing, permanent cosmetics, and other cosmetic procedures, without the written consent from the other parent.

Child Support

20. For the purpose of child support calculations, Ryan receives $14,166.67 in gross monthly income. Megan is imputed to a gross monthly income is $5,000.

21. Using a joint custody worksheet, with the parties having equal overnights, with Megan having 183 nights and Ryan 182 nights, and the incomes described above, Ryan shall pay $608 per month for the support of the parties' minor child.

22. The support of the minor child shall continue until said child become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during the children's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

23. When the parties' eldest child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining child due child support. The parties' income verification shall be exchanged and the parties shall recalculate the child support amount at that time.

24. All non-garnished monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the final Decree shall be due on the first day of each month. Ryan shall pay the monthly child support amount directly to Megan in a manner designated by Megan.

Alimony

25. In addition to the child support, Ryan shall pay Megan $5,392 per month in alimony, which shall terminate upon the first of the following occurrences: 1.) Megan remarries or cohabitates with another person; 2.) thirty-six months of payments have occurred, to begin the first month following the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

26. At such time alimony terminates, the parties' income verification shall be exchanged and the parties shall recalculate the child support.

27. Support payment shall be paid $\frac{1}{2}$ by the 1st of each month and the other $\frac{1}{2}$ by the 14th of each month.

28. Insurance and Other Expenses: In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208, insurance for the medical and dental expenses of the minor child shall be provided by the party who can obtain the best coverage, if it is available at a reasonable cost through their employer or reasonable private insurance. The parties shall agree on insurance for the children and the maximum out of pocket costs for insurance premiums prior to obtaining insurance for the children. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical and dental insurance premium actually paid for the child's portion of the medical, vision and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. Presently, the parties' minor children are insured through Ryan's employer, and Ryan shall continue to provide that coverage for so long as it remains available to him on reasonable terms.

29. Verification or proof of insurance must be provided to the other party by September 15 every year.

30. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208(9)(b) the child's portion of the premium is a per capita share calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplied by the number of children.

31. The party providing health insurance shall be required to provide verification of the health insurance policy and premiums to the other party on behalf of the minor child and any new health insurance cards received shall be provided by the parties.

32. Both parents shall share equally in all uninsured routine medical and dental expenses [including but not limited to one-half of expenses for prescriptions, surgery, orthodontic care psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, physical therapy, ophthalmology and optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma] as well as other reasonable and necessary uninsured prescriptions, medical and dental expenses of the minor child, in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

33. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment.

34. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving notice to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

35. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide the above notice.

36. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7, the parties can make payments directly to the child's medical providers.

37. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7, 81-3-105, and 81-4-501 when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-501, 81-4-204, or an administrative order under Utah Code Ann. §62A-22-326, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

38. Cell Phones for Children: Megan purchased iPhones for the minor children which are currently tied to a plan belonging to Megan's parents. Upon entry of the Decree of Divorce, the children's phone plans shall remain linked to Ryan's account so long as Megan has full access to the location tracking and all other features of the phones and phone plan.

39. Extra-Curricular Activities/School Fees: The parties shall be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket costs incurred for any extracurricular activities in which the child is currently involved. Regarding new extracurricular activities, the extracurricular activities of the minor child shall be as the parents can agree. If an activity can be done without affecting the other parent's parent-time, and the parent does not expect the other parent to pay for the activity, then no permission is necessary for the child to participate. Before enrolling or discussing an activity with the child that affects the other parent's parent-time, or for which a parent is requesting that the other parent provide financial support, the parent proposing the activity shall discuss the activity with the other parent. If both parties agree on the activity, then both parties shall share the costs of the activity equally, unless otherwise agreed upon. The parent proposing an activity may enroll the child without first receiving approval by the other parent, however, the unapproving parent shall not be required to pay for the activity and shall not be required to make the child attend the activity during their parent time.

40. Taxes: The parties shall share claiming the children for taxes. Ryan shall claim DFC each year and Megan shall claim AJC each year until DFC ages out, after which they alternate claiming the youngest child each year. With Megan taking the exemption in even years and Ryan taking the exemption in odd years.

41. In order for the payor of child support to claim any child for the purposes of tax exemptions or credits in any tax year, they must be current on the child support obligation by the end of the tax year, which is December 31st. The parties shall cooperate in executing Form 8332 or any other necessary tax forms to enable the payor party to so claim the exemption and tax credit.

PROVISIONS NOT PART OF THE PARENTING PLAN

42. Real Property: During the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in real property commonly known as 2872 W Rolling Creek Way South Jordan, UT 84095, and more particularly described as follows: LOT 637, MIDAS CREEK PH 6B.

43. It is reasonable, necessary and proper that Megan shall be awarded the temporary and permanent, exclusive use and possession of said real property and all right, title and interest in said real property, including any reserve account, subject to the mortgage obligation owing on the property and the taxes and insurance.

44. Equity and Sale of the Marital Home. The parties agree that Ryan shall receive $396,827.00 in equity from the Marital Home. The parties anticipate that Megan's father, James DeSantis, will be the purchaser of the Marital Home for investment purposes, and will begin the loan process immediately after the effective date of this agreement. Megan shall pay Ryan $396,827 for Ryan's equity as soon as possible, but no later than ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Agreement. Ryan shall execute any deed or other documents reasonably necessary to complete the transaction, provided that any document transferring Ryan's ownership interest shall be held in escrow and shall not be delivered or recorded until Ryan receives the full amount of his equity payment at closing. If the purchase and payment of Ryan's equity are not completed within ninety (90) days, Ryan shall have no further obligation to proceed with the contemplated purchase by James DeSantis, and the Marital Home shall immediately be listed for sale with a mutually agreed-upon licensed real estate agent, with the net proceeds divided between the parties in accordance with this Agreement. Ryan shall retain his ownership and equity interest in the Marital Home until he receives payment in full.

45. Ryan is currently looking to purchase a new construction home in Provo, Utah. The home is projected to be completed by middle to late October 2026. Should the sale of the Rolling Creek home close earlier than middle to late October 2026, Ryan will continue to live at the Rolling Creek residence and shall contribute one-half of the cost of the mortgage and utilities while he continues to live in the residence. Ryan shall move out of the marital home by November 1st, 2026. Any residence purchased by Ryan will be his sole and separate property. Ryan will be solely responsible for all earnest money, deposits, fees, taxes, mortgages, utilities, etc...Both parties will ensure the children have beds and reasonable accommodations during their parent-time.

46. Intellectual Property. Megan shall be awarded all intellectual property rights for any writings that she has produced prior to and during the course of marriage. Any work that Megan has produced under her own name, the name P.L. Riven, or any other alias, shall also be awarded solely and exclusively to Megan. Megan shall be awarded her intellectual property rights free and clear of any present or future claim by Ryan.

47. The parties further acknowledge that the song titled "Moments You're Stealing" was jointly written by Megan and Ryan and shall be jointly attributed to both of them.

48. Financial Accounts, Investment Accounts, Stocks, Crypto Accounts: During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in financial accounts, investment accounts, stocks, restricted stock options, crypto accounts and health savings accounts.

49. The parties shall equally divide all marital financial accounts not accrued prior to marriage or inherited, as of the effective date of this agreement, specifically:

- A. Chase Account No. xxx1987;
- B. Chase Account No. xxx1994;

- C. Chase Account No. xxx5211;
- D. Chase Account No. xxx3522;
- E. Chase Account No. xxx3519;
- F. Chase Account No. xxx3520;
- G. Chase Account No. xxx9661;
- H. Chase Account No. xxx5903;
- I. Ally Account No. xxx2830;
- J. Ally Account No. xxx7164; and

50. The funds in the above-referenced accounts total approximately \$194,000 with each party's share being approximately \$97,000, dividing those amounts once the agreement is signed, with Ryan paying back Megan 3k for $\frac{1}{2}$ of the 6k that he withdrew from a joint marital account.

51. Crypto Currency Account. Ryan has disclosed that he has approximately $1,500 in cryptocurrency accounts. He shall be awarded these disclosed cryptocurrency funds.

52. Equity Holdings. Ryan has equity in Prodigy Analytics, owned by Alden Lathrop. The equity in this company shall be awarded to Ryan, subject to Megan's claims below. Ryan's twenty-percent equity interest in Prodigy Analytics shall be valued by a mutually agreed business valuation professional if requested by Megan within 6 months. If Megan requests it in writing a valuation will be done with both parties sharing the cost. After determining the fair market value of Ryan's twenty-percent interest, Megan shall receive one-half of the marital value of that interest within 60 days, whether by cash equalization payment, transfer of other property of equivalent value, or such other method as the parties agree in writing. Upon satisfaction of that equalization obligation, Ryan shall retain his interest in Prodigy Analytics free and clear of any further claim by Megan.

53. Retirement Accounts: Ryan has acquired an interest in retirement funds. The retirement assets accrued during the marriage and to the date of the Decree shall be divided equally between the parties, one-half to each. The Retirement accounts shall be divided as of the date of the Decree of Divorce. If either party has removed funds from or taken a loan on any of the retirement accounts, his or her share of the retirement accounts shall be reduced by any withdrawals or loans that he or she has taken on those accounts. A Qualified Domestic Relations Order or Domestic Relations Order shall issue as needed with the costs for such order divided between the parties.

54. Business Interests. During the marriage, the parties started various companies, including VGA, GameSpeak, and Taper, and other entities that Ryan has started or rebranded. The parties further acknowledge that VGA and GameSpeak refer to the same underlying business venture and shall not be treated as separate assets for purposes of this Agreement. Ryan shall retain all right, title, and interest in the businesses he created or conceived during the marriage, except that Megan relinquishes any interest in Taper, and Ryan shall provide Megan the source code for Taper for her to use as she sees fit. If, within three (3) years after the effective date of this Agreement, VGA or GameSpeak is acquired, sold, or otherwise becomes profitable, Megan shall be awarded fifteen percent (15%) of Ryan's equity interest in the applicable company, or fifteen percent (15%) of the proceeds received by Ryan attributable to that equity interest in the event of an acquisition or sale, in recognition of her contribution to those businesses. If none of those events occurs within the three-year period, Megan shall have no further right, title, interest, or claim to VGA or GameSpeak. The party retaining a business shall be responsible for all debts and liabilities associated with that business, and the parties shall cooperate to update the corporate records accordingly.

55. Premarital or Inherited Funds. Any premarital or inherited funds held by the parties shall remain the sole and separate property of the individual who received the inheritance or holds the premarital funds. Megan shall be entitled to keep all inherited funds, including inherited funds used to pay for her vehicle and other real and personal property. The parties acknowledge and agree that the amount established for Ryan's equity interest in the Marital Home fully accounts for and resolves any claim by either party concerning premarital, inherited, or other separate-property funds contributed to, invested in, or used for the acquisition, improvement, maintenance, or payment of obligations associated with the Marital Home. Neither party shall be entitled to any additional credit, reimbursement, offset, tracing claim, or other payment arising from any alleged contribution of inheritance, premarital funds, or other non-marital funds to the Marital Home or any other property addressed by this Agreement. The parties agree that they will discuss with Megan's mother, Cheri DeSantis, a possible solution to the issue of whether funds contributed by her to the parties previous marital residence will be repaid in any way.

56. Debts: Any student loan incurred by either party is the sole responsibility of the party who received the benefit of the education that the student loan provided. The other party shall be released and held harmless on that student loan debt. The parties specifically acknowledge that Ryan's student loan obligation is his sole and separate responsibility.

57. Each party shall pay and assume their own debts in their individual names. Each party shall pay and assume all debts and obligations incurred in his or her own name subsequent to the date of this Agreement.

58. The payment of the debts set forth above shall be non-dischargeable in bankruptcy. The party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall do the following: a) Send a copy of the Decree to each joint creditor that he/she is not required to pay that joint debt; b) notify that joint creditor of the current separate address for each party; c) Inform the joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices, and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract. Also, inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint debt, unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who was not required to pay the debt; and d) with respect to a creditor for medical expenses provided to a minor child, notify the creditor that a claim for unpaid medical expenses may not be made against the parent who has paid in full his or her share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent.

59. Life Insurance. Ryan shall maintain Megan as the sole beneficiary on his life insurance policy so long as he is able to maintain his current or a similar policy. If he is unable to do so, Megan shall be entitled to take over payments for the premiums. He shall maintain a policy or allow her to do so, until such time as Ryan's support obligations to Megan terminate.

60. Personal Property. Prior to and during the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired various personal property, such as furniture, electronics, household goods, recreational equipment, artwork, jewelry, and other items. The parties shall be awarded all separate premarital and inherited/gifted personal property. Personal property shall otherwise remain the sole property of its primary user or owner except as set forth below.

61. The parties shall be awarded their own individual personal effects (i.e. jewelry, computers, clothing, purses, watches, electronics, mementos, accessories, etc...).

62. Furniture and Household Items. Pursuant to the parties' agreement, Ryan shall be awarded the following items for use in his new residence:

- A. from the basement living room, the leather sofa, coffee table, side table, console table, television, one video game system, and area rug;
- B. from the basement bedroom, the bed and nightstand;
- C. the Ikea closet insert from the basement auxiliary closet, which Ryan shall repair, paint, and fit with a new closet hanger;
- D. the glass doored RH bookcase from the basement;
- E. the Peloton treadmill from the basement workout room;
- F. all contents of the music room except the guitar known as "Juanita," which
- G. Ryan made and gifted to Megan and which Megan shall retain;
- H. all garage tools except a basic hammer, screwdriver, and picture hanging set, which shall be awarded to Megan;
- I. two area rugs;

- J. the robot lawn mower;
- K. the garage refrigerator;
- L. the dishwasher; and
- M. the U-Line beverage cooler, which remains unassembled.

63. The parties' food storage shall be divided evenly between them.

64. The Carlos Ramirez painting shall be sold and the profits divided between the parties.

65. All personal property not specifically awarded to Megan or Ryan individually will be divided equitably as determined by the parties.

66. During the marriage, the parties acquired a 2017 Mercedes-Benz C-Class C300 and a 2019 Mercedes-Benz GLS 450, both of which are paid in full. Megan is to be awarded the Mercedes-Benz GLS 450 she is currently driving. Ryan is to be awarded the 2017 Mercedes-Benz C-Class C300 he is currently driving.

67. The parties shall each pay their own attorney fees and costs.

68. Megan's maiden name is Megan Regina DeSantis. It is reasonable, necessary and proper that Megan's maiden name be restored if she so chooses and that the Decree of Divorce act as her name change court order.

69. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver any necessary documents to transfer the title and ownership of the property of the parties pursuant to the Decree entered in this matter.

70. Any and all property and money received or retained by either party pursuant to the divorce shall be deemed the separate property of such party free and clear of any right, interest or claim of the other party, including the right to inherit or to be named as a beneficiary except as specifically awarded therein, and each party shall have the right hereafter to use and enjoy, independently of any claim or right of the other party, all items of real or personal property awarded to them.

71. It is reasonable that, if either party fails in the performance of any of his or her obligations under the Decree, the aggrieved party shall have the right to sue for damages for the breach thereof, or to seek such other legal remedies that may be available to him or her, including attorney's fees being awarded for the breach.
