IN THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:

MANDI GOODMAN

Plaintiff,

and

RAINY GOODMAN

Defendant

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264903970 DA

Judge: Amanda Montague

Commissioner: Michelle Blomquist

THE COURT, having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and good cause appearing, now enters the following:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

DECLARATION OF DIVORCE

1. Based on the parties' irreconcilable differences, the marriage between the parties is hereby dissolved and the parties are hereby declared divorced.

SEPARATION

2. The parties separated on or about June 21st, 2026.

NO MINOR CHILDREN

3. There are no minor children born as issue to this marriage.

ASSET/DEBT DIVISION

Personal Property

4. Each party is awarded any property he or she acquired prior to the marriage as his or her own separate property. Each party is awarded any inheritances or gifts as his or her own separate property. All personal property acquired during the marriage is equitably divided between the parties. If the parties cannot agree upon an equitable division of personal property, they shall attend mediation to resolve the matter.

Debts

5. Each party shall be solely responsible for any debts incurred in his or her own name and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from such debts.

6. The Petitioner does not know of any joint debts.

7. Should joint debts be discovered which were known to one party but not the other, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

8. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

9. Pursuant to Utah Code Section 15-4-6.5, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

Retirement Accounts

10. Each party is awarded their own retirement accounts in his or her own name, free and clear of any claim of the other party.

Individual Financial Accounts

11. Each party is awarded the financial accounts in his or her own name, along with any outstanding balances therein, free and clear of any claim of the other party.

Joint Financial Account

12. The parties have one joint financial account with a negligible amount of money in it. This account shall be closed out.

Vehicles

13. Each party is awarded any vehicles in his or her own name, free and clear of any claim of the other party. Each party shall be solely responsible for any obligations and expenses associated with their own vehicles, and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom.

Alimony

14. Neither party is awarded any alimony, past, present, or future.

No Real Estate

15. The parties did not acquire any real estate during the marriage.

MISCELLANEOUS

16. Each party shall be solely responsible for his or her legal fees and court costs incurred in connection with this matter.

17. Both parties shall sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this divorce decree. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

18. The Court shall grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate in this matter.
