42. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines. The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Julia Anne Willes's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Spencer Arthur Willes's insurance will be secondary coverage.

- Spencer Arthur Willes's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.
