Judge ROBERT FAUST

The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Korinne is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Todd, such to become final upon signature and entry herein.

A.M.S., born March of 2014.

Provisions Relating to Child Custody and Parent-Time

4. Korinne is awarded the sole legal custody and sole physical custody of the parties' minor child, subject to Todd's right to parent-time at reasonable times and places pursuant to the following restrictive schedule:

5. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-207, because the minor child would be subject to physical harm, emotional harm or abuse from the noncustodial parent if left unsupervised; it is necessary to protect the minor child; and there are no less restrictive means reasonably available, Todd is awarded supervised parent-time rights with the minor child of the parties as follows:

a. Supervised Parent-time: Pursuant to the Protective Order in Civil No. 254906676 entered on February 19, 2026, and upon the recommendation of the Guardian ad Litem in the protective order case, Todd shall have 8 hours of supervised parent-time per week. ii. Todd shall complete a domestic violence assessment within one year with a licensed professional evaluator and complete any recommended treatment prior to exercising any overnight parent-time.

j. Provided Todd exercises parent-time consistently for a period of one year, has no reported violations of the protective order (Civil No. 254906676) and completes a domestic violence assessment with a licensed professional evaluator and completes recommended treatment, Todd shall be awarded rights of parent-time with the minor child of the parties as follows:

i. If Todd has not completed a domestic violence assessment and provided proof via Facebook Messenger within one year he shall have no overnights with the minor child on his alternating weekends in the minimum statutory schedule below. Until Todd has completed a domestic violence assessment and provided proof of completion to Korrine via Facebook Messenger he shall exercise his alternating weekends parent-time on Saturdays beginning at 9 am and ending at 8:30 pm and on Sundays beginning at 9 am and ending at 8:30 pm.

iii. the custodial parent is entitled to uninterrupted parent-time with the child for two weeks when school is not in session for summer break.

iv. extended parent-time above shall be consecutive, except that the four weeks of extended parent-time for the noncustodial parent may be divided into two separate 14-day periods that are not consecutive.

v. each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended parent-time for summer break as follows:

1. the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1; and

2. the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15.

vi. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described above, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.

vii. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described above, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for that parent and the other parent.

viii. If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent-time, the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of the intent to interrupt parent-time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended parent-time.

ix. An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of the divorce decree or court order, except that the election may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's schedule. An election by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the decree and made a part of the parent-time order.

x. Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

- A. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
- B. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

xiv. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school.

xv. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

xvi. Virtual parent-time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

A. If the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

- 1. the best interests of the child;
- 2. each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and
- 3. any other factors the court considers material.

Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace, in-person parent-time.

xvii. If there is a child five to 18 years old and a child under five years old and both children are the natural or adopted children of the parties, the parents and the court should consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the children so that parent-time is uniform based on a schedule under this section.

e. Modify schedule: Once a parent-time schedule has been established for a minor child, the parties may only modify the parent-time schedule if:

(1) there is mutual consent of the parties to the modification that is in writing and signed by both parties; or

b. Both parents are restrained from harming or threatening harm to the other party and shall prevent third parties from doing the same.

The drug test must be a five-panel test and must be completed within 24 hours of the request. An alcohol test must be completed within two hours of the request. A blood alcohol test will be deemed “dirty” or positive if the results are in excess of .05 blood/alcohol.

d. In the event of a “dirty” or positive result, Todd’s parent-time shall be exercised virtually and/or via telephone at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration until such time as Todd can provide Korrine with “clean” or negative test results at his own expense from a licensed laboratory.

e. In the event of a “clean” or negative drug test result Korrine shall reimburse Todd for the testing within 30 days and Todd shall resume exercising his usual parent-time schedule.

Provisions Relating to Child Support Payments

9. Korinne is employed, earns $25 per hour, works 40 hours per week and therefore grosses $4,333 per month.

10. Todd is unemployed or underemployed but is capable of working a full-time 40 hour week at a job which pays $25 per hour based upon Todd’s work experience as painter gained during the marriage and income is attributed to Todd in the amount of $4,333 per month.

11. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-202 Todd is ordered to pay child support to Korinne commencing September 1, 2026, the first month following the filing of the Petition for Divorce on August 4, 2026, as follows:

a. The sum of $477 per month as base support for the minor child of the parties pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines until said children become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

b. The base child support award shall be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which a child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Temporary Aid to Needy Families, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The obligee (custodial parent) shall be entitled to immediate and automatic income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 26B-9 Parts 4 and 5. This income withholding procedure applies to existing and future payors, and all withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services. Until such time that income withholding is commenced by the Office of Recovery Services, Todd should make child support payments directly to Korinne.

d. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-7-102 all monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the order or decree shall be due on the first day of each month, unless otherwise specified.

e. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-0011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

f. Any Office of Recovery Service fee shall be paid by Todd. If Korinne is the ORS applicant and the fee is withheld by ORS from payments to Korinne, Todd shall reimburse Korinne for the fee.

g. The issue of child support arrearages, including child support owing or accruing prior to the entry of a court's order, may be determined by further judicial or administrative determination.

h. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-104 and 204 each parent's child support obligation shall be established in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes. The child support obligation of the father shall be $477. The child support obligation of the mother shall be $477. Except during periods of court-ordered parent-time, if physical custody of the children changes from that assumed in the original order, the parent without physical custody shall be required to pay the amount of support set forth in this paragraph without the need to modify this order to the parent who has physical custody, to a relative to whom physical custody of the children have been voluntarily given, or to the state if the children are in state custody.

i. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support, unless otherwise provided in the order. The income used for the purpose of adjusting the support shall be the income of the parties at the time of the entry of the original order.

j. Under Utah Code § 81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if: (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code Ann. § 26B-9-211 if the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

k. Under Utah Code § 81-6-202(8) and 81-6-212(3)-(4) the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (1) material changes in custody; (2) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (3) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (4) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (5) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (6) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. The change in (1) through (6) must result in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference must not be of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

Provisions Relating to Health Insurance

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-7-102, (1953, as amended) the parent(s) shall provide health care coverage, as defined by Utah Code § 81-6-101, for the medical expenses of the dependent child.

a. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of the parties in this case.

b. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles.

c. The parent ordered to maintain insurance will provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent will notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or should have known of the change.

d. A parent who incurs medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subparagraphs "c" and "d" above.

f. The parent to whom written verification is provided will reimburse the parent who incurred the medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

g. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Korinne shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Todd shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

Provisions Relating to Child Care Expenses

Provisions Relating to Life Insurance

14. Todd shall obtain a life insurance policy on Todd's life, so long as such is available at a reasonable cost or through Todd's employer, in a face amount of sufficient size to provide for a monthly income equal to the child support payments herein. Todd shall maintain in full force and effect said life insurance policy until the child support obligation herein terminates. During such period, Respondent shall irrevocably designate the parties' minor child as a beneficiary on said life insurance policy, and designate Korinne as the trustee for said minor child.

Provisions Relating to Debts and Obligations

15. The parties are not aware of any other debts from the marriage besides the vehicle loan debt listed in the personal property provision below. Should any other debts exist, each debt shall be the responsibility of the party incurring the debt.

b. Each party is responsible for the debts and liabilities related to their separate vehicles and shall hold the other party harmless from any liability associated therewith.
