ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

1. This Court's exercise of jurisdiction is proper under, among other authorities, U.C.A. §78A-5-102 (general jurisdiction of district courts), U.C.A. § 81-4-405 (general authority of district courts respecting divorce actions), U.C.A. § 81-8-101 et seq. (the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act ("UIFSA")), and U.C.A. § 81-11-101 et seq. (the Uniform Children Custody Jurisdiction & Enforcement Act ("UCCJEA")).
2. Tyler and Chelsey are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for at least three (3) months prior to the filing of this action.
3. Tyler and Chelsey are husband and wife, having been married May 29, 2021.

4. The parties have two minor children born of this marriage, to wit:
 - a. E.H., born September 9, 2022 and
 - b. P.H., born December 3, 2025.
 - c. No other children are expected.
5. The minor children have resided in Salt Lake County for at least six (6) months prior to this action, and Utah is the home state of the children.
6. Pursuant to Rule 100(a) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, other than this action, there are no actions that deal with child custody and parent time issues and the parties are unaware of any proceedings for custody, child support, parent-time, a protective order or a criminal or delinquency case pending in regard to the minor children filed or pending in a court of Utah or any other state.
7. Neither party knows of a person who is not a party to this proceeding who has physical custody of the minor children or who claims to have custody or parent-time rights with respect to the minor children.
8. Neither party is currently receiving state benefits.
9. The parties believe all of the following to be fair, just, and in the best interest of the Minor Children.

PARENTING PLAN

10. Legal Custody: It is in the best interests of the parties' minor children that the parties be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children.
11. If the parties are unable to agree on any major decisions regarding the minor children's health, education, religion, or general welfare, then the parties shall attend one session of good faith mediation prior to either party initiating legal action. In issues concerning the children's health, the parties shall defer to the advice of the children's pediatrician.

12. Each parent shall make the day-to-day decisions concerning the minor children while he/she is in the care of such parent. All other decisions concerning the minor children shall be discussed and agreed upon by both parents.

13. The parties agree that they shall cooperate and work together for the best interests of the children in making joint decisions regarding the children. The parties agree to inform each other when issues arise regarding the children and will do so within a reasonable period of time, prior to making significant legal-custody decisions. Both parties shall be afforded the opportunity to gather and exchange information that would be helpful in making a decision and present that information to the other party. The parties agree to then work together to make a decision within a reasonably short period of time, relative to the timeline presented by the urgency of the issue.

14. Each party agrees that they have the right to treat the children for emergency medical needs. Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the children. The parties agree that each party shall be listed as a parent for the purposes of school contact or medical care provider contact. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other parent to participate in the children's lives. Both parents agree to provide notice to the other parent of issues relating to any illness, accident or other circumstance that affects the children's health and welfare, as soon as reasonably possible. Both parties shall have open access to contact the necessary persons or entities so that the party will be notified of significant activities of the children, whether related to education, sports, arts, extra-curricular activities, church or other activities or events in which the children participate, so that both parents may attend or participate.

15. Physical Custody. It is in the best interest of the parties' minor children that the parties be awarded joint physical custody.

a. Parent-time exchanges shall occur with a drop off, or pick up, to school/daycare, but if school/daycare is not in session then exchanges shall occur at 8:00 a.m.

b. Tyler's work schedule will require the parties to work together to make accommodations to the parent-time schedule where his scheduled parent-time falls on weekends, holidays, or other periods where the children are not in daycare/school.

c. Tyler shall provide his work schedule to Chelsey within three (3) days of receiving it receiving it from his employer. The parties shall then work together to adjust the parent-time schedule, by making equal exchanges of parent-time, within seven (7) days of to Chelsey's receipt of Tyler's work schedule.

17. The parties shall share the responsibility of parent-time exchanges, with the receiving party responsible for picking up the minor children. Unless otherwise agreed upon, parent-time exchanges when school is not in session shall occur curbside.
