 - b. After Respondent has progressed to parent time set forth in paragraph 2d., he shall have one week of parent time the 16th week of the year, to correspond with his family's timeshare, however, he will be responsible for the children's school attendance during this week. He will also have three weeks of parent- time with the minor children. Up to two weeks may be consecutive, however, two of these weeks will be interrupted by Petitioner for a Thursday weekday visit, which may be from 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.
 - c. Extended parent time cannot be added to or interfere with holiday parent time without prior, written agreement of both parties. Each party will give 30 days' advance notice of the vacation time requested. If there is a conflict in dates, Petitioner will receive her preference in odd years, Respondent in even years.

6. The Respondent shall ensure that the parties' minor children are safe, secure, and well taken care of during his parent time, including but not limited to attending to all of their needs, being personally present during his parent time (i.e. not leaving the child alone or unattended for unreasonable periods of time), and ensuring that the children have a comfortable place to sleep, separate bedrooms, appropriate bedding and clothing, appropriate hygiene, any needed medications, and vehicle safety restraints. Respondent's overnight parent time is contingent on him providing these items for the children and may be suspended if he ceases to provide them with the overnight accommodations of separate bedrooms.

7. The parties are restrained from consuming illegal drugs or non-prescribed drugs or using prescribed drugs other than as prescribed.

8. Either party may request in writing (including via email or text) drug testing of the other party if that party reasonably suspects the other party is under the influence of alcohol, illegal substances, non-prescribed drugs or misuse of prescribed drugs. That test can be requested to occur at a convenient facility no more than 15 miles from the home of the person taking the test. The party being tested will have two business days to take the requested test. The testing party shall inform the testing agency that the test is court ordered, as opposed to a voluntary personal test. The testing party shall inform the testing agency that the results are court ordered and are to be released directly to the requesting party and counsel. The requesting party shall pay for the initial cost of the test. If the test is "dirty" or "positive," the testing party shall be responsible to reimburse the requesting party for the test within 30 days. Except for good cause shown, failure to submit to a requested drug test within 48 hours will be considered a "dirty" or "positive" test result.

9. In the event of a failed drug test, the offending parent will have their parent-time suspended and the matter shall be brought back before the Court unless the parties agree to a plan in writing that will include: the offending parent will complete a substance abuse evaluation with a licensed provider and will comply with all treatment recommendations and supervised parent-time pending successful completion of treatment. A Petition to Modify may be filed as appropriate.

10. The children will attend therapy on a schedule recommended by the therapist until released by the therapist, other written agreement of the parties, or order of the Court. The out of pocket cost of therapy will be divided equally pursuant to the Decree's medical expense provisions.

11. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody as set forth in the following Parenting Plan:

TIME-SHARING SCHEDULE

a. Telephone Contact. The children shall have unrestricted telephone access to each parent and shall be allowed to talk with either party by telephone at reasonable times. The parent who is non-custodial for any given period of block time shall call the children at the other home in order to keep in regular contact at reasonable times and for reasonable durations.

SHARING INFORMATION

b. The parties agree to use their best efforts to communicate and share important information with each other on a frequent basis regarding the child's development, including, but not limited to, school, work, medical and dental treatment, therapy, after school activities, sports, social events, and regarding all other types of information which are appropriate to share with the other parent. Each parent, however, will create their own accounts to receive information directly from the schools, coaches, etc. instead of relying on the other parent.

c. The parties agree to notify each other of any significant illness the children may have when they are at either home.

d. The parties agree to immediately advise the other parent of any changes in address or other information pertinent to communication.

e. The parties agree to advise the other parent of all logistical details regarding vacation time with the child, in compliance with Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202(19) including but not limited to specific addresses and telephone numbers where the child may be reached.

f. Decision-Making Procedures. The parties agree that all major decisions concerning the children, including health, education, and religion, will be discussed. Further, the parties agree to use the following decision-making procedure:

- i. identify the issue;
- ii. brainstorm possible solutions;
- iii. choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs and interests of child involved.

g. Tie-Breaking Procedure. The parties will follow the advice of medical professionals. Petitioner will be the residential parent for school purposes. There is a rebuttal presumption that the opinions of experts will be followed. If the parties are unable to come to an agreement, Petitioner shall have the final say.

h. Emergency Medical Decisions. The parties agree that the parent who has the child at the time the child suffers an emergency medical condition has authority to make any decision regarding emergency medical care. The parties agree to notify the other parent of the emergency as soon as possible.

i. Day-to-Day Decisions. The parties understand that whichever parent has physical custody of the child at a particular time shall make minor, day-to-day decisions regarding their care.

j. Adopting Utah Code Annotated §81-9-202: To the extent they do not conflict with other provisions of the Parenting Plan or Counterpetition for Divorce, in an effort to provide general concepts of good co-parenting skills the parenting plan also adopts the advisory guidelines laid out by the Utah Legislature in Utah Code Annotated §81-9-202. The parties will attempt to provide 48 hours advanced notice of any family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule so accommodations can more easily be made.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

k. Relocation. In the event that either party intends to relocate more than 150 miles from his or her home, if possible, the relocating party shall notify the other party a minimum of 60 days before the date of the intended move.

End of Parenting Plan

12. If during either parties' parent time he or she will be away from the children for more than overnight he or she shall be required to contact the other party to care for the children before obtaining the assistance of a third party.

13. The parties will communicate through Our Family Wizard. All communication will be civil and conducted in a business-like manner. Name calling is not civil. The parties will refrain from criticizing the other parent.

14. Each party shall be responsible for the children's schoolwork and attendance at their activities during his or her parent time.

15. Parent time exchanges shall occur at a neutral location. The parties have been conducting parent time exchanges at the South Jordan Police Station and will continue to exchange the children at that location unless they otherwise agree to in writing. The parties shall remain in his or her vehicle during the exchange.

CHILD SUPPORT AND RELATED MATTERS

16. For purposes of child support, Natalie's income is $10,300 a month.

17. For child support purposes Ryann is imputed an income of $13,547.91.

18. Effective July 1, 2026, Ryann is ordered to pay ongoing child support of $1,813 a month pursuant to Utah Code Ann, 81-6-101 et seq. pursuant to the "Uniform Civil Liability for Support Act", Utah Code Ann. 81-6-101 et seq.

a. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

b. The base child support award shall be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which a child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the minor child is a recipient of Temporary Aid to Needy Families, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The obligee (custodial parent) shall be entitled to immediate and automatic income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11 Parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended). This income withholding procedure applies to existing and future payors, and all withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services. Until such time that income withholding is commenced by the Office of Recovery Services Respondent shall make child support payments directly to

d. In the event income withholding is commenced, all administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by Respondent in addition to the base child support obligation. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support, unless otherwise provided in the order. The income used for the purpose of adjusting the support shall be the income of the parties at the time of the entry of the original order.

19. Under Utah Code Ann. §81-6-212, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (1) material changes in custody; (2) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (3) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (4) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (5) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (6) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. The change in (1) through (6) must result in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference must not be of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

20. A judgment for $32,634 shall enter against Ryann, in favor of Natalie, for child support from January 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026.

21. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, Respondent is ordered to continue to provide medical insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children if it is available at a reasonable cost. Each party is ordered to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the parties' minor children, including, but not limited to premiums, deductibles and co-payments. The parent ordered to maintain insurance is ordered to provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the minor children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known the change.

a. A parent who incurs medical expenses is ordered to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

b. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

c. The parent responsible for reimbursing the other parent for medical expenses incurred, is ordered to reimburse the other parent his share of the expenses within 30 days of receipt of the verification of cost and payment of medical expenses.

d. If, at any point in time, a minor child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Medicaid shall be primary coverage for the minor children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be secondary coverage for the minor children. If a parent remarries and the minor children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the minor children.

22. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209, each party shall be responsible for one-half of reasonable work-related childcare expenses.

a. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense, but if the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making a monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the Order.

b. A parent who incurs childcare expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of the provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

c. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of the childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change; and

d. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expense if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with subsection (2b) of Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209.

23. Beginning with the 2026 tax return, the tax exemptions for the parties' minor children shall be divided and awarded so that so long as there are two minor children, in even years Petitioner will claim K.L. and Respondent will claim G.L. When there is one minor child, Petitioner will claim for odd tax years, and Respondent will claim for even tax years. Any tax credits shall be divided equally. However, Respondent will only be entitled to claim the child(ren) and/or receive the benefit of a tax credit related to the children if he is current on his child support obligations.

24. Petitioner and Respondent shall pay one-half of any and all extra-curricular activity incurred for the benefit of the minor children, as long as each expense is discussed and agreed upon in advance, in writing, by the parties. The party incurring an agreed upon extra-curricular activity expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, receipt, and/or bill and proof of payment for the expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within fifteen (15) days of his/her receipt of those invoices, receipts and/or bills and proof of payment.

25. Petitioner and Respondent shall pay one-half of any and all school fees and costs incurred for the benefit of the minor children agreed upon in writing. The party incurring a school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, receipt, and/or bill and proof of payment for the expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within fifteen (15) days of his/her receipt of those invoices, receipts and/or bills and proof of payment.

26. In the event a party fails to pay his or her child support obligations, the party failing to comply shall be liable to the other party for all expenses, including but not limited to attorney's fees, incurred in the enforcement of the Decree of Divorce.

27. Ryann shall obtain a life insurance policy and shall maintain in full force and effect said life insurance policy until the child support obligation herein terminates. During such period, Ryann shall irrevocably designate the parties' minor children as beneficiaries on said life insurance policy, and designate Natalie as the trustee for said minor children.

28. The parties shall each be awarded any bank accounts in his or her name. All joint bank accounts shall be immediately closed. All funds in the joint bank accounts shall be divided equally.

29. Petitioner and Respondent have accrued retirement benefits in various accounts.

Rori Hendrix shall prepare whatever qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) or other documents necessary in order to divide the retirement accounts equally. The parties shall be equally responsible for the loan against Petitioner's retirement account. The parties will split Respondent's retirement accounts, including his TSP, pension, etc., equally but will offset the accounts to reduce the number of QDROs needed. The Parties shall share equally the cost of the preparation of the Qualified Domestic Relations Order.
